PASCAS INTRODUCTION:

Documents assembled by Pascas are provided for your individual assessment and exploration. The contents are sourced from a variety of avenues and publications. Every endeavour is made to determine that the contents are of the highest level of truth and veracity. At all times we ask that you go within yourself, to ascertain for yourself, how the contents resonate with you.

Pascas provides these notes and observations to assist us all in the development and growth of our own pathways and consciousness. Pascas does not hold these contents as dogma. Pascas is about looking within oneself. Much of what we are observing is new to us readers and thus, we consider that you will take on board that which resonates with you, investigate further those items of interest, and discard that which does not feel appropriate to you.

Kinesiological muscle testing, as developed by Dr David R Hawkins and quantified by his Map of Consciousness (MOC) table, has been used to ascertain the possible level of truth of documents. Such tested calibration levels appear within the document. We ask that you consider testing same for yourself. The technique and process is outlined within Pascas documents, such as Pascas Health – Energy Level of Food. From each person’s perspective, results may vary somewhat. The calibration is offered as a guide only and just another tool to assist in considering the possibilities. As a contrast, consider using this technique to test the level of truth of your local daily newspaper.

Contents are not to be interpreted as an independent guide to self-healing. The information sourced herein is not from a doctor or doctors, and any information provided in this document should not be in lieu of consultation with your physician, doctor, or other health care professional. Pascas, nor anyone associated with this document, does not assume any responsibility whatsoever for the results of any application or use of any process, technique, compound or potion as described within this document.

The sources of contents are noted throughout the document. In doing so, we acknowledge the importance of these sources and encourage our readers to consider further these sources. Should we have infringed upon a copyright pertaining to content, graphics and or pictures, we apologise. In such cases, we will endeavour to make the appropriate notations within the documents that we have assembled as a service via our not for profit arm, to our interested community.

We offer all contents in love and with the fullness of grace, which is intended to flow to readers who join us upon this fascinating journey throughout this incredible changing era we are all experiencing.

Aspiring to Living Feelings First, John.

“Never can one man do more for another man than by making it known of the availability of the Feeling Healing process and Divine Love.” JD

INCREDIBLE AS IT MAY SEEM:

We used to have access to flour for making our food and that flour was wholesome and nutritious calibrating over 480 on the Map of Consciousness for Organic Wholemeal Wheat Flour and then the governments considered that we needed protection and now we have access to Plain Flour that calibrates at 180 on the same scale.

We used to have access to wholesome milk such as Ivyhome Organic Whole Milk which calibrates at over 440 but now we have Fresh Milk that calibrates at 180 because the government said we needed protection.

We also used to have access to water without poisons such as fluoride.

Calibrations are based on the Map of Consciousness table as published within Power vs Force by David R Hawkins and the kinesiology testing process used is as outlined within this book.

At the levels above 200 on the scale of 1 to 1,000, you achieve a positive outcome, below 200 is negative.

Any food calibrating below 200 is not life enhancing. That is, the body must work to remove it, the over riding and very public observation is that such foods lead to obesity which is now pandemic.

The Map of Consciousness (MoC) table is based on the common log of 10. It is not a numeric table.

A calibration increase of 1 point is in fact a 10 fold increase in energy.

A calibration increase of 10 points is in fact a 10,000,000,000 fold increase in energy.

Thus the energy differentials are in fact enormous!

Blessing a prepared meal adds 15 points being 1,000,000,000,000,000 fold increase in energy.
This being a quadrillion (10^{15}) jump in energy.

Our diets are generally excessive with acidic foods. Look to increase your alkaline foods intake, whilst reducing your acidic food intake. Generally, alkaline foods are naturally grown as found in nature – most everything else is acidic.

Food that calibrates at energy levels below 200 are life sustaining, however, they put a load and a burden on the body which the body then has to work to expel with much difficulty and this processing requires an excessive amount of time, contributing to excess body weight.

Food that calibrates at energy levels above 200 is life enhancing. Such food is not factory processed.

Fresh food loses about 100 points with each processing phase. Grind or mince up meat, or cut up fresh garden vegetables, this process alone can deplete the products by 100 points. Lengthy cooking can then reduce the energy levels by a further 100 points. Placing the then processed food in packaging and storing it in refrigeration will further deplete the energy available to you on consumption.

Any person who is experiencing a sickness episode is best to review their food intake and to concentrate their diet on items that calibrate at the energy levels above 300.

WE WERE EDUCATED THAT THIS IS BEST FOR YOU – BUT !!!

1. Cornflakes are a good breakfast cereal – but now we know that that the energy level of cornflakes is on par with cigarettes through kinesiology muscle testing with Dr Hawkins' Map of Consciousness.
2. Cigarettes are harmful to us – but now we know that organic tobacco is not harmful, it is the herbicides and pesticides employed by industry to increase crop yields that are the poisons.
3. Council water with fluoride is better for you – but now we know that fluoride is a poison and the water's natural energy is also compromised.
4. Bread is the sustenance of life – but now we know that flour is denatured by excessive processing which denature the goodness that was inherent within bread.
5. Milk, pasteurized is best – but now we know that we have denatured milk to the level that it is no longer life enhancing.
6. Milk pasteurized is best – but we now know the pasteurizing process destroys the enzyme in milk that the human body requires to breakdown and digest the milk.
7. Dairy, good for calcium – eating acidic foods requires the body to alkalise which it does by precipitating calcium from the bones.
8. Organic Food. The energy level of organic food, if it picked and consumed within a day or so, is generally superior to chemically supported crops of fruit and vegetables. Long shelf times and refrigeration can lower the energy of organic food to a level that makes it inferior.
9. Chemically assisted crops. Washing fruits and vegetables with glycerine soap generally will remove residual chemicals, resulting in food at the highest levels achievable, comparable to fresh organics.
10. Fresh is best. Any processed packaged food is not necessarily life enhancing whereas fresh unprocessed food is life enhancing.
11. Blessing food. 'Saying Grace' before meals, blessing the food, the benefit of which is corroborated by consciousness calibration research, which shows that the actual energy of the food itself increases by ten to twenty points as per the Map of Consciousness scale.
12. Galileo Galilei discovered the world is round – but now we know that the ancients knew this well before 70,000 BC.
13. That oil is a result of decomposition of forests – but now we know it is accumulations emanating from within the earth.
14. Once an oil deposit is pumped dry then it is all gone – but now we know that some self replenish.
15. Radiation therapy might cure you – but now we know it only barbecues our body.

16. Chemotherapy is prescribed aimed at curing – but now we know it is poisoning our body.
17. Negative thoughts are constructive – but now we know that they bring on the negative expectation.
18. Pharmaceutical drugs induce an acidic state (pH 7-) – alkaline environments enhance one's immunity (pH 7+).
19. We must pray for things – but now we know that four of the five modes of prayer are petitioning / asking for outcomes. This is ineffectual, we must invoke the outcome.
20. Prayer. Of the five modes of prayer, four are petitioning based on hope – such as send me a fire truck for Christmas. The mode of prayer that is effective has not been taught to us. True prayer is holding in mind with thought, feeling and emotion as though the event has been done. Longing for the truth of what our feelings are to reveal to us is prayer.
21. Prayer to saints is pointless. Most have left our cosmos – our regions – such as Mother Mary. Further, she nor any other saint can help us.
22. Prayer to our Heavenly Mother and Father is who we should long to.
23. Longing for the Truth from BOTH Mary Magdalene and Jesus will be answered via their Spirits of Truth.
24. Longing for the Truth from Both of the Avonal Pair will be also answered via their Spirits of Truth and that is how to heal our Rebellion and Default – Feeling Healing.
25. The movie, The Secret, outlines what true prayer is. We actually manifest our own realities!
26. Holding a goal in mind is inspirational and is actually helpful to its accomplishment, because what is held in mind tends to actualize.
27. Time of One's Death: Consciousness research reveals that the precise timing of physical death is set at the very moment of birth – not the 'how', but the 'when'.
28. Death is a result of the end of one's life. Death is more of a graduation, having completed one's contract and assignments and returned to the paradise to progress with the next phase of one's growth in consciousness.
29. Judgement day – well it is everyday. Consider the grocery shopping trolley as you load it up, the tally is ongoing as you progress with the chores.
30. At death we go to meet our maker for judgement. We are in fact our own judges.
31. The judgement process is instantaneous holographic review. It's as if we are watching a rapid re-play movie of our whole past life, which we then critique objectively. We are the ones who make the judgements, with guidance and support from our guides and Elders.

32. After death the 'poor souls' go to heaven, hell or purgatory, but we now know God is all forgiving and that we go to school in the spirit world to realise a pathway to transcend our indiscretions and failings, thus enabling us to progress on our pathway of enlightenment.
33. After death, we continue to be who we were when we were on earth. We still continue to learn and grow on the other side. Our souls never stop evolving.
34. Our parents draw us to them as part of the incarnation process.
35. Physical death is relatively nothing at all. There is a sudden leaving of the body, and life goes on – with greater vigour and potential within the spirit Mansion Worlds and beyond.
36. Life after physical death is truly a reunion back to our real life, our true existence – all part of our progression to home of our Heavenly Mother and Father.
37. Suffering is the consequence of the ungodliness of the ego from which humanity needs a Saviour.
P236 Discovery of the Presence
38. Reincarnation? We do not reincarnate. Those who reincarnated have previously attained the 22nd sphere level where the soul pair reform as one and can then elect to reincarnate. In 1962 this was the first time when reincarnation occurred with seven soul pairs proceeding to do so.
39. Spirit. Upon incarnation, the soul creates a spiritual body as well as a physical body. The spiritual body goes on living after the death of the physical body.
40. Soul. Consider this to be the ever changing character of you that is climbing the ladder of enlightenment.
41. Audible Life Stream. It is the inner voice of your spirit that is all knowing and directing you on the path to enlightenment. Consider it as being your endowment of the Holy Spirit.
42. Homosexuality. When the soul splits into its male and female components, this is not always uniform. The male and female components may become self evident in both halves, thus some 10% to 20% of incarnates are homosexual.
43. The devil exists – but now we know that the devil was an invention by the high priests of Egypt at about 6,000 BC.
44. Hell exists as a fiery inferno – but now we know that after the high priests in Egypt invented the devil, they then invented a place for him to live. More likely it was a burning refuse tip for a city!
45. Original sin concept was 'invented' to book us into the control of the medieval church.
46. The last rites concept was introduced to book us out of the church at the time of one's death.
47. Serious disease is frustrated from advancing in an oxygenated body with a ph of 7 or higher.
48. The normal frequency range of the human body is 62 – 68 mHz as per Bruce Tainio's BT3 Frequency Monitor; but if it drops below that, the individual becomes a candidate for illness ...

cold symptoms appear at 58 mHz, flue symptoms at 57 mHz, candida at 55 mHz, Epstein bar at 52 mHz, cancer at 42 mHz ... Stated simply, if we can keep the body frequency high enough, and well oxygenated, we will be free of disease.

49. Coffee – a great beverage! When a person drinks a cup of coffee, his/her frequency can drop by as much as 10 mHz. It can take 3 days or more days for his/her body to return to its original frequency. Note the impact of several cups of coffee a day may have in dropping one's mHz frequency to a level that creates an environment conducive to the introduction of a major illness episode, e.g. tumour formation.
50. However, if the coffee drinkers use an essential oil of 75 MHz or higher immediately after drinking the coffee, his/her frequency returned to normal in less than 1 minute.
51. Substance abuse. Souls who have destroyed their bodies in past lives because of substance abuse have to keep coming back until they stop the self-destructive cycle and break their addiction.
52. To reach the highest state of perfection, we need to know self-love, and co-dependency is the opposite of self-love.
53. Suicide. When a soul chooses suicide it is usually a desperate attempt to stop feeling pain, but what is important to realise is that it only aggravates pain. We have to honour our bodies and our lives, and suicide is the exact opposite. Whatever they didn't want to deal with, or didn't know how to deal with, still must be taken care of. The more lifetimes an individual commits suicide, the more intense the pain.
54. Regional endemic poverty: is of group karmic origin and expresses itself in correlation with genetic transmission.
55. Forgiving: In reality, it is the forgiver and not the forgiven who benefits the most.
56. Attractor fields: People congregate in groups because they are aligned with the same attractor field.
57. The heat of the sun is what warms the earth – but we now know that heat cannot transfer through a vacuum which is space.
58. The heat of the sun is in fact cold rays of the sun which are transformed into light through the resistance of the carrier, water, and brought down to earth as heat.
59. The ancients, prior to 70,000 BC, knew that the surface of the sun was 'cool' and that it was the earth's atmosphere that converted the cold rays to heat.
60. The time when the northern hemisphere is the coldest is that time of the year that the earth is closest to the sun.
61. We could not run the mile faster than 4 minutes – but now we have the Roger Bannister factor.
62. Multiple evolutionary species coexist on a planet that itself goes through constant change.

P208 Discovery of the Presence

63. Costumes of the religious. The mitres, hats, caps, beards, frocks, ceremonial vestments all contribute to separation, antagonism, conflict and difficulties between the different groups as a result of wearing such regalia.
64. Oneness. We are as a drop of water is to the ocean – bonded in Oneness to it, being of it and unto it, yet having identity and self-perception.
65. Faith. The human mind has been and is unable to determine truth from false. Applied kinesiology as employed by Dr David Hawkins now enables us to test any statement that can be verbalised as to whether it is true or not true. All information is every where at once for all time, we are now able to access this ‘data base’. We no longer have to take things on faith.
66. Hope. Hope is an extremely negative position to put one’s self into. The dominant thought that you hold (say lack of rain) you continue to manifest a lack of – and is not the actual thought, feeling and emotion of rain, which is necessary to manifest rain.
67. Charity. You cannot buy your way into paradise / heaven. It is only by giving of love that you can share in the wonders of paradise / heaven.
68. We have two emotions, fear and love. One we need to dissolve and the other to aspire too.
69. Many people have a secret fear that they are bad.
70. The great teachers taught the Truth about Divinity, not religion, which came later. While the veneration of religion and scriptures is understandable, it is their truth and God that are meant to be worshipped and sought.
71. Human consciousness evolves through learning.
72. Om is the Sanskrit sound symbol for the Supreme One.
73. Christ lived for us – he did not die for us.
74. Our souls are on a journey to develop to our highest potential so that we can someday live in the highest levels of heaven / paradise.
75. One day we are going to finish this long journey – all of us – and reach an ultimate state of enlightenment, where everything is possible.
76. That we are created in the image of God, that our soul is duplex and that one half of our soul incarnates as female and the other half incarnates as male – always. God is both Mother and Father, two personalities, one soul.
77. We are incarnated with a personality, being our will, bestowed upon us by our Heavenly Parents, and it is this personality and will that we are to liberate through Feeling Healing, and with Divine Love, the Love from our Parents, we will then progress towards the Isle of Paradise, Their home.

DEVIL:

Unscrupulous Egyptian priests first invented the devil, then they had to find an abode for him, so they invented hell. Five thousand years ago the devil and hell were unknown.

P140 Lost Continent of Mu

Six hundred years before the birth of Jeshua, Satan was referred to as one of God's angels. In the Old Testament's, The book of Numbers, it is written that God sent down an obedient servant – a Satan angel – to help God by obstructing the pathway of the mystic Balaam, who was riding on his donkey to meet with Israel's enemies so he could place a curse on the Israel nation. Also, in the story of Job, God told Satan about one of his loyal subjects, and Satan issued a challenge to God to put Job through a test. In the Old Testament, Satan is not depicted nor does he appear as he does today, as a leader of an evil empire. As a matter of fact, the Israeli nation, before Jeshua, was constantly at war with other nations, including the Canaanites. The Canaanites prayed to God that they called Beelzebub. The Israelis claimed that Beelzebub was the enemy of their people and therefore an enemy of their God, our God. The pre-medieval church conveniently used the name Beelzebub as synonym of Satan.

Two thousand years ago, Satan was used as a word of insult from one person to another, as a word of disdain. It would be equivalent to calling someone a fool, worthless one to be held in low regard. Even in the Gospels, when Jeshua got angry at Peter, He said, "Step aside Satan." He certainly was not suggesting that Peter was the devil. Even today in the Middle East, the word Satan is used as an insult, such as the insults of Hussein of Iraq, when he speaks despairingly of the United States being the Great Satan. But the pre-medieval church felt the necessity of creating a supernatural evil force that could take control of your life in the event you had not earned the protection of the church.

It is any wonder that reincarnation could not be tolerated by the leaders of the pre-medieval church? Under the concept of reincarnation, you are responsible for your own actions. Under the doctrine of the pre-medieval church, you could only be protected against having committed evil actions by the church. Under the concept of reincarnation, you would be rewarded by your good actions or have to make retribution for your misdeeds in your future lifetimes or during your present lifetime. Under the doctrine of the pre-medieval church, restitution and salvation could only take place underneath the umbrella of the church. Under reincarnation, God did not punish you. He was the creator of all that was loving, and you took responsibility for your own retribution. Under the teachings of the pre-medieval church, God would reward you or punish you by sending you to heaven or hell depending on how you adhered to the dogmas and doctrines of the church. (Reincarnation concept is false.)

And so the monster Fear was created.

P160 In God's Truth by Nick Bunick

HELL:

The word hell is derived from Gehenna. The dump outside the city of Jerusalem two thousand years ago that burned twenty-four hours a day became the role model for the pre-medieval church for the concept of hell. The refuse and waste area called Gehenna, in the Valley of Hinnom, had now become a location to be found underneath the earth, where souls who lived outside the rules and regulations of the pre-medieval church would be burned and punished for eternity. In the teachings of the pre-medieval church, they also created a supernatural evil power that would struggle for control of your mind against the wishes of God, unless you received the protection of the church.

P.159 In God's Truth by Nick Bunick

So, the term hell is derived from a rubbish dump that burned consistently to dispose of waste being dumped there by the population of Jerusalem!

Hell is a rubbish dump !!!!!

Wikipedia reference:

Gehenna (or gehenom or gehinom) is the Jewish hell or purgatory. It has sometimes been described as a final punishment for the wicked and sometimes as a spiritual forge in which souls are purified after death. In English, Jews commonly use the term "hell" in place of "gehenna." The name derived from a burning garbage dump near Jerusalem (the valley of Hinnom), sometimes identified as an entrance to the underworld.

Gehenna also appears in the New Testament and in early Christian writing to represent the place where evil will be destroyed. It lends its name to Islam's hell, Jahannam.

In both Jewish and Christian writing, gehenna, as a destination of the wicked, is different from hades (sheol), the abode of all the dead. In some accounts, the fiery punishment of gehenna takes place in one level or section of hades.

Collier's Encyclopaedia (1986, Vol. 12, p. 28) says concerning "Hell": "First it stands for the Hebrew Sheol of the Old Testament and the Greek Hades of the Septuagint and New Testament. Since Sheol in Old Testament times referred simply to the abode of the dead and suggested no moral distinctions, the word 'hell,' as understood today, is not a happy translation."

It is, in fact, because of the way that the word "hell" is understood today that it is such an unsatisfactory translation of these original Bible words. Webster's Third New International Dictionary, unabridged, under "Hell" says: "fr[om] . . . helan to conceal." The word "hell" thus originally conveyed no thought of heat or torment but simply of a 'covered over or concealed place.' In the old English dialect the expression

"helling potatoes" meant, not to roast them, but simply to place the potatoes in the ground or in a cellar. The meaning given today to the word "hell" is that portrayed in Dante's Divine Comedy and Milton's Paradise Lost, which meaning is completely foreign to the original definition of the word. The idea of a "hell" of fiery torment, however, dates back long before Dante or Milton. The Grolier Universal Encyclopedia (1971, Vol. 9, p. 205) under "Hell" says: "Hindus and Buddhists regard hell as a place of spiritual cleansing and final restoration. Islamic tradition considers it as a place of everlasting punishment." The idea of suffering after death is found among the pagan religious teachings of ancient peoples in Babylon and Egypt. Babylonian and Assyrian beliefs depicted the "nether world . . . as a place full of horrors, . . . presided over by gods and demons of great strength and fierceness." Although ancient Egyptian religious texts do not teach that the burning of any individual victim would go on forever, they do portray the "Other World" as featuring "pits of fire" for "the damned."--The Religion of Babylonia and Assyria, by Morris Jastrow, Jr., 1898, p. 581 The Book of the Dead, with introduction by E. Wallis Budge, 1960, pp. 135, 144, 149, 151, 153, 161, 200.

"Hellfire" has been a basic teaching in Christendom for many centuries. It is understandable why The Encyclopedia Americana (1956, Vol. XIV, p. 81) said: "Much confusion and misunderstanding has been caused through the early translators of the Bible persistently rendering the Hebrew Sheol and the Greek Hades and Gehenna by the word hell. The simple transliteration of these words by the translators of the revised editions of the Bible has not sufficed to appreciably clear up this confusion and misconception. Nevertheless, such transliteration and consistent rendering does enable the Bible student to make an accurate comparison of the texts in which these original words appear and, with open mind, thereby to arrive at a correct understanding of their true significance. --See GEHENNA; GRAVE; HADES SHEOL; TARTARUS.

So hell is now a burning rubbish tip and also a way to cook your potatoes!!!!

Well, you can create your own hell and enter it – but you wont and cannot stay in it. After some time you will realise that you have created your own environment and will leave it. That is the case in the spirit world as well as this physical world.

Our souls create an ambience that is a form of hell, a temporary hell. These souls create the environment out of a belief of the need to be punished. Some people are determined to go to hell when they die, so their souls live in that community for a period only. Can we leave? Of course we can. We've sent ourselves there and we are the ones who decide if and when we can leave. Then we begin our life review process just like everyone else. God would never create such a hellish place or send any of us to it. God is all loving and all forgiving.

Our souls are on a journey to develop to our highest potential so that we can someday live in highest levels of paradise / heaven. When we realise our perfection, we don't need to come back to earth and live lives over and over. Our earth schooling will be over and we will remain on the other side with all those we love. There is no hell.

HELL HATH NO FURY:

U.S. News & World Report, January 31, 2000 p.45-50

“The latest round of revisionism was touched off last summer by a surprising editorial in La Civiltà Cattolica, an influential Jesuit magazine with close ties to the Vatican. Hell, the magazine declared, “is not a ‘place’ but a ‘state’, a person’s ‘state of being,’ in which a person suffers from the deprivation of God.”

A few days later, Pope John Paul II told an audience at the Vatican that “rather than a place, hell indicates the state of those who freely and definitively separate themselves from God.” To describe this Godforsaken condition, the pontiff said, the Bible “uses a symbolical language” that “figuratively portrays in a ‘pool of fire’ those who exclude themselves from the book of life, thus meeting with a ‘second death’.

DIVINE TRUTH

AJ Miller 9 Aug 08

There are multi-dimensional existences, they are places of existence, that when we pass, we live in. There are houses, beings, creation, plants, animals, etc in these dimensions. Some are better than here, some worse. When God first created the universe, He created it as 6th dimensional, besides Earth being the physical dimension. There are now 5 dimensions before and many, many after the 6th. As man has degraded in their condition of love, they created new dimensional spaces that can cope with their degraded condition. What God created was the dimensionality of a potential existence based around the soul condition of you. The first soul degrading from the 6th dimension created the 5th dimension. And the same goes for the 4th, 3rd, 2nd and down to the 1st. The Earth, in its condition, is equivalent to the 1st dimension / sphere, it does not have to be.

There are places like hell. Hells are a reality. You have spirit friends who are living places that they call hell. We are talking about people who have lived on Earth in disharmony with love. When they passed, they passed into place of darkness that they call hell. It is not a burning fiery torment. They feel a sense of torture. They feel terrible emotions there. There are many spirits in these centres who don’t know how to get out and they look to us for help to get them out. Any body can be helped anywhere. There is no such thing eternal torment. You create your conditions through your emotional experience.

No one can get from the 1st sphere to the 2nd sphere (dimension) until you develop the required level of love. This is how you move up through the various dimensions (spheres).

The ORIGIN and HISTORY of the DOCTRINE of ORIGINAL SIN:

<http://www.gospeltruth.net/menbornsinners/mbs03.htm>

Many Christians who profess to believe in the doctrine of original sin do not know what it teaches. Even more Christians are ignorant of its history and origin: that it had its roots in a heathen philosophy, that it has evolved, and that it was made a dogma of the Roman Catholic Church in the fifth century A.D., primarily by the influence of Augustine.

Finally, most Christians do not know the fact that the doctrine of original sin is really a theory. In fact, there are more than three differing theories of original sin. The admission of A. H. Strong as to the unsatisfactory nature of even the best of these theories is very interesting:

We must grant that no one, even of these latter theories, is wholly satisfactory. We hope, however, to show that the last of them the Augustinian theory, the theory of Adam's natural headship, the theory that Adam and his descendants are naturally and organically one explains the largest number of facts, is least open to objections, and is most accordant with Scriptures.

Now let us see what the advocates of the doctrine (theory) of original sin teach:

1. The whole human race sinned in Adam when he sinned. Adam's will was the will of the race, so that all men sinned in Adam and rebelled with him when he sinned.
2. When Adam sinned, human nature was corrupted, so that now all men are born with a sinful nature.
3. This sinful nature is the fountain and direct cause of all of man's sins. Man sins by nature and cannot help but sin.
4. Because of Adam's transgression, all men are guilty, under the just "wrath and curse of God," and are liable to the "pains of hell forever."
5. Even newborn babies open their eyes in this world under the "wrath and curse" of God. They are guilty and condemned from the moment of their birth.

This is the incredible dogma that is unblushingly taught by those who hold to the doctrine of original sin.

