addressing

DOMESTIC VIOLENCE

DOMESTIC VIOLENCE

Australia's Prime Minister Anthony Albanese on Monday described domestic violence as a "national crisis" after thousands rallied around the country against violence toward women.

Sunday, 28 April 2024

Prime Minister Anthony Albanese at the rally in Canberra on Sunday to call for action to end violence against women. Albanese – who was heckled by the crowd in Canberra and branded a liar by the woman who organised it – may privately concede the “leadership” he demanded of Morrison on this issue is a lot more complicated when in government.

He sensibly refused to engage further in a bizarre argument about whether he had been invited to speak at the rally, insisting he didn't want it to distract from a “national crisis” of male violence against women.

Should we recognise a problem then come with TWO solutions!

Protestors in many cities around Australia on Sunday 28 April 2024 appeared not to have either defined what the problem was that they were rallying about, nor what was the solution or solutions that they wanted governments at all levels to implement.

Please, may we resolve these issues with your input?

What constitutes Domestic Violence?*How do we recognise Domestic Violence?*What are the environments that lead to Domestic Violence?*What is the core generator for a person to engage in Violence within a Domestic environment?*Why is the parenting experience of a Domestic Violent person not considered?

Until we recognise the core cause of how our Childhood Suppression is the foundation for subsequent Domestic Violence then DV will continue unabated. Why ignore Childhood Suppression?

Should Domestic Violence be recognised then can we address the Childhood Suppression of the children now within such a family crisis?

Should we then address the Childhood Suppression of the perpetrators of Domestic Violence then are we not mitigating the continuance of Domestic Violence by the perpetrator?

Why is our Childhood Suppression being ‘overlooked’ by all sectors of society? No one has missed out on being suppressed throughout our childhood forming years:

Mitigating Domestic Violence requires the resetting of how children fit into society – Put Children First – and that requires the introduction of and education of:

How we are to bring up children:

How we are to live, feelings first with our minds to follow in support of our feelings:

How educators are to embrace living feelings first with the mind to follow:

How religious leaders and pastoral care is to recognise that women are closer to their feelings than are men and to treat women and men as equals as they are all to embrace their feelings:

How we are to provide accommodation in communities that enable Domestic Violence families to re-establish themselves separately and thrive through living within a new environment:

Children who grow up within a violent family may consider that is how they are to live their adult life. How children are to be embraced within an environment that violence is never justified:

It is observed that there is no comprehension amongst services as to the underlying causes and what are the foundations of Domestic Violence nor any understanding as to the pathway for mitigation of Domestic Violence.

Please provide the names, contact details, phone, email, of local, state and federal governmental agencies and politicians that we may introduce this overview (yet to be completed) to.

The Pascas Papers to be found at www.pascashealth.com in the Library Download page address all of the above from multiple aspects and exceed 60,000 pages of guidance.

Please, may we have your input and comments as you feel appropriate:

