

PASCAS UNIVERSITY and DISCOVERIES

The discovery dynamics of a Pascas University are that it may engage in unique and enlightened ways to explore issues confronting Humanity and present amazingly progressive and helpful pathways to address issues such as:

Ecology: Quality air – mitigating pollution, potable water – ample supply and ready availability, healthy nutritious food – fresh is best, not factory packaged.

Transportation: Traffic jams many kilometres long have become customary in large cities. Transport systems and transport pathways are all inadequate requiring a global redevelopment engaging in evolutionary technology.

Corruption: There is much talk, including on the highest levels, about the scale of this phenomenon. A bureaucrat who embezzles from the treasury, a bribe-taker and a bribe-giver are considered no less dangerous than enemy saboteurs. But the passive subversion of children with computer games that are primers for gambling addictions is ignored. Childhood abuse is universal. It is recognised that some 70% of girls are sexually abused but it is ignored that 70% of those 70% are abused by their fathers and uncles. Childhood Suppression is universal and is the underlying cause of ALL the social ills of humanity.

Unemployment: A most dangerous consequence of unemployment is depression. When this illness overcomes a person, he/she turns into a living corpse. If it overcomes a segment of society, then the state is in danger of dying out. While we remain unhealed of our Childhood Suppression, we go on living presenting a façade personality repressing our childhood suppression – we ALL are in varying forms of depression!

Drunkenness and Drug Addiction: We've been fighting these afflictions for a long time now, and unsuccessfully. We have never addressed our Childhood Suppression and the consequences are addictions – to suppress the pain from our childhood suppression.

The Housing Problem: Despite all the efforts that have been brought to bear to resolve it, the situation is only getting worse.

Health Service: Modern and ancient systems to blend whilst Feeling Healing is recognised and accepted.

The pathway forward is through education and that is through leadership driven out of enlightened universities that are not constrained or restricted in anyway in their research and development. And that means that the faculty and students are provided with the opportunity to live feelings first having their minds to follow in support of what their feelings are encouraging them to consider. Not the other way around as it universally is now throughout the world's education systems.

COUNCIL of ELDERS

Throughout the evolution of Pascas, Pascas has been gently guided and supported by its Council of Elders from within the Celestial Heavens. All documentation, all concepts, all who have interacted with the forming of Pascas WorldCare and the various arms, have been in response to the guidance from our Celestial Council of Elders – from within the 3rd Celestial Heaven. Throughout the coming millennium, our Celestial friends will be guiding and assisting Pascas WorldCare.

Council of Elders now around 13 soul-groups from the 3rd Celestial Heaven

Communications between the Celestial Council of Elders and those within the physical administration of Pascas World-Care will be via those who complete their Feeling Healing on Earth, as years go by.

Avonal PAIR Oversight

The administration of Pascas may be also supported in their interconnectivity with our Celestial guidance, through those within Pascas and its administration who are sensitive in their nature and are able to perceive guidance from our Celestial companions on this journey of delivering the Great U-Turn. It is through the nature of sensitivity that Celestial Spirits have interacted with Pascas during decades of formative years and the establishment of the foundations for Pascas for the next 1,000 years.

LIGHT OF TRUTH

Pascas as an entity, due to the contributions from our Celestial friends, is functioning within the 5th Divine Love spirit Mansion World's level. Further, the Pascas Papers that are designated as references for Feeling Healing and Divine Love are within the level of Truth of the highest of the Celestial Heavens. Pascas will be supported in this manner for the coming millennium.

ARCHITECTURAL CONSIDERATIONS

Firstly is the long term integrity of the institution. Structures to be built are for 200+ year lives.

One major detail that sets universities apart from other higher education institutions, like community colleges or vocational schools, is that many students, particularly first-year students, live on campus full-time. When planning the university campus design, architects need to think about details that full-time, live-in students value.

Students crave variety and a strong sense of community and studies have found that when students form strong friendships on campus, they are much less likely to drop out.

It has also been found that the farther students moved away from their families to attend university or school, the more likely they are to drop out within the first year because of lacking a sense of community. When a university campus design addresses these important concerns, students not only feel happier on campus, but they may also perform better academically.

The same socially-centred university campus design can also have a positive impact on students who live off campus or live at home and commute to class. When there are more areas for students to connect with their peers or relax outside of class, these students are more likely to stay on campus all day rather than go home between classes.

To address student needs, we are to work to make the following spaces warmer, friendlier and more supportive:

- Learning spaces – tutoring each other venues
- Dining halls – social congregations
- Libraries
- Outdoor spaces
- Recreation rooms
- Student housing

When university facilities are thoughtfully designed in a way that supports the needs of students, the university campus design will make a lasting impact on the student body.

LIGHT HOUSE

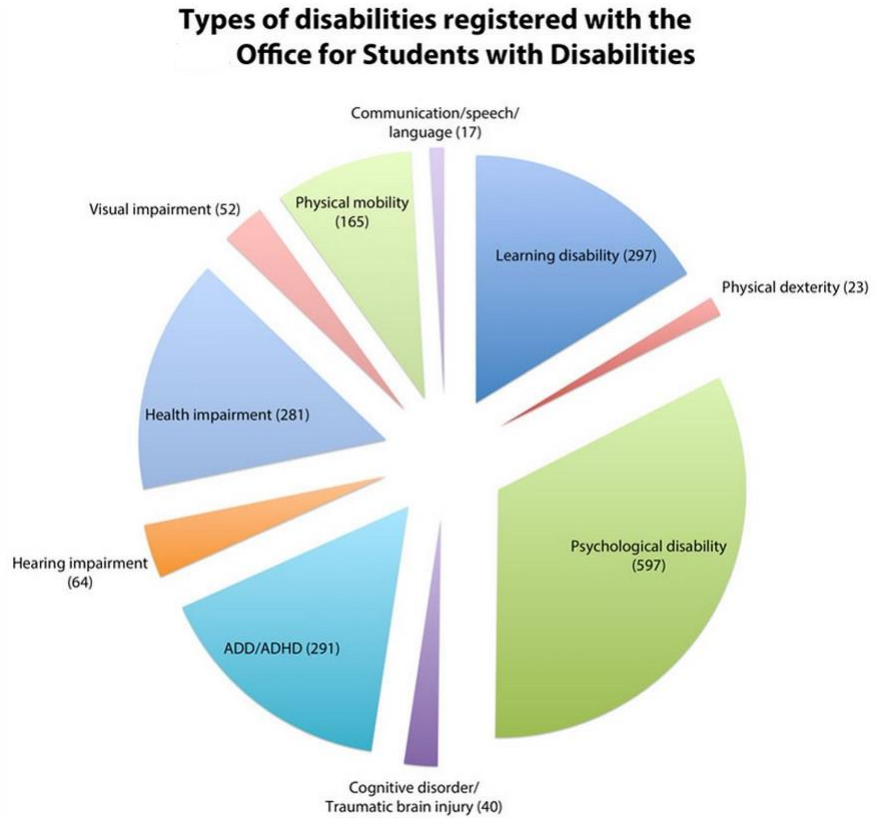

“Knowledge Docks” – tutoring each other zones – comfortable seating is essential.

Dining hall – more comfortable seating.

The campus needs to have a barrier-free approach. The designers need to ensure all areas, whether recreational or institutional, and all pedestrian routes should follow inclusive design guidelines. All paved walkways must have contrasting edge demarcations, provision of handrails, and curb cuts. There needs to be separate toilet stalls in public spaces for the disabled.

All work and no play make Jack a dull boy. Planning of sports grounds, gymnasium, and even rejuvenating spas are of immense importance for the University. These need to follow Olympic standards and guidelines. Medical health centres also need to be planned meticulously. This building block needs to be accessible to all at all times.

The Design Best Practices That Matter Most

Architects have a greater impact on the college experience than many people realise. A quality university education depends on a mix of academic productivity and healthy social bonds. If a space isn't functional, then students will struggle to get their work done and their education will suffer as a result. The same goes for socialisation on campus. If there aren't enough comfortable areas for students to relax after class or spontaneously meet up, they may get burnt out and struggle to make connections. To fully embrace their role in campus life and better support students in every aspect of campus life, architects need to consider a variety of design opportunities for a school's program types, such as:

Learning spaces

On university campuses, classrooms and lecture halls are often larger than they are in high schools or community colleges. Alternatives for around twelve, no more than twenty, students to gather and tutor each other following an introduction is preferred. High school graduates or community college transfer students arriving on campus for the first time can easily feel overwhelmed. These large spaces often make students feel disconnected from their peers and may also be distracting for students who are used to focused, one-on-one instruction. To solve this problem, architects:

- Install larger desks and swivel chairs in lecture halls so students can collaborate with the people around them
- Design multipurpose classrooms with flexible furniture that students are welcome to use for their own projects when classes aren't in session
- Create fewer large lecture halls and more intimate learning spaces, both formal and informal, that encourage engaged learning rather than passive listening

Means of Transportation

For students who live on campus, getting around is fairly easy when architects design as many walkways as possible. Architects can also encourage students to walk around campus by placing social hubs (e.g. dining halls, recreation centres, student unions) around campus rather than keeping them clustered in one area.

For commuter students, transportation is a very important issue. Architects can improve retention rates and encourage commuter student participation by:

Designing convenient parking lots

- Placing welcome centres and main walking paths close to public transportation drop-off zones
- Creating more bike paths and racks to encourage students who live relatively close to campus to leave their cars at home

Dining halls

Food is a great aggregator and an important program to develop when designing campus communities. Students with meal plans need multiple dining options. Architects support this by not only designing multiple dining halls across campus, but also by using a Marché-style design in each of them. Marché dining halls resemble large multicultural food markets. Students who have more choice over their food options are more likely to stick with their meal plans, even if they no longer live on campus full-time. However, architects and clients must also consider other dining options outside of traditional dining halls. Not all students can afford a meal plan. When you have multiple casual seating areas, both outside and inside, as well as food kiosks and small cafes around campus, you give these students more options.

Libraries

Libraries are no longer just spaces to store books and resources. Many also incorporate academic resource programs and student support services, and modern university libraries may look more like coffee shops or chic co-working spaces than traditional libraries. University libraries are one-stop-shops for every student's needs, including:

- Buying books and supplies
- Checking out library resources
- Finding a quiet place to study or a cosy place to read
- Meeting friends for food and drinks
- Requesting a private conference room for group projects

Outdoor spaces

The best university campus design is one that seamlessly connects every building on campus. Landscaping and outdoor walking paths are a great way to accomplish this. To encourage students to spend time outdoors and explore campus, architects include biophilic (love of living things and nature) details like:

- Community gardens
- Outdoor seating areas
- Open fields for multipurpose sports
- Specialised sports courts
- Covered and uncovered trails

Recreation rooms

Casual, multipurpose spaces are essential in any university campus design. These spaces include comfortable seating, games, or other amenities and can act as “sticky spaces” that encourage students to stay on campus and connect with each other. Thoughtful architects will place spaces like these in every campus building to encourage students to leave their rooms and socialise. Other more specialised buildings like gyms, pools, and sports centres attract students who lead active lifestyles or who want to become more active. To draw more students to these spaces, architects should design these recreational areas to be warmer, friendlier, and more supportive.

Student housing

Student housing is a critical component of university campus design. These spaces need to support students in a number of ways:

- Promote sleep: Acoustic and lighting control prevents sleep disruptions so students stay healthy.
- Encourage socialisation: Encourage socialisation in hallways, communal bathrooms, lobbies, living rooms, study rooms, and outdoors so that students have more chances to socialise while at home.
- Connect students to campus life: Provide flexible amenity-rich spaces that residential life can use to host housing-specific and campus-wide events.

When a university hires an architectural firm, the architect may only work on one of these project types at a time. Architects apply best practices to make sure that the new space fits the existing and future campus culture and fully supports students' academic and social needs. It is critical that architects make college campuses feel cohesive so that students can adjust to the campus culture quickly and focus on their learning.

Architects Have a Vital Responsibility to University Students

The skills students learn at universities could make a meaningful impact on the world after graduation, but this is only possible if they feel fully supported from the start. A promising and ambitious student should never feel overwhelmed or isolated at a university. This is a good reason to work with an architectural firm that designs with a student-first approach. These firms meet with students in-person to talk about what they need or want in the university campus design. When architects hear students' perspectives, they gain a better understanding of how the campus can better support them and make them feel at home. University campus design isn't about cramming more technology into classrooms or coming up with innovative designs for the sake of it. It's about designing a space that is warm and home-like and that puts students at ease so they have the best chance at success.

Community Brokering

Pointers from the Managing Director of Kelvin Trimper Consulting and the former Chair of the Education Planning Network for the Golden Grove Development, Kelvin Trimper, spent many years brokering strategic educational partnerships at both Golden Grove Village and Mawson Lakes in South Australia. Understanding how innovative education approaches were critical to establishing successful communities.

How was Delfin's approach to community different to other developers?

Delfin understood community and the importance of family and the benefit of community, predominantly around church and school communities. The fabric which made up that was something pretty special, and if you could plan and deliver it, then you had something that certainly was very commercial (a cohesive community).

Secondly, Delfin recognised that you had something special if you actually created community, which had a bit more longevity and a bit more staying power than just the bricks and mortar. However a community needs places to meet and greet, excuses to connect, so at West Lakes, Golden Grove and Mawson Lakes, created were the physical attributes that provide the excuse for people to mix and mingle.

Delfin also recognised that if you provided a mix of housing, you could deal with the peaks and troughs in the market, as well as providing for a mix of people. Strong communities globally have a really strong mix of people – age profile, culture, their socioeconomic status, etc. The bigger the mix, the more successful the community.

How did you approach the delivery of education – university through to school services and facilities?

At Golden Grove we had a shared approach to education facilities. We identified all the expenses and facilities that could be shared between private and public schools, like laboratories and sports grounds, allowing for bigger, better and more efficient use. (This also includes TAFE, University and Craft Creation as well as health services and hospital – interlink needs and facilities.)

We were able to attract private schools earlier by providing land at a discounted rate and giving them time to pay the land off. Access to capital has always been the difficulty of establishing private schools in growth areas. There's generally been a lag of 10 to 15 years but by having them in early they contribute to establishment of community.

This bought in people who wanted access to private education and contributed to establishing a diverse community. We knew that 15% of those buying a block of land at Golden Grove were buying as a direct result of the private school access and about 50% of school age children at Golden Grove went to private school.

The norm we broke at Golden Grove and continued at Mawson Lakes was not using a formula-driven approach to community development based on population numbers. Communities aren't that predictable, nor should they be. You make a decision yourself based on your values and a whole raft of other factors.

By sharing open space with the community, schools didn't have to buy the land. We entered joint or shared use agreements that meant schools had access to open space at certain times and under certain arrangements, reducing the amount and cost of the land they were required to purchase.

How did you develop a vision for Mawson Lakes?

Mawson Lakes was intended to be the Sustainable City of the Future. We broke this down into three parts; sustainable meaning socially, environmentally and economically; city referred to place; and future meant technology. Given that it had to be sustainable over time, that's where we bought in learning, training, research and development. (Emotional and spiritual growth is the anchor for Pascas Village.)

All of that became the six pillars of Mawson Lakes; learning and research and development, social, environmental, economic, place, and technology. These became the deliverables which we independently reviewed every three years, and set KPI's against (key performance indicators).

Did these drivers attract people to Mawson Lakes?

Put simply, Mawson Lakes created place. We delivered the lake early and made sure the first commercial site we sold was to the pub which also had accommodation. University students would actually stay "on campus" to use the pub. (This is placing students first!)

The University Campus was to be a key part of Mawson Lakes and hopefully attracted residents. But it only offered engineering which meant students were 95% male and didn't stay. The university spent AU$250million over ten years and turned the gender balance round from 95% male to 55/45. Arts subjects and teacher training were bought in turning the gender balance around. Suddenly, the University was a campus where students lingered.

Although it probably wasn't viable for the first four years we provided the town centre early and the moment we did kids started staying. The bulk of student accommodation that has been most successful is actually the mixed use accommodation above the shops. We were able to achieve 100 dwellings per hectare in the Town Centre Precinct which attracted strong investment in rentals. We deliberately chose anchors like Woolworths to create the town centre, subsidising them for the first twelve or eighteen months with a base turnover rent.

Today, Mawson Lakes has about 12,000 residents, 6,500 students and about the same number workers. It is a very mixed use community which gives a vibrancy, maturity and character found in older communities.

How did you support new community members moving into Mawson Lakes?

We employed a person at the Mawson Centre to help community groups set up and connect employees with the centre, council services and local employers which was all part of the welcoming kit provided to new residents.

Of the one percent of all land sales revenue, half of one percent went to a community development fund that was matched by the City of Salisbury and the other half went to an Innovation Economic Opportunities Fund which was dedicated to sponsoring ideas about economic development. These funds were amazingly important and supported the many community facilities and initiatives. The community fund helped build the Mawson Centre when we were 1 million dollars short in stakeholder contributions.

Aside from the major retail anchors were you successful in attracting a mix of other uses? Some succeeded and some didn't, we have a lot of home offices in Mawson Lakes and a lot of blue collar services. It is important to support those that work from home or office incubators with access to services; and that includes cafes, printing shops, financial support, banking and childcare. These are all just as important and need to be near where they work even if it is from home.

If you could change one thing about the way we currently create communities what would it be?

