A handful of the richest families in Europe including the owners of Chanel and Peugeot are putting up almost US$4 billion to take the Rothschild & Co. bank private

Note: This is small change compared to what J Rothschild is doing. Two separate sides of the family.

Three of France's wealthiest dynasties including the owners of luxury giant Chanel are investing in Rothschild & Co. to help take the eponymous French bank private.

The Dassault, Peugeot and Wertheimer families, along with Giammaria Giuliani of Italy will back the offer by the Rothschilds' holding company Concordia of €48.0 per share, reflecting a valuation of about €3.7 billion for the historic firm, according to a statement Monday. They will also be joined by the Maurel family, who were shareholders in the bank stemming from its previous merger with their finance company, and other members of the Rothschild clan.

The bank, predecessors of which helped finance the Duke of Wellington's victory over Napoleon in 1815 at the battle of Waterloo, announced the outlines of the deal earlier this month. The families investing in Rothschild & Co. to take it private are among the most storied names in French capitalism, with the Dassaults' fortune rooted in defense and aviation, the Peugeots in automaking and the Wertheimers in a luxury brand best known for tweed suits and Number 5 perfume.

"They share the same convictions toward development of a company like ours," Francois Perol, a managing partner, said on a call with reporters. "These families all have relationships built on trust with the Rothschild family for different reasons."

Concordia has argued that the bank's businesses no longer need access to capital from public equity markets, and the step marks a further effort by the Rothschilds to cement control over the Paris-based firm. The "like-minded" investors backing the deal will be locked in for eight years, according to the statement.

Rothschild & Co. generates the majority of its revenue from providing financial advisory, though it also has a wealth and asset management unit as well as merchant banking business. Led by seventh-generation scion Alexandre de Rothschild since 2018, the bank has been expanding in the US and managed to sidestep much of the slump in the market for deal advisory, ranking 6th by the number of mergers and acquisitions last year.

Along with the confirmation of the offer details, the bank published full year net income that beat analyst estimates. Going forward, Perol said the bank would continue to focus on the often-slower method of organic growth rather than externally.

Concordia said the price per share reflects a premium of 19% over the closing price on Feb. 3. Concordia already owns 38.9% of the firm's shares and 47.5% of the voting rights. Rothschild's shares have been trading at close to €47 since the plan was announced.

Following the de-listing, which could come at the end of August, Concordia would hold about 55% of the bank's capital, the long-term investors with about 35% and the bank's partners would have about 10%, according to Perol.

The Dassault family has investments through its Groupe Industriel Marcel Dassault, which has holdings in fighter-jet maker Dassault Aviation and software design company Dassault Systemes as well as the Figaro newspaper, Artcurial auction house and wine estates. They already had a stake of about 2% in Rothschild & Co. through GIMD.

The Peugeot family traces its industrial roots to 1810 and first auto to 1889. The clan's holding company, Etablissement Peugeot Freres has a listed arm, Peugeot Invest SA, that has stakes in carmaker Stellantis NV, kitchenware producer SEB SA and scandal-hit elderly care home provider Orpea SA. Peugeot Invest said it could acquire as much as 5.1% of Rothschild & Co. and take a seat on the supervisory board, according to a statement.

The billionaire Wertheimer siblings Alain and Gerard behind Chanel, the closely held maker of high-end silk scarves and handbags, have a family office called Mousse Partners run by their half brother Charles Heilbronn. The firm invests the proceeds from London-based Chanel Ltd., whose Cayman Islands holding company is called Mousse Investments Ltd.

Giammaria Giuliani's fortune is rooted in the invention by his great-grandfather of a herb-based remedy to help digestion about 130 years ago in his native Italy.

Family Branches

The going-private move comes three months after Evelyn de Rothschild, the former head of the British arm of the banking group, died at age of 91. The centre of power at the lender moved further to Paris under the leadership of his cousin David de Rothschild and now his son, Alexandre.

Among the investors backing the bank is a member of the UK Rothschild family's branch, Hannah Rothschild. She is one of the children of Jacob Rothschild, who broke with the family to pursue his own interests.

David de Rothschild's side of the family has 39.42% of Concordia's voting rights, while his cousin Eric de Rothschild's has 55.6%, according to Rothschild's latest annual report. The so-called enlarged family concert of investors that includes Concordia also has Edouard de Rothschild, who is also listed as an investor in the take-private move. Concordia said on Feb. 6 it was in advanced negotiations with investors and banks to finalize the financing of the deal. If the talks are successful, it intends to file its offer by the middle of this year.