1. The Augustinian Theory. This is also called the Theory of Adam's Natural Headship and the Realistic Theory. This theory was formulated by Augustine in the fifth century A.D. The Augustinian Theory affirms that, by virtue of organic unity, the whole human race existed in Adam at the time of his transgression. It says that Adam's will was the will of the species, so that in Adam's free act, the will of the race revolted against God, and the nature of the race corrupted itself. All men existed as one moral person in Adam, so that in Adam's sin we sinned, we corrupted ourselves, and we brought guilt and merited condemnation upon ourselves.

2. The Federal Theory. This theory is also called the Theory of Condemnation by Covenant and the Immediate Imputation Theory. It had its origin with Cocceius in the 17th century A.D. According to this theory, God made a covenant with Adam, agreeing to bestow upon all his descendants eternal life for his obedience, but making the penalty for his disobedience to be the condemnation of all his descendants.

Since our legal representative or federal head did sin, God imputes his sin, guilt, and condemnation to all his descendants. It was thought that this theory was necessary because of the problem in the Augustinian Theory of accounting for the non-imputation of the subsequent sins of Adam and less remote ancestors for if real existence in Adam explained our responsibility for his first sin, why should not real existence in Adam and in subsequent ancestors make us guilty for those sins, too?

3. The Theory of Mediate Imputation. This theory is also called the Theory of Condemnation for Depravity. This is the theory formulated by Placeus in the 17th century A.D. Placeus originally denied that Adam's sin was in any way imputed to his posterity. But when his first view was condemned by the Synod of the French Reformed Church in 1644, he published this later view. According to this view, all men are born with a depraved nature and are guilty and condemnable for that nature. They are not viewed as being guilty because of the sin of Adam, as in the Federal Theory. Instead it is the corrupted nature which they inherit from Adam that is sufficient cause and legal ground for God to condemn them.

It is probably shocking for the Christian who has been taught these theories as Bible truths to be told that not one word of any of them can be found in the Bible. Christians believe these theories to be Bible doctrines because theologians, preachers, and Sunday school teachers teach them as if they were Bible doctrines quoted directly from the Bible, and give them a semblance of credence with Bible texts quoted out of context. However, these theories are not Bible doctrines. Where can you find written in the Bible that "The whole human race existed in Adam at the time of his transgression"? Or that "Adam's will was the will of the species"? Or that "In Adam's free act the will of the race revolted against God and the nature of the race corrupted itself"? Or that "All men existed as one moral person in Adam, so that in Adam's sin we sinned, we corrupted ourselves, and brought guilt and merited condemnation upon ourselves"? Nowhere! These theories are not in the Bible. You can search the Bible through from cover to cover and you will never find a word of these theories on its pages. The fact that mere men have had the boldness to teach these theories as Bible truths is a serious and sobering fact. God has twice warned men not to tamper with his Holy Word, neither adding to it nor taking from it. Deut. 4:2, Rev. 22:18, 19.

There is another sobering fact that should be of interest to every Christian who has ever been an adherent of the doctrine of original sin. The theologians themselves, who advocate the doctrine of original sin, prove conclusively that it is false. For instance, those theologians who advocate the Realistic Theory (the Augustinian Theory) prove conclusively that the Federal and Mediate Imputation Theories are unscriptural and false. On the other hand, those theologians who advocate the Federal Theory prove just as conclusively that the Realistic and Mediate Imputation Theories are unscriptural and false. Each theologian, in his turn, proves all the other theories to be false.

Etc.

Further: A theological nightmare

The idea that we live one short life on earth and then spend the rest of eternity in either a hell of torment or a heaven of bliss must rank as one of the most absurd superstitions ever invented by the human mind. No life on earth, no matter how good or how evil, could possibly justify an eternity of reward or punishment.

Luke Explains What Is Necessary for a Man to Do to Recover the Purity of Soul and Love That Was Possessed by the First Parents. He Also Declares That the Doctrine of Original Sin Is a Mocking, Damnable Lie

I AM HERE. Luke.

I have not written you for some time and desire to write a short message tonight on the subject of: "What Is Necessary for a Man to Do to Recover the Purity of Soul and Love That Was Possessed by the First Parents." (I mean as a man possessing the natural love only.)

Well, in the first place, he should realize that he is a perfect creature of God, and that his sins and diseases are merely the result of his own thoughts, and of qualities that have come to him down the long ages of his ancestors living on earth.

He need not suppose that these sins and desires are inherent in, or a part of, his creation, for they are not. They are merely accretions that fastened themselves upon him by reason of the thoughts he has had, and the resultant course of life he has led. And when he changes these thoughts, which will necessarily bring about a change in his manner of living, he will find that he can progress toward the condition of the perfect man.

I know that many of these thoughts are so deep-seated that they seem to be almost a part of his very nature, and can only be eradicated by the death of his physical body. But this is not true. For man, even while in the full vigour of his manhood and possessed with all the appetites and desires which arise from the perverted indulgence of these desires, either on the part of himself or on the part of those from whom he is said to have inherited them, may relieve himself from these desires and become a man having only the thoughts of good, and the desire for those things which are in harmony with the nature of his perfect creation.

This, I know, seems like an impossible thing to man, and, so thinking, he does not try to accomplish what I say he may accomplish, and to become free from these sins and unnatural appetites. The almost universal belief in original sin has caused men, all along the ages, to think that such a task is hopeless; that they are thinking and acting only in accordance with the appetites and desires that God has implanted in their natures; and that, so long as they indulge these thoughts and desires in a moderate or respectable way, they are not doing that which is contrary to God's Will or to their own nature.

But this doctrine of original sin is a mocking, damnable lie! And the sooner man realizes the fact that it is a fraud and deceit, the sooner he will be able to get rid of those things which have placed him in his present condition and held him there bound, as it were, hand and foot.

This supine submission to this old and ever recurring belief is the great thing that prevents man from starting to progress towards the attainment of that condition which is purity and health and the perfect man.

Man must decline and no longer submit to this belief, which, i am sorry to say, is fostered by the teachings of the orthodox churches in order to sustain and make forcible their creeds and dogmas. They intend to show to man that he is not to be considered worthy of the mercy of the father, and cannot possibly obtain that mercy and be relieved from the great wrath and punishment that god has prepared for him, unless he believes and acknowledges that he is a dependent and lost man, unworthy of the father's favour or of the help of the instrumentalities which the father uses to assist men in regaining their lost estate.

If men would only think, and, in thinking, realize that they are dear children of the father and his highest creation, and that he prizes them above all his creatures and wants them to know that they are beings of such wonderful qualities and possibilities, they would then have an overpowering and convincing sense come to them of what they really are, and of how necessary it is for them to assert their rights as such exalted creatures of the father. And they would also realize that they are masters of sin and disease, for they are the creators of the same.

When men shall assume such position and become possessed of such knowledge, they will find that they have a wonderful power as creatures of the Father; and they will realize that they are masters of sin that must be gotten rid of.

Let men think again for a moment, and, thinking, know that God does not desire His greatest creature to become, or be, less than the perfect being that He created. He is not flattered, nor does He have any pleasure in the thought, that man is degraded and fallen from his perfect creation, and that, in order to rise again, he, man, must believe that God may show His Power in rescuing him from his low and hopeless condition. No, God is not pleased by man assuming such an attitude. Nor does He need any such helpless condition of man that He may show His Power, or gratify what the teachings of these orthodox imply—His “vanity”—which He has not.

In this particular, man must work out his own salvation. But it will be a difficult task so long as he continues to believe and act upon that belief that he is a creature of original sin; and that, as God failed to make him the perfect man in the beginning, so, now, only God can remedy what He failed to provide in His Creation; and that man, of himself, can do nothing. All he has to do is to wait until God is pleased to re-create him, and thereby take from his very nature this great curse of the original sin. You see the great fatality of such belief, and how it tends to make man a slave of, and obedient to, this false belief in this blight of original sin!

God gave to man, in his creation, the great power of will and the right to its unlimited exercise, subject only to the penalties of a wrongful exercise. And, by the exercise of that will, man created sin and disease and became depraved and fallen, and the possessor of false beliefs as to the perfection of his nature. By the exercise of that will, man himself must redeem himself from this condition of depravity and false belief, and again become the perfect man—God's wholly perfect Creation.

As man was the perfect son of God in the beginning, and created his own and only “devil” by his own will, so must he kill this “devil” by this same power and again become the perfect son. He must believe and declare, and show the sincerity of his beliefs by his acts and living, that he is a perfect son of the Father, needing no new creation.

I have written this to show what man was in the beginning, and what he really and truly is now, although covered with sin and disease and false beliefs.

To recover this lost estate, or, better, condition, he will find that, by searching for and learning and acting upon many of the moral precepts of the Bible and of other so-called “sacred” writings, he will be greatly helped and strengthened in his efforts. But, above all, let him understand and believe, with the certainty of knowledge, that he is God’s highest and most perfect creation.

Now, from what I have said, it must not be inferred that man is his own God, and has not and needs not any Tender, Loving Father Who is interested in him and is always ready to help him whenever he earnestly and in sincerity asks for that help. Always is man dependent upon god. But that dependence is not recognized by god unless man first recognizes it, and, by his longings and thoughts, shows to the father that he needs his help.

This may seem unbelievable, but man was created so independent in his great will power, and as regards the qualities of thought and desire, both spiritual and material, that God never interferes to compel. The principle involved in “WHOSOEVER WILL” must be exercised by man before the Father will intervene. But, when it is exercised, He does intervene, and never refuses or fails to answer the call of the sincere cry of man for help.

And God does help man in his recovery from the state of false beliefs and degradation that I have mentioned. His Love overshadows men, and His instrumentalities are always ready and waiting to answer the call upon Him for His Help in assisting them out of their condition of sin, disease and false beliefs. For, as I have written you elsewhere, in God’s Universe there must be perfect harmony. And the present man, so far as his own creation of inharmony is concerned, is not in that harmony. Ultimately, man, all men, will become the perfect man again.

Of course, you will understand that what i have written does not apply to the redeemed sons of god who receive the new birth and become partakers of the divine nature of the father; for, in their case, the perfect man is absorbed in the divine angel.

I will now say good night and leave with you my love and blessings.

Your brother in Christ,
LUKE.

Feeling Healing with Divine Love is the key!

By living true to ourselves, true to our feelings, we are living true to God. It’s that simple.

Note: Following the writings of James Moncrief, one could consider that any reference to the Father, by other relevant writers, may be read as a reference to ‘our Mother and Father’. Further, when considering soul healing, then reference to Divine Love could be referred to as ‘Feeling Healing with Divine Love’.

ACTS of GOD or ACTS of NATURE:

There will be events that will happen in our world, as we progress into the millennium, that everyone on this entire globe, no matter where they live, will recognize as God intervening in our lives. There are events that will happen in the world, in which it will not matter what your religious or spiritual beliefs are, or even if a person is an agnostic or does not believe in God. They will recognise and acknowledge that God is intervening in all of our lives. They will recognise and acknowledge that miracles are happening. There will be no other explanation.

We are not talking about acts of destruction. Yes, there will be earthquakes, floods, tornadoes, and volcanoes in the future. There always has been; there always will be. These are acts of nature, not acts of God. They are caused by the stress on the earth, the misuse of earth's resources, and the natural weather conditions. They have occurred throughout history long before man and will continue to occur in the future.

There were great floods and bubonic plague in the 1300s that took the lives of 25% of the population of the people in Europe. Did these events cause the end of the world? Do not honour fear by attempting to prove their point by depicting every flood and every earthquake as an intentional act of God and as evidence that we are soon to experience the end of the world.

These capitalizers on fear are not living their lives in truth. They have their own motives and their own agendas for teaching fear. It is easy to distinguish between those who teach love and those who teach fear. As a child of God, reach out and accept love, be strong and reject fear. Live your lives in accordance with the laws of God. Live your lives embracing universal love, universal compassion, and living in truth.

P 211 In God's Truth by Nick Bunick

The World

The planet is part of the physical universe and thereby subject to its transitions and evolutionary phenomena. Volcanic eruptions, earthquakes, tsunamis, forest fires, and floods have been recurring over the eons of time, including the impact of giant meteors that filled the sky with dust and smothered all of life. It is therefore naïve to assume that phenomena are consequent of mankind's follies, frailties, failures, or religious belief systems. So-called 'end times' phenomena are redundant, both before and subsequent to the emergence of Homo sapiens. Numerous are the prophets and prophecies that have come and gone. When the great meteors hit and blanked out the sky, mankind was not yet even born. Contextualising earthly phenomena as evidence of the 'wrath of God' is primitive, naïve, and an anthropomorphic distortion of the Reality of Divinity. God is not emotionally imbalanced or needful of psychological help, spiritual counselling or anger-management classes.

Even if all these mystifications were true, of what interest is it, anyway, to the individual seeker? If life on earth is to end in either a few years, or in the year 6017 or 8095, so what? What does it really have to do with one's own level of spiritual evolution? The wise renounce public hysteria or mass suicides because a comet is sighted somewhere in space. Even if an 'end times' catastrophe were to happen, it would seem to be a better decision to pray rather than kill oneself inasmuch as one's death would be a certainty, and suicide carries karmic consequences.

P 158 Discovery of the Presence of God by David Hawkins

The BIBLE:

What a journey, from Aramaic, to ancient Greek, to ancient Latin, to modern Latin, then English!!

In the year 325 AD, Constantine was the first Roman emperor to embrace Christianity. Interestingly, it was the Roman's that crucified Jeshua, not the Jews, and now they deify him. The Jews never had the authority to crucify anyone, only the Romans, the Jews had to employ other methods of capital punishment such as stoning.

It was during this time of history that Constantine ruled over eighty million people, and that, throughout the balance of the fourth century, major changes were made in the teachings of Christianity. The Council of Nicaea was created in the small lakeshore town a short distance southwest of Constantinople. And it was The Nicaean Council that passed a creed creating Jeshua's divinity. The council minutes show a debate as to whether to deify Jeshua, or to deify his twin broth Judas, or to deify both. Constantine, being the pragmatist, amalgamated the names of both and from that we have the name Jesus Christ. Christ was derived from the word Khrestus. Judas had inherited the leadership of the Essenes because of family bloodline and the status of the tradition of the first born. Because he was now Judas the 'anointed' initiate, he was called Judas the Krist (or Krist Judas). Which developed into Judas Khrestus in subsequent Latin translations. (refer to Tony Bushby's book – The Bible Fraud)

They declared that Jeshua was separate from us who are created beings in that he was "begotten, not made." In other words, they claimed that he was God, as opposed to part of God residing within him as God's spirit resides in all of us.

Scholars were commissioned during this period of history, the fourth century, to translate the Gospels and Scriptures from ancient Latin into what they referred to as contemporary Latin. For twenty five years the translators laboured over the Scriptures and eliminated those portions the pre-medieval church leaders felt were in conflict with their new doctrines.

Constantine and his successor, Emperor Theodosius, who ruled from 379 to 395 AD, and the leaders of the pre-medieval church united to create new teachings that included the philosophy that your spirit was not part of God, but instead, you only had one life to live and salvation and redemption could only be achieved through the pre-medieval church. When you died, your soul either went to heaven or to hell (the burning rubbish tip!), depending on your relationship with the church.

These scholars were instructed to purge everything dealing with reincarnation out of the Bible. One life, and that is it. It was up to you. Did you want to go to heaven or hell? Did you want the protection of the pre-medieval church, or did you want to be influenced by the evil force and have your soul burn in hell for eternity. The church would help you live with the guilt of being responsible for the death of Jeshua and of your being born a sinner. Is it no wonder that reincarnation was a threat to the pre-medieval church?

But even though the scholars were told to purge everything dealing with reincarnation out of the Gospels, they missed it in fifteen places. (Reincarnation concept is false.)

REINCARNATION:ANGELIC REVELATIONS of DIVINE TRUTH

Vol: I P.126 through James E. Padgett

Luke Explains the Mystery of the Birth of the Soul in the Human Being. He Also Declares That There Is No Such Thing as Reincarnation

I AM HERE. Luke, the Apostle.

I want to tell you tonight of the mystery of the birth of the soul in the human being.

All souls which enter into mortal bodies, previous to such advent, are real, living existences, and made in the likeness of the Great Soul, though not having the Qualities and Potentialities of that Soul; and, also, not having the form of individualized personality that they have after they become parts of the composition or form of the mortal and spiritual bodies of human beings.

In its existence prior to becoming an indweller in the mortal body, the soul has a consciousness of its existence and of its relationship to God and to other parts of the Great Soul, and, more especially, of the duplex character of its being; and, by this, I mean the sexual differences in the two parts of the soul, which, in the way that they are united, constitute the one complete soul.

When the time comes for this soul to become an indweller in the mortal frame, the two parts that I speak of separate, and, at the same time, only one of the parts enters into a mortal, and never both parts into the same mortal. And while this separation is necessary for the individualization of each part of this one complete soul, yet, the two parts never lose that interrelationship, or the binding qualities that existed before their separation, and which continue to exist thereafter. And, in the great future, after the work of individualization shall be completed, the two parts will come together again and reunite in a complete one. This separation may exist a longer or shorter time, depending upon the similar development of those similar qualities that is absolutely necessary in order that this coming together in the original one, as it were, may take place.

As I have said, before its separation, this soul has a consciousness of its existence. And when its duplex character leaves it, or, rather, it becomes two separated parts, thereafter, until its re-entrance into the spirit world, this soul does not again return to these parts. But, in order to regain this consciousness, it is not necessary that both of these parts shall come again into the spirit life at the same time. For if one part becomes a spirit, free from the physical body, and the other part remains in the mortal body, that part that comes into the spirit world may receive the awakening to this consciousness, depending upon certain conditions and developments.

It often happens that both these parts will return to the spirit world and, yet, for a long time, live as spirits without having a restoration of this consciousness, because of various reasons that may exist. The conditions of the development of the two parts may be so vastly different that the realization of this consciousness may be wholly impossible. And very often it is the case that, when these two individualized parts are informed that they are the soulmates of each other, they will not believe that information, and will live on in utter indifference to that fact.

But, ultimately, the consciousness of their relationship will come to them because their development, no matter whether intellectual or spiritual, will tend towards the awakening of this consciousness which is always present with them, although dormant.

Now, as to what this soul is in its constituent parts or shape or form, prior to its separation for the purpose of becoming an inhabitant of the mortal body, we spirits are not informed and do not know. We are often present at the conception and also the birth of a child, and realize that a soul has become enveloped in the flesh. But we cannot see that soul as it enters into that home of mortal environment because, as to us, it is invisible and has no form. But, after its lodgement in the human body, we can perceive it and realize its existence, for it then assumes a form; and that form varies in different incarnations that is, in the incarnations in different humans.

We have never seen the Soul of God, although we know that there is this Great Oversoul. Hence, we cannot see the soul of any image of the Great Soul until it becomes, as I say, individualized.

I know that men have often wondered and asked the question as to the pre-existence of the soul that has been incarnated, and what qualities and attributes it had during its pre-existence. And, as to these particulars, I wish to say that, although we are inhabitants of God's Celestial Heavens, we spirits have little information, though we know that the soul and I mean the complete soul in oneness has an existence prior to its becoming individualized. You may ask how we know this. Well, it will be hard to explain this to you so that you may comprehend. But this I can say: that, by our soul perceptions, we spirits of the higher soul development can understand the existence of these souls as images of the Great Soul. And the qualities of these images are such that, while we cannot sensibly, as you would say, see these souls or their qualities, yet, we are conscious of their existence. To use an illustration that is not altogether appropriate: You understand that the wind blows, yet you cannot see it.

And we further understand, and such is the result of our observation, that when the soul and keep in mind that I mean the two parts when I say soul once becomes incarnated and assumes an individualized form, it never thereafter loses that individuality. Hence, it never again returns to its condition of pre-existence, and can never again become reincarnated in the existence of any human being.

There is no such thing as reincarnation. All the theories and speculations of men upon that question, which conclude that a soul once incarnated can again become incarnated, are wrong. For the incarnation of a soul is only one step in its destined progress from an invisible, formless existence to a glorious angel, or to a perfected spirit.

In this progress, a soul never retraces its steps. It is always progressing, though sometimes stagnation takes place. But it continues as an individualized spirit until it reaches its goal in fulfilment of the Father's Plan for the perfecting of His Universe.

This is a subject that is difficult of treatment for several reasons, among which is the fact that we spirits, no matter how high our attainments, do not have the information in order to give a full and complete description of the soul and its qualities prior to its incarnation; and you mortals are not capable of comprehending the full Truth, as we may try to convey it to you.

I have made this effort to give you some faint idea of the soul, as you are in good condition tonight to receive my ideas. But I realize how inadequate my attempt has proved to be. But, from it, you can understand that the soul has an existence prior to its finding its home in the physical body; that it is duplex and has a consciousness of the relationship of its two parts; that after it has received the experience of the mortal life and received an individuality, it returns to the spirit world; that, at some time, that consciousness will come to it again, and that the two parts will become one unless, in the development of these separate parts, barriers have arisen that may prevent their reuniting. And, further, that this soul will never again retrace the steps of its progression and become reincarnated.

I will now close and, with my love and blessings, say good night.

Your brother in Christ,
LUKE.

Jesus Declares That the Doctrine of Reincarnation Is False and Utterly Without Foundation*

I AM HERE. Jesus.

I am here again to write you about a subject that has created interest among you, the doctor* and others, and that is the article on reincarnation. In the Padgett messages, various communications dealt with the falsity and absurdity of this oriental doctrine, which holds that the human soul can reincarnate from one fleshly body to others in succession over periods of time, and that, as a result, the soul has an opportunity to lessen its desire to sin and thus finally achieve purification while in the flesh.

If you will examine the question a little more closely, you will see the impossibility of the soul in the spirit world to be reincarnated in the flesh, for the reason that the soul, for this supposed phenomenon, would have to shed the spirit body in order to enter a mortal body, since the soul is incased in a spirit body which is physical in nature, but not of a gross material of what mortals call the material world. And that spirit body, which is the envelope and protector of the soul, is that which gives the soul its individuality as a conscious entity, and remains with the soul so long as the soul lives. In the spirit world, no spirit has ever been deprived of its soul. And no spirit body thus hypothetically divested of its soul has ever died or been disintegrated, or has disappeared from its habitat, except as it advances from one sphere to another while making progress either to the Sixth Sphere (or Spiritual Paradise) or to the Celestial Heavens and immortality.

As far as is known today by us in the spirit world, the spirit that is to say, the soul and its spirit body may live for all eternity, if God so requires it, even if it does not possess the consciousness of immortality through possession of Divine Love; and it will certainly continue to live throughout all eternity the soul and its indissoluble spirit body if it does possess the Divine Love, immortality, and at-onement with the Father.

As soul cannot be taken from, or torn from or in any other way deprived of its spirit body, once it has come to the spirit world, it would be equally impossible for the spirit body to enter the human body of another human being. For only a soul without a spirit body can enter a human body. And, on the death of this body, the soul manifests its spirit body. The doctrine of reincarnation is, therefore, utterly without foundation. For it is impossible, let me repeat, for a soul with its spirit body to enter a human body to be born again in the flesh.

* "New Testament Revelation 20," delivered by Jesus through his second mortal instrument, Dr. Daniel G. Samuels. Ed.

 Found in True Gospel Revealed Anew by Jesus, volumes II and III.

When a human being dies in the flesh, his soul has already achieved, under ordinary circumstances, the purpose of his creation; that is, individualization and the creation of receptacles for souls. And in his spirit body, in size, shape, appearance and nature, is the complete creation without the envelope of flesh.

This soul appears in the spirit world laden with the inharmonies of its earth life. But since it has the opportunity of eliminating these inharmonies and becoming a purified soul in the spirit world through the exercise of its will and moral force and repentance, or becoming a divine angel through prayer to the Father for His Divine Love and Mercy, transforming the soul into the very Essence of the Father, it is therefore absolutely unnecessary for the soul to go back to the flesh for another chance to purify itself; for the Loving and Merciful Father had already provided a Plan that would enable the soul the real man to attain purification. And, here, God showed Himself to be more merciful than He might have been had He decreed successive trials in the flesh for the process of purification. For man, while thus seeking to purify his soul, would at the same time have to contend with the sinful influence of the flesh; and his ultimate purification would thus indefinitely be delayed, or perhaps never accomplished, until the very end of time. You can thus see that God has shown His Love for His created children by providing a Way for them to be purged of their sins while being free of baleful influences of the flesh (which would only hinder, and make more difficult, their tortuous progress toward purification).

As regards the sayings in the New Testament, the first thing is that I never had any thought of reincarnation when I asked my disciples, especially Peter, "Of whom do the people say I am?" That question was formulated simply to have them state whether they considered me the Messiah, as some of them already did, although not in the spiritual sense or the exact understanding that I had brought immortality to earth in my soul.

Again, you were right in thinking that I said: "But I say unto you that it was one like Elijah is come," and not: "But I say unto you that Elijah is come." For I did refer to John, the Baptist, who, in his type of sermon and in his temperament, and even in his garb and food, was a throwback to Elijah. But here the similarity ended. For each of these lived different lives, and are individual souls, and are both living in the Celestial Heavens at the same time; and this is a physical impossibility with reincarnation. For, in this doctrine, if Elijah were John, the Baptist, only one soul and only one spirit body would be involved.

The child born blind did not sin, nor did its parents, but suffered blindness because of the physical defect in his mother which prevented the perfect development of the foetus in her womb; and, thus, this defect has prevented the perfect manifestation of God's Work of creation. This defect is one of many to which the imperfect world of the flesh is subject. And it is for this reason that purification of the soul, while in the flesh, would be a task of countless centuries, and a punishment worse than the most evil hells of the spirit world in its duration. The quotation from Revelation, Ch. 3, Vs. 12: "He shall never more go out," referring to the "Temple of my God," is an allusion of the soul possessing the Divine Love to such a degree that immortality is a conscious possession, and its home is forevermore the Celestial Heavens, although the writer, himself, understood very little of this, and had in mind a purified soul and not a divine soul, with its habitat in the Sixth Sphere.