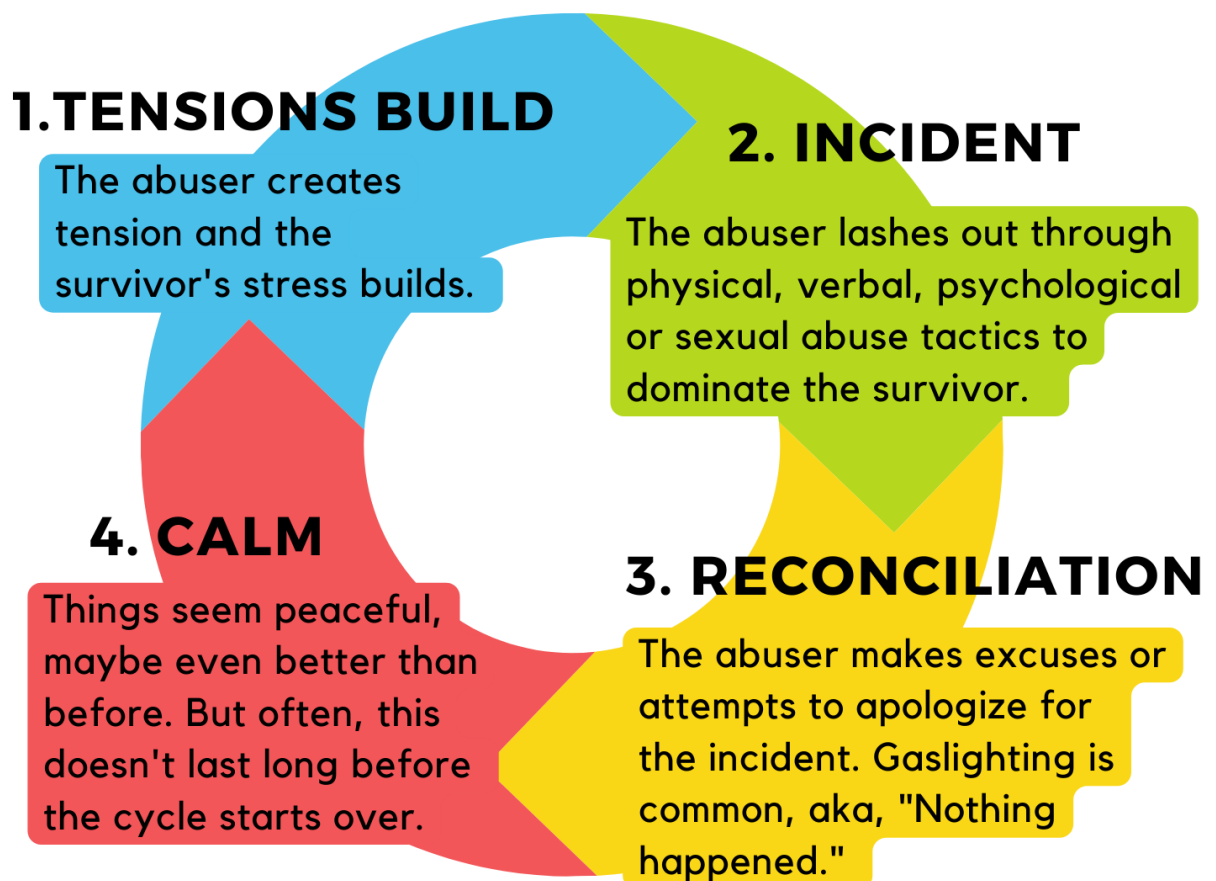

Helen Adam, Farah Akram, John Augustine, Cornelia Babbage, Jim Baker, Asad Basit, Ryan Bayldon Lumsden, Tony Bell, Denis Cooney, Amber Ford, Reece Geleijn, Faizel Hassan, Brian Iverach, Renata Jones, Craig Kenway, Catherine Liddle, Samantha McCabe, Linda Maunder, Rob Molhoek, Lillan Nielson, Nellie Pabulu, Billy Pike, Marco Renai, Lachlan Riddel, Vicky Rose, Dean Rowley, Antonella Russo, Jason Sessarago, Lucia Stedman, Lanie Townsend, Peter Wildin

Demanding that Domestic Violence stops is not only futile, the circumstances do not change and the cycle returns.

No one has understood the underlying causes, the conditions creating the environment for domestic violence. Further, no one has embraced the pathway to mitigate domestic violence.

CYCLE OF ABUSE

What percentage of the population are psychopaths?

About 1 percent (1%)

Hare reports that about one percent (1%) of the general population meets the clinical criteria for psychopathy. Hare further claims that the prevalence of psychopaths is higher in the business world than in the general population. Figures of around 3% to 4% have been cited for more senior positions in business.

How common is psychopathy?

Although severe psychopathy affects just about 1% of people, some research suggests that close to 30% of us have some level of psychopathic traits. And we may even know people who fall under this broad umbrella.

What percentage of serial killers are psychopaths?

Hence, depending on the criterion used, one could say that between about a quarter to just over a third of convicted murderers could be considered psychopaths.

Note: Generally, psychopaths calibrate on Dr David R Hawkins' Map of Consciousness (MoC) under 80.