Rothschild & Co. said it plans to offer a €1.4 dividend to shareholders at its next annual general meeting on May 25. The firm will also propose a €8 exceptional dividend, should Concordia decide to file its offer. The price of the offer would be adjusted downwards by those amounts.

The Rothschild firm was founded by Mayer Amschel, who started out buying and selling old coins in a Frankfurt ghetto. In the early 1800s, he sent his five sons to establish bases of Rothschild in London, Paris, Naples, Vienna and Frankfurt.

Wealth manager Edmond de Rothschild (Suisse) SA is separate from the Paris-based bank and is managed by a different branch of the family.

LIGHT HOUSE

Mother and Father are the Beacon, the 'Light House' in my soul, showing me the way, guiding me through all of the darkness of my feelings. We may spend most of our time feeling so lost until we long for Their Light of Truth and Love, and at times, we might forget that we can't do this alone, only by longing to Them can we see the Light They shine through the truth of our feelings. Mother and Father are the Light House when we are lost in the fog of our healing.

A wonderful passage from The Urantia Book (TUB) when Jesus journeyed the Mediterranean with Gonod and his son Ganid:

130:3.2 (1432.2) The three enjoyed a most pleasant passage to Alexandria. Ganid was delighted with the voyage and kept Jesus busy answering questions. As they approached the city's harbour, the young man was thrilled by the great lighthouse of Pharos, located on the island which Alexander had joined by a mole to the mainland, thus creating two magnificent harbours and thereby making Alexandria the maritime commercial crossroads of Africa, Asia, and Europe. This great lighthouse was one of the seven wonders of the world and was the forerunner of all subsequent lighthouses. They arose early in the morning to view this splendid lifesaving device of man, and amidst the exclamations of Ganid Jesus said: "And you, my son, will be like this lighthouse when you return to India, even after your father is laid to rest; you will become like the light of life to those who sit about you in darkness, showing all who so desire the way to reach the harbour of salvation in safety." And as Ganid squeezed Jesus' hand, he said, "I will."

PASCAS will be the forerunner of all subsequent Spiritual Lighthouses. Samantha 4 March 2023

LIGHT OF TRUTH

Light of Truth of PASCAS

Throughout the evolution of Pascas, Pascas has been gently guided and supported by its Council of Elders from within the Celestial Heavens. All documentation, all concepts, all who have interacted with the forming of Pascas WorldCare and the various arms, have been in response to the guidance from our Celestial Council of Elders – from within the 3rd Celestial Heaven. Throughout the coming millennium, our Celestial friends will be guiding and assisting Pascas WorldCare.

COUNCIL of ELDERS

Council of Elders now around 13 soul-groups from the 3rd Celestial Heaven

Communications between the Celestial Council of Elders and those within the physical administration of Pascas WorldCare will be via those who complete their Feeling Healing on Earth, as years go by.

Avonal PAIR Oversight

The administration of Pascas may be also supported in their interconnectivity with our Celestial guidance, through those within Pascas and its administration who are sensitive in their nature and are able to perceive guidance from our Celestial companions on this journey of delivering the Great U-Turn. It is through the nature of sensitivity that Celestial Spirits have interacted with Pascas during decades of formative years and the establishment of the foundations for Pascas for the next 1,000 years.

LIGHT OF TRUTH

Pascas as an entity, due to the contributions from our Celestial friends, is functioning within the 5th Divine Love spirit Mansion World's level. Further, the Pascas Papers that are designated as references for Feeling Healing and Divine Love are within the level of Truth of the highest of the Celestial Heavens. Pascas will be supported in this manner for the coming millennium.

The PASCAS global humanitarian program is without borders or boundaries!

There are 193 independent countries recognised by the United Nations, as well as two observer states (Palestine and Vatican City). When other nations and territories are included, there are 330 individual entities in the world.

For example, while the UN recognises the United Kingdom as one country, its individual nations of England, Wales, Scotland, and Northern Ireland appear on the list of 330 nations but not the United Kingdom. While the British Virgin Islands, or Bermuda, or Moldova's Transnistria, or Australia's Lord Howe Island, or so many others are hardly independent countries, they are sufficiently separate from their country of rule to count as one of the 330 nations.