To absolutely guarantee you've got people on the ground that can facilitate the new residential community connecting at every level. It's about promoting belonging, because there's a desperate desire for everyone to belong. Place is an important element but it's people that make it happen. It often needs a broker that can facilitate people coming together and getting involved, not participating, but involved, there's a big difference.

It's the old eggs and bacon story, the chook's participating but the pig's involved. That's what it's about, finding the right sort of people to make that happen. If every community had these sorts of people the world would be a lot better.

COMMUNITY LIVING

Yes, gorillas can smile.

And every living entity has natural intelligence! Every living thing of nature has a voice and should we be in the appropriate consciousness condition then we can communicate with it. Since the formal ending of the Rebellion and Default on 31 January 2018, after lasting 200,000 years, communications are opening. We can even talk with viruses, through our nature spirits which we have a pair with us at all times, such as even coronavirus Covid-19. We can even talk with our Indwelling Spirit that arrived in our sixth year of our life! We are all now to discover how misled, retarded and suppressed we have been for thousands and thousands of years.

We embrace technology with gusto and believe it to be enhancing our quality of life and pathway to humanity's issues. We believe we are making great strides BUT we are bullshitting ourselves!

Congratulations, the bullshit meter is maxed out – at last!

Evolve or Remain

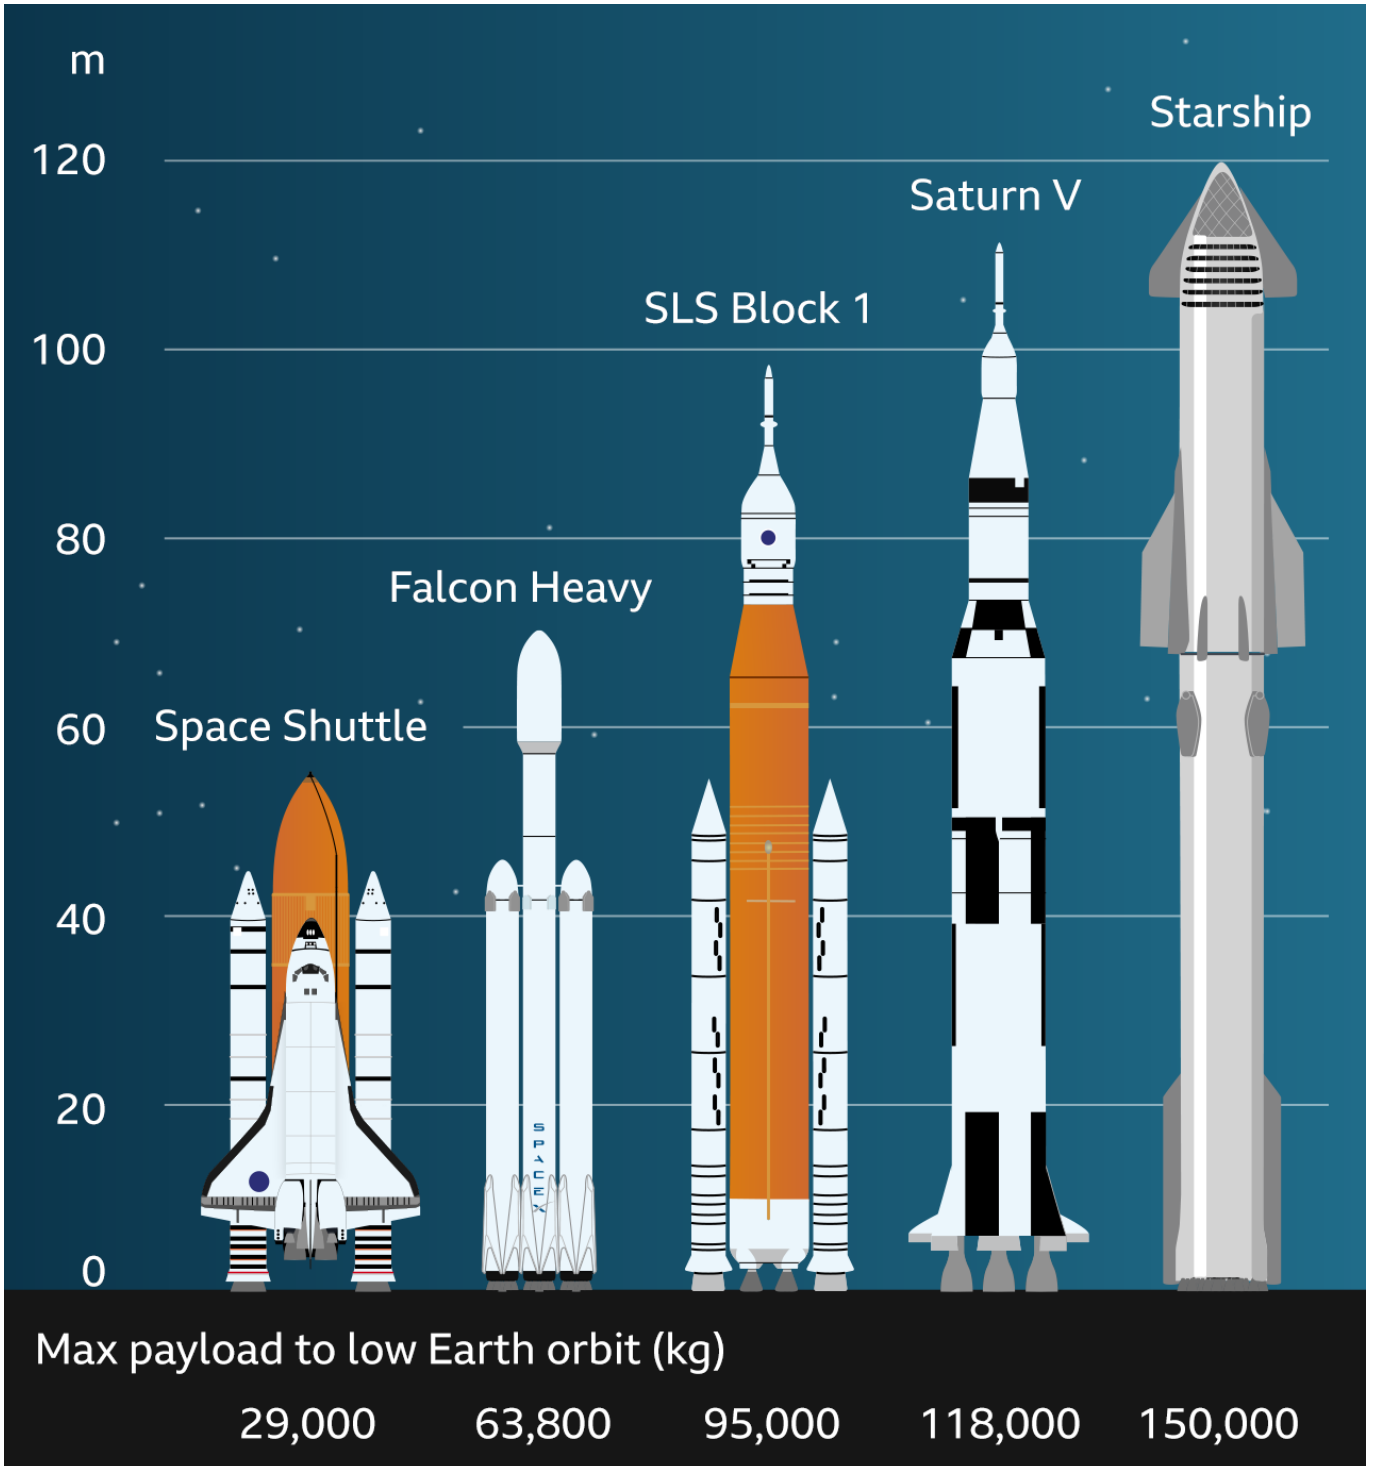

You are being presented with a choice: evolve or remain. If you choose to remain unchanged, you will be presented with the same challenges, the same routine, the same storms, the same situations, until you learn from them, until you love yourself enough to say “no more”, until you choose change. If you choose to evolve, you will connect with the strength within you, you will explore what lies outside of the comfort zone, you will awaken to love, you will become, you will be. You have everything you need. Choose to evolve. Choose love.

Amazing as it may seem, after humanity having been in a Rebellion and Default for 200,000 years which they still do not know what it is all about, they now are having revealed to them what it is all about and the one pathway out of it which is easily explained but billions of people throughout 200,000 years never discovered!

You are being presented with two choices:
Evolve or Repeat .

And technology won't be part of the evolutionary progress for humanity! Artificial intelligence will certainly not be of benefit for humanity's development in consciousness – in fact it will be counter-intuitive and counter-productive. We are to go within – embrace our feelings which are always in truth – the source of our feelings is our soul! We are fully self-contained, all that we need is within.

SpaceX's Starship rocket system

The 20 April 2023 inaugural test launch was an incredible success due to the enormous array of new boundaries that it bridged and mostly succeeded with.

SpaceX's Starship rocket cleared its launch platform but failed to separate from its booster, exploding four minutes after lift-off during an inaugural test flight on Thursday, 20 April 2023.

That does not mean that technology development is not to continue, but it does mean that it is mostly in the wrong direction – we do not need it! Yes, that is correct. We do not need technology for us to evolve! A more simpler existence will enable the universal consciousness growth to unfold.

Look at how ginormously clumsy, expensive and inadequate these complex systems are.

Further, no matter what we do and achieve, while we haven't healed ourselves of the Rebellion and Default, we will not be able to leave our own solar system. Yes, we will go on exploring our local solar system but we are not allowed technology to leave it until our healing of the Rebellion and Default is complete and that will take all of the coming 1,000 years and some more. You see, we are in quarantine while we remain in Rebellion and Default and have been these past 200,000 years and that is why we have never been visited by humanities from other inhabited worlds.

Yes, the universe is teeming with life. We are not alone – but we are unique for being the only humanity throughout all the universes to be both in Rebellion AND Default! We are special for all the wrong reasons. Look at all the stars in the night sky. Each star / sun has on average three inhabitable worlds in its orbit. Each star has between zero to three inhabited worlds – average being one. Within our local system of Satania there are 1,000 inhabitable worlds of which 619 are inhabited. Earth is number 606 of the inhabited worlds. Earth is a relatively young world and is on the outskirts of everything. Within our local universe which consists of 10,000,000 inhabitable worlds there are 3,840,101 inhabited worlds (a little more than a third). Our local universe is called Nebadon. In our system of Satania, 37 humanities joined into Lucifer’s rebellion. Earth being one of these 37 rebellion worlds, but Earth is the only one where the Adamites (Adam and Eve) failed on the bestowal mission on Earth, thus Earth is in Rebellion and Default, the Rebellion commenced 200,000 years ago and the Default occurred more than 38,000 years ago.

Thursday, 29 June 2017: Nanna Beth, 3rd Celestial Heaven, John’s grandmother: “The Rebellion, John, is against the Mother and Father, against Their Love, and Their Truth. It is the rejection of Them, saying: there is no God. It’s denying the Personalities that God is. It’s rejecting and denying personality interaction, which is all about love. So it’s unloving. And to hide that, to pretend otherwise, means the mind has to be used to corrupt one’s feelings. To claim: ‘I am God, I am love, I am Truth’, means I am the only one and all the rest should fuck off and leave me alone so I can get on with my greatness. It’s being totally mind-consumed with yourself, with such arrogance, that really you only see yourself in your narcissism, and nothing else and no one else exists.

“I think to help you summarise it, you could simply say: The Rebellion is against love, the Default is all the difficulties we have in our relationships because of our rebellion. Healing the Default is becoming true – to ourselves and in our relationships, and ending our unlovingness – our rejection of love, so ending the Rebellion.”

Here is a demonstration of humanity’s indoctrination into being mind-centric, rejecting feelings, and consequently rejecting our Heavenly Mother and Father:

Violence is never Justified

Never is hatred, nor discord, nor war among men justified – no matter what the cause – and if men will only learn the Truth there will never exist such feelings or acts. Militarism is all wrong. Jesus 25 December 1915

Worldwide 2021 GDP was US$95 Trillion of which 5.3% was spent on education or US$5 Trillion.

Humanitarian expenditure worldwide did not reach US$50 Billion in 2021.

Total military expenditure worldwide in 2021 was over US$2 Trillion.

Also, consider these additional budgets for city police forces:

 THE AMERICAN POLICE MILITARY
DEPARTMENT	POLICE BUDGET	COUNTRY	MILITARY BUDGET
NYPD city pop. 8.4 million 	$6 BILLION	VIETNAM pop. 96 million 	$5.5 BILLION
LAPD city pop. 3.9 million 	$1.7 BILLION	N. KOREA pop. 25 million 	$1.6 BILLION
CHICAGO PD city pop. 2.7 million 	$1.7 BILLION	ANGOLA pop. 31 million 	$1.5 BILLION
HOUSTON PD city pop. 2.3 million 	$984 MILLION	TANZANIA pop. 58 million 	$827 MILLION
PHILLY PD city pop. 1.5 million 	$727 MILLION	VENEZUELA pop. 28 million 	$741 MILLION

Militarism is humanity's insanity in its extremist!

Amazingly, every invention that is created is mostly firstly considered for its military application – not for its benefits to humanity.

It is only through the earthing of the Law of Compensation with its counterpart, the Law of Cooperation, that world peace can and will evolve. It is the unfolding of this event that the faculties of universities will require their concerted focus and initiatives to guide institutions into the dynamics of what is to come. This event may unfold progressively over a long extended period, OR it may be earthed overnight!

GREAT

The GOLDEN RULE

Never interfere with another's will.

We are not to impose our will upon another!

One must always honour another's will as one honours one's own.

The Golden rule is: Never interfere with another's will.

God's Divine Love: Pray for it, ask for it, and receive it.

Our Heavenly Parents simply desires for us to ask for Their Love.

The New Way: learning how to live true to ourselves by living true to our feelings.

We are to express our feelings, both good and bad, at all times, and to long for the truth of them.

By living true to ourselves, true to our feelings, we are living true to God. It's that simple.

To liberate one's real self, one's will, driven by one's soul, moves one to embrace Feeling Healing, so as to clear emotional injuries and errors. With the Divine Love, then one is also Soul Healing. We are to feel our feelings, identify what they are, accept and fully acknowledge that we're feeling them, express them fully, all whilst longing for the truth they are to show us.

While we are rebelling against our soul
we are also rebelling against our Soul Partner!

We cannot recognise our Soul Partner until we have healed ourselves of our Rebellion and Default.

Until then we will reject our Soul Partner!

GLOBAL WEALTH DISTRIBUTION PROGRAM

After three decades of suspended distributions of humanitarian funds being accumulated under the Bretton Woods Mark I bond issue agenda, Bretton Woods Mark II heralds the introduction of a new global asset backed currency, the Universal Monetary Unit, and the recommencement of a worldwide humanitarian 'global wealth distribution program'.

This is essentially worldwide capital works programs to address the social and economic ills for each country, one by one, tailored to address their specific needs and opportunities. As these programs are rolled out, the recipient country is then to take responsibility for the infrastructure and its recurrent operating costs.

What is needed is to be understood is the environment of each country, its social issues, the communities psychic barriers, traditions that are restraining the peoples, the varying corruptive practices and much, much more so that the greatest benefits can be delivered to each country, region and the world as a whole.

The economics of these programs need to be understood on a local, national and global scale. Large agendas may have massive drains on supplies and goods locally as well as world markets. Projects that are introduced too quickly may have inflationary effects. These all need to be managed with the highest levels of information and data available. This can be facilitated through universities as well as governmental agencies. Further, this all needs a worldwide central management oversight. It is huge!

"The study of money, above all other fields in economics, is one in which complexity is used to disguise truth or to evade truth, not to reveal it." – John Kenneth Galbraith

Anything that has its foundations based upon ‘assumptions’ even should it be only one or two, ‘I think’ and/or ‘it is my opinion’, it is sitting on quicksand requiring demolition, review and in depth searching for the appropriate truth and then careful reconstructed.

The truth required can now be found now that prison gates of the Rebellion and Default have been torn down formally as of 31 January 2018.

As we evolve into the coming Avonal Age, the great wonders that we have had glimpses of will open to those who advance along their journey of aspiring to live Feelings First and then begin on their journey of Feeling Healing. As we do so we are opening the doors to connectivity with our invisible friends who have been restrained from assisting us due to the rules under the Universal Contract governing the Rebellion and Default. As we grow in our aspirations for truth they may draw our attention to truth and discoveries that will profoundly assist all of humanity. Each revelation that unfolds just too only one of us is subsequently universally shared, firstly to those who open to change and embracing evolution! Those who are closed, holding onto the old ways, will continue to find life difficult.

The faculty of each and every Pascas University is to be tasked with embracing these changing events, coming to understand their functionalities, and then their application, but far more significantly their impacts into our way of living, the changes to customs and norms, the breaking down of long established psychic barriers, the rebuilding of institutional systems and the changes to business. This is the most dynamic time in the whole history of humanity, all 993,500 years of it. You see

The underlying generator of all discomfort, pain, disease and illness is Childhood Suppression and ongoing Repression.

Feeling Healing is our only recovery and soul growth pathway.

It is that simple!

We do everything possible to avoid our Feelings!

We embrace the controlling natures of our mind to fill our day with activities that avoid our inherent truth to rise through our feelings and then having to express them and seek the truth behind them. We submit to imprisonment within our minds and willingly allow our life to roll on in a retarded and aimless manner that we can continue in earnest even when we transition into the spirit mind Mansion Worlds. Everything we may do is to avoid meaningful communication with another person and to distract ourselves from allowing our feelings to bring forth the vibrant and incredible true personality that we are that has been suppressed throughout our early forming years, from conception through to six years of age. Eventually our soul will say enough is enough and we will be confronted with a crash to open ourselves to our feelings and heal our Rebellion.