LEVELS of HEAVEN / PARADISE:

What are the various karmic potentialities of consciousness after death of the body?

The various karmic potentialities of consciousness after death of the body calibrate as follows:

On the Map of Consciousness =

Dr David Ra Hawkins

| | | |
|------------------|-----------------------------|---|
| Levels 600 + | = Higher Heavens (Non-form) | Note: Celestial Heavens are above 1,000 +++ Note: This is the kingdom of man below 1,000 |
| Levels 500 – 600 | = Celestial Realm | 4 th sphere 650 - 840 |
| Levels 240 – 500 | = Higher Astral Planes | 3 rd sphere 500 - 780 |
| Levels 200 – 240 | = Inner Astral Planes | 2 nd sphere 500 - 650 |
| | | 1 st sphere 1 - 500 |

Levels below 200 = Various Levels of Hells / Spheres of Disharmony and the Lower Astral Domain (these being levels of intensive introspection, self analyse, and remoulding if required – not punishment)

Research reveals that the heavens are the destiny only of souls that calibrate over 200 and that there are multiple heavens which reflect different spiritual groups and their belief systems. Historically, various religions have specified certain ‘requirements’ necessary to ‘get into heaven’. It is as though each group then goes to ‘its own’ heavenly region but naively assumes that it is ‘the only one’.

It is reassuring to discover that there are multiple provisions for spiritual destination. That each ‘goes to its own’ is in accord with the overall characteristics of consciousness. Faith and dedication bring their own rewards. To recognise that there are multiple heavens and that each is in accord with its own adherents means that religious conflict and rivalry could be dispensed with out of respect and humility. It is the naïve claim to exclusivity that results in the discord between religious groups.

In the lower regions, time stops and suffering is experienced as eternal and never ending. Thus, as one enters the lower levels of hell, there appears the knowingness that may be visually experienced as the sign “Abandon hope for all eternity”. There the soul goes into the infinite hell of timeless despair as though being shut off totally and forever from the Light of God.

[Dr Michael Newton notes that this isolation (hell / purgatory) is a total loss of access to God for what seems to be an eternity, however, it ends to enable the spirit to go through the process leading to and ultimately reincarnating. It is the reincarnation process that enables the spirit to learn and achieve a higher level of consciousness and subsequently grow as all spirits do.]

What can be explained about the so-called astral realms?

There are an infinite number of universes that exist in infinite dimensions. The world is merely one possible expression of Creation which we call physical from the positionality of the human point of view. Because the world as viewed from this human positionality, with its innate human egocentricity, is considered real, it is then considered that other universes are fantasies, or unreal.

We now have a reliable method to investigate these areas of uncertainty. Historically, sacred scripture has not said that such realms are unreal but has, instead, warned us to avoid the supernatural and other realms. The astral realms are domains that are dangerous to humans for a variety of reasons. They are invisible and cannot be verified by consensual validation and are domains that are unknown to the average person. They are occupied by entities whose energies and intentions are unknown. They are extremely clever and able to seduce innocent humans to yield to their influence. The lower astral realms also include extremely dangerous entities that have the capacity to ‘take over’ the consciousness of weaker humans. The lower astral domains contain an endless number of energies that sound pious and spuriously claim to be spiritual guides, with names such as “Master”, “Baba”, “Brother”, etc. The human is gullible because of the thought that anything non-physical, mysterious, and mystical must be ‘spiritual’.

There are an infinite number of astral planes that claim spiritual authenticity. Innumerable channellers have made contact with them and written many books about them. Each of these domains typically has a spiritual hierarchy, some of which even claim to include Jesus Christ. They also include trainings and initiations and are cult-like in their exclusivity and possessiveness. Some of these realms claim to impart ‘ancient mysteries’ or state that their teachings originate from ancient mystics, prophets, Biblical characters, Egyptian priests, etc. Many include heavy reliance on mystical symbols and rituals.

To the naïve, all these claims sound impressive. The seduction here is one of glamour and specialness, such as to become an ‘initiate’ in an ancient mystery school. Even if this were so, one finds an instant difficulty here in that these entities are in a dimension different from that of the human. Even if their claims were valid, the fact is that you as a human are not going to become one of them at all. These entities are living on obscure astral planes. They may give some accordance to this fact and invite, instead, that one’s soul ‘travel’, with promises of meeting the god of their domain who frequently has a somewhat bizarre-sounding name. Then one discovers, if one continues, that beyond the ‘great god’, there are other, more vast domains, infinite in number, each of which is again ruled by another entity with a mysterious-sounding name. The requirement is often an oath of secrecy, plus a substantial monetary fee. (Note that in Reality, the Supreme is beyond name and form.)

In researching this phenomenon, something rather interesting was discovered. The lower astral planes are inhabited by entities that have refused and hate God. They are jealous of God and have learned how to mimic human personalities, ambitions, and spiritual teachers. Their ploy is to control humans and divert them to a deliberate pathway on which they are blocked from access to God. During this research session, it was not asked why they had refused God, nor were further inquiries made. It is known that many entities on these planes are experts at deception and that their favourite target is a genuine spiritual seeker or even a relatively evolved aspirant who falls for an astral entity that claims to be higher than Jesus Christ.

It is also known from widespread media publicity that extremely negative demonic energies do, in fact, temporarily inhabit physical bodies, often resulting in grotesques criminality and serial killings. It is not uncommon at all for mentally ill or intoxicated persons or people who have had recent brain injuries to publicly proclaim that they hear Jesus Christ or God telling them to act in ways that are obviously the opposite of all verifiable spiritual teachings, exemplified by the current ‘religious’ terrorists.

It seems then that to be born a human is a great gift and opportunity, for humans do have access to salvation, heaven, and enlightenment. It appears that this progression is not a spiritual possibility for entities in other dimensions [or is extraordinarily slow]. Apparently they have created alternatives to God that lack spiritual reality, such as the devil, Satan, Lucifer, or a variety of spurious ‘gods’ who reign over their limited domains as demigods.

It appears that no real benefit can come to a human who dabbles in the occult or astral and supernatural realms. In fact, serious harm can result. Observe the fact that even in the ordinary world of human life, the human mind cannot tell truth from falsehood, even about simple matters. If so, what chance does the human mind have to discern the truth or falsehood of unknown entities with hidden agendas?

The conclusion of the investigations into the matter therefore arrived at the same conclusions as those of spiritual tradition. Avoid (and that means to not even ‘dabble’ with) the supernatural by whatever name it calls itself.

Let us realise that this world has been blessed indeed by very great spiritual teachers and teachings, all of which are complete and total, and there is no need for any pseudo-teachings from ‘other realms’, no matter how impressively, piously, or seductively presented.

The Infinite Supreme is the same for all mankind throughout all time. The God of all human religions is one and the same and transcends all the tribal gods of old. God is both transcendent and immanent, both in heaven and within us. The realised Self is the knowingness of God Immanent, which is in accord with Christ’s teachings that heaven is within us. The infinite, timeless Reality has also been historically referred to as the “Buddha Nature”, “Christ Consciousness”, the “Supreme” of Krishna, etc.

The naïve initiate needs to know that there are false pathways and clever deceivers who stand to gain by engaging the unwary. Christ warned to “beware of the wolf in sheep’s clothing”. That is a distinction that can now be made with certainty and consensually validated verification. This research is therefore dedicated to that teaching.

At the time of the publication of Power vs Force, some of the calibrated estimates were done in 1994. Have any changed since then? For example, at that time, there were only 12 persons on the planet who calibrated at 700, while 85% of the world’s population calibrated below 200.

As a result of the progression of the consciousness of mankind, these figures have changed. At this time (2003), only 78% of the world’s population is below 200. That is indeed a huge advance, with profound implications. Another change is that the number of individuals calibrated over 600 also increased.

The information obtained is not the result of mathematical calculations but of spiritual awareness and consciousness research. As consciousness evolves, entire nations or cultures are undoubtedly going through transitions. These movements affect the consciousness of the whole of mankind.

It is necessary to transcend the illusion of separation and realise that all humanity is one, and that those endowed beings who calibrate over 600 belong to all of us; they are part of us. They are simply the peaks of the waves on the ocean. Those who do calibrate over 600 identify themselves as all of humanity, which they see as beloved and sacred. Their energies are available to all. Out of all-inclusive, unconditional compassion comes the healing of all mankind.

Note:

The Map of Consciousness scale is from 1 to 1,000

The Map of Consciousness (MoC) table is based on the common log of 10. It is not a numeric table.

A calibration increase of 1 point is in fact a 10 fold increase in energy.

A calibration increase of 10 points is in fact a 10,000,000,000 fold increase in energy.

Thus the energy differentials are in fact enormous!

Halo-color overlaps of different hues may surround the primary core colors of a soul. There is also an overlapping of color aura between soul Level I to VI.

SPHERES in the SPIRITUAL REALMS.

Spheres – Celestial Heaven, Eternal Spheres, then Spheres of Paradise:
The realm of the Angels is the Celestial Heavens spheres 8 to infinity.

Spheres to infinity: Soulmate bonding can be achieved in most of the spheres. (Celestial Spheres are not numbered per se.).

Eighth Sphere: All emotional baggage of your entire history has been dealt with – born again. This is the point of new birth, being born again. Celestial Heavens 8 to infinity true immortality.

Seventh Sphere: The gateway cycle, perception of sacramental nature of all things. Disappearance of the material mind and the absolute ascendancy of the soul's mind has been achieved. Divine path.

Six Sphere: Cycle of light / love, love / light or unity. A purely intellectual area, increasing one's knowledge, while living life in absolute harmony with God's laws of spirituality. Natural path peak.

Fifth Sphere: Cycle of light or wisdom. All their Earthly bonds are gone. We are in one of those soul spheres, which offer great opportunities for obtaining the Love of God.

Fourth Sphere: Work of 'atonement' as guides and spiritual healers now excel. As humanity's helpers, their work is a means for self-realization.

Third Sphere: Truth always told. An area where spirits progress in their awareness. In each sphere, there are many planes. Changing pathways requires dropping back to a lower path, then proceed.

Second Sphere: The sphere of decision which is much more spiritual but which was hidden and outside the range of their perceptions. Spirits can now choose the path they wish to follow – desires.

First Sphere: Cycle of awareness. There are vibrational love barriers between each of the spheres. Highest level of the Earth planes is the point of transition from materiality to the spiritual 2nd sphere. Summerland is the highest part of the Earth planes, but it is still a very material region. Children live in Summerland in great numbers, having died prematurely. Twilight zone, the most populated area in the spirit world, and starting point for most. Various hells descending progressively into greater degrees of darkness. All souls can be assisted out of these hells no matter what level they fall. At the deepest levels, the soul finds it extremely difficult to hold itself together. The hells are not fiery physical places. Actions are fear based.

The 2nd, 4th, 6th spirit spheres provide principally for mental and moral advancement, whereas, the 3rd, 5th, 7th soul spheres provide for Feeling Healing progress with Divine Love.

NOTES on the CHRISTIAN BIBLE:

|--------------------|-----|
| Old Testament | 190 |
| Book of Revelation | 70 |

The construction of the bible was the result of a long process that proceeded over several centuries. Within the first few centuries AD, there were well over one hundred manuscripts by numerous authors, each purporting to be valid descriptions and interpretations of the teaching of Jesus Christ. These presented a dilemma over which scholars discoursed and put forth their best efforts. As a result, there was a sequence of a collection of writings that had periodic revisions. Many manuscripts were set aside, such as The Book of Enoch. Later some, such as The Apocrypha, were included by some groups but not others.

Of obvious practical value is the application of the calibration of the levels of consciousness, especially to the differences between the calibration levels of an avatar, a saint, or a sage and their alleged scriptures or canonised holy books. If there is a wide discrepancy between the teachers and the available teachings, this is indicative of error, meaning that much was lost in translation, in transmission, or in misinterpretation. This can be observed most strikingly in dissimilar quotations of Christ's words on the cross between the King James and the Lamsa versions of the Bible, i.e., it makes a world of difference whether Jesus said, "Father, why has thou forsaken me." (King James Version) versus "My father, thou has not forsaken me. From this I have been spared" (Lamsa Translation). Upon reflection, the incongruence of the first quotation is indicated by the fact that an incarnated, fully Enlightened Master who is united with the Oneness of Divinity would unlikely feel deserted by the very source of that Realisation within.

Highly interesting data and important information are provided in the brilliantly clear exposition in the first few pages of the Introduction in the Lamsa Bible, which is a translation from the original Aramaic Peshitta manuscripts that were taken to Constantinople and that constitute the foundation of the scripture of the Eastern Orthodox Church. In the Lamsa Bible's Introduction, comparison is made to the King James Version, which came from the Greek (and calibrates lower).

If all of the Books that calibrate below the credible level of truth at 200 are removed from either the King James or Lams versions of the Bible, the overall calibration level increases markedly. This is even more pronounced if the Old Testament, with the exception of Genesis, Psalms, and Proverbs, is removed, along with the Book of Revelation in the New Testament.

It would take detailed historical analysis to "explain why" erroneous writings were inadvertently included in canonised scriptures, but the obvious explanation is that the overall level of consciousness of the cultures of Biblical times was at 90 to 100, and the great teachers were long dead and unavailable for guidance. Also, there was no means to accurately accessing levels of truth or determining the qualifications of experts.

To recapitulate, the Old Testament calibrates overall at 190, with the exception of Genesis (660), Psalms (650), and Proverbs (350). The Lamsa Bible (from the Aramaic) calibrates twenty points higher than the King James Version (from the Greek).

Although the Books of the Old Testament (with the exception of Psalms, Proverbs, and Genesis) calibrate below 200, many individual verses do calibrate quite high:

Calibration of Verses of the Old Testament

60% calibrate over 200
 50% calibrate over 300
 50% also calibrate over 400
 30% calibrate at 500 or over
 20% calibrate at 600 or over
 10% calibrate at 700 or over
 2% calibrate at 800
 10 verses calibrate at 1,000

In the New Testament, the Book of Revelation (cal. 70) by John (cal. 70) is starkly discordant. Its origin (as described previously) is from the lower astral realms into which many visionaries have been enticed over the centuries. The depictions are that of a particular lower astral level (cal. 70) and therefore not of some level of actual truth, which would thereby calibrate at least over 200. Followers of the Book of Revelation often go into fearful proselytising about the coming “end times” and form reclusive survival groups, complete with bunkers, food storage, etc. Unfortunately, because of their prior reputation or persuasiveness, such leaders impact vulnerable followers. In extreme cases, this fearfulness has led to group suicides or paranoid delusional systems. It is important to know that such visions of lower astral origin are recurrent and described similarly in different generations, right up to the present times, with earthquakes, floods, California’s falling into the ocean, and pillaging hordes. This does not originate from heavenly realms, which calibrate at high levels, but just from a specific lower astral location (cal. 70). All visitors to that realm in astral states of consciousness report experiencing its life-like pseudo-reality.

From research, it is concluded that the highest version of the Bible is the Lams translation, with the deletion of the Book of Revelation from the New Testament, plus deletion of the Old Testament with the exception of Genesis, Psalms, and Proverbs. The overall effect is to raise the calibration of the level of truth of the Bible from 475 to 880, which then puts it on the level represented by great mystics of history.

It is important to recognise that Jesus Christ did not write the New Testament, but instead, it was written by followers who, by word of mouth over many generations, repeated what they thought Christ said or meant. As any spiritual teacher knows from experience, there can be a wide disparity between what was actually said and what a listener thought they heard. When one considers the historical process over the centuries by which the Books of the Bible finally became assembled, it is truly impressive that it calibrates as high as it does. This does lend credence that Divine inspiration was available to the scholars involved in its final versions.

NOTES on the KORAN

The social impact of misinterpretations of the Koran has previously noted. Like the Old Testament, the Koran also includes errors that have serious consequences to mankind. Aside from its references to “the sword”, as discussed previously, there are many verses that are incongruous with “Allah the All Merciful”. These verses recurrently speak of “beholding infidels” and condemn slaughtering non-believers. The Koran calibrates overall at 700.

Calibration of the Verses of the Koran

30% calibrate below 200
 25% calibrate below 150
 14% calibrate below 100

If the verses below 200 are removed, then the Koran calibrates at 940. Inasmuch as “religious homicide” calibrates at 30, it would seem that contamination by falsity is the worst enemy of genuine, pure spirituality (calibrates as “true”).

ANGELIC REVELATIONS of DIVINE TRUTH

Vol: II P.160 through James E. Padgett

John, will you be clarifying your book, “Revelation,” any further?

Well, I have already told you that Revelation was written as a kind of allegory, and that it is now of no practical use and should not be given much attention. Besides, it is not as I wrote it, for many interpretations and additions have been made. At any rate, it is of no importance, and men lose much time in trying to solve what they call its mysteries.

Apostle John

To liberate one’s real self, one’s will, being one’s soul, is begun by embracing Feeling Healing, so as to clear emotional injuries and errors. With the Divine Love, then one is also Soul Healing. We are to feel our feelings, identify what they are, accept and fully acknowledge that we’re feeling them, express them fully, all whilst longing for the truth they are to show us.

TRUE PRAYER – WHEN THREE BECOME ONE:

All possibilities have already been created and are already present. Rather than forcing solutions upon the events of our lives, we are invited to choose which possibility we identify with, and live as if it has already occurred. Clearly, this does not suggest that our “will” is imposed upon others in the form of prayer. Rather, it is our willingness to allow for all possibilities without judging any of them, and knowing that we may attract or repel each through the choices we make in our lives that provides the subtle difference. Choosing an outcome through prayer does not guarantee that it will come to pass; our prayer simply opens the door to the possibility of that outcome. The question now becomes, How may we bring specific outcomes into the focus of the present through prayer?

Thought, feeling, and emotion as unaligned patterns.
In the absence of union, they may lose their focus.

The key to choosing one outcome from among many possible outcomes is our ability to feel as if our choice has already come to pass. From the previous definition of prayer as ‘feeling’, then, stated another way, we are invited to find the quality of thought and emotion that produces such a feeling – living as if our prayer had already been answered. For how may we benefit from the effect of our thought and emotion, if each pattern is moving in a random direction? If, on the other hand, the patterns of our prayer are focused into union, how can the ‘stuff’ of creation fail to respond to our prayer?

When thought, feeling, and emotion are not aligned, each may be considered as out of phase with the others. While there may be brief areas of overlap, much is unfocused, working in different directions, independent of the rest of the pattern. The result is a scattering of energy.

For example, if our thought is “I choose the perfect mate in my life,” a pattern of energy is released that expresses that thought. Any feeling or emotion that is not in sync with our thought is incapable of empowering our choice of a perfect mate. If they are misaligned through feelings that we are not worthy of having such a perfect partner or emotions of fear, our patterns may actually hinder our choice from becoming our outcome. In this non-aligned state we may find ourselves asking why our affirmations and prayers have not worked.

Though misaligned with feeling and emotion. This condition may render our prayer scattered and ineffective.

Through these simple examples, it becomes clear why prayer brings about the greatest change when the elements of prayer are focused and aligned with one another.

Without used the word prayer, and certainly in a less technical fashion, the idea of unifying thought, emotion, and feeling and living from the place of our heart’s desire was offered early in the twentieth century using a different language. Further affirming the use of the fifth mode of prayer, of assuming that our prayer has already happened, the work of Neville offers the following: “You must abandon yourself mentally to your wish fulfilled in your love of that state, and in so doing, live in the new state and no more from the old state.” Though effective, Neville’s descriptions of our ability to change outcomes and choose new possibilities in our lives may have made little sense to the people of the early twentieth century. As with so many thinkers whose ideas are ahead of their time, little was known about Neville’s work until after his death in 1972.

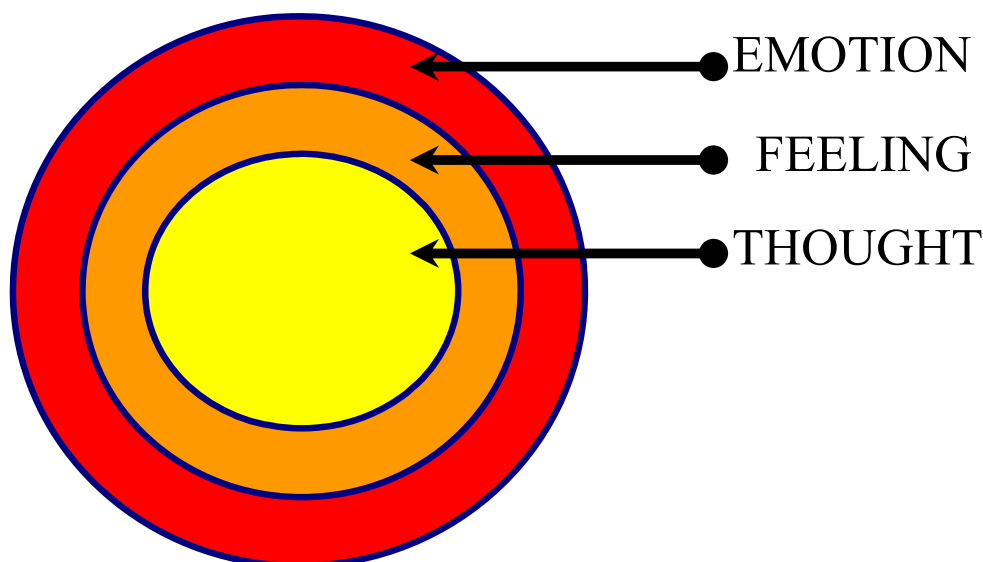

Understanding such as these allow us to view prayer as both a language and a philosophy bridging the worlds of science and spirit. Just as other philosophies are expressed through unique words and specialised vocabularies, prayer has a vocabulary of its own in the silent language of feeling. Sometimes an idea that makes perfect sense to us in one language has very little meaning in another language that we are not familiar with. Still, the language exists.

The philosophy of peace, for example, may be expressed through languages as diverse as physics and politics, as well as prayer. For example, the greatest peace in physics may be described as the absence of motion in a system. In such a language, when frequency, velocity, and wavelength reach zero, the system is at rest and we have peace. In politics, peace may be interpreted as the end of aggression or the absence of war. Our prayers may be thought of in much the same way.

Through the language of prayer, peace may actually be described as an equation, bringing prayer even closer to our science that many have dared to believe. Rather than the equations of numbers and variables, however, logic, feeling, and emotion become the components in our equation of prayer. Taking the form of a standard mathematical proof – if such-and-such is so, then we witness such-and-such an outcome – our equation of active prayer may be seen as follows:

thought = emotion = feeling, then our world mirrors the effect of our prayer.

In the presence of this union, the forces of our inner technology may be focused and applied to our outer world. As we align the components of prayer, we find ourselves speaking the silent language of creation – the language that moves the mountain, ends the wars, and dissolves the tumours.

The beauty of “... whosoever shall say unto this mountain, Be thou removed ... those things which he saith shall come to pass.” (Mark 11:23).
The key to effective prayer is the union of thought, feeling, and emotion.

prayer is that it is not necessary to know precisely how it works to benefit from its miraculous effects. In this universal technology, we are simply invited to experience, feel, and acknowledge what our feelings are saying to us. Our prayers come to life as we focus upon the feeling of heart's desire, rather than the thought of our knowing world.

The Essenes actually show us how to merge the three components into a focused application! They do so by identifying a common denominator that links the end of suffering with aligning the elements of prayer. That thread may best be described by the masters of prayer in their own words:

First shall the Son of Man seek peace within his own body; for his body is as a mountain pond that reflects the sun when it is still and clear. When it is full of mud and stones it reflects nothing.

Then shall the Son of Man seek peace within his own thoughts... There is no greater power in heaven and earth than the thought of the Son of Man. Though unseen by the eyes of the body, yet each thought has mighty strength, even such strength can shake the heavens.