Further, larger nations may break up into numerous smaller nations thus further increasing the number of independent nations. Conversely, boundaries may come down.

Pascas Foundation

Wednesday, 29 March 2023

There are two pathways for the funding of Pascas Foundation to arrive, one is via Solid Investment and the other is totally independent of SI, yet both financial funding mechanisms are based on the Bretton Woods Conference initiatives of 1944. It is the alternative pathway that will enable Pascas Foundation to commence its global agenda.

What needs to be clearly understood is that nothing is going to remain the same. Pascas Foundation is NOT about doing what has been the normal of the past. Whatever we have been engaging with to address social issues and support in the past is not what Pascas Foundation is to embrace.

Pascas Foundation has been provided with an 'overdose of insight' and consequently traditions and institutionalised ways of doing things have been shown to be retarding humanity, stifling them and not resolving any social ills, this being demonstrated by the repetitive nature of the same old approach failing time and time again.

Consequently the Library Download page of www.pascashealth.com has become an extensive resource on The New Way that is to be introduced worldwide and with it are the resources to support those who desire or aspire to live embracing the revelations shared throughout the Pascas Papers. That is the reason for the extensive funding support from more than one pathway.

An overview document is now attached that is required to be digested before funding assistance as stated above, the old ways are not resolving issues and Pascas is specifically supporting new.

THE PRINCESS OF WALES LAUNCHES BUSINESS TASKFORCE FOR EARLY CHILDHOOD

<https://royalfoundation.com/the-princess-of-wales-launches-business-taskforce-for-early-childhood/>

21 March 2023

Her Royal Highness The Princess of Wales today, Tuesday 21st March 2023, launched her new Business Taskforce for Early Childhood.

Run by business, for business, the Business Taskforce will play an essential role in The Princess of Wales' work to transform the way in which society prioritises and supports children and the ecosystems around them in their earliest years.

Early childhood is vital to the health of our economy and society, now and for generations to come. Given the key role of the business community in both the growth of our economy and in shaping our society, as well as the clear interest in developing a strong future workforce, this is an opportunity to come together to affect long-term change.

"Businesses play a key role within society and with their huge reach to their employees, consumer and the wider community, their involvement can have a transformative impact on the health and happiness of generations to come."

-AMANDA BERRY, CHIEF EXECUTIVE OF THE ROYAL FOUNDATION OF THE PRINCE AND PRINCESS OF WALES

Amanda Sonia Berry, OBE is the chief executive officer of the Royal Foundation. She also served as CEO of the British Academy of Film and Television Arts between December 2000 and October 2022.

Investing in early childhood is a down payment on all our futures

Catherine, Princess of Wales

25 March 2023

The writer is the Princess of Wales

This year, I launched a major new campaign, Shaping Us, to increase understanding of the critical importance of early childhood and its impact in shaping the rest of our lives.

We must now harness the interest and enthusiasm around this to drive real action.

Earlier this week, I created a Business Taskforce for Early Childhood to discuss how we can work together to change the way we all view and prioritise early childhood.

This is not only for the benefit of society today, but for all of us in the years to come.

The taskforce creates a bridge between the scientific community — whose evidence so unequivocally makes the case for prioritising early childhood — and the business community.

Businesses should play a significant role in changing attitudes, both within their own organisations and across their wider network of suppliers, customers and communities.

The science shows that from pregnancy to age five, our brains develop faster than at any other age.

The way we develop, through our experiences, relationships and surroundings at that very young age, lays the scaffolding as we grow into adulthood.

And it is specifically our social and emotional development during that time — learning how we express and manage our emotions and respond to the needs of others — that underpins the attributes which are key to success in the workplace.

Our resilience, flexibility, ability to manage stress and remain motivated when facing challenges, are all shaped by the foundations we build in early childhood.

However, not enough emphasis is placed on social and emotional development or on building environments which nurture these skills, during childhood and beyond.

Parental wellbeing is the biggest single factor in determining a child's wellbeing, and we know that becoming a parent places additional pressure on mental health.

Nearly 75 per cent of people find parenting under-fives stressful.

We also know that parents make up a significant part of the UK workforce — 76 per cent of mothers and 92 per cent of fathers with children are in work.

We must recognise the challenge for many of these parents, and other caregivers, in balancing a successful working life with a nurturing home life during their children's formative years.