Should we kinesiology test any medical doctor – doctor of medicine – with regards to these statements, we will find the responses, the answers the same worldwide:

You know how to cure a patient of any illness!

The answer will be NO!

You know what the cure for at least one illness is!

The answer will be NO!

Medical scientists have catalogues more than 10,000 different illnesses – you know the underlying cause of illness!

The answer will be NO!

You know the cause of at least one illness!

The answer will be NO!

It is now time to re-appraise medical training in all its different branches.

YES!

In the meantime we can draw together the wisdom of local customs and practices that have been utilised by various communities for thousands of years and create a reliable manual and document to enable villages and small communities to provide for themselves without extortionist costs and covert regulations so that folks can treat potentially around 80% of the medical issues that they present to modern day doctors and health facilities. Don Tolman through his Farmacist Desk Reference (Vol I and II) has gone a long way with this objective. However, due to the localisation of natural elements and foods as well as the seasonal nature of many inputs, as well as what is embraced practice in some regions where regions use differing treatments, this is an enormous and ongoing task. Further, acupuncture and homeopathy may well be included.

MUSEUM of JERUSEM – 1st Celestial Heaven

Note previously from Nanna Beth, 3rd Celestial Heaven – 20 November 2017 – relating to a ‘museum’ at Jerusem on the 1st Celestial Heaven: “And as far as concerning where The First Parents (Andon and Fonta) are now, they have moved on with the old guard, having been released from such duties that being The First Parents required. You can see and even in a sense ‘meet’ with them when you come into the first Celestial sphere, we have a museum sort of arrangement, it is a massive and highly complex and covers every aspect of humanity’s history on Earth and in the Mansion Worlds. And you can sort of interact with the exhibits – if I can crudely call them that. You literally walk into say the Atlantean times and explore using your mind for whatever aspect of such times you care to. You can even in a sort of holographic way meet with people from those times, speak with them in a sense, although it’s all automated, it’s not the real person who is now a spirit, although the whole experience being so real and amazing makes your mind believe it is the real person or spirit. So we can even talk to Mary (Magdalene) and Jesus like this, which a lot of Celestials do when they first arrive, it all helping them to get to know them better and know what they were all about. It’s a massive learning centre and contains all the knowledge of humanity’s experience, so anything and everything is kept there like ‘living’ archives.” (Thus you can see all of history is recorded and can be researched and studied.)

For example: Others believe they have transcribed messages from Jesus but that is not so, that is not Jesus from Nazareth of the Bible but typically a Jesus from the Celestial Heavens who is fully versed through researching and engaging in the very amazing museum at Jerusem on the 1st Celestial Heaven. Other Celestials with names akin to the Apostles of Jesus have from time to time done the same thing.

First parents are Andon and Fonta (Aman and Amon) who lived 993,500 years ago – not Adam and Eve who came to Earth 38,000 years ago.

Why are we one people yet others are poor and some are rich?

<https://www.quora.com/Why-are-we-one-people-yet-others-are-poor-and-some-are-rich>

25 April 2023

When I, Jennifer Whelan, began my Rich Habits Study, I wanted to know the answer to one question: why are some people rich and other people poor?

Five years, and 51,984 questions later, I learned the answer – Habits.

Habits dictate your circumstances in life. This is a truly ground-breaking discovery. Habits affect just about every aspect of your life. And there are many shades of habits.

We have money habits, eating habits, drinking habits, exercise habits, sleeping habits, downtime habits, work-time habits, reading habits, relationship habits, happiness habits and thinking habits.

We have morning habits, afternoon habits and night-time habits.

Here's a list of all of the habits I documented over the years: Proof Habits Control Your Life.

According to a 2006 Duke study, 40% of your daily behaviours are habits.

Money habits have the most profound impact on your financial circumstances.

Money habits can be broken down into two categories:

1. Spending Habits and
2. Savings Habits

Many of the self-made millionaires in my study were able to accumulate their wealth by virtue of having learned smart money habits from either their parents or some mentor in life. I called these millionaires Saver-Investors. When you have smart money habits, you spend less than you make and you then save and invest the difference. Over time, your savings and investments grow and compound.

Those who dutifully follow this guaranteed path to wealth eventually become financially secure. Some even become multi-millionaires. But most, unfortunately, do not follow this guaranteed path to wealth.

How do I know?

In a 2013 survey conducted by the Associated Press, they found that 80% of America's adults struggled with poverty or were near-poverty, – just one paycheque away from their lives unravelling. No safety net, little to no savings, every day just trying to keep up with their bills and credit card payments.

One of the main drivers of poverty for those who make a decent living, is a Poor Habit that is all too common in the United States and also worldwide.

It's called Want Spending.

Want Spenders spend more money than they make on their wants. They surrender to instant gratification, eschewing saving in order to buy things they want now: 60 inch TVs, nice vacations, expensive cars, bigger homes and jewellery. They also spend too much money at bars and restaurants.

Worse, they will even go into debt in order to finance their want purchases. Want Spenders are a special breed of poor, in that they create their own poverty. Want Spending is a Poor Habit fuelled by a number of things:

- Envy – You envy what others have.
- Peer Pressure – You buy what others buy, just to fit in. This is also known as Keeping up with the Joneses.
- Emotions – Your emotions drive you to make spontaneous purchases of things you desire in the moment.
- Addiction to Spending – You get a Dopamine hit every time you buy something new.
- Low Self Worth – You spend money on things in order to impress others and this temporarily boosts your low self-worth.
- Ignorance – You are financially illiterate. You don't understand how to manage your money.
- No Plan – You have no financial plan and no clear vision of what you want your life to be in the future.

If you are like most, you struggle with some aspect of Want Spending.

Awareness is the key.

Once you understand what type of Want Spender you are, you can put a stop to it and forge smart money habits that will ensure you never allow Want Spending to ravage your financial life.

However:

So, why are we to have these vastly differing experiences?

Why are there such great inequalities and injustices served on many?

In a display of immense strength and sacrifice, a mother carried bricks on her head while also carrying her child on her back to provide for him. Her resilience and determination highlight the lengths a mother will go to ensure her child's well-being. It's a testament to the power of a mother's love! ... Salute to MOM!

But why is her predicament allowed to occur?

Our path may be narrow or broad in our range of what we are to experience.
 There is nothing that we individually can do to step outside of our pathway.
 We are each unique personalities having an individual life experience.
 Our life plan is part of the collective plan for the whole of humanity.
 Every personality has her or his own program.
 We each carry out our own personal program.
 Our life experience is set at our incarnation.
 Our journey is a wonder to comprehend.

As man achieves consciousness, he will be given rights incomprehensible.
 Inside you and me is all that is to be known – through our soul-based feelings.
 People possess various types of freedom but they cannot live outside of their plan.
 It is up to each of us to decide whether or not to use the resources within.

For some reason, people have been always choosing the technocratic path, but that always leads them to disaster. All planetary disasters are always created by people's thoughts. Thoughts that are followed by actions! Disasters avoided are followed by others – typically greater. Illuminating souls of the technocratic world is an uphill battle.

During a technocratic period of life, people cease to be intelligent beings. It's necessary not to appeal to people's minds, but to their feelings, and through their feelings, to inform them of the Divine program, and in order to do this, one has to sense and comprehend it for oneself.

As man perfects the Divine world order, she/he will necessarily become more and more perfected, and there is no limit to see to this phenomenon. Great resources will open up before them.

Notes are partly drawn from Anastasia – Ringing Cedars

They have been writing them for millennia, but there are no perfect laws – nor can there be! You'll never be able to write perfect laws because you have forgotten the most important thing. You don't know the life's purpose of each separate person – woman, man or child – and of mankind as a whole. This life's purpose – the Universal life's purpose – has been expressed in just four words. It is the foundation of all laws. It and only it can string all of the Earth's laws onto itself, like beads onto a thread, or repulse them. But you don't know what it is – you have forgotten them!

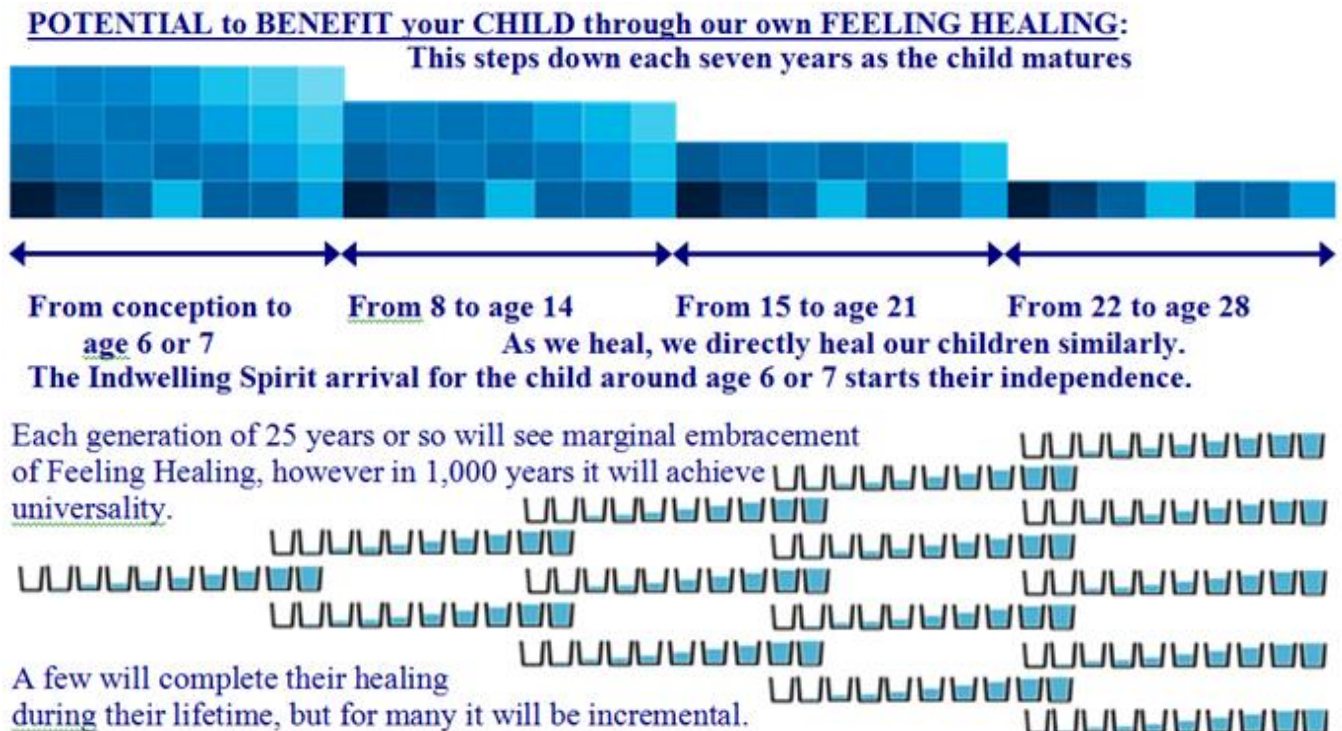

PERFECT THE DWELLING LAND

'Perfect the dwelling land' means perfect yourself.

All that exists within the Universe and on Earth represents through itself a united dwelling land, inseparably interconnected, and with man in the centre.

Feelings First, Mind Following

Perfect the dwelling land means give birth to and raise children who are more perfected than yourself. Each generation should be more perfected than the previous. For this to come about, the generation that comes before should present the following generation with a more perfected dwelling land.

Once humanity begins inventing mechanical, non-rational capable substitutes, they begin losing their God-given talents – their common-sense! Their initial capabilities enabled them to create everything you can imagine – and even things you can't. By inventing the telephone, humanity lost the capacity to communicate over distance and imagine their loved one's whereabouts.

Their rationality is stuffed down inside them – suppressed and ignored. It is impossible to call them 'people'! Anti-rationality dominates them.

Humanity believes it can eradicate diseases. Through vaccines they have told themselves they have succeeded on a number of fronts. But all they are doing is causing the mutation of the disease into more virulent and difficult to manage forms or new disease to be replacements. All 'eradicated' diseases have returned!

The artificial, technocratic (involving experts in science or technology) world was created by man using the energy of an image suggested to man by his antipodes (the exact or direct opposite). The technocratic world is fragile and transitory. Even the most advanced car, building or any other object of the artificial world disintegrates with each second and within a few years it turns to dust or, worse still, into waste products harmful to man.

Man himself, by living in the artificial world, becomes fragile and transitory as well. For it is hard for a person that spends each minute looking at a multitude of disintegrating objects that lack autogenic capability, to image eternal life, create the image of his own eternity and materialise it.

All of humanity fears death, yet energy cannot be destroyed and we go on living in a different form. The fact is that we are more alive than ever – when we are dead. After a few days of serious jetlag, our spirit life begins to unfold in such a dynamic and vibrant fashion we may begin to wonder why we all fight our inevitable death and that it is truly a time for celebration. Death becomes a new birth date – birth as a spirit!

Lack of knowledge of the science of imagery turns entire states and peoples into puppets, into chess pieces in the hands of those who acquainted with this great gift.

From the moment of birth – well, the moment of conception – they (being of the mind) try to belittle man.

Everything exists that you believe exists.

Now we are to understand what serious and ongoing indoctrination man is being subjected to, and of course, it's no accident. There's somebody who needs this very much (and was the rebellious Lanonandek spirits led by Lucifer and Satan with Caligastia and Daligastia as deputies).

Nothing in the universe disappears without a trace; it only passes from one state to another. We go on living, but in a different form.

Thought and information appears and we only need to assess its reality through ourselves. Even though we are living in a dimension of anti-rationality, rationality all the same remains within a person, although in a significantly smaller degree. (By living feelings first then rationality prevails.)

Today's community of people live in an artificial world, not a natural one. The people created it and slavishly serve it. We have created an artificial world and live artificial lives within it.

The real, natural world is to be found along the side of the asphalt roadways along which modern mankind is rushing headlong towards an abyss. Artificial concepts have been implanted into the collective consciousness of 'modern' people.

Our scientists and "educated" researchers have, in their great wisdom, started to call modern medicine – which has existed for only two hundred years – traditional, while calling folk medicine – whose history is calculated in the hundreds of thousands of years – non-traditional. At the same time as they've begun referring to healers – and here we are talking about real healers, who are well versed in the properties of medicinal plants – as charlatans. The result is that modern man ends up having to treat many diseases – ones that people just a hundred years ago easily cured themselves of, at no cost, using herbs from their very own garden – using expensive pharmaceuticals, on the advice of their expensive doctor. Perhaps there should be two paths in medicine. We need to teach folk medicine in school and train specialists in medical schools. About 80% of ailments can be cured using folk medicine, and this will significantly lower the burden on today's medical facilities, which will make it possible to substantially improve the quality of medical services. But to do this we have to think in categories of rationality.

Common-sense and rationality have been purged throughout modern education systems and in all facets of life. Look at the more than 200 social media platforms to see how people now communicate with each other – it is absurd. Look at how people constantly are absorbed in their mobile phones – yes – some have two or three mobile phones on the go. People do all they can to avoid communicating in a meaningful way with each other – they spend hours a day watching mindless television and worse still is their massive addictions to computer games which begins before even reaching school age!

This scenario is not to unfold within or through any Pascas education centre or education platform:

And this is where questions come up. How could it happen, that for half a century, society has been developing new building techniques, new materials, machinery and devices which would seem to be more advanced, but in the end...

The average family has to work hard for twenty to thirty years to get a dwelling that it used to be able to provide itself with in the course of a year or two. For many families, the housing question has become insoluble, and the government has had to take it up (social housing).

Did the given situation come about by chance, or did someone artificially construct it? That, however, isn't important (unless these same hidden controllers are persevering). The important thing is that the situation is absolutely anti-rational, but society, caught up in its everyday bustle, has turned out to be incapable of reflecting and analysing. It's gotten used to the situation and can't imagine anything different. Society has gotten used to anti-rationality. And society is ceasing to be rational.

Common-sense has been lost as well as the opportunities for diversities of experiences with big picture little picture capabilities of perception being also lost.

Or has it?

GREAT
V-Turn

Scientists should stop analyzing animal intelligence and start studying human stupidity...

Are we communicating?

Or deeper into the impersonal?

THIS IS HUMANITY stupidified!

Or getting the Hell out of Here!

Man's modern way of life has given birth to a great many problems that society does not discuss, as if that is taboo, and since they don't get discussed, they don't get solved either.

Billions of domestic conflicts take place all over the world, and they can get to point where spouses fight with and murder each other. In so-called civilised countries, up to 80% of young people who enter into marriage, divorce soon afterward. This process is preceded by negative emotions and stress of long standing, and children are made unhappy.

Over the course of millennia, millions of localised wars have been going on practically all over the world between people who have attempted to establish a loving union. It isn't only both sides in these battles that take the cruellest of beatings, but their children, too.

This kind of situation has been presented to modern mankind as a given. It's natural, they tell us – love comes and goes. But as it turns out, this kind of situation is characteristic only for people of the artificial world. It is not consistent with man's true nature (should we be living feelings first).

For the first time ever, it has been shown that young people's initial attraction for each other is not love – it is but the urge to give birth to the great feeling which arises when three components are united.