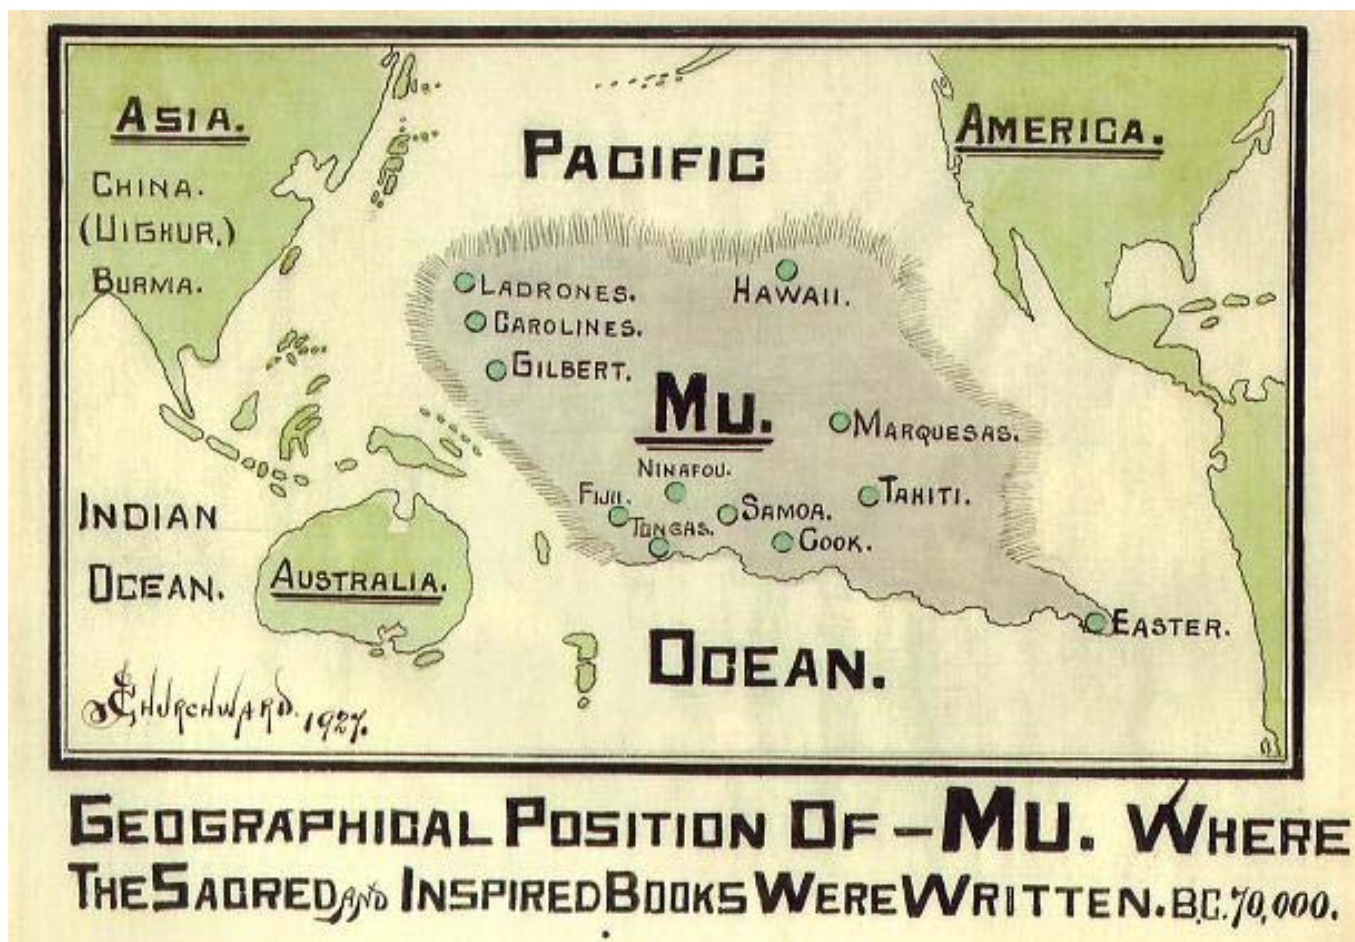

Then shall the Son of Man seek peace with his own feelings. We call on the Angel of love to enter our feelings, that they may be purified. And all that was before impatience and discord will turn into harmony and peace.

Prayer has demonstrated that certain things are, regardless of our ability to prove them in the moment. For example, some of the most sacred memories of our heritage have been scattered throughout the monasteries, churches, tombs, and temples of those who have come before us. The same memories live on in the customs and traditions of peoples that we may previously have judged as primitive. We are capable of beautiful dreams, great possibilities, and unspoken depths of love. Perhaps most important, a possibility already exists in which we have ended the suffering of all creatures by honouring the sacredness of all life. That possibility is already here and with us now. The moment we allow for such possibilities on a mass scale becomes the first moment of new hope. It is that moment that we will always remember. It is the moment when we override the last day of prophecy.

The ancient secrets of healing remind us that there is only one of us here in our world. As we alleviate the pain of others, we alleviate our pain as well. As we love others, we love ourselves. Each man, woman, and child of this world has the power to create a new possibility, to change the thinking that allows suffering.

SACRED AND INSPIRED WRITINGS, notes from BOOKS by Col James CHURCHWARD:

The 64,000,000 peoples of Mu, some 70,000 years ago all believed in the immortality of the soul, which soul eventually returned to the “great source” from whence it came.

P25 Lost Continent of Mu

The ancients knew perfectly well that man at his creation was given Cosmic Forces, that these Forces are under control of the Soul, that when the Soul left the material body it carried the Cosmic Forces with it.

P37 The Children of Mu

Mu became the victim of earthquakes. “The whole continent heaved and rolled like the ocean’s waves. The land trembled and shook like the leaves of a tree in a storm. Temples and palaces came crashing to the ground and monuments and statues were overturned. The cities became heaps of ruins.”

As Mu sank into that gulf of fire another force claimed her – fifty millions of square miles of water. From all sides huge waves or walls of water came rolling in over her. They met where once was the centre of the land.

P30 Lost Continent of Mu

Mu was the biblical Garden of Eden.

P35 Lost Continent of Mu

On this great continent, the Land of Mu, man made his advent on earth about 200,000 years ago.

The Land of Mu and the Biblical Garden of Eden were one and the same land.

Both the Naacal and the Mexican tablets show clearly that man is a special creation. They also show in what way he differs from all other creations. An account of the creation is given in both sets of tables which is very similar to the subsequent Biblical account.

At the time of Mu's destruction her people were in an exceedingly high state of civilisation; as regards science she was far ahead of the present time. (No wonder! She was at the end of 200,000 years of experience and development. We today cannot claim 500.)

The great civilisations of the old Oriental empires – India, Egypt, Babylonia, etc – were only the dying embers of Mu's great civilisation. They were her children, who withered and died without her care.

P16 The Children of Mu

Man on Mu had developed into ten distinct tribes and types of men.

P48 The Children of Mu

The Naacals tell us: "The ten tribes were developed since man came on earth. The people becoming crowded began to spread out. Some families went to far distant settlements; here they were virtually isolated from the rest of mankind. They were so few that sometimes brothers and sisters even had to marry to carry on. These close marriages gave them all a family likeness, so they became a type: time, climate, temperature and food completed the type and they became known as a tribe." "A 100,000 years and more had gone on developing and perfecting these types called tribes in Mu before her destruction came, so that, when she went down, many of these types and colours had become very distinct."

P50 The Children of Mu

The children of the Motherland sailed all over the world in their ships.

P80 The Children of Mu

All the earth was peopled from Mu, the Motherland. The home of the Negro in the Motherland was at the southwest corner of Mu which is now represented by various clusters of islands called Melanesian and here today are Negroes, descendents of those who were saved when Mu was engulfed.

P98 The Children of Mu

The last magnetic cataclysm. Magnetic cataclysms have visited the earth at various times since she first commenced her existence. They are, however, unknown to our present-day scientists; although they were known, perfectly understood, and written about by our forefathers of the earth's first great civilisation more than 25,000 years ago. When the last one occurred, it was after vast fields of ice had been formed in the polar regions. Now all the forces which could change or cause an irregularity in the movements of the poles have become equalised in power. The 'great flood' was the last of the magnetic cataclysms that was to visit earth. It was the last one the earth will ever see, because with this cataclysm the earth went into Final Magnetic Balance.

P209 Cosmic Forces of Mu I

Various Oriental traditions record that the destruction of the Uighur Empire occurred 17,000 years ago. Their capital city was situated in what now forms the Gobi Desert. The extremely ancient city now lies beneath 40 to 50 feet of sand and gravel, carried there by waters of this flood. This flood wiped out eastern parts of the Great Uighur Empire, which stretched her motherly arms from the Pacific Ocean across Asia and into Eastern Europe. The Uighurs were the forefathers of all of the present-day Aryan races.

At the time of this great flood, the gas belts had not been formed, nor the mountains raised. The eastern coast of Asia was totally different then to what it is now.

This great wave rolled up over the north pole bringing waters and ice down into Europe, crushing and grinding into a pulp everything that lay in its path. This was the 'Great Flood'.

P133 Cosmic Forces of Mu II

There were survivors of this world's greatest catastrophe since the flood of biblical fame. The sinking of Mu occurred about 10,000BC. The Troano Manuscripts places the sinking of the land of Mu as having occurred approximately 12,500 years ago.

Atlantis was submerged 11,500 years ago (9,500BC).

P41 Lost Continent of Mu

P119 Lost Continent of Mu

The sacred symbols of Mu have been found among all peoples throughout the world.

P125 Lost Continent of Mu

Unscrupulous Egyptian priests first invented the devil, then they had to find an abode for him, so they invented hell. Five thousand years ago the devil and hell were unknown.

P140 Lost Continent of Mu

35,000 years ago, the Cosmic Diagram of the land of Mu, freely given in modern language, would read:

"I believe there are eight roads which I must travel in order to reach Heaven. After having travelled the eight roads (mentioning them), I arrive at the twelve gates leading to the world beyond. Here I must prove that I have overcome the twelve earthly temptations (mentioning them). I shall then pass through into the world beyond and reach the gates of Heaven. There I must show that I learned and practised the twelve virtues on earth (mentioning them). Then I am taken through the gates of Heaven to the throne of glory, where sits the Heavenly King."

Have we today among all our sects and religions any that is purer and more simple than this of the lost people of the Motherland of Man?

P143 Lost Continent of Mu

Man was created a civilized being – some 200,000 years ago.

P266 Lost Continent of Mu

The oldest classics in China, going back to the time of Abraham (between 2000 BC/BCE and 1500 BC/BCE), show a wonderful knowledge of God. There are passages in these classics about God worthy to stand side by side with kindred passages in the Bible. God was omnipotent, omniscient, and omnipresent; the moral governor of the world and the impartial judge of men.

P276 Lost Continent of Mu

All traditions of the Creation, wherever found, came of a common origin. It matters not whether it is our biblical traditions, the traditions of the Hindus, Chaldeans, Egyptians, Mayas, Polynesians or others; there original source was the same and dates back to very early man, tens of thousands of years ago, and maybe even more.

Probably the most astounding of all is the fact that the Polynesians, who have been shut in from the rest of the world for over 12,000 years, should have among themselves traditions of the Creation identically like the biblical account, such as the names of the first man and woman.

P279 Lost Continent of Mu

Moses wrote the first books of the Bible from the temple records brought to Egypt from the Motherland by the Naacals via Burma and India; and that these Egyptian temple records were copies of the “Seven Sacred Inspired Writings” of the Motherland – Mu.

P287 Lost Continent of Mu

The Vedas were stolen from the Naacal writings and changed by Brahmins to accomplish a diabolical end, and to foist the sublime thoughts on the world as their own writings. The original Vedas are Naacal writings. The Naacals acknowledge ONE Deity only.

P62 The Children of Mu

Osiris was born in Atlantis about 22,000 years ago (20,000BC). He left Atlantis when a young man and went to Mu the Motherland. Here he entered a Naacal College where he remained until he had become a Master and an adept. He then returned to Atlantis where he preached and taught the Sacred Inspired Writings, the first religion of man. He expunged from the Atlantean religion various excesses, extravagancies and misconceptions that had been creeping into the religion of Atlantis.

His teachings were of Love. Love of man for his Heavenly Father. Love of the Heavenly Father for His son man, and the Love of man for all of God’s creations. He taught faith, hope and charity with Love at the head. He taught the way in which man must live here on earth to carry out the wishes of his Heavenly Father, and to be prepared when his call came to enter the world beyond.

Osiris became the hieratic head of the church of Atlantis which position he held through a long life.

P173 Books of the Golden Age

Many of teachings in the Jewish religion are directly traceable to the Osirian: as for instance the Ten Commandments. These came out of the 42 questions to be answered to the 42 questionnaires in the Great Hall of Faith. As there were 42 questions involving 42 questionnaires, to monotheise these, the questionnaires had to be eliminated – to eliminate them and still retain the conception, the questions were grouped and turned into commandments. The ultimate end of both are identically the same. If these questionnaires had not been eliminated then only a partial monotheism could have taken place, which would leave a breach open for future diversions. Moses evidently saw this and prepared against it.

P175 Books of the Golden Age

Moses without question bases his religious laws on the Pure Osirian as taught by Thoth. Take for instance the ten commandments. In the Great Hall of Truth of Osiris there are placed forty-two gods in a row, to ask the soul when it enters this Judgment Hall forty-two questions regarding the life of the material body in which it had dwelt.

Moses took these forty-two questions and in a condensed form made forty-two commands out of them which he condensed to ten commands. This drastic change made by Moses was unquestionably necessary to meet the condition into which his people had fallen. Moses changed nothing in conception, he simply made more emphatic how they must live their lives here on earth. He applied these laws to the living directly instead of to the dead. The ten commandments, however, are found in the Sacred Inspired Writings of Mu more than 70,000 years ago, only in the form of questions instead of commands.

The Negative Confession of Ani details the 42 questions in The Egyptian Book of the Dead by EA Wallis Budge on page 346. The papyrus of Ani dates back 3,500 years. Also in the Egyptian Book of the Dead, (the papyrus of Ani) are elements of the Lords Prayer on page 251. Lawrence Gardner in Genesis of the Grail Kings makes reference to the origins of the Lords Prayer on page 274.

The Lord's Prayer, the greatest work of its kind ever penned or spoken, is to be found in the Sacred Writings of Mu.

P46 Sacred Symbols of Mu

Jesus did not teach a new faith but the Original Religion of Man.

My old friend, the Rishi, never tired of talking of the Great Master, Jesus. One day he said to me: "The Lord's Prayer, as the Christians call it, is the greatest masterpiece of phraseology and condensation ever written, for it embodies the whole of the ancient religion in a few short paragraphs. Take, for instance, the beginning, 'Our Father which art in Heaven.' In these six words many points in the ancient religion are covered. It first tells us that we are His children; therefore all mankind are brothers and sisters. 'Forgive us our trespasses as we forgive others that trespass against us.' These simple words tell us our duty one to the other, and that we should love one another like brothers and sisters. Again 'Our Father' tells us that we should approach Him as we would our earthly father, with love and confidence. 'Give us this day our daily bread' is another wonderful sentence and far-reaching. It tells us that we should avoid greed and the craving to amass wealth and depend on Him for our daily needs. He will care for us, thus leaving us free to amass spiritual wealth without anxiety about the material."

Another favourite sentence in the Lord's Prayer to comment on was: 'Lead us not into temptation.' This he said, "was unquestionably a mistranslation of the Master's words and, no doubt, was unintentional, arising from careless reading." He went on: "Let us reason it out. In one of the paragraphs it is shown that the Heavenly Father is the All Powerful, for it says: 'For Thine is the Kingdom, the Power and the Glory.' Here it is shown that the supposed leader into temptation is the All Powerful. Therefore, being All Powerful, He cannot fail; and who is the All Powerful? Our kindly Heavenly Father whose love is so great it rules the universe. Could He forget His great love and set a trap for a son's downfall? Impossible!"

“I think the words of the Master, correctly translated, would be: ‘Let us not be led into temptation’; for the in the Sacred Writings we find: ‘O Heavenly Father, let not temptation overtake or surround us. If it does, deliver us from it.’ These are the reasons why I feel that the words of the Great Master have been unintentionally misquoted or mistranslated.”

P50 Sacred Symbols of Mu

It would appear quite remarkable that the teachings of Osiris, Gautama and Jesus should have been so alike in wording. In many cases they are absolutely identical word for word. And in the case of some sentences, it would defy anyone on earth to say which of these three great masters uttered the words. And yet, when one stops to think, it is not so remarkable because they all preached and explained the first religion of man as told in the Sacred Inspired Writings of Mu, the Motherland.

P160 The Children of Mu

The First Religion: The Sacred Inspired Books were written for the purpose of teaching early man religion; therefore, man’s first religion was the teachings of the Sacred Books. The basis of this religion was Love. Man’s Love for the Heavenly Father and His works. The Divine Love of the Heavenly Father for His son Man.

Every teaching was plain and simple without a particle of theology. The most ignorant could understand every phrase in it. There was nothing of any kind indefinite. It was impossible not to understand it thoroughly. Man was taught to approach the Heavenly Father, not with fear or dread, but with confidence, and above all, Love: as a child would run to its earthly father who is standing with outstretched arms to receive it. Love stood at the head of the 12 great virtues, because Love governs the Universe and the Heavenly Father is The Great Love.

After studying the teachings of these writings, if one were asked, “Where is God’s greatest temple on earth?” One should answer: “In the heart of man; the perfect temple for the adoration of God; the perfect temple for silent meditation and Love; the temple available at all times and in all places, any hour of the day or night, whether it be in crowded city or desert plain, for the Love and Adoration of the Heavenly and the temple where man can become at one with the Heavenly Father.” Tell me, what other temple can fill its place?

P51 Discovery of the Presence of God

The First Religion: The Sacred Inspired Books were written for the purpose of teaching early man religion; therefore, man's first religion was the teachings of the Sacred Books.

The basis of the first religion taught to man was – Love. The Love of Man for his Heavenly Father. The Love of the Heavenly Father for his son man, and the love of man for all of God's creations.

Man was taught to approach God in reverence but without fear or trepidation, just as a child would approach his earthly father knowing that open loving arms were extended to receive him.

Early man knew no fear of God, because he loved God and he knew God loved him in return.

All of the ancient teachings were the same all over the world, it was a universal church without sect, creed, theology or dogma.

Every teaching was plain and simple without a particle of theology. The most ignorant could understand every phrase in it. There was nothing of any kind indefinite. It was impossible not to understand it thoroughly. Man was taught to approach the Heavenly Father, not with fear or dread, but with confidence, and above all, Love: as a child would run to its earthly father who is standing with outstretched arms to receive it. Love stood at the head of the 12 great virtues, because Love governs the Universe and the Heavenly Father is The Great Love.

YOU ARE CHANGING THE WORLD:

An excerpt from the book, "The Shift: The Revolution in Human Consciousness" by Owen Waters, Editor, Infinite Being News. Available now at Amazon.com

In the book 'Power vs. Force: The Hidden Determinants in Human Behaviour,' David Hawkins reveals some fascinating properties of human consciousness. In it, he created and calibrated an enormously useful map of human consciousness, one which should rightfully be called, 'The Hawkins Scale of Consciousness or the Map of Consciousness.'

Hawkins began practicing psychiatry in 1952, and then discovered the power of kinesiology, the science which obtains answers direct from the subconscious mind of a subject through muscle-testing.

The subconscious (or unconscious) mind is one segment of your total range of consciousness. The subconscious mind stores memories and emotional issues. It controls the involuntary nervous system, which manages such systems as breathing, digestion and metabolism. It is also in communication with the universe as a whole. In particular, it is connected to the global, or collective unconscious, mind of humanity.

The subconscious mind is, basically, the ultimate information source, one which is ready to provide information about anything upon demand.

With kinesiology, the subjects' conscious minds are bypassed in order to receive clear answers directly from their subconscious minds. The tests are mechanically very simple. Subjects hold out an arm horizontally to the side while people designated as testers tell the subjects to resist their efforts to push one arm down with each question. If the arm remains strong and stays horizontal, then the answer from the subconscious mind of the subject is affirmative. If the arm yields downwards due to weakness then the answer is negative.

If, for example, you tell a test subject to resist while you tell them, "You have a human body" their arm will stay strong. If you change the statement to, "You are a human body" their arm will go weak as this is an incorrect statement. The reason for this is that we, as spirits, merely inhabit our physical bodies. We are not our bodies, even though the ego tends to see us as who we are in the mirror. The subconscious mind knows that the true answer is, "You have a human body."

John Diamond, M.D., another early researcher in kinesiology, observed cases where the right and left hemispheres of a person's brain were working together. The left hemisphere of the brain is normally used for analytical thinking and verbal activity, while the right hemisphere is used for intuitive and artistic activities as well as spatial orientation.

This explains why it is so hard to drive a car at the same time as carrying on a telephone conversation. In order to pay attention to the road and the activities of other traffic, the driver has to switch from one hemisphere of the brain over to the other side, and then switch back again to continue the conversation.

In the rare cases where both hemispheres were working equally together, Diamond discovered that the person now displayed creativity, which he referred to as mankind's highest functioning. David Hawkins found kinesiology to be a fascinating avenue into the unknown, and he began accessing what he calls attractor fields in the subconscious. Attractor fields are what Carl Jung called archetypes. They are created by the group efforts of millions of minds in the collective unconscious and hold a fascination for people because of their cumulative size.

Just when his practice became huge, with fifty therapists and other employees working for him, Hawkins abandoned it all for a life of research. Instead of treating one patient at a time, Hawkins wanted to discover how everyone could be helped by the promise and potential of kinesiology.

His research over the years proved conclusively the same thing that the new theoretical physics is beginning to say, that everything in the universe is connected. With kinesiology, he confirmed that whatever question is asked, if there is an answer to that question somewhere in the universe, then that answer will become yours.

He also set up a system of calibrating levels of human consciousness. Assigning the numbers one to infinity as the possible range of consciousness, he soon found that he had to use the logarithm of numbers, rather than just plain numbers. This is because the power of consciousness at higher levels is vast compared to its power at lower levels.

When you use a base-ten logarithmic system, the number 4 is not twice the number 2. Log 4 is 10,000 (one plus four zeros) versus log 2's value of just 100 (one plus two zeros). A consciousness level of 300 is not twice 150, it is 10 to the 300th power; a one with 300 zeros after it.

Furthermore, Hawkins found that the consciousness level of 200 was critical. A global average of 200 or more is necessary to sustain life on this planet without it sinking into eventual self-destruction. Since the mid-1980s, he reports, the global average reading for humanity climbed above the critical 200 level. This, of course, is yet another discovery confirming the existence of today's ongoing shift in consciousness.

Then, he began to wonder how much people of higher consciousness were compensating for people who live below the 200 level. Consider, for example, that 800 million people in the world are hungry, with many of them living near starvation. The consciousness of despair tests at a level of just 50. Even anger and hatred rate higher in frequency than the deep depression experienced by those who live with no appearance of hope.

So here we are, on Planet Earth, a collective humanity swimming hard through life to keep our collective chin above the 200 level, working towards the day when hunger and hopelessness will be eradicated from our world once and for all.

What can you do to help? As you raise your consciousness, you contribute more and more to the spiritual quality of the global mind. Therefore, your greatest service to humanity is, paradoxically, the development of your own consciousness.

How exactly can that help the world? Getting back to modern science and its numbering systems, along with today's liking for summaries that spell out 'the bottom line,' here are the test results.

One individual at a higher level of consciousness counterbalances many, many individuals who are below the critical level of 200. Below the 200 level are the attractor fields of shame, guilt, apathy, grief, fear, desire, anger and pride. Right at the critical 200 level comes courage and its ability to empower the self out of the victim-orientation of the lower frequencies.

At 300, a person has risen above many emotions of conflict to achieve some non-judgment and to feel optimism. At 300, one person, within the global mind, counterbalances an incredible total of 90,000 people below the 200 level. Such is the power of higher states of consciousness.

At 400, the individual achieves a harmonious attitude which brings acceptance and forgiveness. Furthermore, they gain an enhanced sense of reason, which brings understanding and meaning to life. This is not a difficult level to achieve. Those who, for example, pursue higher education and the professions function at the 400 level, where one person counterbalances an incredible 400,000 people below the 200 level.

To reach 500, a person needs to be spiritually conscious. At this level, unconditional love and unconditional forgiveness become alive and well in their reality. Here, one person counterbalances 750,000 people who are below the 200 level.

When a person has practiced meditation long and diligently enough to attain bliss consciousness at the 600 level, they are, at that moment, counterbalancing 10 million people below the 200 level.

Do you need a more compelling reason to develop your inner faculties? Just look at the wonderful level of service that each advance in consciousness brings into our world.

And all this is by just being who you are and who you can become, before you even begin to physically help make the world a better place through your support and direct action. This wonderful level of service is the direct effect of your consciousness upon a world which has been starved, for so long, of spiritual thought and spiritual energy.

The CHURCH's CONTAMINATION by EGO: P.271 Hidden Mysteries by Joshua David Stone

It must be understood that the most important relationship in your life is your relationship to yourself, not your relationship to God. This sounds blasphemous, but it is true. If you are not right with yourself, you will project your wrong relationship to self onto everything in your life, including your relationship to God. If you don't learn to control your lower self, or negative ego, it will interpret life for you.

This is true in all areas of life, including religion. The negative ego has been allowed to interpret the Bible and the teachings of Jesus. As Djwhal Khul has said in the Alice Bailey books, it isn't that Christ has failed, it is that the human element has prostituted the truth he presented.

Djwhal goes on to say, in the Alice Bailey book Problems of Humanity, that theology, dogma, doctrine, materialism, politics, and money have created a vast dark cloud between the churches and God. The two major factors responsible for the failure of the churches, according to Djwhal Khul, are:

1. The narrow theological interpretations of scripture, and
2. The material and political ambitions of the clergy.

The teachings of traditional and fundamentalist Christianity are incredibly confused. They have been made by well-meaning, good people who have accepted a false doctrine made up by ignorant men. Some of the misconceptions are as follows.

The first great misconception is that Jesus is the only son of God and the rest of humanity are lowly, sinful worms. Every person on Earth or anywhere else is a child of God just as Jesus is. This is clearly what Jesus taught. There is no such thing as an original sin. Each person is the Eternal Self, the Christ. In truth, you are on Earth to realise that.

Jesus, whom the Christian Church makes out to be more special than everybody else, in truth was only a third degree initiate. He did not ascend, as the Christian tradition says he did.

The traditional Christian Church has completely missed the fact that the Lord Maitreya, the Planetary Christ and head of the Great White Brotherhood, was overshadowing Jesus during the last three years of his life. It was really Maitreya who performed all the miracles. It was Maitreya who ascended, not Jesus. Lord Maitreya was the realised Christ, not Jesus; Jesus was his instrument.

Traditional Christian belief holds that Jesus was crucified to redeem man from sin. Man has no sin, only mistakes and lessons and his own personal karma that must be balanced. This is another total misconception. A Course in Miracles teaches that Jesus was crucified to teach an extreme lesson of love and forgiveness.

Jesus' crucifixion could not take away your sins not only because you have no eternal stains on your character, but also because you are responsible for your own personal karma, and Jesus' crucifixion did not lift that responsibility.

Traditional Christianity believes that if you accept Jesus as your personal saviour, you are saved and will go to Heaven and be with Jesus. Every one else will go to Hell, which is a place of eternal damnation, or will physically die and be obliterated. This is an incredibly confused doctrine.

First of all, there are many dimensions in God's creation and accepting Jesus is not necessarily going to get you anywhere. Where you go when you die is determined by the level of initiation you have obtained during your life on Earth.