Dr Abigail Marsh's Blog of March 2022 – observations by Samantha McCabe

20 October 2022

Further reference to Dr Abigail Marsh's Blog of March 2022:

<https://www.apa.org/news/podcasts/speaking-of-psychology/psychopathy.html>

I have listened to the audio with Dr. Abigail Marsh and feel very sad for the children and adults who have these Psychopathic tendencies, I feel very hopeless for them because the professionals that are trying to help them are not truly on their side but on the side of the parents. They are not seeing the helpless children that these people once were because they won't accept that it is wholly because of the way they were parented, they won't blame the parents so who do they blame then!! It must be the child. These children have been completely desensitised from their emotions from a very young age and cannot feel fear, empathy, sadness or love for anything and this can only come from being desensitised from these emotions in early childhood by their parents, they weren't just born like it, they weren't just born bad, they learnt to be like it by their unloving, uncaring, un-empathetic parents, it is that simple and if these professionals stopped avoiding it and stopped protecting the parents, the truth would be easily seen as to why these people are the way they are.

The interview goes on to say that it is highly difficult for the parents of these children and how do we help the parents deal with this!! It is all about helping the parents deal with this awful naughty child that won't behave and be how the parents want the child to be. This is all about making it easier for the parent who can't figure out why their child is such a disappointment, so unruly. The professionals are backing the parents in this so how does the child have any chance when even the professionals are on the side of the parent and the child is the problem. The problem has to be with the parents and their parenting. The parents have to be confronted and the professionals won't do this.

Dr Abigail even says it in this interview "The most effective treatments tend to be some combination of training aimed at how parents respond to their children. And I say this with caution because it's too easy for people to assume that if you are addressing parents' behaviour to help treat the condition, that it's the parents' behaviour that caused the condition. And I think that's a huge myth I'd like to dispel. We know that behavioural therapy, a lot of it administered by parents is a really effective treatment for children with autism. You have to use very specific kinds of interpersonal behaviours to help them develop. But we don't think that parents cause autism, or at least not anymore, right? We used to think that. This used to be just accepted wisdom in psychology that refrigerator mothers cause their children's autism. Unfortunately, we're still in that place with psychopathy where a lot of people assume it's the parents' behaviour that causes it."

I feel that these Psychologists won't put the blame on the parents because they were not allowed to put the blame on their own parents, they are still not allowed to think of their own parents as being wrong and confronting their own parents with the results of their unloving parenting and the affects it has had on them as adults. It is like upsetting our parents is the biggest sin but if Psychotherapists have this issue still within them then the roots of these disorders will never be found because the professionals will not confront the parents because they couldn't confront their own parents. If you want to know why a child is the way it is, then psychotherapy has to begin with the parents. The first course of therapy has to be aimed at the parents and they have to be confronted with the truth of their own childhoods to find out why the child is the way it is. We have to stop trying to spare the parent the blame, we have to stop pandering to the parents, it is like spare the parents and blame the child and it is all wrong. The child has been taught to be this way right from conception and its teachers were its parents.

I know this interview with Dr Abigail Marsh gives the impression that the child is important but when I listened to the Audio, I felt that this isn't the case and too much importance has been given to not blaming the parents, to me, they are 100% to blame for a ruined child who grows up to be a ruined adult. We all have to confront out denied and suppressed childhood feelings to end this hell loop we are all living of passing on our pain to our children. We all have severe psychological disorders and are prisoners until we allow the release of our denied and suppressed childhood feelings, we will never be free until we confront this within us all.

The interview goes on to say that these psychopathic children are fearless and have never felt afraid of anything and don't respond to punishment through fear and all of that has to be felt through. Why don't they feel fear, are they using the lack of fear as a source of regaining the power that their parents took from them continuously as young children, is their lack of fear their superpower against their parents, are they so terrified as children that they no longer allow themselves to feel fear as a defence mechanism, has fear been so denied and suppressed inside of them that they block it all out so they are now numb to it?