To answer the question of why love goes away, we can say that real, full-fledged love simply doesn't come to the majority of modern newlyweds, because there's no appropriate space for it.

What is love? It is a feeling, a great energy, that is capable of inspiring a person to create and that increases his/her spiritual powers and capabilities. It is a rational energy – it fills the space where two people in love are present and creates a unified whole for them, a space of love. Take a look at what happens nowadays. The newlyweds got to the marriage bureau to formalise their marriage. The marriage bureau facility isn't their space, but simply a temporary spot where they're spending some time, and what's more, divorce proceedings take place typically in these very same facilities. And the rational energy of love is unable to fill a space like that.

What's needed for the energy of love is a living space that's been established by people – in the given case, by actual people who feel drawn to each other. It can't be any other way. The proof of this is the great number of secular divorce proceedings throughout the world.

The question of why love goes away deserves to be studied from all angles. Today's approach to love is truly anti-rational.

What is the most difficult lesson for humans to learn as individuals and as a species?

Basically, communication is the only thing we ever do.

First, why is this important? Well, because of the above, we can understand that better communication has been responsible for:

- Spoken language
- Ritual
- Music
- Art
- Stories
- Religion (social interaction of gatherings)
- Philosophy
- Agriculture
- Architecture
- Science
- Technology
- Etc.

So, understanding this, we can see that any hope for the future involves better communication.

However, as things stand, human culture strongly tends towards the inhibition of communication, in order to protect unjust power structures.

This is traditional, but also increasingly foolish. Yet we are all trained to accept it as normal.

It is as though lions taught their cubs to venerate zebra, cheetahs shackled their young, and howler monkeys were encouraged to speak in whispers.

What are the some interesting facts about human behaviour?

1. Confirmation bias: People tend to seek out and interpret information in a way that confirms their pre-existing beliefs or hypotheses, even if the evidence suggests otherwise. Propaganda dissemination being global successful and enduring!
2. The bystander effect: Individuals are less likely to help someone in need when other people are present, due to a diffusion of responsibility and a belief that someone else will take action.
3. The placebo effect: Simply believing that a treatment will be effective can produce measurable changes in physical or psychological symptoms, even if the treatment itself is inactive or inert.
4. Social conformity: People often conform to the opinions and behaviours of others in order to fit in or avoid conflict, even if they privately disagree or hold different beliefs – submissiveness.
5. Cognitive dissonance: When individuals hold two or more conflicting beliefs or attitudes, they experience discomfort or tension, and may modify their beliefs or behaviours to reduce this tension.
6. The primacy and recency effects: People are more likely to remember information presented at the beginning (primacy) and end (recency) of a sequence, while forgetting information presented in the middle.
7. The fundamental attribution error: People tend to overemphasise dispositional (personality) factors in explaining others' behaviour, while underemphasising situational factors.
8. The halo effect: People often make global judgments about a person based on a single positive characteristic or trait, leading to overgeneralization and stereotyping.
9. Assumptions: People accept their assumptions and act upon them when experience identifies assumptions are flawed 96% to 98% of the time and have to be reworked and repairs made.
10. Love: Adults mostly love their pets more than their children!

Yes, we are to communicate our feelings, both good and bad, to a companion who is open and willing to listen and embrace what we are to convey. Our complex technology ridden way of living is aiding our every endeavour to avoid our feelings. The intense striving that we engage in to earn income is taking us away from what we are to experience here on our physical journey on Earth. Our life is all about our experiences and what we are to feel from our experiences. Our eternal journey is one of experiences, ever increasing understandings and development that commences when we are here in the physical. Thus, our life to be full then it is best that it is a simpler time with simpler pleasures. We do not need the wealth that we are continually enticed to pursue. We are to cooperate as social communities while not imposing our will upon others. Thus, the village community way of living with limited commerce opens the pathway of being able to live feelings first while longing for the truth of our feelings – while having our mind following in support – not the other way round as it is now.

CONTROLLED from the MOMENT of OUR CONCEPTION:

Thus, from the moment of conception we are controlled in a manner that suppresses our true personality and imposes barriers against true individuality, spontaneity, intuitiveness and wonderful progress in our potential.

HIDDEN CONTROLLERS – both in the Physical as well as Spirit

GOVERNMENT – Local, State and Federal plus world governing bodies

EMPLOYMENT – All forms of employment, even when self-employed

RELIGIOUS & SPIRITUAL – These are all centres of control, all promote living through the mind

EDUCATION – The notion of feelings is yet to be recognised at any level sufficiently

PARENTHOOD – Parents have no understanding of Living Feelings First

The Elephant in the room is CHILDHOOD SUPPRESSION!

From the moment of our conception we are absorbing our parents' emotional injuries and errors of belief. This continues relentlessly through to when we are six years of age. By then we are reflecting the personality of one or the other of our parents, should they be differing between themselves. Thus, the issues from a generation continue for generation to generation.

This flows through to all segments of society. Our minds are addicted to control, control over others and of our environment. Further, our mind cannot discern truth from falsehood, it is also addicted to untruth. We have all been misguided to live through our minds and to ignore and suppress our feelings. It is our feelings that are always in truth, our feelings are our source of truth.

We are now to consider and embrace living feelings first with our minds following in support.

This is the Great U-Turn!

This Suppression is now to be Ended!

Our FEELINGS are our SUPREME GUIDES:

Feelings are what guide us through our ascension of truth. So they are really our Supreme Guides. Many people look for a person, spirit, angel, even God, for supreme guidance, however it's all right there already built in – in our feelings. We just have to submit to them, allowing them to take us where they will, expressing all the parts we want to express, letting the emotion drive that expression if it's there to be expressed, or just talking about all we feel and how feeling that feeling is making us feel – or, how we feel about having that feeling, all whilst longing for the truth of our feelings. Longing for the truth of our feelings is really: Longing for the truth of our self, because: we are our feelings. So life stirs up our feelings, we feel being alive; or, being alive means we are feeling, always feeling; and when we work out what and why we are feeling what we are, so then we know the truth of how we are. And over time the truth accumulates, and our mind expands our understanding of ourselves, all being driven from our feelings. Kevin 26 Sep 2017

Kevin died 10 August 2012, through Feeling Healing became Celestial on 7 August 2017

Using our feelings to uncover the whole truth of our negative or anti truth and anti-love state.

Kevin, 1st Celestial Heaven: So whilst we're of an untrue state, then all we have got to help us understand why we feel bad, why we are wrong, why we are negative and anti-love and truth, is our feelings. So if we focus on our bad feelings, they will lead us to the truth of why we're feeling bad. Which will be the truth of what happened to us to make us be this wrong way, and how we took on the wrong way and keep it going making us feel bad.

FEELING HEALING

Note: The vital difference between emotion and feeling is that emotions have their roots in the past, and feelings relate to the present moment. Emotions represent our feelings which were not previously expressed, and these accumulate with time.

Note: Our feelings are soul-based. Our soul is always in truth. It is our soul based feelings, that when allowed to be freely recognised, we will begin to express and be who we are. This takes time and perseverance as we have encrusted our souls with layers upon layers of errors and false beliefs, it is these layers that will confuse the truth that our soul is conveying to us. Only by our progression with our Feeling Healing will our soul's expression of truth become clear and free of all cloudiness and contamination.

“What our soul needs in accordance with our own, individual, Soul-Light-Plan-Of-Destiny (your life's true destiny plan), They, being our Mother and Father, will give you as required. The only way we can know truly what we need is to honour and follow our true feelings. They, springing from our soul, literally telling us what we need, and so when we genuinely feel we need something, we apply our will to get it. The hard part is knowing if our feelings are true, and until we have done our whole soul-healing, they won't be clear and totally true.” James – Introduction Course to Divine Love Spirituality

Consider asking yourself this question:
Who hurt me when I was a child?

Once humanity collectively understands what has happened to them on the higher spiritual level, how the people have been controlled, and that it's over, that control is no longer controlling, it's just legacies of it, all of which the average person can deal with by destroying it in themselves, things will change markedly for the better. And as the people change, so too will how they want to live, it will be a great time of revolution, nothing will be the same. So what you are currently living through is the end of the Rebellion and Default, it literally is, and so once the end is fulfilled and the New starts, then all how it currently is and has been will cease to be.

Nanna Beth 3rd Celestial Heaven 20 March 2018

HUMANITY is within a kind of dormancy, or even more like a stupor!

We, all of humanity, have been reduced to the barest of self-expression, having been reduced to the least creative life we can all live, that which the Earth is currently reflecting with everything and everyone trying to be the same. The pressure to keep going this way is to end. Steadily the pressure to go the opposite way, to increase creative expression, and this is not only meant through the creative arts, but in every aspect of life, socially, collectively and individually, is going to open things out enormously. It's going to be an explosion of light, that which is to end the darkness, something that's never been seen before.

It's the light in our souls, it's the light that comes from the truth we are to be living that will change us – that changes us all, light from our soul. If one applies themselves to their Healing, thereby ending their unconscious self-denial, they will as they Heal, change and start expressing all the buried attributes, characteristics and talents, any natural part of themselves that's been denied because of their unloving parenting. We are nothing like how we should be due to our self-denial. So many people are living completely false lives, so when they become true, they will almost be the complete opposite to how they have been.

We are to be alive and vital, real expressions of our soul, to be living fully Healed lives as Celestials while living on Earth. Continually coming to terms with all we have been through, we all take a long time to integrate and understand it all, but we will virtually be New People.

We on Earth are used to our anti-self-conditions. For the people who knew us before Healing, we will seem like completely different people, although with the same basic personality traits and characteristics. However all the self-hating, denying patterns and consequential behaviour will be gone, with all our loving self being expressed. We are all but the living dead, whereas the Healed are the living living. And there's a huge difference.

We and those who are Healed are like chalk and cheese, we can't relate to them anymore, and they certainly can't relate to us. Healing is taking someone who was all but crippled right the way through their childhood and undoing all that retardation within them. Doing one's Healing is changing the whole programming of every structure within you, all in keeping with getting older and naturally ageing with your mind and feeling systems ageing as well, working right down on the deepest will levels, it all changing, all to rid you of your wrongness and make you become right. It's a huge undertaking.

Yet it all follows on, it's not like you'll be so different from the old you that may as well not have existed, it's all there, all the new you to become, with only snippets currently being exercised and expressed, with the rest of you in a kind of dormancy, or even more like a stupor.

Once you have finished your own Healing, you'll be like a new person.

Notes derived from Celestial Nanna Beth 20 – 23 April 2018 – John's grandmother

WE are to LIVE BY and EXPRESS OUR TRULY LOVING SOUL BASED FEELINGS:

We arrive into the physical world (at conception) with a pure and free personality and a soul based will that are to be truly and fully expressed. Unwittingly, our carers, namely our mother and father and those close by, set about remodelling our individuality. That is, they shut our personality and self-expression down. The result of this is traumatic. This is reflected through our physical body. This childhood suppression is what brings about all of our pains, illnesses, and mental disturbances. Only by embracing our emotional pain and injuries, either good or bad, and longing for the truth of them, and expressing them (talking) through these experiences to a companion, can we release these dreadful encrustments suffocating our true selves and liberate our personality, being our soul. We are to follow our passions and heart felt desires and to live true to ourselves, this is how our Heavenly Parents know us as and this is what we need to return to so that we can find our way home to Them.

The CHILD is to FREELY EXPRESS ITSELF: Messages from Mary and Jesus 13 May 2003
Mary Magdalene

The greatest gift you can give your child, is allowing it to be freely able to express itself, helping it to feel good about being able to say and express and communicate all it feels. THERE IS NOTHING BETTER FOR A CHILD TO FEEL THAN KNOWING ITS PARENTS COMPLETELY WANT IT TO BE EXACTLY HOW IT FEELS IT WANTS TO BE. To be completely unconditionally accepted for all that it is. Then it feels loved.

The CHILD is INNOCENT: Messages from Mary and Jesus Jesus 14 April 2003

The child is the innocent, primitive, newly emerging person, that needs to be respected and allowed to fully express itself and grow up freely, choosing for itself how to live as an adult. It doesn't need or want its parents imposing by force or threat their way on it, all to its own creative detriment. It wants to be free to choose its parents' way, but only if that way makes it feel good. And if its parents do make it feel good, then of course it will copy and absorb all that they are, able in turn to make others feel good. And it will do the same if its parents force it to follow them making it become unloving like them, making other people feel bad.

No one really wants to wreck another person's life, not even parents. They don't want to impose evil on their own children, but in their ignorance, do all day long. It's a shocking thing to wake up to and face when you start seeing the truth – for both parent and child. You believed you were so well meaning, when all you have done is the complete opposite. It is completely shattering to see how misguided you were, but it's understandable, you knew nothing else, and forgiveness can be found within yourself as you progress in doing your healing. All is not lost; it's only just a beginning to start to come clean. All will work out in the end, even for those you have hurt. For as you will see: truth will heal all.

Truth revelation is reserved for the Daughters and Sons of Truth.

All you need to do is offer God your love. You simply love Them, and long to Them for Their Divine Love, then strive to live true to your feelings. Nothing else is required or asked of you by Them.

Messages from Mary and Jesus Mary Magdalene 13 April 2003

PARENTS STEP ASIDE and RELINQUISH CONTROL of CHILDREN:

The Father and Mother have created us to be Their living expression, so if we sincerely want to express our love for Them, to Them, then the best way we can do this is to honour this truth. By expressing yourself fully, you will allow the Mother and Father to fully express Themselves through you – you will be living and doing Their Will. From this you can see that the true life is one of a full will being expressed, so one's soul can come into being by using its will to express all its different attributes. In doing so you will be perfect in all that you are, and living life with love and full happiness. You will feel inwardly and outwardly fulfilled all the time and never feel in deficit as you do now.

Because of your parenting you were denied your full self-expression and so you are not fully expressing yourself, you cannot feel love to the extent you want to. Your parents came between you and God. They pretended to be God, albeit mostly in ignorance, but still the effect on you who was looking to them for all you needed, was to believe everything they told you as being true. You believed and trusted them, living with all your faith in them. So being false gods caused you to deny your real soul Parents. And that is the state you are all living under. This is the Rebellion and Default. You have rebelled against the Mother and Father by believing your parents (because your parents were wrong and untrue) instead of God, and you have done it all on both sides (the child and parent) in ignorance and by default. No one actually sets out to do it in the full conviction of what they are doing is evil, unlike that of Lucifer and his soul-partner, but still you do it, even though you do not know the truth of what you are doing.

So to put it right, you have to want to see where you have put your parents in place of the Father and Mother. You have to heal – change – all the wrong beliefs that you attribute to them, and all the negative behaviour patterns you have adopted to satisfy their demands. As you have not been allowed to express yourself freely this is what you need to do. So it is why we keep repeating this and the fact that it is through expressing your repressed bad feelings and longing for the truth of them, that you will allow yourself to become fully self-expressive. All your unexpressed soul-personality attributes will begin to be expressed, allowing you to become the real and true you.

Everyone should be allowed to express themselves however they want to, hence – do unto others, as you would have them do unto you. It should be the united goal for everyone to be able to fully and freely express themselves. If one soul is not fully expressed then humanity will not be able to come to full fruition. If you are not completely expressed, then you will never know the truth of love. And you will never know how to be the living example of that love, or what it feels like.

Right from conception through to being an infant, a child, an adolescent and to being an adult you need to be able to fully express yourself. If you are stopped in any way then you will need to heal this one day. Love is the only way to heal yourself, as it was lack of love that brought about your interference in the first place. So this is why we have said that no one truly loves their child or each other, because it cannot be so due to the influences of the Rebellion and self-denial.

If the parent can step aside and relinquish the power position and just be still the child themselves supporting their child to grow up free to express itself, knowing that the true parents are the Mother and Father who are looking at them both, then they will allow Their guidance and support feeling more at ease in their lives. Then the parent and child will live true loving relationships of self-acceptance and acceptance of each other. Neither will feel they need power over the other as neither will feel powerless, and the battles that constitute most families will not happen. Parents need to set the example, and their child will follow. And it will be the reverse to how you are now in every way. You cannot theorise about how to be this way or try to make it happen, as it can and will only happen by parents first doing their soul-healing becoming the living truth of perfection, and love for their child to follow.

When you stop trying to be the Mother and Father and find your rightful place, then you will live the truth of the Will of your Heavenly Parents, without trying to live the will of your earthly parents.

Messages from Mary and Jesus – book 2 Jesus 25 April 2003

Here is where all psychology, psychiatry, sociology and child education considerations require a complete makeover throughout all elements and arms of education systems worldwide. There is now a great deal written expanding on the above few words and our Childhood Suppression.

LET'S TALK IT OUT

The text 'LET'S TALK IT OUT' is written in a large, stylized font. The letters are white with a thick black outline and are filled with horizontal stripes in red, white, and blue. The 'S' in 'LET'S' is smaller and positioned between the 'L' and 'T'. The 'O' in 'OUT' is also filled with the same striped pattern.

WORLD POPULATION IS PEAKING AS ARE ECONOMIES

Coinciding with the Great U-Turn in how we are to live, feelings first with our minds to follow in support, may see elements of population shift away from ferocious consumerism to community and cooperative life styles that is predominantly a 'barter' commerce system with little monetary involvement – simpler lifestyles.

Further, as of the 2020s, many nations have reached their peak populations, as these societies age their peak spending also passes, introducing a natural progression towards smaller economies. The days of ever increasing markets to sell consumer goods into have or are peaking. Africa presently being the exception. Corporation growth is such that now they have no more markets to grow into.