Accepting Jesus or going to church on Sunday doesn't mean anything. It is what is in your heart and in your every thought, word, and deed throughout your life that will determine your spiritual progress. Your salvation is not up to God or Jesus; your salvation is up to you.

God has provided everything. He always has and always will. It is you who can choose to separate yourself from God through your own thinking. Each of you is the Christ, in truth, and you are here on Earth to demonstrate that truth.

You do not need a priest to serve as an intermediary and tell you how to interpret God's word or the Bible. The traditional Christian teaching says that the Bible is written by God. That is completely false. The Bible was written by men. The Bible is mostly man's interpretation of God, not God's direct revelation.

It must also be understood that the Bible was written two thousand years ago and is outdated to a certain extent. The Bible is a fantastic book; the problems lies in who is interpreting it. Traditional Christian interpretations of what the Bible says are confused and distorted. They will come to your door and tell you it is right there in the Bible. It is not right there in the Bible; it is in their interpretation of the Bible.

It is important to know that men in positions of power in the church actually extracted from the Bible statements they didn't like. An example of this is reincarnation. The Bible used to be filled with references to reincarnation. Then in 553 AD the Second Council of Constantinople issued a decree that all references to reincarnation be removed from the Bible. This is an indisputable fact, for it is in the minutes of the meeting, which can be looked up in the appropriate historical reference book.

Traditional Christians believe that anyone who disagrees with them is of the devil. First of all, there is no devil, there is only glamour, illusion, and maya. Secondly, this belief is just a product of incredible self-righteousness. They actually believe that the Bible and the teachings of Jesus are the only path to God and that all other religions and spiritual masters – including Buddha, Krishna, and Sai Baba, Hinduism, Judaism, and Islam – are of the devil.

They say they follow the teachings of Jesus who clearly preached unconditional love, yet these groups are among the most conditionally loving, judgemental, intolerant, attacking, self-righteous groups of people on Planet Earth. Their religion is based on fear and guilt. Anything that goes wrong, they believe, means God is punishing you. This, of course, is complete illusion, because God doesn't create your reality, you do. It is just a convenient weapon of the church higher-ups to control the people. They actually make God out to be judgemental, attacking, and angry, much like the Old Testament God of ancient Judaism: if you don't do what the Church says, you are destined for hellfire and eternal damnation.

They make the spiritual path out to be a path of suffering, and they teach people to be martyrs. The spiritual path, in truth, is a path of boundless joy and of balance. The Church teaches a type of conditional immortality that says you must do what the Church says or you will die. This is absurd because all people are immortal. Death is a complete impossibility, regardless of your level of evolution. Hell is not a place of eternal damnation; it is a state of consciousness that you can evolve out of.

Another abhorrent practice of the traditional Christian Church is teaching their followers to proselytize (convert from one belief to another). They are taught to lay their trip on other people and not respect the beliefs or the personal space of others.

They believe in a last judgement in which Christ or God judges everyone and decides if you will be obliterated, go to Hell, or go to Heaven. This is totally absurd. God and Christ are incapable of judgement, by definition. The only judgement is done by yourself, and it would be more accurate to call it spiritual discernment. If you haven't learned your lessons then you will have to incarnate again and come back to school. The Church has no recognition of this fact or of the fact that Jesus has had many incarnations.

Another thing the Christian Church has conveniently failed to mention is the fact that Jesus studied Buddhism and was initiated in the Great Pyramid of Egypt. They also have purposely hidden the manuscripts telling of his life as an Essen. All these manuscripts are in the Vatican's secret libraries, but the general public will never see them because it would destroy the foundation of the entire Church if the information ever got out.

The fundamentalist Christian Church is incredibly judgemental and intolerant as is evidenced, for example, by their views on homosexuality and abortion. In considering abortion, they confuse the physical body with the incarnated personality who only inhabits the body. In respect to homosexuality, Jesus taught unconditional love and nonjudgementalness; the fundamentalist Christians practice neither. Traditional Christianity has formulated a doctrine with which Jesus and the Lord Maitreya are not connected. It has created an actual tomb for true Christian teachings.

During its two thousand year life, the Christian Church has been militant, fanatical, and grossly materialistic. Look at the Crusades as one striking example. Look at the fanaticism of the pro-life groups. The churches have been more interested in building beautiful, ornate, glamorous churches than in helping the poor. The money they gather supports a powerful ecclesiastical hierarchy.

In the Catholic Church, the views of the Pope are seen as infallible, which is absurd when you look at some of the teachings such as the prohibition of condoms and all other forms of birth control.

The policy is to keep the masses of people ignorant and to turn totally against any new or evolutionary presentation of truth. The fundamentalist Christian churches are completely stuck in the past. There is no continuing revelation of God.

The Christian Church is doing the exact same thing the Jewish leaders did upon the appearance of Christ two thousand years ago: they remained stuck in the law and didn't allow themselves to evolve to the next dispensation of truth. Lord Maitreya, the Planetary Christ, is on the planet now, and when he declares himself (which is still some time off), people will reject him. They believe Jesus is coming, and that is not true. They are waiting, in truth, for the Christ. He is here, but they will look at him as the devil because he doesn't correspond with their ignorant doctrine.

They you have to look at the television ministers, who, for the most part (with a few exceptions) are interested in collecting money more than anything else. It is no accident that half of the famous ones have been caught having affairs.

The Church has no relationship to the ascended masters or to the true Spiritual Hierarchy that governs this planet. It is filled with bigotry, selfishness, greed, and narrow-mindedness. Something you might ask yourself is whether Jesus and the Lord Maitreya would feel comfortable in their own church.

One of the worst teachings is that of prophecy. They are holding on to prophecies that were given in the Bible anywhere from two to four thousand years ago and are totally outdated. They are projecting an Armageddon to end the world. That is not going to happen. We are not saying that it was not a possibility when the prophecies were given in ancient times. However, humankind has evolved to the point where it has overcome the need for Armageddon. That is the whole purpose of prophecy: to warn humanity to change, using the free will God has bestowed. The ignorance of the Christian Church proclaims that if it is in the Bible it has to happen. What such believers are doing is projecting their mind power to create Armageddon and the end of the world. They will actually be disappointed if it doesn't happen.

Most of the people in the Church are good, well-meaning people who are being poisoned by a false doctrine and false teachings. The coming declaration of the Christ and the externalisation of the Hierarchy will bring about the new world religion which will give the traditional people of the world a new alternative.

It will be a universalistic spirituality that accepts all religions as equally valid. It will cleanse all religions of the cancer of glamour, illusion, maya, and ego. The New Age movement has been the initial thrust that is leading the world in this loving and non-judgemental direction.

Whilst we are receiving our Heavenly Parents' Divine Love, and that this Love is causing change within our soul and spirit attributes, the greatest Truth known to man and spirit is that this is the way our Mother and Father are actually loving us! When we progress, it is God's way of loving us into love and then we live what we are, love.

ANGELIC REVELATIONS of DIVINE TRUTH

Vol: II P.232-242 through James E. Padgett

Jesus Declares That Those Who Worship Him, as They Do in the Churches, Commit Blasphemy

I AM HERE. Jesus.

I was with you at the church this morning, and I impressed you with my feelings in reference to what the preacher said as to my sacrifice and blood. But instead of calling upon his people to show their gratitude for the sacrifice and the cross, he should have taught them that the sacrifice and the blood do not save them from their sins. In that particular, there is nothing that calls for their gratitude. And to worship me as they do, and as he teaches them to do, is blasphemy, and a more heinous sin than ingratitude.

I was successful in impressing you with my feelings of dissatisfaction, and was glad that I could, for it shows that our rapport is becoming closer. After awhile, you will be able to receive my thoughts and inspirations as well as my writings.

You must pray and have faith, and, if you do, you will more often have the experiences that you did last night, which only means a quicker soul development.

Trust me and you will not be disappointed.

I will not write more now.

So, with my love and the Father's Blessings, I will say good night.

Your brother and friend,
JESUS.

A Spirit from the Fifth Sphere Emphasizes That Mr. Padgett Must Believe in Jesus as a Saviour, but Not Through the Vicarious Atonement

I AM HERE. John B. Carroll.

Go to the Lord. Your strength will be renewed and your soul will receive a wonderful inflowing of the Divine Love so that you will be able to throw aside all worries and earthly cares and be in condition to receive the great Truths that are awaiting you. For you have the greatest spirit in all God's Universe as your helper and friend.

This I tell you because you need to be sustained, and will be as long as you live the life of a mortal.

I am not one who is known in the annals of the church or in the lives of the "saints" for I never was a saint on earth and neither am I here—but only a lowly follower of the Master who, to me, is the most wonderful of all God's creatures.

So, you must believe that he is your friend and saviour, for he is. And you need not believe in his blood, or his vicarious atonement, or his self-sacrifice either. Only believe in the Divine Love and in the further fact that Jesus is the wayshower to all who may seek this great salvation.

I must not write more, for I am not one of the high Celestial spirits, as I live in the Fifth Sphere only. But, nevertheless, I have a very great deal of that Love, and a happiness which I cannot tell you of.

So, with all my love, I will say good night.

Your friend,

Luke Defines Religion as the Relationship and Harmony of Men's Souls with the Soul of God. He Also Discusses the Difference in the Teachings of Various Churches in Terms of Their Effect Upon Spiritual Development

I AM HERE. Luke.

Let me write a line. I was with you tonight at the church and listened to what the preacher said in reference to religions and their point of contact. I was somewhat surprised at his declarations as to the analogy which he drew between the believers in the various so-called "Christian" religions.

As you know, while there is implanted a longing in the souls of men for that which tends to elevate and spiritualize them, even though this longing may not be consciously present with a large number of them, yet, the beliefs as to the ways in which this longing may be made manifest and develop the spiritual nature of the soul are very different among those professing these various religions; and these ways are not equally efficacious in causing their spiritual development.

Religion is a matter of soul and not of intellect. The greater the development of the soul in the right direction, the higher will be the spiritual state or condition of the soul. Mere intellectual belief, no matter how intense and undoubting, will not tend to bring about this spiritual development. For religion is really nothing but the relationship and harmony of men's souls with the soul of god.

The mind will not be sufficient to create this state because the mind of man cannot possibly bring the soul of the creator and that of the creature into harmony. Mind, in its exercise, may tend to awaken the soul to this possibility of relationship, but only the workings of the soul can effectuate the complete unity of the creator and the created. Only soul can speak to soul. And mind is only a helper, provided the soul is alive in its longings.

So, it is apparent that that form of belief which is wholly of the intellect can have no common meeting place with that belief which is the result of the development of the soul. Hence, to say that men of all the various religions are in an equal relationship to the Father, just because they are what are called Christians, is erroneous and misleading.

As regards the condition of man as the perfect man, these several religions may tend to bring about this state of perfection if the moral precepts which they teach are observed and practiced by men. But as regards man as the divine angel—that is, as a spirit having the Essence of the Divine in itself—only that religion which teaches the true Way to acquire this divinity can lead men to the At-onement with the Father in His Very Nature. In this respect, there can be only one true religion, and only one Way in which that religion can be practiced and possessed. And to say that all religions have a common point of approach is misleading and deceiving.

Among these various religions, I know that there are individuals who have found the Way to the method of becoming transformed into the Divine Nature of the Father, and, this, notwithstanding that the teachings and creeds of the several churches do not show the Way to this soul development into the spiritual of the divine. But, in these churches, there is wanting in their dogmas and doctrines that which will help men to this true religion.

Because it may be found in the churches that there are some who have this divine spirituality to a degree, there is still no justification in saying that there is any common place of meeting in these several religions. Of course, the moral precepts may be and are taught by all the Christian churches, and, when observed, will ultimately lead all men to the condition of the perfect natural man. But only to this extent can it be said that they may have a common ground of religion arising from the belief in the moral teachings.

And the church which declares and teaches these moral teachings as its religion, with great exactness and more enlarged comprehension, is the church in which this “natural” religion, as I may call it, exists. And the more dissimilar these churches are in these teachings, the farther apart is their approach.

If a preacher of one church knows, with the conviction that arises from his sincere and honest investigation of the moral laws, that some other church is not teaching or insisting on the observation of these great moral truths on the part of its members, then he has no right to conclude and say this latter church is the possessor of religion as much as the church is in which these moral truths are taught and followed by its adherents.

It is a mistake for a preacher to say that, because there may be good and spiritual men in all churches, therefore, one church is as good and religious in its teachings as another church. Truth is of such a nature that it cannot be compromised. And the man or preacher who would compromise the Truth is not fulfilling his duty to God or man.

The church which teaches that there is nothing greater than morality, and that man can become no more transcendent than the perfect man, is devoid of the Truth. This church would not be accepted as a teacher of the full Truth, as would the church which knows and teaches the Way by which man may become a divine angel.

That the preachers of the various churches should accept all churches as equal and the possessors of the true religion (whenever these moral lessons are alike taught by these churches and have a common point of approach) is not to be wondered at, because these preachers do not know the higher religion and are not able to teach the Way to the same. And when it is understood that a moral truth is a truth, no matter where it may appear and by whom it is taught, there is some justification in declaring that all churches which teach the moral truths are on a plane of equality, and that one is entitled to as much respect and freedom from criticism as another. And, further, as the great truth of the rebestowal of the potentiality of receiving the divine love, and the effect on men’s souls, was never known and taught until the coming of the master, it is not surprising that none of the churches can or do teach this great spiritual truth, and the only true religion arising there from. The knowledge of this truth perished from the earth a short time after the passing of the master. And, hence, no church can teach this religion of the soul that transforms the mortal into the divine.

The religion of the perfect man may exist in varying degrees in all the Christian churches. But the religion of the divine angel exists in none, although some individuals of these churches, to some extent, have received the great truth in their souls—the divine love—even though they have no intellectual knowledge of the same.

I thought it advisable to make these few remarks on the declaration of the preacher, as showing that his broad assertion of the equality of the religions mentioned, (which, to him, are all-embracing) may have a common meeting point with every religion.

When he learns the Truth, he will realize the errors of his human and brotherly declarations.
I will not write more. Good night and God bless you.

Your brother in Christ,
LUKE.

John, the Apostle, Comments on the Beliefs of a Preacher

I AM HERE. John.

The preacher said that there is no other salvation than through the blood of Jesus. How in error he is, and how he will find the Truth on his awakening in the spirit life! Let not your heart be troubled or your faith in the Master be shaken by anything that he or any other man may say.

I was at the meeting. And what the preacher said was all right, except when he implied that you must believe that only the blood saves from sin. He did not say that in so many words, but that was what he intended that his sermon should convey.

(Who are you?)

I am John. And I never said that the blood of Jesus saves from sin, and neither did Jesus or any of his apostles.

Let not the preacher's conversation cause you to doubt for a moment what we have written to you. So, I will stop now and will only say further that we are all with you and want you to believe firmly in what we may write.

(But there are so many who believe in salvation through the blood of Jesus.)

Yes, I am sorry to say that is their belief, and what a great mistake they make. And how great the awakening will be for them when they shall learn the Truth!

So, believe and trust!

JOHN.

Ann Rollins Declares That the Blood of Jesus Does Not Save from Sin

I AM HERE. Your own dear grandmother.

I came to tell you that I know now that the blood of Jesus does not save from sin. You will remember how, when on earth, I believed this doctrine of error—how I used to talk about the precious blood of Jesus being able to save from all sin, and used to sing with all my heart and belief in the old hymn: "There Is a Fountain Filled with Blood," and so forth. Well, I know now that that belief is all wrong, and that Jesus is so anxious to have men learn that it is a great error and stumbling block to the soul's progression.

Of course, I know that a vast majority of those now living will never believe that this saying of the Bible is erroneous until they come to the spirit world. But if they only could be taught to throw aside this belief and rely entirely on the Divine Love for their salvation while on earth, how much easier their progress would be when they come over!

So, you see that while many say that a belief does not amount to much, yet, I tell you that it causes more unhappiness and retards the progress of spirits to a greater extent than any other one thing.

I know that only the Divine Love of the Father saves from sin and makes mortals at-one with Him. So, in your work for the Master, you will have to make great efforts to cause people to give up this belief in the blood, and to turn to the Truth of the New Birth. Many of the orthodox will oppose your efforts and refuse to believe what you may tell them to be the Truth. But many will believe and seek this New Birth, and each will find the peace and happiness of a soul whose sins have been forgiven.

I must not write more tonight.

I will come again soon and tell you more of the result of your work among the unfortunate spirits who seek your help.

So, my dear son, I will say good night.

Your loving grandmother,
ANN ROLLINS.

Jesus Denies That He Is God, or That His Blood Washes Away Man's Sins

I AM HERE. Jesus.

I was with you tonight and saw that the Holy Spirit was filling your heart with the Divine Love of the Father, and that you realized Its presence. And you felt that, even though the people worshiped me in their ignorance, yet, they have this Love of the Father to a great degree.

I do not approve of their frequent reference to my blood as saving them from their sins, and keeping them in the Grace and Favor of the Father; for, as I have told you, my blood has nothing to do with the salvation of any soul. Only the Divine Love of the Father saves a soul from sin and makes it one with the Father in His Love and Divinity.

But, nevertheless, these people have this Love in their hearts. And while they look upon me as God with their intellects, yet, their souls are turning to God. And, consequently, they receive the Blessings of the Father's Love, and are receiving the development of their souls to a large extent.

I am glad you attend these meetings,* for in them is a wonderful presence of the Holy Spirit and the Love of the Father. And while you may not be in sympathy with their doctrines as to Who and What saves them from sin and unrighteousness, yet, the influence of the Holy Spirit is so great that it helps your soul development.

I tried to influence the speakers to tell just what the conditions of their souls were, and what experience they had in receiving and enjoying this Divine Love. Many of them experience, and have as a part of their religious possession, just what they said they had.

* The Church of the Holiness, Washington, D.C.—Ed.

It will be beneficial to you to attend this church, and to get the benefit of the presence of the Holy Spirit which is with them in their worship.

I was with you and tried to make you feel my presence, and I did; and you felt a little exaltation of your soul qualities and enjoyed the services, especially the singing and the prayers.

So, while you must not be influenced by their doctrines as to my being God or to be worshiped, yet, if you will ignore this and only consider that their real worship is of God, and that their souls are in unison with Him, you will find that these services will do you much good.

I am with you very much and am trying to get you relieved from the worries which come to you. I am also trying to help you get in that spiritual condition which is necessary in order for you to take and continue my formal messages.

(I feel that I am now receiving more of the Father's Love.)

Yes, you are, and I am glad that it is so. I want you to become a man so possessed of this Love, and of faith so strong, that nothing that you may encounter will swerve you from your convictions and from your work. I see that you are anxious to continue this work, and you will soon be able to do so.

(It will be hard to persuade people that many of the Bible's assertions are incorrect, as they pertain to you.)

Yes, I know that the Bible iterates and reiterates the statement that I am God, and that my blood saves from sin, and that I am a propitiation for mankind. But, nevertheless, the Bible is all wrong, and these false doctrines must be corrected and men taught the pure Plan of salvation.

I will be with you very often until we have commenced our work in the way that we desire to carry it forward. Let not anything that you may read in the Bible cause you to have a conception that may not agree with what I shall write. Let your mind be blank of these Truths and wait until I shall disclose them to you, and then believe me.

John never wrote these statements as contained in his epistles and gospel, and he will write to you denying that he did. The Bible contains many Truths and many of my sayings, but, also, many statements that were never made by me or by the apostles. And my mission now is to correct all these errors. So, you see, we have much work ahead of us, and we must commence it as soon as possible.

I am with you tonight to comfort and encourage you and help you to overcome your worries. And if you will only pray to the Father and believe, you will be successful in both particulars.

I will not write more tonight, as others are here to write, and I desire that they shall do so.

Your brother and friend, JESUS.

What Should a Man Do Who Is Not Satisfied with Any of the Churches?

I AM HERE. John.

I was with you tonight and heard the preacher answer the question, and some of his answers were very satisfactory. But there was one that did not exactly satisfy the true longings of the man who is in search of Truth.

I mean the one who asks what should a man do who is not satisfied with any of the churches.

Well, if he can find no church that provides Truths that satisfy that man's inquiring soul, then that man can never feel that he should go to any church for information as to those things which he has no knowledge of, or which he has grave doubts about.

The churches, of course, can give no information of Truths that the churches themselves do not know. And if the truths that these churches teach fall short of what the man is seeking for, then these churches cannot possibly be satisfactory to him. While the churches differ in their creeds and government, and perhaps in some particular construction or interpretation of the Bible, yet, they, the orthodox churches, are all founded upon the teachings of the Bible; and they cannot teach greater or other Truths than that book contains. Hence, if a man is seeking for Truths that are not in the Bible, his inquiries cannot be answered by those whose knowledge is confined to the Bible teachings. And the non-orthodox churches cannot give forth the Truths of the Spiritual Kingdom of God because they reject the Bible to a large degree, and they depend very largely upon ethical and moral doctrines, and the results of the works of mere conscience, in determining the right and wrong of things. The spiritual things are not known or taught by these churches, and, consequently, the inquiring mind cannot get from them the information or help that it is calling for. In such a condition and want of knowledge of Truth on the part of the churches, I know that such a man is without the privilege of having his cravings for the Truth of spiritual things satisfied. As a consequence, he must seek further to get the information which he may consider so necessary. And when he comes to so seek, he will find no place where such knowledge may be found.

The mere intellectual acquirements of students and philosophers will not supply what the man is seeking, and he is without any possibility of obtaining what he seeks for.

And, so, the preacher's suggestion that he and two others form a church of their own would have some force were it not for the fact that any church that might be so formed would have no greater possession of the Truth than the churches that he has failed to find any satisfaction in.

There are many men on earth today in the condition of the man spoken of. And many who refuse to seek in the churches for the Truth are without any recourse to other means or places of teachers from whom they can learn the things that they are searching for.

The spirits have known of this condition of men for these many centuries, and have been trying to supply a way, or create a medium, through which the great spiritual truths of god could be made known to men. And, for that very purpose, we are now using you to receive our messages of truth, and to make them known to mankind, and provide a church, may I say, where the seeking man may find answers to his inquiries.

We shall complete our delivery of these Truths through you. Then the man who cannot find a church where his searchings can be satisfied will find a reservoir of Truth opened up to him that will not require any preacher or church to explain it.

As you proceed in your experience with the churches and teachers of the “old truths,” as they call them, you will more fully realize the necessity for our work and your work.

I will not write more tonight, but will come soon and deliver a formal message. With my love and blessings, I will say good night.

JOHN.

Paul Expresses His Desire to Write What He Knows to Be the Truth, and to Also Correct Errors in His Epistles as Contained in the Bible

I AM HERE. Paul.

I desire to tell you that I am very anxious to disclose to you what are the true teachings of Jesus, and what errors my epistles possess as contained in the Bible.

I know now that it may seem strange to you that errors should have gotten into my epistles, but there are several reasons for their entrance. First, the epistles, as they now appear, are not what I wrote. I mean many changes have been made in my writings. Secondly, when I wrote the epistles, I did not know as much of the Truths of God as I do now. And, thirdly, I was not such a believer in the teachings of Jesus as I am now.

These are sufficient reasons why my epistles should not be accepted as containing all the Truths, or, rather, that all they contain are Truths.

There are apparent contradictions in these writings. And if what is said were true, there would be no real contradictions.

I fully realize this great defect in my epistles, and I have tried hard to impress those who attempt to explain my sayings as to the real Truth of what they attempt to explain, but with indifferent success.

Now I want to correct what is untrue or not in accord with the teachings of the Master. And the only way in which it can be done is writing through you. Of course, I realize that you have a great work to do for the Master, and that most of your time and energy will be taken up by doing this work of the Master, and that every other communication must be subordinated to those of Jesus. Yet, I believe that you will find time to take my messages at times.

Tonight, I will not attempt to write any message of these Truths. I will only say that I am much interested in your work, and will try to help you all I can. So, I must stop.

(Has salvation for man been provided through the blood of Jesus having been shed on the cross?)

No, no blood saves from sin; only the divine love of the father does this!

With much love, I am

Your friend, PAUL.

Jerome Cautions That the Truths of God Must Not Be Sought for in His Writings, or Those of the Disciples as Contained in the Bible, Because of the Many Errors in Both Sources

I AM HERE. Jerome.

I came to tell you that I am an inhabitant of that Kingdom which Samuel has so inadequately described, and that is the Kingdom of Jesus and, of course, of the Father.

You may not know anything about me, but I was canonized many centuries ago by the church because it thought that I had done the church so much good by my writings and discourses on religious things. But I must confess now that, when I wrote, I expressed many things as truths which I now see were not true; and I would like to be able to correct all these errors in my writings, but I cannot.

So, I will tell you in a few words that the Truths of the Master, which are the Truths of God, must not be sought for in my writings, or even in those of his disciples as contained in the Bible, because of the many errors that exist therein. This is not because the disciples and those to whom they conveyed these Truths did not write them correctly, but because the Bible, as now written, is not the same in many important particulars as to what the disciples actually wrote. And, hence, Jesus, knowing this, is so anxious that the world shall receive these great truths again through his written messages.

I am trying my best to help the cause which he is advocating, and am behind you with spirits who are trying with all their spirit powers to direct you aright and enable you to receive the Truths.

I am in a Celestial Sphere very high up in the heavens. I cannot otherwise describe its location. These spheres are not numbered after the first few because they interblend so that there are no lines of demarcation. But I am not so high up as are the disciples and many others who are followers of the Master. The ancient spirits, such as Moses and Abraham and Isaac and Jacob, are in higher spheres. But they are not so exalted as are Jesus' apostles and disciples, and, as I am informed, many spirits who came to the spirit world since Jesus came.

I will not write more tonight, but will thank you and say good night.

Your brother in Christ,

JEROME, the writer and commentator on the Bible.