The truth of this fearlessness has to be known and it will only be known through the feelings of the child involved, and it will be a terrifying process to bring all of that terror out, to accept it, to express it and to finally know the truth of it and where it originated, and its origins will be in its early childhood at the hands of its parents.

Huge resources don't need to be thrown at this; just the right communication needs to be given to the child. The child was a helpless little child with no one to talk to, no emotional support and this is what is needed, the right communication and for its feelings to be taken very seriously indeed by its therapist but if the therapist hasn't taken their own feelings seriously about their own childhood denied and suppressed feelings, then how are they able to help a child with the right communication. Medication is not the right communication, this is just more denial of the child's feelings, more of letting the child know that there is no hope for it so let's just medicate it away, this is what they did to me when they told me I had psychosis as a late teenager and I felt hopeless, like even the professionals didn't know what to do with me and it makes you feel like ending it all. The right way to tackle this is with the right communication, the communication of the feelings and what they are telling the child, I would have felt such a relief to have been listened too!

The interview says they are focusing on new and more effective treatments of Psychopathy including brain imaging and I feel that this is all so mind driven, and that of course is what drives the medical professionals in their research but for me it is all such a waste of resources. This isn't about the mind leading the way, this is about the feelings leading the way and telling us the truth about how we feel and expressing that. A brain scan can never do that, our feelings are more advanced than any piece of technology available or that will ever be discovered. The feelings will tell us the truth about how we feel and that is never wrong, all it takes is the right communication and someone willing to ask the questions and then just listen, the listening part being the most important because these children haven't been listened to, just told that they are broken and wrong.

Dr. Abigail Marsh says that at least 50% of every psychological phenomena is heritable and the same goes for Psychopathy but throughout my healing I can trace all of my pain (pain I use as the word to describe a whole umbrella of feelings) back to my childhood and the way I was parented, so I have to disagree with 50% and for me it is 100%. It is still like the medical professionals don't want to 100% blame the parents for a child's psychological disorders and it makes them feel better to put it down to 50% heritable, and what a nice way to put it, 'Heritable' not blaming the parents and the family lineage, sparing the parents the guilt of what they have done to their child, still on the parents side when I say "You, the parents, and that includes me as I am a parent, are 100% to blame for fucking up your child and now deal with it and what you have done to them".

We have to confront the pain that our unloving parents caused us, we have to confront our childhood, and that means our parents will have to do this eventually too. If we don't then our denied childhood experiences become the compulsions and addictions in our adult lives and get twisted and contorted into all manner of psychological traumas that we become a prisoner to. All of this pain needs to be released by the accepting, expressing and the truth of our denied and suppressed childhood feelings being known and no technology can do this for us, we don't even need it. What we need is to be heard, seen and our feelings taken seriously by our parents. If children have no empathy, that's because they weren't shown any empathy from their parents, if a child doesn't show any care, it's because it wasn't shown any care by its parents, if a child wants to hurt and kill, it's because it was hurt and wanted to be killed by its parents, if a child shows no remorse, it's because its parents showed no remorse for the way they treated their child, if a child is insensitive to the pain it has caused, it's because the parents showed no sensitivity to the pain they caused the child, if a child shows no fear, it is because it was so terrified as a child and not allowed to express its fear, it is numb to the feelings of fear because it had to be to save its own life as a child with its parents.

Dr. Abigail says she wants to know more about understanding the human psychological behaviour, for this she will have to go to the feelings and let them tell her the truth, she will have to listen and really desire to know the truth of how her patients are feeling to understand them more and this is the only tool she will need.

Just her, her patient and her patients' feelings and the truth will reveal itself without the mind leading the way as it is right now. Let the feelings lead the way and let them reveal everything about her patient. Just listen and let that person begin the journey of healing through their feelings and the discovery will be disturbing of course, but the most amazing revelation she will ever encounter.

She says she is in the middle of pursuing what it is that makes a person truly care about another, but I feel it is impossible to truly care about another without doing your own feeling healing and caring about yourself first and all of this has to be done with the inclusion of God's Divine Love, the relationship has to be with our original parents, the parents of our soul, God. Through our feelings and with the inflow of God's Divine love we will be shown the truth of how we feel about ourselves and others, and it will be nothing like how we thought, all of the lies will be revealed, and we will know that we have been kidding ourselves into thinking that we love ourselves and others.