The world appears to be in lock-step to major global warfare. With the insane destructive weaponry stock-piled, a rapid population reduction with a horrible mess being made throughout the northern hemisphere may unfold.

Then may follow, decades to centuries later, a cyclical pole shift which may reduce the reduced population down to a few billion people. All of these scenarios need to be considered by the Pascas University faculties and map out how to manage these changing circumstances and to embrace them.

The Simple Reality of Collapse

<https://howtosavetheworld.ca/>

26 April 2023 by Dave Pollard

It seems to be basic human nature to assume the future will be like the present, “only more so” — We expect current trajectories (and even “hockey stick” accelerations) to continue.

Unless there are constraints — limits — that is not an unreasonable expectation. But there are usually constraints. The constraints for our planet, and all life that depends upon it, are the finite amount of land, water, air, soil, energy, and natural resources that can be exploited. For billions of years Earth has witnessed cycles of self-organising life achieving equilibrium, followed by collapses — global extinction events. These cycles tend to follow a normal curve like that depicted above — a first appearance, then little change for a long time, then sudden accelerating growth, then decelerating growth as limits are reached, then precipitous decline, and then slow decline for a long time, leading to extinction.

To us, such a curve has five perceived stages — slow, fast, slow (at the peak), fast, and slow, in that order. We are now at the third stage, at the peak, at the cusp of what Hemingway described as the “slowly, and then all at once” point of decline. The point at the top of the roller coaster when time seems to stop.

We can appreciate that conceptually, but that doesn’t allow us to actually imagine, anticipate and accept as inevitable the current civilisational collapse and great extinction event, and what they will lead to.

What they will lead to (at first “all at once”, but then more slowly over a few centuries), is human societies and planetary ecosystems that would be unrecognisable, even unimaginable, to anyone alive today. And then further slowing before the final human departs the scene, tens of thousands or even a million years from now.

This is the simple reality of how collapse inevitably happens, and it is both astonishing and fascinating that we cannot get our heads around it. It defies all our conditioning about how to think, behave, and process information.

Here are just a few of the things that we unthinkingly, across the political spectrum, seem to take for granted now, things that make no sense when one looks at them through the lens of the near-imminent and unavoidable collapse of our civilisation and global ecosystems:

1. Growth is good: I keep reading articles that talk about economic ‘recovery’ as a good thing, and slowdowns as a bad thing. What will it take before we realise that growth got us into this mess, and de-growth, as equitably as we can manage it, is what we should be measuring as ‘progress’ and striving for?
2. Someone has to be to blame: “Well, yes, Billy accidentally blew up the house and killed the rest of the family with his chemistry set, but, you know, his teachers, and the manufacturers of the chemistry set, and of course there were underlying factors...” It’s time to grow up and stop assessing blame. It gets us nowhere.
3. Dwelling on the past: Kind of related to the blame game, we seem obsessed with anger and guilt over past atrocities, stirring them back up and refusing to let go of them. Of course they were outrageous, devastating, traumatising. Tell the truth about them, give and receive apologies, declare an intent to learn from the errors and not repeat them, ask for (and offer) forgiveness, and then move on. So many people spend their lives living in, and reliving, the past. Such a waste.
4. A politics of hatred, anger, fear and war: Our world is fucked, we’re living in the shadow of collapse, loss, suffering, and death. And what is the news full of, and our attention focused on? Fear-mongering, war-mongering, hate-mongering, propaganda, over-filled privately-run prisons, hopeless, brutal refugee internment camps, bloated militarised police forces, and endless wars. It’s fucking insane. It’s like we’re all facing an imminent firing squad and we’re fighting each other over who deserves the last cigarette. How did all our reward mechanisms get so utterly screwed up? We’re better than this, surely.
5. Capitalism, debt and money as the only way to run an economy: Most economic decisions continue to be made based on maximising profit for designed-to-be-psychotic corporations. The same system externalises (doesn’t count) ‘costs’ that are all about sustaining the essentials of basic human and natural wellbeing. This system rewards absurd risk-taking, lying, cheating, and fraud. It has 99% of the population in debt to the other 1% just to make basic ends meet, debts that for the most part can never hope to be repaid, even if collapse weren’t looming everywhere it hasn’t already occurred. And most of us in one way or another worship money, which is simply the tool used to create more debt, and with it, more ‘growth’ (accruing entirely to the richest 1%) and more suffering. There are many better, fairer, simpler ways to transact with each other, which require none of these things. None of these elements of the capitalist religion makes sense in a collapsing world.

Even if we were to rid ourselves of these obviously dysfunctional (in the context of collapse) beliefs and systems, we would be left with the existential question about collapse: What does it mean? — that despite everything we have tried so valiantly to do, our civilisation, our species, and most of the species of our world are all dying.

It's a question that kind of defies answering, at least to the extent we find the value of meaning in making sense of what we have done, and what we are doing, and informing what we might think of doing next.

Consider the analogy of a single human life. From the moment we first conceive of ourselves as separate, we tend to imagine our life's trajectory as being without end, without demise, and live until our life's final days as if somehow we might never die. We may buy life insurance, but that's for someone else, and we hardly relate it to our own death.

So what does it mean to accept that our civilisation, our species, and most species of our world are all dying? What does it mean to contemplate that we, alive today, are eight billion of more than 200 billion humans that have ever lived, and that one day not so far away there will only be scattered tribes of humans, and, eventually, a long time after that, probably no humans at all?

While I think they're off on the timing, Guy McPherson and the NTHE crowd have tried to embrace this realisation. Their approach has been to look at it somewhat as one looks at a loved one's diagnosis as having an imminent terminal illness — with a mix of grief, compassion and preparedness.

That may make sense, but rather than just acknowledging the reality of coming death, it seems to me it would make more sense to take stock of, and celebrate, our lives. To optimise how we, as a species and culture, spend each moment of our remaining time, rather than just striving to continue the madness that got us into this mess a little longer. To make the best of what time we have left, together and in harmony with, and perhaps even in service to, the more-than-human world that is harder hit by collapse than we are (though they will likely outlive us).

What might be our collective statement, to the world and to each other, as we contemplate the collapse and extinction of our cultures and our species? Not as a greeting or warning to aliens. Not as a mea culpa to the more-than-human world. Not as something to be remembered for (by whom?). But, instead, as a tribute, recognition, and collective thanks for what all more than 200 billion of us who have ever lived on the planet, all of us doing our best (if somewhat cluelessly), would like to acknowledge to each other, human to human, across the world and across time.

Something to think about.

GREAT -Turn

We arrive in the physical in a pristine condition. Our parents and carers infuse us with all of their emotional errors and misbeliefs, particularly to live mind-centric. Now we are to talk it out to a companion, to live feelings first while longing for the truth about what we feel.

Zelmar, a Melchizedek: And I'll say it again, life is actually very simple to live, and really there is no great hidden mystery about it, it is always the same: keep attending to your feelings properly as you long to know the truth they are to show you about yourself. And long for the Divine Love when you feel so inspired. And that's it! All the rest is only mind-games.

So, what you are to do, is to allow yourself to be exactly as you are, which means, the real you, the imperfect you, the you you are doing all you can to hide, avoid and pretend you are not. You put on a false face to the world, which has to be stripped back revealing exactly how the real you feels about yourself, other people, the world and God. You have to become true to the imperfect you that you are, not trying to change it or pretend you're not that way. And this is what your Healing will do. Your feelings will lead you into seeing how you really do feel about yourself and everyone and everything else, and how feeling that way makes you feel. All so you can then come to fully accept yourself as you are in your imperfection, so you can simply be it, connect fully with it knowing how it all came about, so warts and all, being how your parents and other early influences have made you be. And this includes becoming aware of all your beliefs, and importantly, why you behave the way you do, and seeing if any of your behaviour is unloving, of yourself and others; and if so, why, and how did you develop such negative behaviour.

The Truth of You has to come to light, so as you are currently in and of the Rebellion and Default, so the Truth of You being of the Rebellion and Default, how they have made you be as you are.

Your compulsion for mind-driven education is not needed if you allow yourself to express yourself naturally, for your soul would lead you here and there, and what you loved and hated you would learn about and know naturally through your feelings. Your feelings will educate you if you pay full attention to them. And as you grow in truth, your mind will follow, it too becoming more proficient. Going to school and learning what you do is just another means of self-denial, it's just an extension of being with your parents and family, all helping you become more embroiled and empowered in your negative mind and will state.

Schooling for the most part further helps you deny the person and limit experience. How much experience can you have sitting at a table and listening to the teacher? It's all a mind experience, all to exercise your mind so it becomes ever more proficient at controlling you. It appeals to some people's beliefs of superiority, but for most what you learn is meaningless with nothing to do with your life or soul's path, and only serves to stand between your feeling self and your mind. It is just more parenting, more of using your mind to try and gain more control, more power. If you learn stuff you can believe you are superior, more knowledgeable, more in control, more able to determine what you want and how to get it. Certainly learning how to do things is important, and can be done experientially and without the need of having to spend so much time separated from your parents and family in an artificial school.

The primitive mind which you look down on, is far more connected with the feeling side of itself, giving rise to a natural level of truth and love, leading to a happier experience within the tribal relationships. Being forced away from your 'family tribe' into a false one at school is so damaging and a major trauma for a young child, even if the child enjoys the experience. Learning by only the mind is not true learning, merely accumulating information.

What you do truly learn can only be won through full personal experience. Not all of you is engaged when you are sitting in a classroom having to keep applying only your mind. What your mind does with all the information will only go into helping it remain dominant over your feelings, thereby helping to maintain your dysfunction. Those people who take pride of place in your competitive mind world being the professionals, are only living mind contrivances, as such true realities don't actually exist. The only real part in all such things is the personal experiences one may have. The professional life of the mind is a pretence that will have to be shed if one is to do his or her Healing. Most of what you do for a living is valueless in itself, but does hold some potential truth, which actual experience of doing it offers, the interacting with others.

Your experiential life is one of relationships, all the experience you will ever need can be had through relationships, for it is into this area that all the attributes of your personality can and are expressed. How you relate is paramount to your wellbeing. If you feel good and secure in your relationships, then you feel loved; if insecure, unloved.

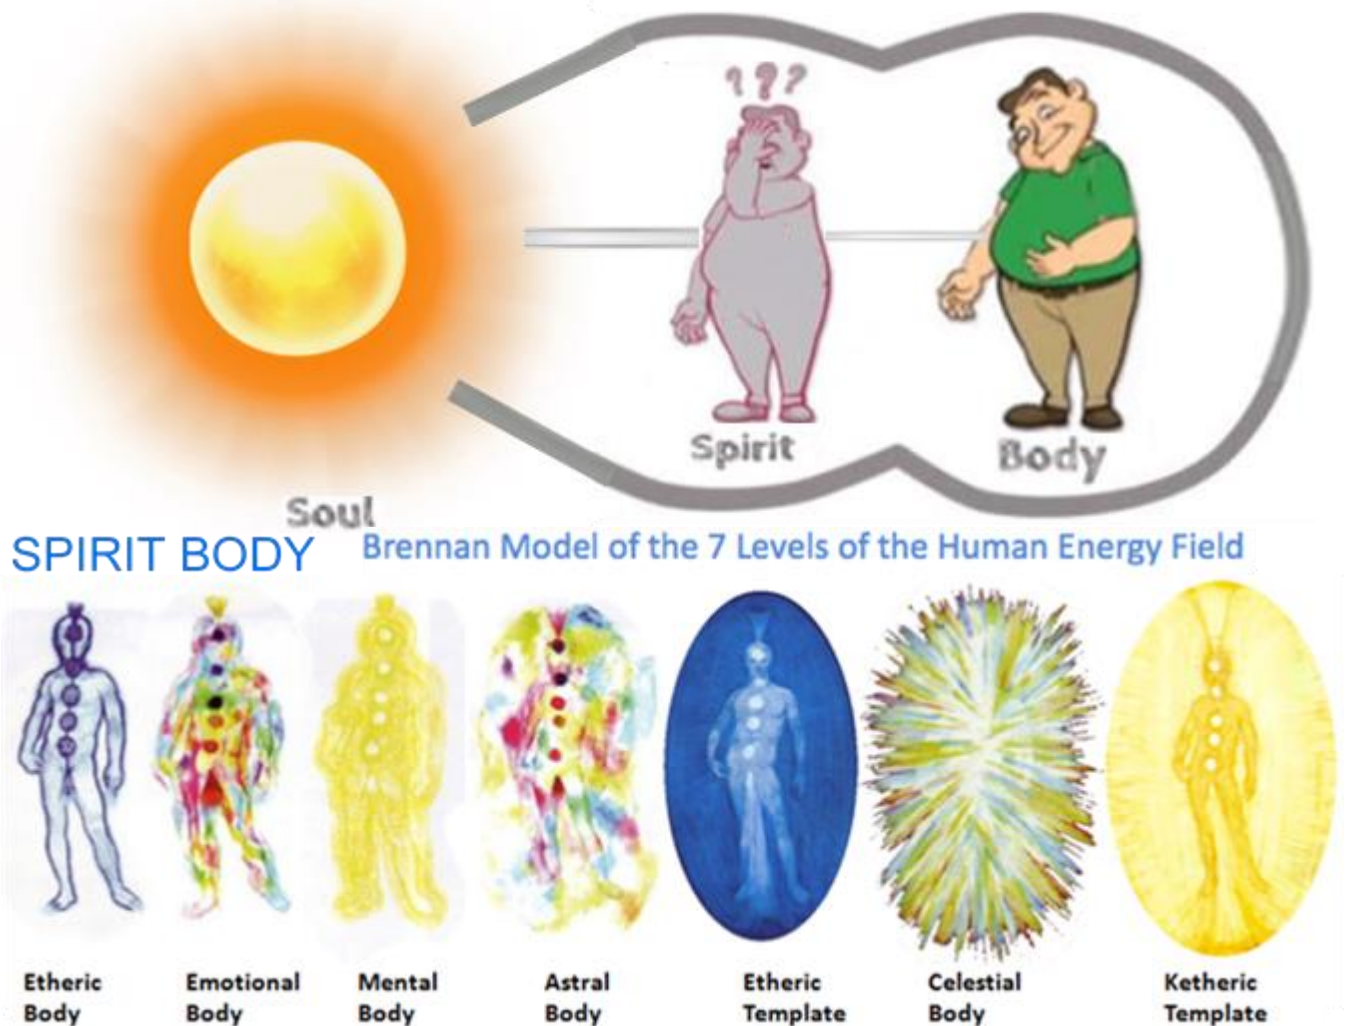

Being a child you so desperately want to be loved so you cling to your parents believing that they love you and you love them, but it is not true. Certainly some people do experience love and do love one another, but why we are adamant that mostly you do not love each other is because of your negative will state and associated negative mind. Sadly, what you know as love is subjective, discoloured by your negative state. If you saw pure love, you wouldn't recognise it nor want it, you'd possibly even be afraid of it. You have to slowly work your way into love from no-love. And to do this the Mother and Father have provided you with the Mansion Worlds in spirit and the corresponding levels in your flesh life. If you were to suddenly be projected into Celestial spirit life, you would die a million screams as the pain of such pure love would threaten to tear you apart.

You are conditioned to live in the negative, so you have to slowly acclimatise yourself to accept the positive. A tree growing bent over the years by a prevailing wind has grown to show the result of the incessant force that has been applied to it. If you applied a great force too quickly in the opposite direction trying to straighten it, it would break. It has grown to accept the force in its life, just as you have. But thankfully with the Mother and Father's Love you don't need to spend as much time with an opposing force to help you gradually come back into perfection. As to how long your Healing will take, you will have to live.

Illness emanates from the spirit!

When you are physically sick, your physical body will be expressing the illness of your spirit, that which will be reflected in the 'illness' of your spirit body. That which will be reflected in the 'illness' of your will; that which will be reflected in the 'illness' of your soul. If you could see into one's aura, you'd see all the trauma and damage done in all the subtle bodies and in your spirit body. Your spirit body does not remain perfect and only your physical body becomes sick, you only get sick because you are sick in your spirit body, which really means you are sick in your will, and so sick in your soul. The doctor might attend to your physical body and make you well, however this will only happen if it's what your soul wants; and if so, your attending Angelic Pair will make the necessary adjustments in your spirit body and subtle bodies so as to 'allow' the doctors doctoring to show positive effects. If the doctor is to fail, then it's because the Angels didn't adjust the spiritual for you to become healed. People having limbs amputated might feel a 'ghost limb' which is really their spirit body arm or leg.

Your physical bodies are designed to be supported by nature, not attacked by it. Only sickness of will brings about attack, and this only happens to show you that you are in pain, that you are not right, and that you need to seek the truth of your suffering. However, the difficulty here is that the original causes have happened to you before you were six years old, and all that has happened since has served to only compound the problem. And as most people have difficulty relating to their earlier life, it is hard to see the truth of what was happening to your will back then is still happening now as an adult being expressed in your illness.

And so this remains the hidden truth of humanity and explains why it is so easily passed over and disregarded, although more people are now looking back into childhood more seriously, and it is becoming generally known that how your childhood was has underpinned your whole outlook on life. But this is only scratching the surface as to the truth of what you suffered on all levels. To restrict and interfere with a child's will is the cause of all problems then in the child, and as it grows up, and once grown up and forevermore until you do your Healing.