Employers have an important role in making that possible.

Of course, there are many others within the workforce who play an important role in the lives of children — grandparents, friends, community volunteers.

As the saying goes, “it takes a village”.

I believe that we need to do two things.

The first is to prioritise creating working environments that provide the support people need to cultivate and maintain their own social and emotional wellbeing.

The second is a more concentrated focus on the social and emotional development of our youngest children.

The environmental, social and governance framework — or ESG — is now readily recognised and supported by business.

Considerable progress has been made within a relatively short few years on the environment and governance parts of that framework, but the “social” aspect is not discussed as overtly or measured and reported in the same way.

So, over the coming months, the taskforce will look at the opportunity to put the early years at the heart of delivering the “social” element.

While great work is being done by individual businesses, by being more co-ordinated across business and commerce, our impact could be far reaching. As the world becomes ever more complex, we have to invest in early childhood now, as a down payment for our collective future.

If business and commerce embrace this significant issue — including how better early childhoods will affect their own organisations both now and in the long term — we can and will transform lives for generations to come.

Jeez!!! the two words just don't go together do they "Business and Childhood". I have been reading about it as I didn't know anything about this. I can't find any real details about what this all means, it's all a bit sketchy with only the two points she wants to focus on:

The second point should be the first focus as we know, but to be honest, I can't see anything being done about any of this. It will probably just get shelved and no more said about it. As I read more about it, it is all so directed at business and let's try to keep the slaves happy as it is critical for future growth and success of the UK economy, its all about money and economical growth, not the child. These large businesses will always only be putting the economy first and the emotional wellbeing of their employees very far down the list of priorities, I think Catherine is in a dream world if she really believes anything will be done about this. It feels to me that this is all about the UK's future economy, not the child's welfare, support and development.

I would love to hear what the supporting companies intend to do to make there working environments supportive to their employees social and emotional wellbeing. All nice ideas but I can't help but feel it is just something for Catherine to be seen doing. The Palace has said "It will be run by business's, for business". Well, what do they care about children and their emotional wellbeing, I can't see it!! But I am still so unsure about what it is they are getting at, what are their intentions, are they going to help fund nursery and pre-school costs to the parents, so many nurseries and pre-schools have shut down! are they going to help with the cost of living crisis that families are working two jobs to try to survive? To me it just looks like these companies involved are using this as a good PR stunt and what a great connection to have, The Princess of Wales!!

My question is; How will a real child benefit from this?

They want to develop a stronger future workforce and to me, it sounds like that is all they are interested in, economical growth and for that they need plenty of conforming, programmed workers, is that what they call Early childhood support, to make them into good little workers, I just don't know John, it doesn't smell good to me!! Grooming comes to mind, grooming our children and brainwashing them into business and to be a part of the future workforce, no different really to how it has always been.

I feel like they are using Catherine's good nature, and "Ah, isn't she lovely, she wants to help our kids and us parents" as a front for there evilness and we just keep on pumping more slaves out so the rich can get richer.

If Catherine is serious about this and really wants to help change things for our Children then the only way is to take the PASCAS website seriously, all the information anyone will ever need is there. There is only one place for change and that is PASCAS, otherwise it cannot be done and I am 100% about that. FEELING HEALING with God's Divine Love is the only way, it is the only true support for emotional wellbeing, the social and emotional development of our youngest children can only be given by taking our children's feelings very, very seriously, so seriously because if even one of those little feelings gets denied and suppressed, then there is trouble for this child, no matter how young it is. The pain that grows from that tiny unimportant feeling that got laughed at or told that it is being silly, the pain is growing all the time until it becomes unbearable at some time in that child's life. This denial and suppression has caused the unhealthy workforce, we are all sick because of how we were parented and the denial and suppression of our feelings and unless that changes, then nothing will change.

Social and emotional development only comes through PASCAS and FEELING HEALING and God's Divine Love, not through business and I would be very surprised if the Princess and these Business's would be interested in any of it, especially bringing God into it. But, it is worth a try, even to introduce them to PASCAS and FEELING HEALING with God's Divine Love, they might take a look, who knows!!

Business Taskforce for Early Childhood Shaping Us

We consider that your announced “Business Taskforce for Early Childhood” initiative to be the most important quest on behalf of all of humanity ever actioned. “Shaping Us” in our early formative years commencing from conception through to the age of six years IS us. From there we see all that now ails society throughout every community and within every nation worldwide.