Dr Abigail also says that our love must come from the original love that parents have for their children, but the truth will also be shown through the truth of the feelings and that the love a parent has for its child isn't true love, if it was true love there would be no pain, no psychological illnesses, no bad feelings, no illness, no murder in the world, all of these bad things come from unloving parenting being passed down to the child. True and real love doesn't do this; love doesn't hurt, kill, cause illness or take the will of another. We really have to feel the truth of what we believe love to be and is it right? Our feelings will tell us the truth, not our minds.

We have all been born into the default setting of our parent's pain and took that on and believed it is the truth, believed it is us, we have no idea who we truly are but through our feelings and the receiving of God's Divine Love we can begin to know ourselves truly and shed the layers of our parent's pain that we have carried around with us all our lives. The pain that we took on in the womb and have let it become our experience. God wants us to know ourselves the way they know us, before our parents got hold of us, and by 'they' I mean God as our Mother and Father, the creator of our souls, our true and loving parents, only they know true love but you can read about Divine Love and more about our Feeling Healing in the PASCAS library.

Parents have done this damage to their children and expect people like Dr Abigail Marsh to take it all away, when really the child is a mirror of the parents level and condition of love, the child is the truth of how it was parented and it is staring the parent in the face every day and the parent hates it, the parent hates what it has created saying it is nothing to do with me why my child is like this, and the parent wants the doctors to fix it, take it away so the parent doesn't have to look at it any more. If a child was truly loved there would be no need for doctors to fix us because love doesn't do this type of damage, an unhealed parent does!!

Note: The Map of Consciousness scale is from 1 to 1,000

The Map of Consciousness (MoC) table is based on the common log of 10. It is not a numeric table.

A calibration increase of 1 point is in fact a 10 fold increase in energy.

A calibration increase of 10 points is in fact a 10,000,000,000 fold increase in energy.

Thus the energy differentials are in fact enormous!

NOTE:

Generally, psychopaths calibrate on Dr David R Hawkins' Map of Consciousness (MoC) under 80.

Those who feel justified in assaulting another generally calibrate under MoC 100.

Those who occupy prisons mostly calibrate under MoC 200.

Those who die before the age of 70 generally calibrate under MoC 200.

Those who are impoverished generally calibrate under MoC 200.

Those who are a drain on all of the social services of a country generally calibrate under MoC 200.

The table spells it out above, those calibrating under MoC 200 are the least educated, the most unhappy, and the least developed socially and morally.

Should we study the parents of these people and how they parented their children we will find that all the issues of a person before you have been instilled into them by their parents and carers.

Can you now see the cause of Domestic Violence AND the way to address it?

And it is NOT more of the same education system, it is the introduction of Living Feelings First and having our minds to follow in support. Mind-centric living IS the problem as it is the glass ceiling to consciousness development and growth that we impose upon our children.

This outline of the Map of Consciousness spells out the fact that while we live Mind-Centric and ignore and suppress our Feelings we cannot pass 499 MoC. Our mind being in control, as we have all been indoctrinated to live, is a glass ceiling. Humanity cannot heal anything, cannot be spontaneous, has no intuitiveness, and is locked into living in the deep hell states. This is why people find themselves in abusive homes, domestic violence, housing stress, homelessness and gross difficulties of all kinds. This is why we are easily manipulated, embrace propaganda and are being controlled by a few.

Women are closer to their feelings and that is why the nursing profession hosts a lot of women who calibrate a little over 500. These women are the healers in hospitals.

By aspiring to live Feelings First we are each breaking the glass ceiling and opening our potentials to grow in truth and love not only to 1,000 MoC, but to infinity. This is our destiny.

As communities embrace living Feelings First and having their minds to follow in supporting what their feelings are guiding them with, then ALL of the social ills of society will begin to mitigate. Please, do you comprehend the importance of what is being shared throughout this document?