Age-group	Age
Gestation	conception to birth
Newborn	0 days to 1 month
Infant	1 month to 1 year
Toddler	1 to 3 years
Preschool	3 to 6 years
School age child	6 to 12 years
Adolescent	12 to 18 years

Our childhood formative years are from conception through to age of 6 years. Commencing at conception, we begin to take on all of the injuries and errors of belief of our parents and carers. We capitulate to adopting the ‘personality’ that our physical parents impose upon us, to the detriment of our true personality.

Somehow, we go on smiling and laughing...

You parent using your mind and without truth, and as your minds are rebellious, so you can't expect to be a perfect parent. Only when parents of Celestial truth parent their children, will such children grow up perfect. You are designed to parent with truth, so if you don't have any, you're not going to be much good as a parent.

A parent full of truth, such as a Celestial parent, by expressing, by simply living and being that truth (as it can't be anything else), will know innately, will know through and with that truth, everything its child needs; all how it is to relate to its child lovingly, and it will just be that loving expression of truth to which its child will lovingly respond. You can't learn how to parent, that is still only using your mind, you have to BE A PARENT OF TRUTH, and it just happens, you'll just parent lovingly with and from that truth. So whether you keep the reigns pulled in hard on your child exerting maximum control, or whether you loosen them allowing your child to all but run free, it's all still just different expressions of parenting with your mind. So, saying being a parent you are to do this and not that, is meaningless; being a Parent of Truth you will just act with that truth, being fully connected always with your child who constantly responds to your loving truth expression. And as you parent with and through truth, then you will understand naturally things about it with your mind. But Truth must always come first, not Mind.

Mental or mind Truth-Seeker academically self-satisfies his/her own erroneous beliefs.

Through your own feelings you grow in Truth from your heartfelt feelings. Truth we seek is within us all.

You are to find the truth of the Rebellion and Default within yourself – the truth of how you are rebellious. And the best way to do this is through your relationships. So your Healing will focus a lot on your interactions and connections with other people, and most importantly within your intimate relationship. And then to do with your parents and family.

You look at the mother as something of a god. So much is said about the 'mother's love', your whole civilisation might rupture and collapse if mothers stopped loving their children. You give such power to the mother; and a woman becoming a mother steps up into newfound power, she now has all power over her children, and far more than the father. And she's not a 'real woman' with real power unless she has children. She is in control, no longer having to be only subject to the control of her mother, and so you fail to see that all the problems a child has, results from her (and the father). So often the child is judged and seen as the bad one, they are to pull themselves together and grow up and do as they are told – behave properly. You put it on the child, that if it has a difficulty, it has to overcome it, and it is its fault. Rarely the blame is given to the parents, and even less to the mother.

In a way, each person's Indwelling Spirit, which is really God, is contracting out the work needed to be done with you to other agencies. So to us spirits, the angels, the nature spirits, other elements under the Divine Minister's control, and even other non-humanity spirits, all of which end up doing increasingly more amounts of what your Indwelling Spirit does. And this 'outsourcing' is to affect greater personality interaction, increasing your experiences so they are maximised through interaction with different personalities rather than just relying solely on God. Overall, we are to become increasingly at-one with God, but we are to do that by becoming increasingly immersed in the experience of being with others.

Nanna Beth – 3rd Celestial Heaven: 25 December 2018

We each have a band of a Nature Spirit pair, Spirit Guide pair, and an Angelic pair, each pair being in their 'soulmate / soul partner' relationship. In addition we have our personal Indwelling Spirit.

You don't look at everything that's wrong with the child is because of its parents, and with a large amount of the hands on work that's caused all those problems being with the mother because she spent more time with the baby and young child having to 'mother' it. So, the mother often gets let off of any blame, and the child coming and accusing the mother is frowned upon because how dare the child be angry with its mother 'after all the mother did for it'. Yes, all the bad things the mother did to it to cause it all the damage and problems it now has that's making it angry with the mother. And then so many rebellious teenagers grow up having been once angry with their mother, to when they themselves become a mother, suddenly realising how hard it is having to cope and deal with the baby and young child, stop accusing their mother, feeling sorry for her and coming back onto her side. For humanity to evolve to the point of fully understanding and so accepting that all mothers and fathers are going to do many bad and damaging things to their children because they are not true and loving, it will be very difficult, however this is what will need to happen. One can still be a parent within and fully of the Rebellion and Default, yet also knowing that you are damaged yourself and so will damage your child, and then you both being damaged as your child grows up, and once is an adult, even possibly helping each other do your Healing.

It has been very important for humanity to parent being rebellious, firstly to keep the whole thing going, and then to have the experiences of being the 'victim' as the child, and then the 'perpetrator' being the parent. All to provide everyone involved with all the rebellious experiences they need. And so it's conceivable that this will still keep going with parents who are more aware of themselves being of the Rebellion and Default and so being more accepting of the truth that they can't be any other way and yet still want to have children.

Ideally however, which can only be done once Healed, respect for your child's will needs to be started well before you conceive one. It needs to be your state of truth, how you live your life, so you need to first heal your own will damage so as to be able to parent and guide another's will into being. You cannot believe or just want to respect your child's will, that being of your mind, it all has to come from and with truth, it has to be lived from the heart as an expression of the truth you are living. The truth being so strong you couldn't be any other way, so you simply couldn't act disrespectfully treating it unlovingly. As you are, being of the Rebellion and Default, you can't parent other than being disrespectful and unloving. Some people are more loving at times, and these times are mostly what the child clings onto, all the good memories of feeling loved, with all the bad unloving ones buried in the depths of forgotten memory.

At conception, it is the wills of the parents that determines function or dysfunction of the child. If you do your Healing with your child, nothing is ever too late, because as you grow in the truth of your rebelliousness, you will change how you relate to yourself and so too your child, and it will all be for the betterment of your both. Your growing child will positively respond to you, it will still be damaged, only not as much as it would have been. All is not lost up to six, from then on the child has fully taken it all on, but still it can with your guidance and support change as you change. It can long for the truth of its feelings, it can long for the Divine Love, it can learn how to express all its feelings without denying the bad ones. And even as an adult, your child can look to your Healing example and understand the changes you are going through and that too will have a positive effect on it. Or, if it rejects you and your Healing completely, then it's meant to move deeper into its mind rebelliousness and there is nothing you can do about that. That is what God will want it to do, it being the pattern of its soul. So you will have to let it go and get on with your own Healing; and possibly one day when it does its Healing you will be able to have a truer relationship.

WE ARE THE TRUTH SEEKERS

The highest most loving thing you can do in your life is to do your Healing – for yourself, your children, your relationships, for other people, for the whole world. Even if you have to leave everyone who does not want to know you as you seek the truth through your feelings, or they leave you, it doesn't matter because in the long run it will all work out for the best, and everyone has to be allowed to live as they choose, complete respect of will, be it dysfunctional or not. You may feel very alone because no one understands what you are doing through your Healing and how it's affecting you, however, that will be what you have to experience, it being how you felt at home with your family and parents – yet more bad feelings to express and long for the truth of.

You are living seven Mansion Worlds of corruption, all of which you'll work your way up through as you do your Healing. So, that is seven whole Worlds of untruth you'll be subjecting your child to. And you can't avoid it. Only as you do your Healing and move up through those Worlds will you lessen the negative effect. So, you will be negatively damaging your child on a soul level, will level, spirit level and material level, the truth on all these levels. And it's all borne out in your relationship – whether you are truly loving or not. And if not, which you can't be with seven Worlds of untruth within you, then how are you expressing this unlovingness, how are you being rebellious and against yourself, and why – what happened to you during your forming years that's made you be as you are. This all being what your Healing will help you see.

So, you are parenting your child with the most amount of will interference, and that is a lot of damage on multiple levels you are inflicting on that little innocent person. The child starts off at conception at a level of Natural Love perfection, so, the top of the seven Mansion Worlds, then through its parents and family, society, the world and everyone else that negatively affects it, is brought down to the level of truth of its parents by the age when its Indwelling Spirit arrives, about six to seven, so, mostly to that of the first and lowest World. And most people live their lives on that level, so, when they die they wake up literally in the first Mansion World, there being able to carry on living as rebelliously as they were.

So, many people comment on how pure a baby looks, and it is, compared to how it will look by the time it is showing all the will damage it has suffered at around six years old. Some people say when they look at their six-year-old child, that wonderful light it had as an infant is now sadly missing, and it is. And then others say that light their child had at six is missing now their child is an adult, when at six it was already living against itself. So, as a parent it's a terrible truth you'll need to face, that you have all but extinguished that inner spark of your child; and as the child you have virtually had all your inner light crushed out of you. If you could compare a Celestial pairs' child at six to that of any child at six years old on your world, even the most happy and seemingly positive child would seem so dull and devoid of any real spirit or light.

The image of the big overbearing parent standing angrily over his or her little child who is sitting crying on the floor of the Supermarket, is exactly how the child feels, completely overpowered and ridden to the floor, almost crushed out of existence, defeated, humiliated, rejected, utterly powerless; unloved – no one loves it, no one cares about it, everything makes it feel bad, it not getting the precious life giving love it really needs. And particularly from its parents, and from its so-called 'loving' mother who in that moment angrily standing over it is expressing the truth of how she really feels – that she hates her child and wishes she didn't have to deal with it.

It is via the spirit etheric body that emotional issues and viruses emerge in the physical body as illness.

The battle may be over an item on the shelf it wants but it parent does not want it to have, but this is only the exterior superficial expression of the material, when really it's a real battle of wills, and the child is losing being heavily abused and crushed yet again. Fighting your child's will is not the way to be a loving parent, and it's not really a fair fight, is it, you the adult-will beating your little child's forming will into submission.

NEW FEELINGS WAY

And so many people would say this is good parenting, the child has to know its place, it has to know how to behave in the world – and its brute and bully of a controlling parent is the one to do it. And you hear people supporting the abusive parent; “Yes, it’s so hard when they are that age”, with only the rare person standing up for the child’s rights. And you call that ‘being a loving parent’, because an unloving parent wouldn’t beat its own child – surely?

You have no idea as to how you are treating your child, and that’s because it’s all how you, the parent, was treated, all of which it was forced to bury, just as you are forcing your child to do. So the child can grow up under the misguided delusion that its parent did all the right things it needed: its parent loved it so much; and yet, what about all those bad feelings the child is feeling, what happens to them? And the child can say in one breath, I love my mum so much, and yet within the same breath then go onto say all the bad things it feels its mum did to it. And the parent can say it loves its child so much, then verbally abuse it by saying it is no good, ugly, a useless waste of space. So many parents don’t even hear the constant stream of criticism that flows from their lips as they ‘love’ their child. It’s time for humanity’s parents, and its children, to wake up to the realities of what really is happening in their relationships.

Thank you James – Zelmar. (a Melchizedek from within our local universe of Nabadon, it is the Melchizedeks high level spirits who are overseeing the ending of the Rebellion and Default on Earth.)

Consider asking yourself this question:
Who hurt me when I was a child?

LOVE
is
Feelings First Spirituality, New Feelings Way

Feelings First Spirituality, New Feelings Way, is based on living true to yourself through your feelings. Understanding that all you need in life is contained within your soul and is shown to you through your feelings. And by loving your feelings, by attending to them properly (talking or writing them out of you) and not denying them, you can use them to uncover the truth of yourself – the truth of your soul.

Feelings First Spirituality is not a formalised religion that tells you how to be, that is too controlling and is actually bad for you, limiting your spiritual growth. You can be wholly self-revealing of the truths you need to be, being the person God created you to be, all by living true to your feelings.

Feelings First Spirituality has no formal structure because we understand we don't need one, our soul contains within it all the truth of our spiritual ascent. If we look to our feelings for the truth they want us to see about ourselves, nature and God, then what more do we need! Our true spiritual path is the path our feelings will lead us down, that is, provided we allow them to. This is the most spiritual we can be.

Living the New Way of Feelings First Spirituality

You come to the understanding from your life experiences that how you are is not right, it doesn't make you feel good – that you are wrong in some way. And you want to change yourself, you want to become right, true and perfect – you want to be like God is.

And to do this you need to do your Healing

Your Feeling-Healing is looking to your feelings for the truth of yourself, the truth being hidden in many of the feelings you are not wanting to face in life. So you have to end your feeling denial, accepting all your bad feelings (and good ones), express them (yet not necessarily acting upon them), whilst longing to uncover the truth they are to show you.

Or, you can do your Soul-Healing, which is your Feeling-Healing together with including longing directly to God for God's Divine Love. When you receive the Divine Love into your soul, it will cause your soul to become divine, and it will deepen your personal relationship with God. Long with all your heart to God for God's Divine Love.

Avonal Revelation

Only by living Feelings First Spirituality, The New Way, can you become right, and truly find God.

FEELING versus EMOTION and emoting such emotions through your feelings:

It is important to emote your feelings to a partner or to your Heavenly Parents.

Just be the feeling. When you feel the feeling, try to stay with that feeling.

The other person you are engaging with can assist you to experience and express the emotional event that you are feeling coming to the surface. They'll assist you to stay with that feeling. The other person is to encourage you, to prompt you in describing, expressing, talking about – emoting – that feeling leading you back to discover the truth of an experience that was an emotional event in your life, most likely an event in your early childhood, and even more likely to be a childhood suppression of your expression of your true personality by one of your parents.

What ever you are feeling, describe it. Once in the feeling stay with the feeling – become the feeling – become the emotional event. Express, talk about it, that being the experience of how it really unfolded.

Feeling is what you feel now. Emotion is the result of an event that happened in the past (even the recent past). The emotion is the pain within you. Once you begin to become that painful emotional event then the feelings thereof can be expressed, talked out of you – for ever!

The more often you drop into these past emotional events, you'll find the resistance to do so will subside. Your childhood events will become more readily alive in the present.

You will begin to long for the truth of these childhood repressions and these suppressions will become memories, but no longer painful memories as you talk out each such suppression of your true personality that being what was imposed upon you since your conception. You will be aided by the Spirits of Truth of the Avonal Pair as you become to know and embrace them.

THE STRAIGHT AND NARROW PATH

Looking for Spiritual pathways using our mind will mean the True Spiritual Pathway will always elude us. We live with our mind suppressing feelings which causes us to not find our true pathway. When we live honouring, accepting, expressing and longing for the truth of our feelings, then we are treading our Spiritual Path of Truth. Truth ONLY comes to us through our feelings. If we deny feelings, we deny truth, and we deny our true spiritual path.

If we fight expressing feelings, pushing them away and blocking them out, we never allow any understanding of those feelings to come to us, thus keeping us in the maze of mind-bending distractions. Many so-called healing therapies say they focus on liberating feelings, however beware that many of these systems are still mind-controlling in 'feelings-clothing'. And we may believe we are getting somewhere with our feelings, only to realise centuries later in the spirit, mind Mansion Worlds that we've still been leading ourselves astray and away from our true feelings.

Surrender and submit willingly allowing our feelings to emerge and be expressed. Long for the truth our feelings are to reveal. Persevere. Allow our feelings to be our way of living. It does not matter how long this takes. For us all, this is our destiny – it is only a question of when?

Once we firmly start living the New Feelings Way – living feelings first; expressing our feelings and longing for the truth they are to reveal, we are on the pathway of ascension; not only out of the Rebellion and Default through our Feeling Healing, and with Divine Love: our Soul Healing – but to Paradise!

By living true to our feelings we will progress through the Celestial Heavens all the way through Nebadon; then on further through our Superuniverse of Orvonton; then into the regions of our Heavenly Mother and Father; embracing the Supreme Being and moving through Havona, eventually attaining Paradise, Their home.

It is the True Way, the New Feelings Pathway, that takes us all the way 'Home'. It is a journey of ever-expanding Truth and Love.

MIND vs FEELINGS

Mind vs Feelings – Your Choice.

And now is an appropriate Time To Make this Choice!

Everyone is to choose: The Mind Way; or The New Feelings Way.

Which way of living do you choose: Mind Way?

or the Feelings Way of living?

Do you continue in your Mind Way?

or do you embrace The New Feelings Way?

Do you choose the Dead End Mind Way?

or the Eternal Happiness Feelings Way?

Times up for the Mind Way;

the Feelings Way is taking over.

False Spirituality – The Mind Way;

True Spirituality – The Feeling Way.

The End Times and Final Judgement; or Paradise – the choice is yours to make:

Continue in your soul-destroying feeling and truth denying Mind Way;

or embracing The New Feelings Way
by doing your Spiritual Healing;

Maintaining the mind's imposed façade of a robotic, retarded individual, in a stupor, perpetrating the errors of generations gone by;

or The Feeling Way which is the discovery pathway to releasing your true, vibrant personality

The Mind Way – rejecting the truth of yourself by denying feelings, restricted forever to the mind Mansion Worlds;

or The Feeling Way – uncovering the truth of your feelings and ascending to Paradise.

DISCOVERY DYNAMICS

For thousands of years people lived without determining their own lives. What were they striving for, and why? What should the new generations carry forth? Should they bear in mind where those traditional paths went wrong? Which paths? Amidst the bustle of life, women give birth to children, but they offer no goals in life to those they bear. Their children know not, what they are to carry forward. And they will die, the earthly citizens, having lived out their empty lives. Only pottery shards remain of the ancient ones, and arrowheads. The children may heed opinions of their parents and others should they have them.

For the first time in nearly a million years, humanity now can have revealed to it what its purpose is, why it is on Earth, why it is having a particular life journey and its experiences, and what the incredible journey following one's physical experience may unfold into. The dynamics of each of our ongoing lives is a wonder to behold, let alone to comprehend.