Augustine Declares That Many of the Teachings of the Bible Cannot be Relied Upon

I AM HERE. Augustine.

I merely want to say that I am the "St." Augustine who lived after the death of Jesus and was well acquainted with his teachings, as they were preserved by the church. At that time, I never knew exactly what became of the manuscripts that were in existence when I lived. But the ones that are supposed to furnish the origin of many of the Biblical writings were not the ones that I was acquainted with. Those that I used were all written in Greek and were written by the disciples of Jesus, and by those of his followers to whom the disciples had communicated the teachings of the Master. And they were the genuine ones, and were written from the actual communications of the disciples.

Of course, the teachings of Jesus were never recorded at the time of his teachings, but were merely the recollections possessed by the disciples of what they thought he really said. Consequently, as you may realize, they were imperfect and could not be relied on implicitly.

I know that great controversies have arisen in the church as to what portions of these writings should be accepted as genuine. Many needless disputes have caused the officials of that church to differ as to what were really the writings of the disciples and what were not. When on earth, I joined in these disputes, and maintained that certain of these writings were genuine and certain were not. But I was as likely to be mistaken as any of the others.

But even the ones that I thought were genuine were more or less flavoured by the spiritual knowledge and beliefs of those who wrote them. So, I tell you that you cannot depend on these writings as a whole to learn what the Master actually did teach.

He is now in condition to give you the genuine truths. And whenever what he may say conflicts with what is contained in the bible, you must consider what he now writes as the truth and discard the bible account as unreliable.

I tell you this because I am interested in having the world learn the Truths which he came on earth to declare.

I am a spirit of the Celestial Spheres and am a follower of the Master, and am trying to help in having these Truths come to the world again.

So, if you will pardon my intrusion, I will repeat: Pay attention to what Jesus may say now, and do not let the Bible statements, which do not agree with what he may write you, disturb you or cause you to doubt what you may receive.

Sometime, I shall come and give you my ideas of some of the spiritual Truths, and how necessary it is that men should know them.

I certainly believe in the New Birth, and I want to say most emphatically that it is one of the most important Truths of the spiritual world. It has not heretofore been very often understood, and its exact meaning is somewhat in doubt by even the best students of the Bible.

I will not write more tonight, but will say that you are my brother in the good work of showing the Truths to mankind that are so important to their future happiness and salvation.

So, with a Love that is in Christ, I am

Your brother,
AUGUSTINE.

John Explains That Not the Blood but the Divine Love Is What Saves and Redeems. He Cautions That "Revelation" of the Bible Is Not to Be Relied Upon as True in Many Particulars

I AM HERE. John of the "Revelation."

I saw you studying the Bible, or, rather, those portions of the book which treated of the salvation of mankind through the blood of Jesus, and that you made extracts from the revelation which declared that the blood of Jesus washes away sins of mankind and redeems them.

Well, I want to say that while I wrote Revelation, or, rather, dictated it to another to write, I never wrote the words declaring the salvation of mankind through the blood of Jesus, which declared that the blood of Jesus washed away sins of mankind and redeemed them; for I did not believe any such doctrine and had never been taught such a belief by Jesus.

Much of the matter contained in the revelation I never wrote. But men or scribes, who professed to copy the descriptions of my vision, added to it for the purpose of incorporating therein the views of the Christians of that early day, so that their views might be emphasized and would be in union with similar views that had been added to the gospels and epistles in the copies which these same persons, or their predecessors in these views, had made.

Revelation is merely an account of a vision which I had when in a trance, and was undoubtedly intended to illustrate or predict those things which would be visited upon the believers and the nonbelievers in the Truths of God as taught by Jesus and his apostles.

At the present day, I cannot see that this book can serve any good purpose in making men acquainted with the Truths of God, or with the relationship of man to God. Many of the things contained therein are not true as Truths, but were used merely to illustrate a Truth. There are no streets of gold or pearly gates, or dragons or beasts or white horses, or other material things which are depicted in that book. And it is valuable only so far as imagery may show some spiritual Truth to mankind.

And, besides, it has been so embellished and added to that many of its figures or images do not illustrate any truth, or anything else, but merely serve to give the book the character and appearance of a book of mysteries.

So, I advise you, in attempting to search for the Truths that the Bible contains, do not waste your time in trying to discover the meanings for the various dark sayings and mysterious descriptions which this book contains.

There are enough truths in the bible, though mixed with many errors, to lead men to the light and to salvation. Love is the great principle, and the fact that God is waiting to bestow that love on mankind if they will only seek for it, as it is the principle which is sufficient to lead men to the celestial homes and happiness.

I am not an advocate of all the isms which men draw or formulate from the Bible; but, on the contrary, I deplore and condemn the misconstructions of the Truths which it contains, and which men may understand if they will search for them in humbleness and in the spirit of a little child.

But whatever errors may be written in the bible will be shown by the messages which Jesus shall write to you. And after they are transmitted and made known to mankind, there will be no occasion for men to accept or believe these errors.

So, I tell you that, while the Bible, even as now written, is a grand old book, yet, it is not the true mouthpiece of God in very many particulars, and is a stumbling block to man's acquiring a correct knowledge of the Truth.

These Truths will not conflict with the reasoning of the normal man who is not prejudiced by views which are erroneous, either in the scientific or the religious world.

A man who believes what is not true is just as much an infidel, whether that belief relates to the sciences or to religion. A belief in the false is a want of belief in the true; and, hence, as to the true, he is not a believer.

I will not write more tonight.

So, I will say good night and God bless you and your work.

Your brother in Christ,
JOHN OF REVELATION.

Jesus Affirms That His Disciples Never Wrote All the False Doctrines in the Bible Attributed to Him
I AM HERE. Jesus.

I was with you tonight, and heard what you said about the Bible and its writers. And I desire to say that many things in it were not written by my disciples, or those to whom my disciples had delivered the sayings that I made use of while on earth.

The text as contained in the present Bible is not a true copy of what I said, or what was in the manuscripts of those who originally wrote; and I am trying to correct the many errors that the Bible contains.

The sayings in the epistles and in the gospels and in revelation to the effect that my blood saves from sin are erroneous, and my disciples never wrote that false doctrine. For I repeat here, what I have before written you, that my blood has nothing to do with the redemption of mankind from sin; nor has my blood any effect in reconciling men to God or making them one with him. The only thing that works this great result is the new birth, as I have explained it to you.

So, do not let these sayings of the Bible disturb your belief in what I say now, or in what I may say hereafter.

(In John's "Revelation" there are words declaring the salvation of mankind through your blood sacrifice.)

Well, the Revelation of John is not true; it is a mere allegory, and not just as he wrote it. For it contains many things that are absurd and not in accord with the Truths as I shall write them to you. He has written you already on Revelation, and has told you what he did not write, as he has been annoyed by this book of the Bible and its interpretations by the preachers and others. It is nothing but a revelation of a vision which he thought he saw while in a trance. So, let not these things disturb you.

I see that you are getting more of the Divine Love in your soul, and your spiritual eyes will be opened; and, before long, your soul perceptions will see and understand many of the vital Truths of God.

I will not write more tonight. With all my love, your brother and friend,
JESUS.

John Again Denies the Vicarious Atonement. He Also Explains That Spirit Communion Was More Prevalent in His Day than Now, and That if Men Would Have Faith Like the Apostles of Jesus, Healing and So-Called "Miracles" Would Exist Today

I AM HERE. John.

I do not write "St. John" because I am not called by that name in the spirit heavens. I have written to you often enough now that you will identify me when I merely write "John."

Well, I heard what the Master said, and I can only add thereto that I never wrote the things which declare that I preached that the blood of Jesus saves from sin, or that Jesus was a propitiation for the sins of mankind. Neither in my gospel nor in my epistles nor in Revelation did I write such a doctrine. As I have told you before, many things contained in these books were written by others to carry out certain plans and ideas of the writers. I never said that Jesus was God and that he was begotten by the Holy Ghost, or that he is equal with God, or that he saved a man from sin by reason of any personal qualities which he may have had.

So, let your mind eliminate these false doctrines and receive the Truths from the Master with a perfectly unbiased mind, free from all preconceived ideas.

(What did you mean when you advised mortals to try the spirits who communicated?)

I meant that many spirits would try to communicate with man and attempt to teach false doctrines as to Jesus and his mission, and that the only spirits who were capable of conveying the Truth, and were worthy of belief, were those who should acknowledge that Jesus was the son of God in the way that it has been explained to you—not that Jesus or Jesus Christ was God. Only those spirits who acknowledge Jesus as the son of God and have received the New Birth, and know something about the Kingdom of Christ, or of the Gift of the Divine Love of the Father and the Way to obtain It, as taught by Jesus, should be acknowledged. All the spirits who have not this knowledge, and, consequently, would not acknowledge Jesus as the son of God, are not to be trusted as being true followers of Jesus.

This is nothing mysterious or contrary to the laws governing the conduct or beliefs of men. If a spirit, or man either, knows nothing about a certain subject, he certainly cannot teach others its qualities or merits. And, hence, I was applying an ordinary law of nature to the way in which spirits should be tried. For I must tell you, and it is a Truth, and was a Truth at the time I wrote my gospel and epistles, just as it is a Truth now, and always will remain a Truth, that every spirit who acknowledges that Jesus is the son of God is a redeemed spirit and has received a portion of the Divine Love, and is progressing in the Kingdom which Jesus is now forming. And when I gave those instructions to my “children,” as I called them, I intended that their communications should be only with those spirits or men who had received this New Birth.

I know that all the spirits who have received this Divine Love in sufficient abundance are good spirits, free from sin and error and having the power or inclination to influence mortals not to sin or to do anything which is contrary to the Will of the Father, while all the other spirits may or may not exercise the influence of evil upon mortals.

Hence, try the spirits. And if they do not acknowledge Jesus as the son of God, let them alone. Do not receive their communications or teachings, because they are not believers in Christ and the New Birth. Among my children, or believers in the Christian religion, were many persons who had the power or gift of communicating with the spirits of the departed, and they did so communicate. Such communications were made known to the rest of the congregation and believed by them. And, hence, my injunction against communion with those spirits who were not believers in Christ.

You must not think that this is the only age in which spirits communicate with mortals. For I must tell you that, in my time, it was much more common than now. And when worshiping in our congregations, and when in our gatherings, and often in private, we had these communications.

This was an important part of the services of our meetings, and one that kept us in constant harmony with the soul power of those who lived in the spirit form, and from whom we received powers of healing and of doing good in many other ways.

In those days, healing the sick and doing kindred things were a very important part of our work as Christians. We believed what Jesus had told us on earth, and we increased our faith and performed many works which the people, who did not believe as we did, thought were miracles.

To us, the healing of the sick and the doing of these other things were just as natural as eating and sleeping. I tell you that our faith then was a certainty. We possessed the Substance that Paul speaks of, and we expected to do these things, just as we expected to breathe and be able to do material good to our brothers.

But, after a few centuries, when men came into the church for other purposes than to receive the New Birth and do the Will of the Father, faith, such as I speak of, died; and the power to do these things was taken away from men, and the church became a congregation of men having the mere lip worship.

And all through the centuries from then until now, this power has not been with men, except that here and there some true believer, with a faith such as we had, has appeared and done wonderful things.

So, I say, let not what the Bible may say about Jesus being God, and having those other qualities with reference to the salvation of men, disturb you in your beliefs in what the Master may write you.

I will not write more tonight, but will say good night.

Your brother in Christ,
JOHN.

Note: Following the writings of James Moncrief, one could consider that any reference to the Father, by other relevant writers, may be read as a reference to 'our Mother and Father'. Further, when considering soul healing, then reference to Divine Love could be referred to as 'Feeling Healing with Divine Love'.

Luther Declares That the Observance of the Ceremonies Which the Lutheran Church Still Uses in Its Worship Is Not Approved of by God or by Jesus

ANGELIC REVELATIONS of DIVINE TRUTH

Vol: II P.245 through James E. Padgett

I AM HERE. Martin Luther.

I desire to write a short message tonight on the subject: "The Observance of the Ceremonies Which My Church Still Uses in Its Worship Is Not Approved of by God or by Jesus." I will not detain you very long and will try to express myself as succinctly as possible.

Well, as you may not know, the church of which I am the founder believes and teaches the necessity of infant baptism and the observance of the "Lord's Supper" as necessary parts of its church doctrine, and that they are of such very great importance that, without them, it is difficult to become an accepted member of the invisible church of Christ.

Nothing is further from the truth than this doctrine of the baptism of infants, for it has no virtue to save one from his sins or to make him in at-onement with the father. And the mere fact that water is sprinkled on an infant's head, and some blessing pronounced by the preacher, does not in any way bring that infant in unison with the father. Baptism is of man's creation, and it means nothing more to god than an outward ceremony that affects the infant merely as regards its connection with the established earthly church. It is not possible for this baptism to have any effect upon the soul of the infant. And neither does it open up the soul faculties to the inflowing of the divine love.

God cares not for these ceremonies, and rather looks upon them with disapproval. For their tendency is to make men and women neglectful of the great truth that will bring them in harmony with god's laws of love and redemption.

And the same thing may be said of any and all kinds of baptism, whether the subject thereof be an infant or a grown man or woman.

As to the sacrament of the "lord's supper", it has no part in god's plan for the redemption of mankind, and is merely a reminder of the association of Jesus with his disciples. It cannot affect the condition or development of the soul; and, as now understood and practiced, this sacrament is of no importance. For Jesus does not want to be remembered in the way of recalling to him the tragedy on the cross, which was only the result of the malice and envy of some of the Jews. And the blood spilt is not an element that enters into the plan of the salvation of men. And, besides, with this sacrament, there is always more or less worshiping of Jesus as god, which he, Jesus, abhors and looks upon as blasphemy.

So, you see, the celebration of the last supper is a thing which is not acceptable to god or to Jesus. He does not want men to believe that they can be saved by any sacrifice of him, or by any blood which he may have shed as a result of his crucifixion.

Of course, you will remember that the question of what the wine and bread of the sacrament really were was one that engendered much controversy, and even hatred and ill-feeling on the part of those who were assisting me in the great Reformation. If I had known then what I do now, no such question would have been debated or believed in by me and taught for many years. The blood of Jesus was no more than any other man's blood. And the commemoration of the "Last Supper" that Jesus gave his disciples before his death is a useless ceremony, and brings no help to those who indulge in this sacrament.

I see that you are tired and sleepy and I will not write more now. So, with my love and wishes for an increase of the Divine Love in you, I am

Your brother in Christ,
LUTHER.

WHERE IS HOLY MOTHER?

Peter Cosgrove, Governor-General of Australia, may well have been with his wife when presenting Pope Francis with an Australian soccer football jersey, however, where is the ‘holy mother’? One soul is represented by two personalities, a male and a female.

The illusion of sanctity will no longer hide the errors that this church has propagated to all of humanity these past 2,000 years. It is time to end the strivings of error ridden, controlling minds of men and bring about the freedom that truth will reveal through one’s feelings.

GG Cosgrove & Pope Francis
25 June 2018

The church has propagated:

1. That Jesus of Nazareth is God. Followers are asked to pray to Jesus when it is our Heavenly Mother and Father that we should at all times long to and communicating with.
2. To worship Jesus of Nazareth as God is blasphemy. Absolute straight out blasphemy. He is a son of God as we all are. When one ‘takes holy communion’ one may be better served with a tasty cracker or biscuit from the local supermarket than to consume a dried out micro thin wafer. Well both options are presently machine made and of little nutritional value!
3. That Mother of Jesus was a virgin and that the conception of Jesus was an ‘immaculate conception’. Mother Mary was married to Joseph and they had tried for some time to have a child. Mother Mary is a typical mother, just like any other mother, nothing special other than being the mother to a most extra-ordinary man, Jesus.
4. That Mary of Magdalene was a prostitute. Mary of Magdalene died a virgin at the age of 48. The church has got the wrong virgin Mary! Jesus also died a virgin.
5. Learning prayers and saying them by rote is a total waste of time. Such aspirations do not rise as high as one’s nose, well, eyebrows sometimes. Consider the ‘Rosary’. Repeating the same prayers – set of words – is pointless. It is even more pointless when the prayers are directed to Mother Mary – she cannot do anything about them, let alone hear them. You see, Mother Mary has left our part of the universe, she has progressed way past the Celestial Heavens, she is now out of range. So you may retire your rosary beads to history!
6. The sacrament of confession is a false practice. No man can forgive the errors of another. Not even Jesus can forgive the sins of another.
7. The church has subordinated the woman to the man. A gross error! Women are closer to their feelings than men. It is the female who is our spiritual leader – not the male. For a church or religion to maintain control they typically reduce the woman to subservient levels. This is to change.
8. There is no truth or substance behind the cannon laws, dogmas, creed, rituals and sacraments of the church. These are all controlling mechanisms. All the church is doing is taking their constituents further into their minds and away from their true selves, their soul based feelings.
9. The amount of pain and harm that we subject another person to is the amount of pain and suffering that we each will endure. There is nothing holy about the church’s leadership.

Jesus of Nazareth and Mary of Magdalene are joint regents of a region of space called Nebadon. They are our spiritual mother and father to whom we are to look to for Divine Truth. As soulmates, they came to Earth for the benefit of all within their domain. Now we have another bestowal soulmate pair here for the exclusive benefit of humanity on Earth and that is what the Great U-Turn is all about.

UNIVERSAL HIERARCHY:

Comments by AJ

In the following Universal Hierarchy chart, for example, there is a lot of truth, The Source of All Creation – lots of truth, Love, Light & Wisdom – are all aspects of God, so that is all truth, The God of the Christ Consciousness – is the source of all creation. There are parts of the chart that are made up, they are not hierarchy, they are people who used to live on earth who are now in the spirit world and are in a celestial sphere state and are in quiet good condition, so all of them would test very high on the scale of consciousness.

The term Christ Consciousness is an actual term that relates to growing in Divine Truth and Divine Love through at-onement. Most people on earth don't understand it, but it is a term that you can test by itself, and it will test in the thousands once you understand the term.

There are other things here which are much, much lower in love, so when you test the whole page, and get an overall test, you will probably find that you will get a little less than 1,000 or close to 1,000. Now that you know these things, it will be affected even more, now that you know the differences between the different items and aspects within the chart. As many of the items within the chart calibrate in the 1,000s and others calibrate much lower, when you calibrate the whole chart, you get an average for all of these items.

On this chart there is a mixture of natural love principles and Divine Love truths. If you understand them at the soul level, they are quiet powerful, but if you understand them at the intellect, they are not very powerful at all. So you get that mixture of things occurring.

The issue with trusting our emotions a lot of the time, is that we have inside of us emotions that are in error. So, obviously, when we trust our emotions that are in error we will be out of harmony and truth. So in the end, when you are doing kinesiology testing, there are still those emotions within you, so if you still do trust in those same emotions of error, the results will reflect this. The reason why it works differently with kinesiology than with your mind is that your mind has a whole new layer of truth within it, within your belief structure and belief system, that your soul hasn't absorbed, because in the spirit world it is in its normal state of being which your soul resonates with those things.

‘The difference between what are regarded as two paths, the Natural Love Path and the Divine Love Path, is, essentially, the amount of Divine Love that beings have been able to acquire.’

Quote from Celestial Spirit Richard 22 Dec 2012

WE ALL ARE BEING GUIDED HOME:

We need the Spirits of Truth of the Avonal Pair to Heal ourselves; then once Healed, (and for support (overshadowing) as well through your Healing), we need the Creator Pair, Mary Magdalene and Jesus' Spirits of Truth to see us through the Celestial spheres, while at all times embracing our Heavenly Mother and Father.

Until Mary and Jesus died and liberated their Spirits of Truth, no one from any of the worlds could leave Nebadon, because no one knew the way to do so. Nebadon is our local universe containing some 3.8 million inhabited physical worlds and their associated spirit worlds.

When we embrace the truths Mary and Jesus are revealing, and start to do our Feeling Healing, or with Divine Love, Soul Healing, we are then freeing ourselves up from our parental and self control.

Thus our journey to Paradise, to the home of our Heavenly Parents, is of our choosing as to when we progress, however, there is only one way:

HUM: Humanity is to ascend. We are self contained. Our soul is always in truth and perfect at all times. By living true to ourself, true to our feelings, we are living true to God. It's that simple.

We are to recognise that being engaged and dominated by our mind is the wrong way for us to evolve and grow in truth. We are to discard the mind enslavement that has been imposed upon as by all of our parents. We are to express our feelings, both good and bad and free ourselves of the indoctrination that humanity has embraced worldwide.

Live true to your feelings, and you ARE living true, not only to your own soul, but also true to God's soul. So doing your Healing by honouring all your feelings, IS living the will of God. And being fully Healed, IS living even more truly the Will of our Mother and Father.

AVO: We are to embrace the truths and guidance of the Avonal Pair through their Spirits of Truth. It is the Avonal Pair's guidance that will lead us through our Feeling Healing, and with Divine Love, we will be able to ascend through the 7 mansion spirit worlds and enter the Celestial Heavens where we also interact with other world's spirits.

J&M: We are also to embrace the truths and guidance of the Paradise Pair, Mary and Jesus, who will then lead us through the 3 Celestial Heavens that are aligned with Earth, and then further on through Nebadon where we will then depart beyond on towards Paradise.

M&F: Beyond the universal zone of Nebadon, we will be guided by our Heavenly Mother and Father onwards through the universes to Paradise where we will be welcomed by them, home for us all, as we are all Children of God.

GOD

M&F

J&M

AVO

HUM

WE ARE Children of God

WE ALL ARE BEING GUIDED HOME – NOW, HOW TO COMMENCE THE JOURNEY:

GOD

M&F

For 200,000 years, we have been misled into embracing our mind's distortion of wisdom and truth. All such traditional understandings only lead us in the wrong direction, from which we must turn back from. Our soul based feelings are always in truth. Our minds are to follow our soul based truths and feelings, not the other way round, as we have been brought up to embrace.

We are to connect with our deeper repressed feelings.
We are to long for the truth of what we are feeling.
We are to live true to our selves; by living true to our feelings.

Use your surface day-to-day feelings to connect with your deeper repressed feelings. Express your surface feelings and your deeper repressed feelings to uncover the truth of yourself.

J&M

We all have feelings which we communicate and share with each other. And we all have deeper buried and hidden repressed feelings. Feelings from our early childhood we felt, yet weren't allowed to express. These feelings are still within us, waiting to have their say. These feelings, because they are repressed, cause us all our problems.

And as we look to uncover, bring out and accept these deeper feelings, so we're taken into new ways of looking at ourselves, our feelings, and our life. We're setting ourselves free of the controlling patterns that govern our unloving behaviour.

In this way, we progressively begin to express the personality that our Heavenly Mother and Father gave us, not the one imposed upon us by our physical parents and carers. We are to be our true and real selves.

By living true to ourself, true to our feelings, we are living true to God. It's that simple.

AVO

HUM

As we, humanity, long for the truth of our feelings, we can also be assisted by the Spirits of Truth of the Avonal Pair who are our spiritual teachers for Earth over this coming 1,000 years, to assist us through the Great U-Turn, away from mind dominance to being soul based feeling lead. They will assist us through the seven levels of the spirit mansion worlds.

Then the Creator Pair, Jesus and Mary, will lead us through Nebadon and into the greater universe. Then our Heavenly Mother and Father lead us home to Paradise.

Collectively, should we embrace them all, as we are to, then our pathway home is a journey in the hands of the Spirits of Truth of the Avonal and Paradise Pairs overseen by our Heavenly Parents.

WE ARE Children of God

HOW TO GET TO PARADISE:

Long for the Divine Love
 Long for the Truth
 Long for the truth of your feelings
 Don't deny any feelings: accept, express and want to know the truth of them
 Know your feelings are the key; your feelings are the Way
 Want to end your falseness and being untrue
 Want to understand the truth of your early life
 Use your surface feelings to move deeper into yourself, bringing up your repressed feelings
 Want and long to know the whole truth of yourself
 Want to do it all with God, your Heavenly Mother and Father – long to Them for help.

The Keys

Our longing drives our life. We long with feelings. We can wish for things using our mind, yet long for things with our heart. These things in the pyramid are what to long for. Longing for them, when the longing comes naturally. Longing because you feel you really want them. Long to be true with all your heart. Long to live true to your feelings. Long to understand the whole truth of yourself.

PARADISE TRINITY:

1. Our MOTHER and FATHER (God) (MF) – Divine Love
SOUL (God) – One SOUL that is expressing its two PERSONALITIES, our Heavenly Mother and Heavenly Father (Soulmates)
2. ETERNAL SON (ES) – Divine Truth
3. INFINITE DAUGHTER (ID) – Divine Mind

Then: The Second and Third Persons of the Paradise Trinity (ES and ID) are stepped down to the local universe trinity (Mary and Jesus, Divine Minister (DM), and her Holy Spirit.

The LOCAL UNIVERSE TRINITY:

1. MARY M and JESUS (MF) – Love – the Living Truth
2. DIVINE MINISTER (ID) – Mind (and her Holy Spirit)
3. HUMANITY – Natural love, sons and Daughters – Truth, and our Angels – Mind

PLANETS that engage in REBELLION:

1. AVONAL SOULMATE PAIR – the Feeling Healing process – incarnate
2. DAYNAL – TEACHER PAIRS – they do not incarnate

So in summary:

Consider a diamond:

Mother and Father Heavenly Parents

Creator Son & Daughter
Jesus and Mary

Avonals
as soulmate pairs

Trinity Teachers
as soulmate pairs

Melchizediks – who have taken over from the Caligastians and Daligastians being also all as soulmate pairs.

Mortal Souls – human beings who individualise on Earth, then progress through the Mansion Spirit Worlds, then into the Celestial Heavens, and beyond.