Pascas Foundation has a global agenda in this regard, in fact it is the centre of our endeavours.

Kindly consider www.pascashealth.com and in particular the Library Download page. What is freely available are the Pascas Papers, being shared in support of this purpose centred on early childhood.

The social and emotional development of our youngest children can only be given by taking our children's feelings very, very seriously, so seriously because if even one of those little feelings gets denied and suppressed, then there is trouble for this child, no matter how young it is. The pain that grows from that tiny unimportant feeling that got laughed at or told that it is being silly, this pain is growing all the time until it becomes unbearable at some time in that child's life. This denial and suppression has caused the unhealthy workforce. We are all sick because of how we were parented and the denial and suppression of our feelings and unless that changes, then nothing will change.

While we teach our children to live mind-centric and suppress their feelings, all of society is constrained. It is now time to live feelings first and have our minds to follow in support, it is that simple. We were misguided and now we have been shown the way out. This is what we are to share throughout the world. That is what the Pascas Papers provide.

I am available on Skype as johndoel or phone +61 7 5594 0479 Em: jedoel@financefacilities.com

Is Anastasia of the Ringing Cedars series as written by Vladimir Megre a Midwayer?

Kinesiology muscle testing supports that she is!

The Urantia Book

The Parts of the Book

PART IV.

The Life and Teachings of Jesus

This group of papers was sponsored by a commission of twelve Urantia midwayers acting under the supervision of a Melchizedek revelatory director.

The basis of this narrative was supplied by a secondary midwayer who was onetime assigned to the superhuman watchcare of the Apostle Andrew.

(8.1) 0:5.1 Personality is a level of deified reality and ranges from the mortal and midwayer level of the higher mind activation of worship and wisdom up through the morontial and spiritual to the attainment of finality of personality status. That is the evolutionary ascent of mortal- and kindred-creature personality, but there are numerous other orders of universe personalities.

(211.1) 18:4.5 Most of the Celestial Guardians and the High Son Assistants are assigned to the service of the major and the minor sectors, but the Trinitized Custodians (Trinity-embraced seraphim and midwayers) are the officers of the courts of all three divisions, functioning in the tribunals of the Ancients of Days, the Perfections of Days, and the Recents of Days. The Trinitized Ambassadors (Trinity-embraced ascendant mortals of Son- or Spirit-fused nature) may be encountered anywhere in a superuniverse, but the majority are in the service of the minor sectors.

(279.3) 25:4.2 The Technical Advisers are recruited from the ranks of the following personality orders:

(279.4) 25:4.3 1. The Supernaphim.

(279.5) 25:4.4 2. The Seconaphim.

(279.6) 25:4.5 3. The Tertiaphim.

(279.7) 25:4.6 4. The Omniaphim.

(279.8) 25:4.7 5. The Seraphim.

(279.9) 25:4.8 6. Certain Types of Ascending Mortals.

(279.10) 25:4.9 7. Certain Types of Ascending Midwayers.

(279.11) 25:4.10 At the present time, not counting the mortals and midwayers who are all of transient attachment, the number of Technical Advisers registered on Uversa and operating in Orvonton is slightly in excess of sixty-one trillion.

(279.13) 25:4.12 Those mortals and midwayers who serve transiently with the advisers are chosen for such work because of their expertness in the concept of universal law and supreme justice. As you journey toward your Paradise goal, constantly acquiring added knowledge and enhanced skill, you are continuously afforded the opportunity to give out to others the wisdom and experience you have already accumulated; all the way in to Havona you enact the role of a pupil-teacher. You will work your way through the ascending levels of this vast experiential university by imparting to those just below you the new-found knowledge of your advancing career. In the universal regime you are not reckoned as having possessed yourself of knowledge and truth until you have demonstrated your ability and your willingness to impart this knowledge and truth to others.

6. Glorified Midway Creatures

(349.4) 31:6.1 On many planets the midway creatures are produced in large numbers, but they seldom tarry on their native world subsequent to its being settled in light and life. Then, or soon thereafter, they are released from permanent-citizenship status and start on the ascension to Paradise, passing through the morontia worlds, the superuniverse, and Havona in company with the mortals of time and space.