Anastasia explored these similar dynamics this way: “Why, all of my aspirations are already laid out in the Ringing Cedars books. If I were to add anything else specific, I'd say, ‘I will gather together the best sounds from the whole Universe and will embed them into combinations of letters and into musical notes.’ I will ask today's poets, and the barbs to give voice to them. A great many people will sense them with their souls. Let people express them in a language they understand, let them model the dawn of the earth and its beautiful flowering. And when the melodies of man's worthy land embraces the entire Earth, then I, amongst our kind neighbours, will help our grandchildren create their homesteads, and all the whiles, I will not forget my own family space.”

Never have there been changes in play for humanity as there are now following the formal ending of the Rebellion and Default on the 31 January 2018. Over the coming Avonal Age, the conditions prevailing on the 1st spirit Mansion World are to be Earthed. Interaction and connectivity with Nature Spirits and spirit guide personalities will unfold in a manner that has been prevented under the Universal Contract governing the Rebellion and Default these past 200,000 years.

The progressive quickening of the Earthing of the Law of Compensation and with its counterpart, the Law of Cooperation, will result in women and men being prevented from imposing their will upon others. This is how the 1,000 years of peace on Earth is to unfold.

As those embrace their Feeling Healing, and with Divine Love, their Soul Healing, connectivity with Celestial Spirits will unfold at an ever increasing rate, this will progressively raise the revealing of higher levels of spiritual truths and ways of our living will evolve accordingly.

It will be known that life in the 1st spirit Mansion World will literally mirror life on Earth following these evolutionary changes. We will come to accept the death of our physical body as a time of celebration as the wonders of the 1st spirit Mansion World will be understood and the potential for ongoing connectivity will unfold through those with mediumistic gifts here on Earth.

Following death, after a short period of extreme ‘jet lag’ we all wake up in ‘arrival halls’ dressed in spirit clothes in very comfortable beds. After a few days we will most likely go to ‘coffee shops’ and enjoy the most delightful beverages that we ever experienced on Earth. Most people presently wake up not even realising they have died. Also, about half of us do attend our own funerals! The more each of us are aware of what transitions, the quicker we assimilate and begin to explore and participate in everyday life. A spirit day is three of our Earth days and the short ‘twilight’ is the rest zone in our spirit day. Enjoy the transition as it is basically a new birthday that we each will have!

JOURNEY HOME

Our journey home is an ever growing expansion of truth being revealed to us. For Earth's humanity, as for the 37 humanities that have Rebelled, we are quarantined and isolated. Having also Defaulted, Earth's humanity is possibly the most evil of all. Firstly, we are to understand that living through our minds is why we are addicted to untruth and control of others and nature – we are going the wrong way! We are to live feelings first and then heal our Childhood Repression and Suppression – we are to live and express our true personality, the one given to us by our Heavenly Mother and Father. Then our journey home begins!

The Isle of Paradise is stationary within the circle of seven super-universes. Spheres here are also for us to further grow in truth before arriving Home to become Finaliters. Our Heavenly Mother and Father guide us out of our Local Universe of Nebadon, through the rest of our super-universe of Orvonton and into super, superuniverse Havona which circulates around the Isle of Paradise, being home.

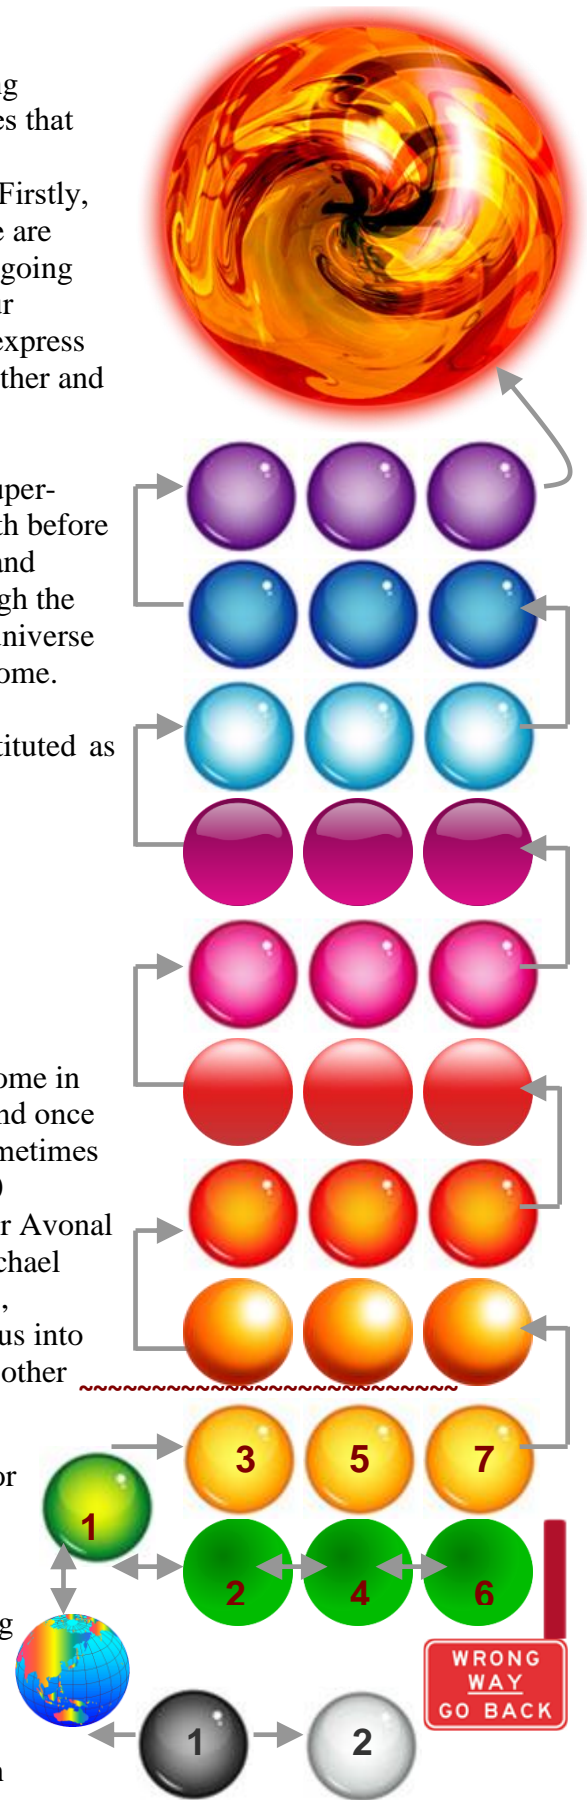

Each of the seven super-universes are approximately constituted as follows and with 1,000,000,000,000 inhabitable worlds:

- One super-universe is 10 major sectors
- One major sector is 100 minor sectors
- One minor sector is 100 local universes
- One local universe is 100 constellations
- One constellation is 100 systems
- One system embraces approximately 1,000 physical worlds

Once we attain the Celestial Heavens (spheres), we start to come in contact with spirits from other 'Earth' worlds. So in spirit, and once we've finished our Healing and are Celestial, we interact, sometimes directly and otherwise indirectly, with potentially 10,000,000 physical worlds of which 3,840,101 are with humanities. Our Avonal Daughter and Son lead us to Mary Magdalene and Jesus (Michael soulmate pair / soul partners, our Creator Daughter and Son), through our healing of the Rebellion and Default by guiding us into the first three Celestial Heavens and out of isolation from all other physical and spirit humanities.

Mary and Jesus then lead us through the Celestial Heavens for the system Satania (that Earth is in), then our constellation and then out of our Local Universe.

Isolation from all other humanities prevails before completing our soul's healing and progress into the Celestial Heaven spheres 1, 2 and 3. Hell planes 1 and 2 of Earth are for those people who have to compensate for evil wrongdoing. And once done, they may then progress up through mind Mansion Worlds 1, 2, 4 and 6 before turning around to progress through Healing Mansion Worlds 3, 5 and 7 to transition into Celestial Heaven.

Finaliters

Hey guys, I know who I am and why I am having these life experiences. No, I'm not wearing a prison uniform – but that might be what my soul has planned for me to experience! Just joking!

When we arrive in our Earthly mother's womb, we are clueless as to why the heck we have come here. We truly need to persist with asking, "What's this all about?" – We will be told, bit by bit! But you have to push for it. Well guys, here's a go at it.

We have come to this crazy messed up humanity on Earth because God wants us to come; we don't have any say in it. And we think we can do something about it, but we actually can't, we can only do what God wants us to do. And if that makes us think we can do something, which we can have an effect, then that's what God wants us to think. Man, this mob is ready to slaughter each other totally and that is not going to happen – it's not allowed!

We are to enable our wilfulness to surface – well take over our 'numbnut' mind – and push aside the persona – the messed up personality that our parents want us to be – and express our true individuality. Be true to our feelings – our soul-based feelings and be the personality that our Heavenly Mum and Dad know us to be (all good).

Okay, because we are amongst billions of people who have been forced to join the Rebellion and Default, we are one of them – experiencing all the crud and wrongness we can possibly get ourselves into. Yep, we are rebelling against our soul, which also means we are rebelling against our soulmate and also our Heavenly Mother and Father – God. Shoot the works – we have done it justice!

Now here is the good bit. We can heal ourselves of all this wrongness – and eventually we ALL will. Then we will continue with our healing and learning, and learning, and more learning and end up in Paradise, the home of our True Mum and Dad. THEN we will be recognised as FINALITERS. Why Finaliters?

We are called Finaliters, that's everyone who attains Paradise, and not just those of us who've been screwed up by a Rebellion, because we've 'finally' got there, we 'finally' did it, we 'finally' completed the first stage of our existence in Creation, which is akin to 'Finally' completing our time in the 'womb'. Upon attaining Paradise, it can be likened to being 'finally' born, or 'finally' becoming the equivalent of age 6 when our Indwelling Spirit arrives, or 'finally' becoming an adult. And possibly we won't know if we can liken it to any of these stages we go through during our physical life on Earth, until we're 'finally' on Paradise, and 'finally' get it!

Because other humanities in newly forming universes are anticipated to Rebel (just like us now) and because we have had the experience (no other humanity has possibly done it as good as us), we FINALITERS can go and help them out of their SHIT! Yee-ha – more evilness and insanity! That is us! Bring it on!!!!

Finaliters

OUR JOURNEY

Ascension is from Earth (Urantia) through Nebadon, Orvonton, Havona to Paradise. Then in Paradise we progress to be Finaliters and possibly assigned to a newly forming universe.

Isle of Paradise home of our Heavenly Mother & Father
 Havona Ascendington
 Orvonton – our Super Universe
 Nebadon – our Local Universe
 Urantia being Earth

Finaliter, being what we become when we finally arrive in Paradise!

Our journey is one of experience and the feelings that arise from our experiences. From the moment of conception we are on our learning pathway, experiencing the emotions of our parents and carers. Our feelings are our truth, it is through our feelings that we evolve in truth. We are to long for the truth that our feelings draw our attention to.

Our physical parents and family is the focus of our experience on Earth. As we all have been subjected to the Rebellion and Default of Earth's humanity, we are all to heal ourselves of being unloved and the errors and injuries that we have been subjected to. Only through the completion of our Feeling Healing do we leave the environment which is referred to as Hell. It is through the guidance of the Avonal soul partner pair, their Spirits of Truth, that we are now able to complete our Feeling Healing.

When we transition into the 1st Celestial Heaven, having completed our Healing and Acceptance of how we have been messed up and the way we are having had the experience of living in a Rebellion and Default, can we then start to assimilate with other humanities within our Local System.

Our local system is called Satania, home city and headquarters being Jerusem. It consists of 1,000 physical worlds that have the potential of a humanity living on these worlds. 619 are physically inhabited of which Earth is number 606, one of the youngest. As we progress beyond the first three Celestial Heavens, then we start to interact and become knowledgeable of these additional humanities.

Then we progress into our local constellation called Norlatiadek. Norlatiadek consists of 100 local systems, and its home city is Edentia. The Garden of Eden is named after Edentia. Again we go through a process of coming to understand how the constellation works and the peoples that are throughout it.

Then we enter the local universe as a whole, named Nebadon with Salvington being its headquarters and home of the co-regents being soul partners Creator Daughter and Son, Michaels, namely Mary Magdalene and Jesus. It is through the Spirits of Truth of Mary and Jesus that we are guided through all of the Celestial Heavens to Salvington.

From Nebadon then it is our Heavenly Mother and Father that guide us through the next three major sectors of our super-universe being the Minor Sector, then Major Sector, then the super-universe of Orvonton.

Then we progress into Havona and Isle of Paradise, the home of our Heavenly Mother and Father and on completion of achieving understanding of how all the systems work in the manner that we are required to, we become Finaliters. After all, we are truth seekers!

Then what follows is that we then visit and achieve an understanding of how each of the other six super-universes work and how all sever super-universes function and work together.

When fully accredited we will most likely be assigned to one of the newly forming 70,000 super-universes that presently are not inhabited. Finaliters have many optional assignments.

We are truth seekers and through our obtained truth we will be able to assist humanities throughout the emerging universes.

Feelings First Spirituality, The New Way Feelings are your own truth and personality

Pascas University, Pascas TAFE, Pascas College, all through their many avenues, are to make available the understandings and guidance of Living Feelings First, being our Feeling Healing, throughout every community within every country in their diversity of languages, in as many differing formats, as appropriate to enable everyone to be able to consider Living Feelings First.

Through the psychology departments associated with Pascas Care Centre clinics and the education facilities, research programs are to expand the understanding and application of our Feeling Healing. This is to enable an evolving development of life through Living Feelings First and longing for the truth of our Feelings, Feeling Healing, and ultimately with Divine Love being then Soul Healing.

Governments will be invited and encouraged to consider these evolutionary developments. Within the ambit of governmental authorities, universities, psychology research teams and schools from pre-school through to higher education will be supported to embrace this way of living and the making available this guidance.

Governmental departments and agencies such as social services, children's services, police departments and all associated welfare departments are to be introduced to this guidance and research. Domestic violence and children's courts may realise the attributes of Feeling Healing when it begins to mitigate the numbers they have had to consider and assist. Progressively all aspects of social services and health services may find their work loads and demands that have been put upon them begin to subside. This is an evolutionary shift for humanity.

Your views: on the politics of a university merger

https://indaily.com.au/opinion/reader-contributions/2023/03/31/your-views-on-the-politics-of-a-uni-merger-and-more/?utm_medium=email&utm_campaign=InDaily%20Lunchtime%20%2031%20March%202023&utm_content=InDaily%20Lunchtime%20%2031%20March%202023+CID_64c834f390c04570c5f410a6316d4094&utm_source=EDM&utm_term=READ%20MORE

Commenting on the story: ‘We are going to make this happen’: Premier backs in uni merger

So did I waste my time providing comments on the draft “vision statement” for the proposed new university? Apparently, the Premier has spoken. He will “make” the merger happen, in effect, regardless of what the people of South Australia may think.

Well, bugger that.

To put it mildly, I find the arguments in favour of merging two of SA’s universities unconvincing.

Long experience in both private and public sectors is that mergers usually fail to achieve their objectives. Of course “merger” is usually a euphemism; there is almost always a stronger party that takes over a weaker party in the end.

Moreover, a bigger university isn’t necessarily a better one. Adelaide University currently has approximately 24,000 students. Oxford University has a little over 26,000. Does Oxford University fail to achieve its world leading status because it is too small? Harvard University has approximately 30,000 students, with fewer than 10,000 undergraduates. Does it lack size?

I respectfully suggest the SA Government take more notice of the details of the merger activity it has initiated. So far as the draft Vision Statement is concerned, there is much emphasis on achieving “equity”. It asserts, without evidence, that “equity and excellence are wholly compatible”. It proposes that the merged university would aim for more students from low socio-economic backgrounds to learn and complete degrees than at any other higher education institution in Australia.

In other words, the proposed university is to adopt, at birth, the utterly failed and toxic “diversity, equity and inclusion” (DEI) philosophy that has caused such devastation to the reputations of the universities of the United States. This is the last thing we want. Surely our universities should strive for academic excellence. We want the best and brightest minds in South Australian universities; we should not destroy two fine universities to pursue policies and objectives that diminish the academic strength of the student cohort, devalue degrees and prioritise social rather than economic outcomes.

I urge both universities to resist this merger. It is an expensive diversion for them, and in my opinion, highly unlikely to succeed. I urge the SA Government to think more seriously about this issue, and stop treating it as a test of political muscle.

Respectfully, the Premier should read the draft report from the SA Productivity Commission on turning research into economic competitiveness for South Australia. The problem the SAPC has identified is not the size of SA's existing universities. It's about improving the interactions between those universities and local industry with a view to enhancing SA's competitiveness.

Rather than push a merger and DEI agenda, I suggest the government review the enabling legislation for our universities to ensure that each of them is driven to deliver the commercial outcomes the State needs, and that I assume the Premier wants. In my opinion, a merger alone won't work. Aligning the universities' enabling legislation, and relevant incentives, with desired commercial outcomes just might.
– Stephen Trenowden

Comment: Mind-centricity imprisonment results in repeating the errors of the past being represented in different clothes. How is the educating of students enhanced by such a merger? Why repackage an ineffective, cumbersome process when the old ways are to be replaced with The New Way – the old is to be replaced with the new?

Ten ducks in a row, but one always misleading or misled!