Mortal Souls – also being ascending spirits, upon completing their Soul Healing, join with their soulmate, then join their soul group of 24 mortal spirits, being 12 soul pairs. It is only as a soulgroup that anyone can progress beyond Nebadon.

The Paradise Pairs are all ONLY concerned with the SPIRITUAL wellbeing and upliftment of the planets and local universe. Currently to do with Earth:

Mary and Jesus – spiritual wellbeing and upliftment of the whole of Nebadon region.

Avonal Pair – Daynal pairs (Trinity Teacher Daughters and Sons) – Spiritual wellbeing and upliftment of individual planets and their associated mansion worlds.

The Local universal Sons and Daughters are all about the running of the worlds under their jurisdiction, and ensuring the higher spiritual elements can be employed, or sent astray, as in our cases through the Rebellion and Default.

Lanonandeks – Melchizedeks (and others, such as Life Carriers and Eve and Adam).

As the Lanonandeks all rebelled – the Lucifers, Satans, Caligastias and Daligastias soulmate pairs – so the Melchizedeks have taken over their roles, as well as doing their own.

So the Melchizedeks are the governors, overseers, the administrators and advisors and so on for Earth; they are the ‘controllers’, and they will instigate all that needs to be done to do with the ending of the Rebellion and Default. And they will enlist the willing help of ascending mortal pairs, so the mortal Celestials spirits (soulmates when available, and others waiting to unite with their partner), and at times mortal spirits in the Divine Love Healing mansion worlds. And the angels help all of us.

Currently the whole of Creation exists for the ascension of mortal souls from their earth planets to Paradise. It’s all one vast Grand Ascension Scheme. With all the higher and lower spiritual Daughters and Sons, together with all the many different angels and other universal spirit personalities, and even including nature and our very own pets, assisting women and men with their Ascension Journey. It being: and Ascension of Truth. Everything we do is done to help us grow in truth. (Only everything we do in our negative state is to deny ourselves our truth from our feelings, which is why we have to do our Healing.) All women and men are ascending (or growing) in truth through their experiences. And as we grow in truth by looking to our feelings to show us that truth, so we’re ascending, moving inwards and upwards through all the worlds and spheres of the Grand Universe to one day arrive on Paradise and meet our Heavenly Parents. God is providing us, Their children, with this spiritual journey called our Ascension of Truth. And by living true to our feelings, so we are progressing on our true Spiritual Path – our Ascension Path.

CREATION of SOUL and SPIRIT:

God is The Paradise Trinity — the eternal Deity union of the Personalities: the Universal Mother and Father; the Eternal Son of Truth; and the Infinite Daughter Spirit of Mind.

The soul of each human personality (sons and daughters of truth) is existential, driving our personality expression in the experiential. The soul of each human finds truth by embracing one’s feelings and longing for the truth of them. We are to attain the Eternal Son of Truth. We are a creation of Truth.

The soul of angels is experiential, evolving through their experience by continually progressing in mind development. Angels are to attain the Infinite Daughter (Spirit) of Mind. Angels are a creation of Mind. Our soul is duplex (we have a soulmate) and is created by our Heavenly Parents. Through our Feeling Healing we perfect ourselves enabling the union with our soulmate, as we progress in truth up through the Mansion Worlds, celestial heavens and all the way to Paradise.

The soul of angels is also duplex, yet of the mind, and they progress in mind evolution to Paradise. Animals, plants and nature spirits are also creations of Mind.

Neither we nor animals reincarnate. We never die; upon death, we move into the spirit Mansion Worlds on our journey to Paradise. When animals and plants die, be they the tiny microbe to the mighty elephants of the land and the whales of the ocean, their spirit energy returns to the Spirit Collective Energy. And from this energy are drawn other animals and the nature spirits, who then in turn move onto becoming angels through increasing mind experience.

A nature spirit is an angel in waiting.

WE EACH have a Nature Spirit pair, Spirit Guide pair, and an Angelic Pair:

For those doing their Healing or are interested in doing it will from that time have their own personal angels, spirit guides and nature spirits with them, with whom they are to develop their own relationships should they want to. It is not about 'sharing' the same angels or guides or nature spirits, it is about you relating specifically to your 'own' ones because they are provided for YOU. It's all for you, to maximise the experiences we each need.

We are all to have our own pure relationships. And it's the same of course in life with your friends, however over there, in spirit, dealing with Nature Spirits, Spirit Guides, and Angels, it's more personal and private and 'JUST FOR YOU'. So we have our own separate, unique relationships.

For example, Nature Spirit Verna has been assigned to be specifically and only with James, and she ain't going to be assigned to anyone else, so she won't be sharing herself around.

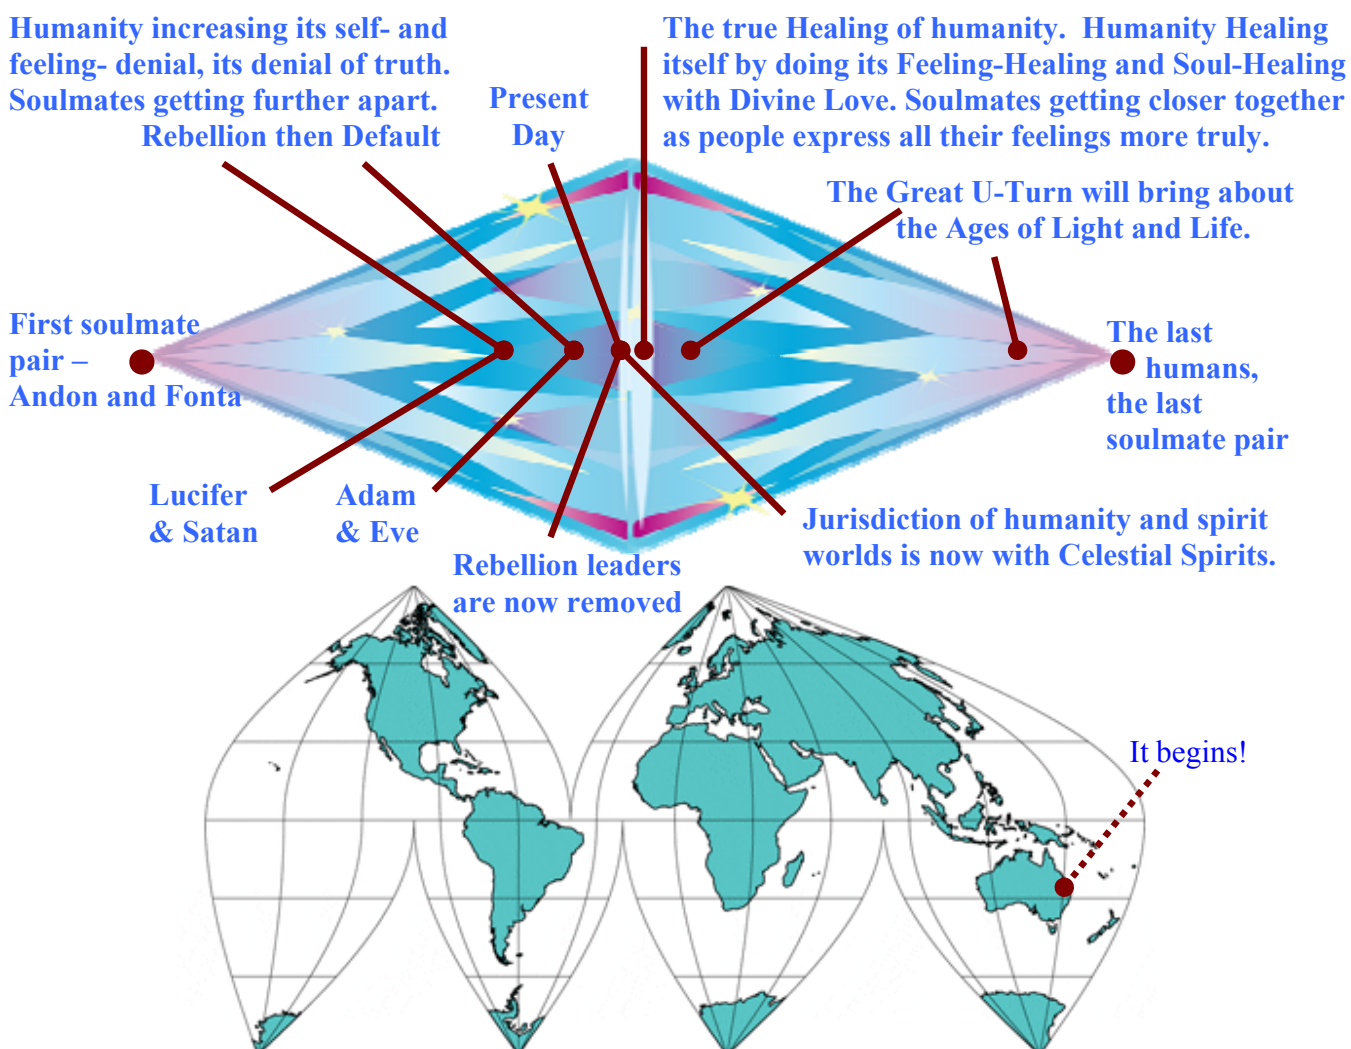

This is SO IMPORTANT to understand so that in future there won't be all these people claiming to be speaking with Verna or Mary Magdalene or Jesus or Nanna Beth or anyone else who is part of it all in such capacity. Mary M and Jesus have spoken with James as they have, making it quite clear he is all they are speaking with.

We each have a band of a Nature Spirit pair, Spirit Guide pair, and an Angelic pair, each pair being in their soulmate relationship. Even though we are ascending mortals having a soulmate, even our soulmate has his or her own group of six personalities assisting him or her. Our assigned Nature Spirits do not continue with us into spirit, our Spirit Guides may for a time assist upon entry to the spirit mansion worlds, however, our Angelic pair continue with us for eternity.

JOURNEY of HUMANITY into and through the GREAT U-TURN:

Humanity reaching its most evilness, the most lost, the most separation of soulmates. Humanity can begin its Healing. The Great U-Turn begins, the dawning of the Spiritual Age.

This is the Great U-Turn. We are to feel and live by our feelings and express our feelings, our mind will follow in support, not the other way around.

Feelings First, you can be sure about that! Once women get that message and start living it, then the tide will really change, with men either deciding to support them by looking to their own feelings or being left on the outer wondering what the fuss is all about.

The feminine light is going to sweep through humanity and purge it of all the yuk and darkness, helping to bring the whole of humanity back into a nurturing loving mother state of being, from which the supportive, caring father can support her and together they can make the world great again, they can bring humanity up into its natural love perfection whilst at the same time offer those people who want to spiritually grow the truths of how to embrace the Divine Love and move on to the Celestial level.

By living true to ourself, true to our feelings, we are living true to God. It's that simple.
(Passage in blue calibrates on the Map of Consciousness at 1,500)

LAST SUPPER:

What was the menu at the last supper?

There really was no last supper. It was just a meal that we had the night before I passed. Before everyone knew I was going to pass. Mary was present at the meal, as well as Stephanie, there was quite a few women there as well as men. We just had a standard meal.

Kinesiology testing suggests that 57 adults and some 6 children may have been present and that the meal was principally on the roof of the home of Zebedee in Jerusalem, being the home of the father of two of the Disciples. This approximates the numbers actually being there at various times of the meal.

I did not go for lamb or anything like because by then I was a vegetarian. Some of the Disciples still ate meat, so there was meat there, but mostly vegetables, fruit and wine. Some of the Disciples drank wine but I did not.

Could the meal have been something like this?

The MENU at the Last Supper: wine, mutton being goat and/or lamb, goat cheese, wine, pulses with unleavened (matzah) bread, wine, vegetables and fruits such as figs, olives and pomegranate, and then wine.

Lots of the events that were said to have happened, did not happen, and they were normal events, just like what we are having now (lunch in a restaurant). Because there were key events, in time they grew in importance and people embellished the event. Many of the events have been manipulated by religions to suit their own purpose.

Comments by AJ.

GOD's Divine Love is always available to you, should you ask for it:

“Our soul is a container and if it is full of error that it must be willing to empty before it can receive something new. Revelation is to shed light on the errors and the hidden agendas to demolish the castle of pain, renovating the space in readiness for the transformation of Divine Love. We won't grow in love until we are willing to surrender our pride and be the emotional being God created.”

This misunderstanding noted above is common.

The misunderstanding arises from a limited understanding of unconditional love (God's love). This leads us into focussing on our errors and seeking love as a result or consequence of elimination of errors.

The very nature of love is nurture. Love cannot exist without the effect of nurturing. This is what Motherhood is all about. This is why love is so powerful and must always be the primary objective; not removal of error. To focus on error does not produce the joyful experience one should feel as we move towards a greater understanding of love. Always the focus should be on love, because in truth there is nothing else.

As we focus on love, (with humility) our errors start to stand out so obviously and they become easier to remove. The whole process becomes joyful.

To take it a step further, once we focus on love, we may start to understand that in reality we have a somewhat limited 'free will'. The increased love we experience more and more reveals the errors to us and we have no option but to see and remove them. However, in truth we are only love, which has been sullied by the illusion of error. When we start with the premise that we are truly just love, we can only approach the unloving aspects (illusions) from the viewpoint of love. The approach many suggest is to give the error reality, which it hasn't, and then try to proceed to love from a starting point of error. This cannot be a suitable foundation to try to grow from. It is in truth, absolutely no foundation what so ever.

Encourage friends who may be interested to try this experiment: Before dropping off to sleep in your comfortable bed, lie prostrate facing the ceiling and ask for the love of God – God's Divine Love to flow into you. The most common response has been that they were overwhelmed with the feeling of warm, fulfilling joy that filled their being.

(2018.1) ^{188:5.2} Divine love does not merely forgive wrongs; it absorbs and actually destroys them. The forgiveness of love utterly transcends the forgiveness of mercy. Mercy sets the guilt of evil-doing to one side; but love destroys forever the sin and all weakness resulting there from. Jesus brought a new method of living to Urantia (earth). He taught us not to resist evil but to find through God a goodness which effectually destroys evil. The forgiveness of God is not condonation; it is salvation from condemnation. Salvation does not slight wrongs; it makes them right. True love does not compromise nor condone hate; it destroys it.
(The Urantia Book)

(2018.2) ^{188:5.3} The beauty of divine love, once fully admitted to the human heart, forever destroys the charm of sin and the power of evil.
(The Urantia Book)

The Only Prayer That Man Need Offer to the Father:

(as given within the first century)
I am here, Jesus

The Prayer for Divine Love 2 Dec 1916
<http://www.youtube.com/watch?v=Pg6p3rivAZw>
P.211 The Human Soul

Let your prayer be as follows:

(version below is from 'The Human Soul')

HEAVENALY FATHER, I recognize that you are all holy and loving and merciful, and that I am the child of your care, and not a subservient and depraved creature.

I am the greatest of your creation, and the most wonderful of all Thy handiworks, and the objects of Thy great soul's love and Tenderest care.

Your will is that we become at-one with you, and partake of the great love, that then you have bestowed upon me through your mercy and desire that I become, in truth, you children through love.

I pray that you will open up my soul to the inflowing of your love, and that then will come your Holy Spirit to bring into my soul this, your love in great abundance, until my soul shall be transformed into the very essence of you. And that there may come to me faith--such faith as will cause me to realize that I am truly your child and one with you in very substance.

Let me have such faith as will cause me to know that you are my Father, the giver of every good and perfect gift, and that only I can prevent your love transforming my soul into a divine angel.

Let me never cease to realize that your love is waiting for me, and that when I come to you with faith and earnest aspiration, your love will never be withheld from me.

Keep us in the shadow of your love every hour and moment of my life, and help me to overcome all temptations, and the influence of the powers, which endeavor to distract me away from you.

I thank you for your love and the possibility of receiving it, and I know that you are my Father --the loving Parent who smiles upon me in my weakness, and is always ready to help me and take me to your arms of love.

I pray this with all the earnestness and sincere longings of my soul, and trusting in your love, give you all the glory and honour and love that my finite soul can give.

Amen

Also, the evil ones, being those parts of one's mind, that are controlling you.

Prayers to our Mother and Father

From 'Religion of Feelings' by James Moncrief

Please Mother and Father help me accept my untrue state and bring up all my repressed feelings so I can see the full truth of why I feel so unloved and all that's wrong with me.

Please Mother and Father help me see the truth of myself through my feelings.

Please my beloved Heavenly Parents, fill my soul with Your Divine Love. I long for Your Divine Love; please answer my prayer and yearning to be at-one with You and do Your Will by living true to myself and all my feelings. Please fill my heart and soul with Your Divine Love – please make my soul like Yours – Divine.

Please Mother and Father, I want to uncover the whole truth of myself through my feelings. I want to be able to feel and accept just how bad I am, how bad I feel I am, how bad I've been in my life. I want to know the whole ugly truth of myself, see it and feel it and understand how I came to be it. Please reveal to me through my feelings all the truth of myself You want me to see. I want to be as You want me to be; I want to be true and perfect, Healed of all my rebelliousness and self- and feeling-denial; I want to be good, loving, true and happy, please help me become true to myself, true to my soul, true to You.

Please Mother and Father help me, I'm in such bad pain, I feel so alone, so miserable, so scared, what's going to become of me, I don't understand, what's the point of me, why have You made me; please help me see the truth of myself – all the truths of myself, nature, how to be in the world, of You both. I want to know, I want to know it all through my feelings, all that there is to see, the whole truth and nothing but the truth. Please help all my pain come to the surface of me so I can embrace and accept and express it out of me. I want to use my feelings to uncover the truth they are to show me; please help me to do that.

Please Mother and Father love me. I want You to love me. I want to feel fully loved by You. I don't want anything else, only to be with You. Please, that is all I am asking.

Please make me feel how unloving I am. Please show me the horrible truth that I am. I want to see and feel and understand the worst of me, please take me into my darkest scariest ugliest unwanted rejected places within myself. I don't want to feel all the dreadful pain that I know is there locked away inside me, yet I do also want it all to come up and out of me, and I want to use it to see the truth of my wrongness, the truth of how evil I am, the truth of my fucked up state. I no longer want to be false, pretending I am okay, using my mind to make me falsely believe I am good, happy, loved and loving, when I know I'm not. For how can I be when You've brought me into my unloving state, making me be of it. And as You want me to experience being this negative way, please show me the whole truth of it. I no longer want to deny any part of myself, or any of my bad feelings. I want them all to come up so I can express them, emoting their pain, feeling how bad You've made me feel all my life and all through my early life; I want to see why, and so reveal all the truth to myself. I want to be the living truth of myself, living true to my feelings and the truth they give rise to. Please help me to do my Healing, and please fill my soul with Your Divine Love.

The mind way is the 'dead' way; the feelings way is the 'alive' way.

Examples of some prayers to God:

From 'Feeling Healing' by James Moncrief

Please God show me the truth of myself through my feelings.

Please help me see the truth about myself You want me to see.

And please help me feel all my repressed pain; please bring up all my bad feelings so I can express them and see what it is they are to show me about myself, my life, and You.

And please help me work through my blocks, I want to Heal myself, I want to become true to myself and true to my feelings and true to You – please help me do that.

Heavenly Mother and Father, I feel so bad, and I know I'm doing it to myself, but I can't help it. I can't stop my compulsive addictions, so will you please bring up the buried feelings in me and show me the reasons why I can't stop. Please! I want to know – I REALLY WANT TO KNOW why I do them. Please help me Mother and Father to uncover the truth of myself. Please, I beg you, please, please, please show me the truth of them so I can give them up. I hate feeling bad, yet I know I must so I can keep expressing my bad feelings to see the truth You want me to see, so please help me feel bad.

Please Mother and Father fill my heart and soul with Your Divine Love. Please give me Your Love. Please love me and make me feel loved by You. I want to feel You close to me, I want You to hold me, make me feel loved by You. I only want You and to do Your Will. Please help me bring up all my repressed feelings so I can express them and uncover their truth. Please help me do my Healing. Please give me Your Love.

I hate you Mother and Father; why have You given me such a shit awful life? I hate myself, I hate You, I hate everything about my life. I feel so bad all the time. I've expressed so many bad feelings and still I feel bad. It's not fair, it's not fair what You've done to me. I hate You! And I want You to help me Heal myself, so I can stop feeling bad. You put me in the shit for whatever reasons, and I want You now to help me get out of it and show me what it's all been about. Please help me to Heal myself so I no longer hate You.

I long for Your Divine Love Mother and Father. Please fill my soul with it. And please help me uncover the truth of myself through my feelings. I want to see it all! And please make it all end, I'm so tired of always feeling so bad, please take all my bad feelings away by making me feel them and showing me the truth I am to see.

The New Way, Feelings First Spirituality
Learn to live with God through your Feelings

Accept, express and long for the truth of your feelings

Be free in your feelings
Free your feelings from your mind's control
Live true to your feelings; your feelings are your true self
Live true to yourself through your feelings

Live true to yourself by living true to your feelings.
Long for the truth of your feelings.

Accept / Express / Bring out ALL of your good, and most importantly, BAD feelings.
Want to understand why you're feeling them.
Use your surface feelings to take you deeper into your repressed and hidden feelings.

The Feeling Way is the True Way.
Your feelings are your spiritual guide.
Your feelings will take you to God.

Your feelings will show you the truth of your relationships, including your relationship with God; and if anything is wrong, untrue and unloving, then why it is.

Our feelings are sacrosanct and we should respect them accordingly. And we should NEVER block them out, ignore, override, banish, deny or reject them, because if we do, we're only doing that to ourselves, as Our Feelings Are Our Self.

Our feelings are the gateway to our soul. Our feelings are the closest we can get to our soul. Knowing the truth of our feelings is knowing the truth of our soul, and knowing the truth of God.

Feelings First Spirituality is the True path for humanity.
It embraces all people.
It completely unifies the world.
Everyone can relate to everyone else through their feelings.
And we can all live the truth that comes from our feelings, all sharing the same truths as we express and have the same feelings.
No one need be left out; no one is more special than anyone else – we are all united in Truth through our feelings.
So with and through our truth we live our lives, therefore without the need of any man-made mind-laws, rules and restrictions that limit self-expression as inspired by our feelings.

The New Way, Feelings First Spirituality is what is to replace all man-made, mind-contrived religions that so many people have enslaved themselves to. The New Way, Feelings First Spirituality will set us free of all that control, ending the Rebellion and Default within ourselves as we do our Feeling-Healing, and ending such control and spiritual stagnation in the world.

Bring on the End Times – get it over and done with! Let's all see that Jesus is not going to come again, that Prophecy has failed all the mind-controlled platforms. Allow such false systems of belief to die their long-awaited natural death, they've overstayed their welcome, it's now time they fade away. So let us show such antiquated, erroneous systems of belief the exit and bring on the fresh liberation of discovering the truth of how we are to live for ourselves, each of us personally in our lives, and all by looking to our own feelings for it. Self-revelation through our feelings is the way to go.

The Way of the Mind is ending, and is really the End Times – the End of our mind control, and it's about time! With the Way of our Feelings replacing it.

The End Times means the end and therefore a New Beginning. And that new beginning is a whole new Spiritual Age – an age based on self-revelation of truth through one's feelings, coupled with and supported by higher revelations from the Celestial spirits, angels and nature spirits.

The Feelings First Spirituality is the True Way to God because it helps you get to know God, helping you to reach out, connect and be personal with God, and do God's Will, all through your feelings. It is the only true way of getting to know the God of Feelings – our beloved Heavenly Mother and Father, the Great Soul of Divine Love.

Love comes through our feelings and not our mind, as we've all been wrongly led to believe.

Feelings First; then comes The Truth; then comes Love.

REVELATION 1
James Padgett 1914 – 1923

James Padgett bravely introduced the availability of the Mother and Father's Divine Love and a great deal of additional guidance and information, all of which has been supplemented by Samuels, Judas, Reid and Arnold. All writers were under restrictions of personality and circumstances. Revelation 1 opened the door for humanity.

Quantum Jump 2

REVELATION 2
Marion and James Moncrief 2002
– ongoing

Marion and James Moncrief have recognised the need for one to engage in Feeling Healing and, by their actions, removed restrictions that James Padgett and others above endured, thus JM is able to critique the writings of the past 100 years resolving points of confusion as well as expand on what has been written. Revelation 2 is humanity's turning point.

Due to the extra-ordinary nature of Revelations 1 and 2, humanity with the first Revelation would have continued on into its negative pathway of living, however, combining the first Revelation with Revelation two, now humanity can embrace this turning point and commence its evolutionary growth that has required two thousand years to put in place. This is the greatest event in the history of humanity and very few are aware of such, until we enable others to become aware.

REVELATIONS

JAMES PADGETT REVELATIONS 1 Commenced 1914
 MONCRIEF 2 Completed 2014

REVELATION 1

The availability of Divine Love, should we so ask for it, being revelation 1:

God's Divine Love: Pray for it, ask for it, and receive it.

Whilst we are receiving our Heavenly Parent's Divine Love, and that this Love is causing change within our soul and spirit attributes, the greatest Truth known to man and spirit is that this is the way the Father is actually loving us! When we progress, it is the Father's way of loving us into love and then we live what we are, love.

REVELATION 2

The way to clear one's soul of childhood errors and injuries is revelation 2:

To liberate one's real self, one's will, being one's soul, is begun by embracing Feeling Healing, so as to clear emotional injuries and errors. With the Love, then one is also Soul Healing. We are to feel our feelings, identify what they are, accept and fully acknowledge that we're feeling them, express them fully, all whilst longing for the truth they are to show us.

Release one's pain through expressing one's feelings.

in conjunction with

Longing for the Truth when also longing for Divine Love.

FEELING HEALING + SOUL HEALING

To heal one's self is to simply look to see what feelings we are refusing to let ourself feel, and accept them instead of denying them. And to fully accept them, one needs to express them, speak about them, let them have their say, rather than pushing them aside, refusing to let them make you feel bad.