(349.5) 31:6.2 The midway creatures from various universes differ greatly in origin and nature, but they are all destined to one or another of the Paradise finality corps. The secondary midwayers are all eventually Adjuster fused and are mustered into the mortal corps. Many finaliter companies have one of these glorified beings in their group.

(415.3) 37:9.11 The Midway Creatures. In the early days of most inhabited worlds, certain superhuman but materialized beings are of assignment, but they usually retire upon the arrival of the Planetary Adams. The transactions of such beings and the efforts of the Material Sons to improve the evolutionary races often result in the appearance of a limited number of creatures who are difficult to classify. These unique beings are often midway between the Material Sons and the evolutionary creatures; hence their designation, midway creatures. In a comparative sense these midwayers are the permanent citizens of the evolutionary worlds. From the early days of the arrival of a Planetary Prince to the far-distant time of the settling of the planet in light and life, they are the only group of intelligent beings to remain continuously on the sphere. On Urantia the midway ministers are in reality the actual custodians of the planet; they are, practically speaking, the citizens of Urantia. Mortals are indeed the physical and material inhabitants of an evolutionary world, but you are all so short-lived; you tarry on your nativity planet such a short time. You are born, live, die, and pass on to other worlds of evolutionary progression. Even the superhuman beings who serve on the planets as celestial ministers are of transient assignment; few of them are long attached to a given sphere. The midway creatures, however, provide continuity of planetary administration in the face of ever-changing celestial ministries and constantly shifting mortal inhabitants. Throughout all of this never-ceasing changing and shifting, the midway creatures remain on the planet uninterruptedly carrying on their work.

(415.4) 37:9.12 In like manner, all divisions of the administrative organization of the local universes and superuniverses have their more or less permanent populations, inhabitants of citizenship status. As Urantia has its midwayers, Jerusem, your system capital, has the Material Sons and Daughters; Edentia, your constellation headquarters, has the univitatia, while the citizens of Salvington are twofold, the created susatia and the evolved Spirit-fused mortals. The administrative worlds of the minor and major sectors of the superuniverses do not have permanent citizens. But the Uversa headquarters spheres are continuously fostered by an amazing group of beings known as the abandoners, the creation of the unrevealed agents of the Ancients of Days and the seven Reflective Spirits resident on the capital of Orvonton. These residential citizens on Uversa are at present administering the routine affairs of their world under the immediate supervision of the Uversa corps of the Son-fused mortals. Even Havona has its native beings, and the central Isle of Light and Life is the home of the various groups of Paradise Citizens.

(416.5) 37:10.5 Always there is attached to the universe service a corps of ascending mortals, including the glorified midway creatures. These ascenders, after attaining Salvington, are used in an almost endless variety of activities in the conduct of universe affairs. From each level of achievement these advancing mortals reach back and down to extend a helping hand to their fellows who follow them in the upward climb. Such mortals of temporary sojourn on Salvington are assigned on requisition to practically all corps of celestial personalities as helpers, students, observers, and teachers.

9. The Midway Creatures

(424.1) 38:9.1 The midway creatures have a threefold classification: They are properly classified with the ascending Sons of God; they are factually grouped with the orders of permanent citizenship, while they are functionally reckoned with the ministering spirits of time because of their intimate and effective association with the angelic hosts in the work of serving mortal man on the individual worlds of space.

(424.2) 38:9.2 These unique creatures appear on the majority of the inhabited worlds and are always found on the decimal or life-experiment planets, such as Urantia. Midwayers are of two types — primary and secondary — and they appear by the following techniques:

(424.3) 38:9.3 1. Primary Midwayers, the more spiritual group, are a somewhat standardized order of beings who are uniformly derived from the modified ascendant-mortal staffs of the Planetary Princes. The number of primary midway creatures is always fifty thousand, and no planet enjoying their ministry has a larger group.

(424.4) 38:9.4 2. Secondary Midwayers, the more material group of these creatures, vary greatly in numbers on the different worlds, though the average is around fifty thousand. They are variously derived from the planetary biologic uplifters, the Adams and Eves, or from their immediate progeny. There are no less than twenty-four diverse techniques involved in the production of these secondary midway creatures on the evolutionary worlds of space. The mode of origin for this group on Urantia was unusual and extraordinary.