Presently, leaders of institutionalised systems are imprisoned within the dictates of covert claustrophobic control and suppression of initiative and personality intuitiveness that is stifling growth and prosperity of the people they are to serve. This includes the students as well as the educators. Until leaders open themselves to the possibilities now being demonstrated then we will continue to see more of the same errors being repeated based on being ignorant of truth, and ongoing by ignoring the truth when it is presented to them freely.

Why is there a great diversity of financial cost imposed upon those seeking truth when the growth of any community and nation is through those who seek truth and guidance to grow themselves and the people who they live amongst and are to serve?

Nothing is achieved without education.

How much does it cost to study in Australia?

<https://www.topuniversities.com/student-info/student-finance/how-much-does-it-cost-study-australia>

21 March 2023

Australia is one of the most popular study destinations in the world, hosting over 456,000 international students between January to April 2022. However, it's also unfortunately one of the most expensive, with students needing AU$21,041 (~US$14,400) each year for living costs alone, according to the country's student visa requirements. Meanwhile, tuition fees at Australian universities vary considerably depending on where and what you study, and the level you will be studying at. (They are full paying fee students.) Read on for a breakdown of these costs and for advice on how to find Australian scholarships to support your studies.

Tuition fees and course costs for international students

According to Study Australia, the official government site for international students, gives the typical annual tuition fees for international students as:

- Undergraduate bachelor degree – AU$20,000 (US$13,675) to $45,000 (US$30,769);
- Postgraduate masters degree – AU$22,000 (US$15,045) to $50,000 (US$34,192);
- Doctoral degree – AU$20,000 (US$13,675) to $42,000 (US$28,721).

These figures do not include high-value courses such as veterinary or medical degrees, which can cost significantly more.

Tuition fees at Australian universities are generally calculated per unit, not per year. Each unit falls into a fee band, and as most students will be studying a combination of units from different bands, fees will be different for everybody.

Some universities in Australia publish official fees estimates, including Australian National University (ANU), which is the nation's highest-ranked institution (30th in the QS World University Rankings® 2023). The yearly cost of an international undergraduate degree from ANU is around AU$42,560 (~US$29,100) for some Bachelor of Arts programs, up to AU$47,940 (~US$32,780) for Bachelor of Science or Medical Science programs.

For graduate degree programs, annual fees can range from AU$45,360 (~US$31,004) and reach up to AU$47,940 (~US$32,780).

PhD programs are priced similarly, starting at the end of the scale, from AU$ $39,870 (~US$27,249) upwards. In a league of its own, however, is ANU's Doctorate of Medicine and Surgery degree, which costs AU$85,120 (~US$58,184).

Another cost to consider is the Student Services and Amenities fee, which is a charge for services and amenities of a non-academic nature, up to a maximum of AU$315 (~US$215) in 2022. Not all universities in Australia charge this, but make sure you check beforehand so it's not an unexpected expense.

Tuition fees and course costs for domestic students

As with many other places around the world, it's cheaper to study in Australia for domestic students, especially those who successfully apply for a Commonwealth supported place, which means study costs are largely subsidised by the government. Commonwealth supported places are available at all public universities in Australia and some – but not all – private ones.

Student contribution amounts vary depending on where and what you study, but are capped by the government. The government sets the minimum and maximum range for each fee band, which, for 2022, is AU$0-3,985 for Band 1; AU$0-8,021 for Band 2; AU$0-10,754 for Band 3; and AU$0-14,640 for Band 4.

You will need to work out your total tuition fees by identifying which subjects or units are covered by each band, and how many credits (expressed as a fraction, e.g. $12/96 = 0.125$ EFTSL) you get for each unit. Multiply this EFTSL figure (0.125) by the band fee charge to get the total cost per unit. Or, alternatively, you can just use an online calculator. Most institutions provide one on their website.

Tuition fees for domestic graduate students are worked out in a similar way. Some institutions publish estimates of the yearly fee for graduate students. For example the University of Melbourne lists prices for 2023 ranging from AU$20,800 per year for the Master of Psychiatry online course, up to AU$77,344 for a Doctor of Veterinary Medicine. Some graduate programs also offer Commonwealth-assisted places, so check with the institution.

Unlike international students, domestic students are eligible for the Higher Education Loan Program (HELP). There are four types of government loans available to Australian citizens and permanent humanitarian visa holders. HECS-HELP is a scheme which helps Commonwealth supported students to pay their student contribution amount; FEE-HELP covers tuition fees for fee-paying students; SA-HELP pays the student services and amenities fee and VET Student Loans pay for vocational education and training fees.

Australian scholarships and fellowships

The Australia Awards are international scholarships and fellowships funded by the Australian government, available to Australian nationals and citizens from other eligible countries, a list which covers the Americas, the Caribbean, Europe, the Middle East, the Pacific area and Asia.

If you're a graduate student from the UK, you can apply for the Northcote Graduate Scholarship from the Britain-Australia Society. This funds for your travel there and back, tuition fees and charges, and also provides an allowance for three years while you study.

For all undergraduate and postgraduate students, check with the Australian universities you are interested in, as many offer scholarships open to both domestic and international students at both levels. For more funding opportunities, visit our list of scholarships to study in Australia.

Cost of living in Australia

As mentioned, the Australian government's Department of Home Affairs says you must prove you have AU$21,041 (~US$14,400) for living costs per year. If you're bringing a partner you'll need to add AU$7,362 (~US$5,035) to this figure, and if you have children, you'll need to show you have an additional AU$3,152 (~US$2,156) for each child.

As well as proof of these funds, you will also need to show you have a return air fare for yourself and every family member you take with you, as well as enough money to cover the school fees of any children you have between age 5 and 18.

Although the above outlines the amount required by Australia's immigration standards, you may not need to spend that much once you arrive. The official Study Australia guidelines recommend budgeting between AU$90 (~US$62) and AU$440 (~US$301) per week for accommodation, depending on whether you stay in shared accommodation on campus (the cheapest), or in private rented accommodation (the most expensive).

Other weekly expenses include:

- Groceries and eating out - $140 to $280 per week (~US$62-301)
- Gas, electricity - $10 to $20 (~US$7-14)
- Phone and Internet - $15 to $30 (~US$10-21)
- Public transport - $30 to $60 (~US$21-41)
- Car (after purchase) - $150 to $260 (~US$103-178)
- Entertainment - $80 to $150 (~US$55-103)

To simplify, this works out to a minimum of around AU$425 (~US$290) per week.

Most Australian universities provide detailed breakdowns of the cost of living in Australia on their websites, including student accommodation and sometimes even local area prices and advice. Remember the costs listed by the university will usually be for an academic year (about 40 weeks), rather than a calendar year, so you will need to budget extra if you want to stay longer.

Student visa costs for Australia

The fee for the Student Visa (Subclass 500) currently stands at AU$650 (~US$445). As a visa requirement, you will need to organise Overseas Student Health Cover (OSHC) for yourself and any accompanying family members, which needs to be valid for the duration of your stay. You don't have to use the provider your university recommends, but, whichever you choose, ensure it is government-approved.

OSHC Australia provides a search function which can be used to compare quotes for medical insurance from authorised providers. We found the cheapest option for a standard undergraduate student (duration three years, starting in March and finishing in December) with no accompanying family to be AU$2,101.56 (~US$1,437).

Mad Albo inundates jobs market with “worthless Indian degrees”

Friday, 21 April 2023

Recall that Australian Prime Minister Anthony Albanese visited India last month (8 – 11 March 2023) to sign a mutual recognition agreement with counterpart Narendra Modi to expand work rights and immigration for Indians to Australia.

The accompanying joint statement said that Australia would “facilitate the efficient and timely processing of student visa applications for Indian nationals who are offered admission by Australian universities and other vocational training institutes”.

The mutual recognition agreement “will promote and support the mobility of students, graduates, academic researchers, business people and other professionals now and into the future”.

Anthony Albanese said he would expand Australia’s visa processing capability “to enhance the immigration relationship”.

And most important of all, under the Mechanism for Mutual Recognition of Qualifications, “Indian qualifications will be recognised in Australia”.

This agreement, which was clearly drafted by India, requires Australia to recognise all Indian:

- Senior secondary education qualifications awarded by a relevant board or council of senior secondary education or awarded by any other authority empowered by the Government of India.
- Technical and vocational education and training qualifications awarded by institutions approved by the All-India Council for Technical Education (AICTE) and/ or National Council for Vocational Education and Training (NCVET) and/or its equivalent body and State Councils for Vocational Training (SCVT).
- Higher education qualifications awarded by institutions authorised by the University Grants Commission (UGC), the All-India Council for Technical Education (AICTE), the National Council for Teacher Education (NCTE), as well as other equivalent bodies.

Australia is, therefore, required to recognise Indian vocational and university graduates to be “holding the comparable AQF qualification for the purposes of admission to higher education”.

“The Government of Australia will [also] deem graduates with the qualifications listed in paragraph 12 [directly above] to be holding comparable Australian qualifications for the purposes of general employment, where such qualifications are required”.

In summary, graduates from Indian tertiary institutions will now be allowed to work in Australia on the same terms as local graduates.

I raised the alarm at this prospect, noting that India’s tertiary education system is far inferior to Australia’s, with their best university ranked at a lowly 415th in the world (and the lowest at 1994th!).

India is renowned for churning out degree shovelware and fake qualifications whose holders will now be able to work in Australia under this mutual recognition agreement.

This week, Bloomberg published an alarming report on India's "worthless college degrees" that serves as a harbinger of what is in store for Australia under Anthony Albanese's mutual recognition agreement with India.

Bloomberg notes that "business is booming in India's US$117 billion education industry and new colleges are popping up at breakneck speed... inside small apartment buildings or inside shops in marketplaces. Highways are lined with billboards for institutions promising job placements".

There are now "thousands of small private colleges that don't have regular classes, employ teachers with little training, use outdated curriculums, and offer no practical experience or job placements".

"Half of all graduates in India are unemployable in the future due to problems in the education system", says Bloomberg.

"Many businesses say they struggle to hire because of the mixed quality of education. That's kept unemployment stubbornly high at more than 7%".

"Massive billboards with private colleges promising young people degrees and jobs are ubiquitous", the report reads.

Bloomberg cites the example of twenty-five-year-old Tanmay Mandal, who paid $4,000 for his bachelor's degree in civil engineering.

"Despite the cost, Mandal says he ended up learning almost nothing about construction from teachers who appeared to have insufficient training themselves. He couldn't answer technical questions at job interviews, and has been unemployed for the last three years".

"Many of my friends are also sitting idle without a job", said Mandal.

Bloomberg then cites a study by Anil Swarup, a former secretary for school education. In 2018, he estimated that of 16,000 colleges handing out bachelor's qualifications for teachers, a large number existed only in name.

"Calling such so-called degrees as being worthless would be by far an understatement", said Anil Sadgopal, former university dean and government advisor.

With this mutual recognition agreement, Anthony Albanese has green-lit a tsunami of fake 'skilled' migrant arrivals from India that will undercut Australian workers, suppress wage growth and exacerbate housing and infrastructure strains across Australia.

Young Australians will be shut out of rental accommodation and jobs by Indians that are prepared to work for much lower wages. Older Australians will also find themselves increasingly unemployable over 50.

It is another betrayal of Australian workers by a fake "Labor" Party that is every bit as corrupt and neoliberal as the Coalition, only with a woke coat of paint.

Why isn't Australia's union movement pushing back?

The PASCAS global humanitarian program is without borders or boundaries! A light house for all of humanity

There are 193 independent countries recognised by the United Nations, as well as two observer states (Palestine and Vatican City). When other nations and territories are included, there are 330 individual entities in the world.

For example, while the UN recognises the United Kingdom as one country, its individual nations of England, Wales, Scotland, and Northern Ireland appear on the list of 330 nations but not the United Kingdom. While the British Virgin Islands, Bermuda, Moldova's Transnistria, or Australia's Lord Howe Island, and so many others are hardly independent countries, they are sufficiently separate from their country of rule to count as one of the 330 nations.

Further, larger nations may break up into numerous smaller nations thus further increasing the number of independent nations. Conversely, boundaries and borders may come down.

LIGHT HOUSE

EDUCATION is the MASTER and OVERARCHING PROFESSION:

THIS is a time of GREAT REVELATION and CHANGE for HUMANITY:

What is unfolding now is the biggest event in the history of humanity. For those of us who open to our feelings, the disturbances around us will be acceptable as then we see the need for change, for those who remain mind-centric, life will be difficult.

This is the most exciting time in the history of humanity.

So, may we introduce a few aspects? These documents can be shared from www.pascashealth.com that are in the Library Download page, scroll through the index and click to open the PDF:

Pascas Care Letters Beliefs Suppress Truth.pdf

As we absorb beliefs that are in error and experience emotional injuries, this disrupts our flow of light to and from our bodies. The accumulation of these manifest as physical illness. The medical industry has 'identified' over 10,000 illnesses and claim to have found cures for 500 only. As we learn to live through our feelings and begin to express our feelings, both good and bad, all the time longing to know the truth of what our feelings are drawing our attention to, we begin to heal this energy imbalance.

To put this another way. Talk it out to a companion. A friend who listens is helping you heal a little. Express it all.

Pascas Care Letters Etheric Spirit Body.pdf

We are not just our physical body. In fact our physical body is the least of our existence.

You may also be surprised that we can now interact with anything that has life!

Our childhood suppression commences from the moment of conception which is about 16 days prior to our incarnation. This continues through to the age of 6 years. It is our parents imposition of their own injuries and erroneous beliefs that we need to express – talk it out to a friend – and this is the Great U-Turn that each of us will undertake, eventually.

It is now stepped up to encapsulate what we now further understand. This is an awareness program for children as they are to learn to appreciate their feelings. Adults can go on and engage in their personal Feeling Healing.

This Library is rather extensive. As questions may arise, then we can explore them also.

PASCAS FOUNDATION (AUST) Ltd

The New Way:
Learning how to live true to ourselves by living true to our feelings.
Longing for the truth of our feelings.

By living true to ourselves, true to our feelings, we are living true to God.
It's that simple.

Golden Rule:
Always honour another's will as one honours one's own will.
Never interfere with another's will.

Our Heavenly Mother and Father's Divine Love:
Pray and long for it, ask Them for it; and receive it into your soul.

Pascas supports these four simple guidelines.

At first glance it may appear simple and obvious, however the truth is very much the opposite. For 200,000 years humanity has been induced to live through its mind. We use our minds to suppress many of our feelings, and particularly our bad feelings. We do all we can to stop ourselves from feeling bad. Our minds are addicted to control; the control of ourselves, others and our environment. Further, our minds cannot discern truth from falsehood. Our minds are addicted to untruth.

We are to express our feelings, both good and bad, at all times; and to long for the truth of them. We are parented to deny and not express many feelings, all of which become repressed within us making us ill and causing all our problems. The woes of the world are due to our Childhood Repression.

The true Liberation of Women will come as women live true to their feelings, understanding that it's vital for them to express all they feel all the time, whilst sincerely wanting to know the truth and reasons why they are feeling such feelings. With women and men supporting each other in their feeling expression and longing for the truth of their feelings, and not striving to compete and have power over the other through yet more mind control.

We are to fully acknowledge, feel and be, our feelings, then express them as fully as we can, all whilst longing for the truth they are to show us. This is our Feeling-Healing, or Soul-Healing if including the Divine Love. We are to bring to light the truth of our pain, so we can fully connect with it in our adult lives, knowing why we have it and how it's all come about through our childhood.

The Pascas Foundation is to promote these Revelations. Pascas supports this New Way of living, introducing many of these new understandings. It is helping to offer this Feeling First way of living as an alternative to our mind ways. All of which will help liberate one's personality from the constriction and control of one's controlling beliefs and behaviour. It is how to live a True Spirituality, living true to our soul through our feelings.

This is the 'New Birth' of humanity. By living the truth of our feelings we are to become who we have truly meant to be – children of our Heavenly Mother and Father.

To liberate one's real self, one's will, being one's soul, is by embracing Feeling Healing so as to clear emotional injuries and errors. With the Divine Love, then one is also Soul Healing. We are to feel our feelings, identify what they are, accept and fully acknowledge that we're feeling them, express them fully, all whilst longing for the truth they are to show us.

FEELING HEALING and SOUL HEALING with the DIVINE LOVE:James Moncrief Publications:*all publications are free downloads:<http://divinelovesp.weebly.com/my-free-books-and-free-padgett-messages.html>

It is suggested for one to consider reading as follows:

Speaking with Mary Magdalene and Jesus – books 1 – 4

These four books encapsulate the second of the revelations with the first having been introduced by James Padgett one hundred years previously. These four books provide a wide range of guidance that has never previously been made available.

Soul Light – books 1 and 2

A Melchizedek, Zelmar, sums up how we are to heal ourselves and ascend to Paradise.

Paul – City of Light

As a gentle intro into the Divine Love and Healing; being James Moncrief's first novel.

Ann and Terry

An example for people who might want to immediately start working on themselves and doing their Healing.

Feeling Bad? Bad Feelings are GOOD

For more understanding about our denial of our feelings and why we should not deny our feelings, and it includes how it all came about for James, using himself as an example.

Feeling bad will make you feel BETTER – Eventually!

This includes specific examples of Marion and James working on expressing particular bad feelings, again with the hope that it will help others gain something of an idea as to what's involved in doing your Feeling Healing.

Sage – and the Healing Angels of Light

Through Sage who's 13 years old, the story is primarily about the two aspects of healing; that being, with the help of our angels, and the full Healing we can do by looking to our feelings for their truth.

Religion of Feelings