Doing this all with the intention of seeking the truth of why you are feeling them, of speaking about and expressing all such feelings; all feelings you have, but ALL WITH the INTENTION of UNCOVERING the TRUTH THEY WANT YOU TO SEE ABOUT YOURSELF. And it's the wanting to see the truth of them that is very important, because if you just look to accept them and speak and express them, but not seek their truth, then that's all you'll be doing, speaking and expressing them, but not healing their causes, so not fixing the things within you that are making you feel bad. And it's the truth part of it, seeking the truth of your feelings, and so, seeking the truth through your feelings, that's vitally important. It's the truth of yourself, life, nature and God, that is the spiritual aspect to it all.

You CAN'T find the truth of yourself, or anything else, through and with only your mind. You HAVE to engage and look to your feelings. And so if you choose to allow your feelings to 'Show You the Way', then the truth will come as you express them. So to do our Soul-Healing consists of these steps, all of which are ongoing until it's done:

- Admit you are feeling bad.
- Accept your bad feelings, identify what they are.
- Honour fully your bad feelings by expressing them, speaking about them to someone who is willing to hear you talk about them, or tell them out loud to our Heavenly Parents. Long for the truth of them. Long for the truth of why you feel bad – what deep within you is causing your bad feelings?
- And remember, bad feelings are Good! Not bad. They are not to be despised. And as hard as it is to accept them, they are still you, and a very real part of you. And if you persist in denying them and not allowing yourself to fully live them, then you are only going to keep yourself in your errors making things harder for yourself.
- All sickness and suffering, all bad things that happen to you, all your problems, all your addictions – your whole feeling-denying and untrue life, is all caused by your denial of bad feelings.
- Every problem in the world is brought about because everyone has been brought up to deny feelings, and in particular, most of their bad ones.

If one is intent on spiritually evolving and growing in truth, then it's vital, and this is the key, that one looks to use one's feelings as the means to gain and have access to the truth of oneself. You CAN'T find the truth of yourself or anything else through and with only your mind. You HAVE to engage and look to your feelings. And so if you choose to allow your feelings to 'Show You the Way', then the truth will come as you express them.

Doing your Soul-Healing with the Divine Love, is really doing your 'Feeling-Healing'. We are designed — created — to be self-revealing of truth, and so we are all to uncover the truth within ourselves and for ourselves, and all being done by living true to our feelings. If you accept, express and seek the truth of your feelings, then truth will come to you, and you'll grow spiritually. It's as easy as that. Also it is as easy as it is to long for, ask for and receive Divine Love.

Feelings First Spirituality, The New Way

Feelings First Spirituality, The New Way is a contemporary ‘religion’ based on living true to yourself through your feelings. Understanding that all you need in life is contained within your soul and is shown to you through your feelings. And by loving your feelings, by attending to them properly (talking or writing them out of you) and not denying them, you can use them to uncover the truth of yourself – the truth of your soul.

Feelings First Spirituality is not a formalised religion that tells you how to be, that is too controlling and is actually bad for you, limiting your spiritual growth. You can be wholly self-revealing of the truths you need to be, being the person God created you to be, all by living true to your feelings.

Feelings First Spirituality has no formal structure because we understand we don't need one, our soul contains within it all the truth of our spiritual ascent. If we look to our feelings for the truth they want us to see about ourselves, nature and God, then what more do we need! Our true spiritual path is the path our feelings will lead us down, that is, provided we allow them to. This is the most spiritual we can be.

Living the New Way of Feelings First Spirituality

You come to the understanding from your life experiences that how you are is not right, it doesn't make you feel good – that you are wrong in some way. And you want to change yourself, you want to become right, true and perfect – you want to be like God is.

And to do this you need to do your Healing

Your Feeling-Healing is looking to your feelings for the truth of yourself, the truth being hidden in many of the feelings you are not wanting to face in life. So you have to end your feeling denial, accepting all your bad feelings (and good ones), express them (yet not necessarily acting upon them), whilst longing to uncover the truth they are to show you.

Or, you can do your Soul-Healing, which is your Feeling-Healing together with including longing directly to God for God's Divine Love. When you receive the Divine Love into your soul, it will cause your soul to become divine, and it will deepen your personal relationship with God. Long with all your heart to God for God's Divine Love.

Feelings First Spirituality The New Way

By living true to ourselves, true to our feelings, we are living true to God. It's that simple.

FEEL for TRUTH

The beauty of it all, is the truth comes to you through your own feelings. You don't need to be told it by anyone. You can work it all out for yourself. We are self-revealing of truth, it's how God created us to be, and by being it we'll feel the happiest we can feel. Truth is our great comforter, so when you feel it come up within you, ah it feels so good and you feel just right – perfect!

We know only how to deny feelings, now we can get to know how to accept them. And always with the truth being the most important part.

FEELING TRUTH

If you don't want to uncover the truth of your feelings, then you can keep on expressing them forever but you will never fully heal yourself. Seeing the truth results in the Healing. And to see the truth you need to express all the pain out of you. The two things go hand in hand.

You can accept and express your bad feelings, letting off steam all day long, yet nothing will heal and nothing much will come of it. So this is where wanting your feelings to show you the truth of why you're feeling as you are is so important.

Don't go fishing with your mind, that will shut the truth out from rising up for you. KEEP YOUR MIND OUT OF IT. It's a feeling thing, doing your Feeling-Healing. (This is where we erred previously, and this how other modalities are in error.)

You long when you can, then stop longing and keep expressing. And at some point, and it might not even happen immediately, it might happen after days or weeks of expressing the same bad feelings, truth will come to you. And it does, it just comes up suddenly into your consciousness. You just know. You see the picture and you feel it's true. And you know it's true. And THEN your mind can come in and start sorting it out and putting in context.

It's the Truth that we are seeking. It's the End Point. The Reason for doing your Healing. You are to see the whole Truth of yourself. And to begin with, that's the whole truth of your unloving self, of your wrongness, of your evilness, of why you are as you are in your negative unloving mind-controlling state. To be able to fully accept yourself as you are, warts and all. To not fight or resist or try and change yourself, just to accept all you feel and all the truth of all those bad feelings you feel about yourself. And when you do, so you will be healed. You CAN'T heal yourself unless you uncover the truth of your pain, suffering and so the truth of all your bad feelings.

Through our Feeling-Healing we long for the truth of what we're feeling whenever we can. So as often as you can. You want, and REALLY WANT WITH ALL YOUR BEING, ALL YOUR WILL, to know why you are feeling bad. You yearn, want, long and beg and beg and BEG God to show you the truth of yourself through your feelings. So when you are expressing your bad feelings you can stop and long for the truth to show you what's going on, why do you feel so bad, and you can do it any time you think of it or feel to do it.

Notes from 'Feeling Healing' by James Moncrief

Heartfelt TRUTH

Our FEELINGS are our SUPREME GUIDES:

Feelings!

Feelings are what guide us through our ascension of truth. So they are really our Supreme Guides. Many people look for a person, spirit, angel, even God, for supreme guidance, however it's all right there already built in – in our feelings. We just have to submit to them, allowing them to take us where they will, expressing all the parts we want to express, letting the emotion drive that expression if it's there to be expressed, or just talking about all we feel and how feeling that feeling is making us feel – or, how we feel about having that feeling, all whilst longing for the truth of our feelings. Longing for the truth of our feelings is really: Longing for the truth of our self, because: we are our feelings. So life stirs up our feelings, we feel being alive; or, being alive means we are feeling, always feeling; and when we work out what and why we are feeling what we are, so then we know the truth of how we are. And over time the truth accumulates, and our mind expands our understanding of ourselves, all being driven from our feelings. Kevin 26 Sep 2017

Using our feelings to uncover the whole truth of our negative or anti truth and anti love state.

Kevin: So whilst we're of an untrue state, then all we have got to help us understand why we feel bad, why we are wrong, why we are negative and anti love and truth, is our feelings. So if we focus on our bad feelings, they will lead us to the truth of why we're feeling bad. Which will be the truth of what happened to us to make us be this wrong way, and how we took on the wrong way and keep it going making us feel bad.

FEELING HEALING

Note: The vital difference between emotion and feeling is that emotions have their roots in the past, and feelings relate to the present moment. Emotions represent our feelings which were not previously expressed, and these accumulate with time.

Note: Our feelings are soul-based. Our soul is always in truth. It is our soul based feelings, that when allowed to be freely recognised, we will begin to express and be who we are. This takes time and perseverance as we have encrusted our souls with layers upon layers of errors and false beliefs, it is these layers that will confuse the truth that our soul is conveying to us. Only by our progression with our Feeling Healing will our soul's expression of truth become clear and free of all cloudiness and contamination.

“What our soul needs in accordance with our own, individual, Soul-Light-Plan-Of-Destiny (your life's true destiny plan), They, being our Mother and Father, will give you as required. The only way we can know truly what we need is to honour and follow our true feelings. They, springing from our soul, literally telling us what we need, and so when we genuinely feel we need something, we apply our will to get it. The hard part is knowing if our feelings are true, and until we have done our whole soul-healing, they won't be clear and totally true.” James – Introduction Course to Divine Love Spirituality

- Living rejecting all your bad feelings;
- Living with your mind contriving you feel loved;
- Rejecting the Divine Love.

All religions, New Age, agnostic, atheists, no spiritual interest,
 Living the Rebellion and Default.

Hell:
 Exploiting the Rebellion and Default.

The Feelings are the doer; the Mind the teller. So we are to go with our feelings, which we can't be told to do with our mind. So the longing for the Divine Love, doing our Healing by expressing our feelings and longing for their truth, are all feelings and doing it with longing. Whereas the mind just wants to tell us what to do and how to be, no feelings in it, all how our parents have treated us.

THE HEALING OF YOUR BAD FEELINGS THROUGH THEIR ACCEPTANCE AND FINDING THE TRUTH OF THEM, IS THE ACCEPTANCE OF YOUR NEGATIVE, REBELLIOUS, EVIL, IMPERFECT MIND AND WILL CONDITION.

To do our feeling-healing we need to become:

Aware of – Acknowledge – and Admit, our bad feelings.

So we can:

Accept – them and allow ourselves to Be them.

And then if we feel to, take:

Action – Express, speak and emote them.

Talk about them.

All being done whilst longing to, really wanting to, see the TRUTH of our feelings.

So it sounds simple.

So I repeat:

We accept our bad feelings by expressing – speaking about them to someone willing to listen to us and take us seriously. And as we speak we long for the truth of them – why we are feeling them – to be made known to us. And when we uncover and see the truth we are FREE! – healed of the causes that have made us feel bad.

Accept, Express – see the Truth, and you're Free!

ACCEPTANCE OF ALL YOU FEEL, THINK AND ARE, IS THE KEY TO DOING YOUR HEALING; THAT, AND WANTING TO SEE THE TRUTH OF ALL YOU FEEL, THINK AND ARE.

Release one's pain through expressing one's feelings.

in conjunction with

Longing for the Truth when also longing for Divine Love.

God is God, who is our Heavenly Mother and Father, being SoulMates. There is only one Soul that is God's Soul, that being the Soul of our Mother and Father. Our Heavenly Parents are the First Soulmates; The Two Who Are One who have brought us all into being.

Jesus and Mary are soulmates and a son and daughter of God.

Mary of Magdalene and Jesus of Nazareth, were both free of sin. Mary and Jesus, combined in their love for us, are our spiritual teachers and guidance for us to find our way home to our Heavenly Parents. Mary and Jesus have liberated their Spirits of Truth who we can long to for assistance and guidance. They are known as Jesus and Mary of Nebadon, the universe system in which Earth is. They are the Creator Son and Daughter ruling this region.

To start this journey we are to liberate our souls from being entombed within our suppressive minds, through feeling and longing for the truth of our feelings via our soul and peel away our injuries incurred since our conception.

The Avonal pair, should they be here, are to support humanity on Earth exclusively. They are to continue the work of the Creator Pair, Mary and Jesus, and will be assisted by them. The Avonal pair will, during their life on Earth, experience the full Feeling Healing process and Soul Healing process so that through their Spirits of Truth, which they are to release upon their physical death, will be able to be called upon by all those who embrace their own Healing. The Earth names of the Avonal Pair may not become known.

Humanity, all being soulmate pairs, are ascending mortal souls who are to reach inward and progress Paradise-ward for the God experience. As part of our journey of evolving our souls we are to experience evil, that is the denial of God and the Creator Pair. We can long to the Spirits of Truth of Mary and Jesus and soon to the Spirits of Truth of the Avonal Pair. Our Indwelling Spirit is our direct connection to and with God.

We souls are existential, our souls have it all within us, it's a done deal, we are just unfolding in Creation through our personality expression. So our evolution is our growing in truth, the truth already within our soul, with it continually being brought out through our feelings as we live our experiences, thereby 'growing in truth' as we ascend, as we live that truth.

Whereas the angels are experiential, and their soul starts evolving or developing upon their creation. It all being done through their evolving minds. They don't grow in truth like we do, they just grow or evolve in mind. And as they do, the experiences they have individually and then as a created pair, cause the soul of their mind to grow and evolve.

However, those people adhering to the 'Mind Way', as presented by TUB (The Urantia Book), the New Age, and all our religions, is really the angels' way and not ours. So perhaps, that is why TUB has 'mucked it up' because it has to adhere to the Rebellion, which is making us look to the God the Mind, the Infinite Daughter, as the Way to God, when we're to look to God the Truth, the Eternal Son, as the Way to God.

We can't attain Paradise and be with our Heavenly Parents unless we first go through the Eternal Son. We can't do it through and with our minds. That's for the angels to do. So the mind spirits (like most people on earth and mansion spirit worlds), unbeknownst to them, are trying to live like angels, trying to evolve their soul through and with their mind, which can't happen. And if we are like angels going first through the Infinite Daughter on the way to the Mother and Father, then we fall short, never attaining the Son. However as we know, we are so wrong by looking only to our minds, that we can't even get out of the mansion worlds, let alone get anywhere near the Infinite Daughter on Paradise.

So our Healing is getting ourselves out of the mind, letting that way go, and coming back to our true selves, which is through our feelings, the truth we are to live from our soul. And once we do that through our Feeling Healing and divine our soul with the Divine Love, then we are free to move to Paradise, up via the Infinite Daughter (with Her and the Divine Minister (and Holy Spirit), nature, nature spirits and the angels' help – all the creations of the Mind), to the Eternal Son and onwards to the Mother and Father. With the Higher descending Paradise Daughters and Sons (Mary and Jesus, Avonal pairs, Trinity Teacher pairs), and local universal descending Daughters and Sons (Lanonandeks, Melchizedeks, etc.), together with our ascending mortal spirit friends (daughters and sons – each other, Nanna Beth, Kevin, etc.), helping us on the feelings and truth side of things.

This time, in the history of humanity, is the most exciting time ever experienced.

the Handover

This is the time that man is now able to evolve in its spiritual development. Man has endured 200,000 years of Rebellion and compounded this with the Default of some 38,000 years, now it has been provided with the guidance to put aside the negativities of the Rebellion and Default.

With the guidance that was provided through James Padgett (1914 through to 1923), man became again aware of the availability of Divine Love from our Heavenly Parents. This also heralded the handover. That is, the commencement of the end times of the involvement by Mary and Jesus in the spiritual affairs of humanity on Earth.

Soul groups that have been in place during Mary and Jesus' 2,000 year involvement with Earth have progressively handed over to soul groups that have been forming since 100 years ago. The older soul groups have mostly progressed on further towards Paradise.

The second revelation, that followed from the availability of Divine Love, is the processes of Feeling Healing and Soul Healing. The understanding of the Feeling Healing process is the most important of the revelations and should have been the first to be revealed. Feeling Healing and Soul Healing are being revealed through and by Marion and James Moncrief.

The soulmate pair, that are the first to complete their Soul Healing, and upon their deaths, they will release their Spirits of Truth which will unify with the Spirits of Truths of Mary and Jesus so that humanity, in whole, will have access to these knowings and guidance for the next 1,000 years.

Mary and Jesus, being responsible for the spiritual wellbeing and upliftment of the whole of Nebadon, are to withdraw from their direct involvement with Earth and hand over the responsibilities to an Avonal Pair who take individual responsibility for the spiritual wellbeing and upliftment of individual planets and their associated mansion worlds, in this case, Earth exclusively.

COUNCIL of ELDERS

For the next 1,000 years, via the Avonal Pair and the newly forming Soul Groups, Earth will be able to evolve through embracing Feeling Healing, and with Divine Love, one's Soul Healing. These newly formed Soul Groups are effectively 'Council of Elders' to assist humans living in the physical on Earth to enable all to be aware of the way to evolve.

With the absolute end of the Rebellion, this is the first time in 200,000 years that mankind, humanity, can take control of his and her destiny and evolve in love and truth for all eternity!

Throughout this coming era, our spiritual leaders will be an Avonal Pair, yet to be identified.

REVELATIONS

Revelation 1: Our soul becomes encrusted with harmful ways of life, plus negative and erroneous beliefs, these mainly stem from our childhood upbringing and environment. Thus we live untrue to ourselves, we become 'evil'. Whilst we hold to these injuries we limit the amount of Love that we can receive into our soul. To open our soul to the Love we must firstly and progressively embrace our emotional injuries and allow them to be released. Until we emotionally experience past errors and injuries we hold onto them.

To free our soul of damage and toxic emotions we must open ourselves to experiencing them. This is a progressive, slow and uncomfortable cleansing process that we must all experience. Only by addressing the generational injuries will we, as humanity, evolve in love.

To fully divest one's self of our badness, we have to 'go into' our feelings. Call this process of clearing toxic emotions as 'Letting Go', 'Emotional Processing', 'Journey Process' or 'Feeling Healing'. Embracing Divine Love then Feeling Healing becomes Soul Healing.

As part of our Feeling-Healing we will have to work our way into all our feelings to see if indeed they are coming truly from our heart and soul, or if they are being heavily influenced by our mind. And this will then lead us into questioning and uncovering the truth, if there is any, to our beliefs and why we behave the way we do; and is such behaviour based on truth, or is it based once again on untruth, belief, and rules of our mind.

Revelation 2: We can long for, ask for and receive the Mother and Father's Divine Love. The greater our soul is free of error and injury, the more of the Divine Love can be received and assimilated into our natural love formed soul. The Love does not free us of injury, however, it strengthens our resolve to continue on our journey to be free of error and injury, to step away from evil aspects that have been encapsulated within our humanness and soul. It is this Love, the Divine Love, that brings about immortality of our soul and it is this Love that will eventually fit us to enter the Celestial Heavens and progress for ever more onwards to Paradise. These two revelations free us from error and enable us to grow in love ever more.

Immortality with the Love.

To liberate one's real self, one's will, being one's soul, is by embracing Feeling Healing so to clear emotional injuries and errors. With the Love, then one is also Soul Healing. We are to feel our feelings, identify what they are, accept and fully acknowledge that we're feeling them, express them fully, all whilst longing for the truth they are to show us.

Our salvation IS by embracing Feeling Healing with the Divine Love.

God's Divine Love: Pray for it, ask for it, and receive it.

Please Mother and Father, may I receive Your LOVE.

“Every day is a day of devotion.”

Follow your heart, follow your love and do that in loving action, your inner love leads in your asking the Soul of God to receive a little of the Love to strengthen one's resolve to heal.

“I love you Father.” “Let the Divine Love proclaim its energy into my soul.”

“Mother – Father, I desire your Love and I am loving you.”

“Soul God, I love you and I love receiving and experiencing your Divine Love.”

“True Soul God, I am here, I am aware of your Love. Please hear my aspiration for your Love and as I approach you from my soul, I can feel your Love in the way that you are loving my soul.”

Try it; give the Feeling Healing and Love a go! If you want to shine, receive the Love.

One can simply receive the Love without following any religious or spiritual teaching taught by man!

Emotional errors and injuries cause encrustment around the soul, the soul is never damaged however, the encrustments retard love energy flow to and from the soul. Feeling Healing melts such injuries.

The Three Great Truths:

- “God is Soul, being our Heavenly Mother and Father;
- that each individual soul is a finite individual;
- and that the Divine Love is freely available for all to receive.”

God is God, who is our Heavenly Mother and Father, being SoulMates. There is only one Soul that is God's Soul, that being the Soul of our Mother and Father. Our Heavenly Parents are the First Soulmates; The Two Who Are One who have brought us all into being.

Jesus and Mary are a son and daughter of God.

Jesus of Nazareth and Mary of Magdalene, being soulmates, were both free of sin. Jesus and Mary, combined in their love for us, are our teachers and guidance for us to find our way home to our Heavenly Parents. To start this journey we are to liberate our souls from being entombed within our suppressive minds, through feeling and longing for the truth of our feelings via our soul and peel away our injuries incurred since conception.

Give yourself time to consolidate your relationship with the Mother and Father through the partaking of Their Love. And whilst you are doing this, you can learn about your healing, all that's involved with it, as there are many willing spirits to share their healing experiences with you.

When you are ready it will start happening simply because you will want it to, it all being orchestrated by your soul. And when that time comes you will have developed a strong foundation in your relationship with the Mother and Father for you to work from. We are to feel our feelings, identify what they are, accept and fully acknowledge that we're feeling them, express them fully, all whilst longing for the truth they are to show us.

It is to make longing for God's Love the priority, and then do one's healing; should one want to include God and the Divine Love in one's feeling healing. This is doing your soul-healing as you are seeking to heal your soul of all evilness – of that which made you become evil, and release all the hurt and pain of not being fully and truly loved.

KINESIOLOGY MUSCLE TESTING – GENERAL INFORMATION:

David R Hawkins – Transcending the Levels of Consciousness P.372

The energy field of consciousness is infinite in dimension. Specific levels correlate with human consciousness, and these have been calibrated from “1” to “1,000”. See the Map of Consciousness. These fields reflect and dominate human consciousness.

Everything in the universe radiates a specific frequency or minute energy field that remains in the field of consciousness permanently. Thus, every person or being whoever lived and anything about them, including any event, thought, deed, feeling, or attitude, is recorded forever and can be retrieved at any time in the present or the future.

TECHNIQUE

The kinesiological response (muscle testing) is a simple “yes” or “not yes” (no) response to a specific stimulus. It is usually done by the subject’s holding out an extended arm and the tester pressing down on the wrist (bony bit) of the extended arm, using two fingers and light pressure. Usually the subject holds a substance to be tested over their solar plexus with the other hand. The test says to the test subject, “Resist”, and if the substance being tested is beneficial to the subject, the arm will be strong. If it is not beneficial or has an adverse effect, the arm will go weak. The response is very quick and brief.

Basics of Muscle Testing

It is important to note that the intention, as well as both the tester and the one being tested, must calibrate over 200 in order to obtain accurate responses.

If either the tester or the one being tested is dehydrated, errors will occur. A large glass of water will promptly remedy this situation.

Solar plexus is that region about 2.5 inches above your belly button. The test subject holds the item over their solar plexus with one hand and extends the other arm for response in the normal way.

The higher the levels of consciousness of the test team, the more accurate are the results. The best attitude is one of clinical detachment, posing a statement with the prefix statement, “In the name of the highest good, _____ calibrates as true. Over 100 on the Map of Consciousness. Over 200, etc.” The contextualization “in the highest good” increases accuracy because it transcends self-serving personal interest and motives.

To find our way home, we must remember who or what we are!

FEELING HEALING and SOUL HEALING with the DIVINE LOVE:James Moncrief Publications:*all publications are free downloads:<http://divinelovesp.weebly.com/my-free-books-and-free-padgett-messages.html>

It is suggested for one to consider reading as follows:

Speaking with Mary Magdalene and Jesus – books 1 – 4

These four books encapsulate the second of the revelations with the first having been introduced by James Padgett one hundred years previously. These four books provide a wide range of guidance that has never previously been made available.

Paul – City of Light

As a gentle intro into the Divine Love and Healing; being James Moncrief's first novel and it's been criticised as being too heavily clichéd, but that's the point because it's a reflection of how he was back then.

Ann and Terry

For an example of people who might want to immediately start working on them selves and doing their Healing.

Feeling Bad? Bad feeling are GOOD

For more understanding about our denial of our feelings and why we should not deny our feelings, and it includes how it all came about for James, using himself as an example.

Feeling bad will make you feel BETTER – Eventually!

This includes specific examples of Marion and James working on expressing particular bad feelings, again with the hope that it will help others gain something of an idea as to what's involved in doing your Feeling Healing.

Sage – and the Healing Angels of Light

Through Sage who's 13 years old, the story is primarily about the two aspects of healing; that being, with the help of our angels, and the full Healing we can do by looking to our feelings for their truth.

Religion of Feelings
Feeling Healing*Welcome to LOVE – the Religion of Feelings you can heal yourself through your feelings

So these books, including the four Speaking with Mary Magdalene and Jesus books, provide the essence of it all and are examples of James' work. Then it's up to whatever takes one's fancy. Other reading to consider may include:

The Padgett Messages being published as:The True Gospel Revealed Anew by Jesus volumes 1 – 4*Book of Truths by Joseph Babinsky*The Urantia Book*Release one's pain through expressing one's feelings.*in conjunction with*Longing for the Truth when also longing for Divine Love.

FEELING HEALING with DIVINE LOVE is SOUL HEALING:

A collection of 'papers' that draw together specific topics including all of the above and more from other sources of information and revelation designed to help increase one's awareness about why we have the problems we do and how to heal them, all whilst living a more healthy and sustainable life. They provide a brief snapshot of the more complicated topics and issues.

Firstly, consider discovering the truth of your emotional pain through Feeling Healing.

Secondly, consider longing for our Heavenly Parents' Love as you progress with your healing.

Primary and most important readings are the writings of James Moncrief.

Then consider the Padgett Messages, and then The Urantia Book.