(424.5) 38:9.5 Neither of these groups is an evolutionary accident; both are essential features in the predetermined plans of the universe architects, and their appearance on the evolving worlds at the opportune juncture is in accordance with the original designs and developmental plans of the supervising Life Carriers.

(424.6) 38:9.6 Primary midwayers are energized intellectually and spiritually by the angelic technique and are uniform in intellectual status. The seven adjutant mind-spirits make no contact with them; and only the sixth and the seventh, the spirit of worship and the spirit of wisdom, are able to minister to the secondary group.

(424.7) 38:9.7 Secondary midwayers are physically energized by the Adamic technique, spiritually encircuited by the seraphic, and intellectually endowed with the morontia transition type of mind. They are divided into four physical types, seven orders spiritually, and twelve levels of intellectual response to the joint ministry of the last two adjutant spirits and the morontia mind. These diversities determine their differential of activity and of planetary assignment.

(424.8) 38:9.8 Primary midwayers resemble angels more than mortals; the secondary orders are much more like human beings. Each renders invaluable assistance to the other in the execution of their manifold planetary assignments. The primary ministers can achieve liaison co-operation with both morontia- and spirit-energy controllers and mind circuiters. The secondary group can establish working connections only with the physical controllers and the material-circuit manipulators. But since each order of midwayer can establish perfect synchrony of contact with the other, either group is thereby able to achieve practical utilization of the entire energy gamut extending from the gross physical power of the material worlds up through the transition phases of universe energies to the higher spirit-reality forces of the celestial realms.

(425.1) 38:9.9 The gap between the material and spiritual worlds is perfectly bridged by the serial association of mortal man, secondary midwayer, primary midwayer, morontia cherubim, mid-phase cherubim, and seraphim. In the personal experience of an individual mortal these diverse levels are undoubtedly more or less unified and made personally meaningful by the unobserved and mysterious operations of the divine Thought Adjuster.

(425.2) 38:9.10 On normal worlds the primary midwayers maintain their service as the intelligence corps and as celestial entertainers in behalf of the Planetary Prince, while the secondary ministers continue their co-operation with the Adamic regime of furthering the cause of progressive planetary civilization. In case of the defection of the Planetary Prince and the failure of the Material Son, as occurred on Urantia, the midway creatures become the wards of the System Sovereign and serve under the directing guidance of the acting custodian of the planet. But on only three other worlds in Satania do these beings function as one group under unified leadership as do the united midway ministers of Urantia.

(425.3) 38:9.11 The planetary work of both primary and secondary midwayers is varied and diverse on the numerous individual worlds of a universe, but on the normal and average planets their activities are very different from the duties which occupy their time on isolated spheres, such as Urantia.

(425.4) 38:9.12 The primary midwayers are the planetary historians who, from the time of the arrival of the Planetary Prince to the age of settled light and life, formulate the pageants and design the portrayals of planetary history for the exhibits of the planets on the system headquarters worlds.

(425.5) 38:9.13 Midwayers remain for long periods on an inhabited world, but if faithful to their trust, they will eventually and most certainly be recognized for their agelong service in maintaining the sovereignty of the Creator Son; they will be duly rewarded for their patient ministry to the material mortals on their world of time and space. Sooner or later all accredited midway creatures will be mustered into the ranks of the ascending Sons of God and will be duly initiated into the long adventure of the Paradise ascent in company with those very mortals of animal origin, their earth brethren, whom they so jealously guarded and so effectively served during the long planetary sojourn.

(425.6) 38:9.14 [Presented by a Melchizedek acting by request of the Chief of the Seraphic Hosts of Nebadon.]

(481.1) 42:10.4 2. Adjutant-spirit minds. This is the ministry of a local universe Mother Spirit functioning through her seven adjutant mind-spirits on the teachable (nonmechanical) level of material mind. On this level material mind is experiencing: as subhuman (animal) intellect in the first five adjutants; as human (moral) intellect in the seven adjutants; as superhuman (midwayer) intellect in the last two adjutants.

(516.2) 45:6.4 No surviving mortal, midwayer, or seraphim may ascend to Paradise, attain the Father, and be mustered into the Corps of the Finality without having passed through that sublime experience of achieving parental relationship to an evolving child of the worlds or some other experience analogous and equivalent thereto. The relationship of child and parent is fundamental to the essential concept of the Universal Father and his universe children. Therefore does such an experience become indispensable to the experiential training of all ascenders.

(516.3) 45:6.5 The ascending midway creatures and the evolutionary seraphim must pass through this parenthood experience in association with the Material Sons and Daughters of the system headquarters. Thus do such nonreproducing ascenders obtain the experience of parenthood by assisting the Jerusem Adams and Eves in rearing and training their progeny.

(516.4) 45:6.6 All mortal survivors who have not experienced parenthood on the evolutionary worlds must also obtain this necessary training while sojourning in the homes of the Jerusem Material Sons and as parental associates of these superb fathers and mothers. This is true except in so far as such mortals have been able to compensate their deficiencies on the system nursery located on the first transitional-culture world of Jerusem.

(545.5) 48:3.4 There are two distinct types of Morontia Companions; one type is aggressive, the other retiring, but otherwise they are equal in status. They are not sex creatures, but they manifest a touchingly beautiful affection for one another. And while they are hardly companionate in the material (human) sense, they are very close of kin to the human races in the order of creature existence. The midway creatures of the worlds are your nearest of kin; then come the morontia cherubim, and after them the Morontia Companions.

(545.6) 48:3.5 These companions are touchingly affectionate and charmingly social beings. They possess distinct personalities, and when you meet them on the mansion worlds, after learning to recognize them as a class, you will soon discern their individuality. Mortals all resemble one another; at the same time each of you possesses a distinct and recognizable personality.

(574.7) 50:3.5 These assistants to the Planetary Prince seldom mate with the world races, but they do always mate among themselves. Two classes of beings result from these unions: the primary type of midway creatures and certain high types of material beings who remain attached to the prince's staff after their parents have been removed from the planet at the time of the arrival of Adam and Eve. These children do not mate with the mortal races except in certain emergencies and then only by direction of the Planetary Prince. In such an event, their children — the grandchildren of the corporeal staff — are in status as of the superior races of their day and generation. All the offspring of these semimaterial assistants of the Planetary Prince are Adjuster indwelt.

(575.1) 50:3.6 At the end of the prince's dispensation, when the time comes for this "reversion staff" to be returned to the system headquarters for the resumption of the Paradise career, these ascenders present themselves to the Life Carriers for the purpose of yielding up their material bodies. They enter the transition slumber and awaken delivered from their mortal investment and clothed with morontia forms, ready for seraphic transportation back to the system capital, where their detached Adjusters await them. They are a whole dispensation behind their Jerusem class, but they have gained a unique and extraordinary experience, a rare chapter in the career of an ascending mortal.

(583.5) 51:3.6 The secondary midway creatures are indigenous to the Adamic missions. As with the corporeal staff of the Planetary Prince, the descendants of the Material Sons and Daughters are of two orders: their physical children and the secondary order of midway creatures. These material but ordinarily invisible planetary ministers contribute much to the advancement of civilization and even to the subjection of insubordinate minorities who may seek to subvert social development and spiritual progress.

(583.6) 51:3.7 The secondary midwayers should not be confused with the primary order, who date from the near times of the arrival of the Planetary Prince. On Urantia a majority of these earlier midway creatures went into rebellion with Caligastia and have, since Pentecost, been interned. Many of the Adamic group who did not remain loyal to the planetary administration are likewise interned.

(584.1) 51:3.8 On the day of Pentecost the loyal primary and the secondary midwayers effected a voluntary union and have functioned as one unit in world affairs ever since. They serve under the leadership of loyal midwayers alternately chosen from the two groups.

(584.2) 51:3.9 Your world has been visited by four orders of sonship: Caligastia, the Planetary Prince; Adam and Eve of the Material Sons of God; Machiventa Melchizedek, the “sage of Salem” in the days of Abraham; and Christ Michael, who came as the Paradise bestowal Son. How much more effective and beautiful it would have been had Michael, the supreme ruler of the universe of Nebadon, been welcomed to your world by a loyal and efficient Planetary Prince and a devoted and successful Material Son, both of whom could have done so much to enhance the lifework and mission of the bestowal Son! But not all worlds have been so unfortunate as Urantia, neither has the mission of the Planetary Adams always been so difficult or so hazardous. When they are successful, they contribute to the development of a great people, continuing as the visible heads of planetary affairs even far into the age when such a world is settled in light and life.

The Midway Creatures

(855.1) 77:0.1 MOST of the inhabited worlds of Nebadon harbour one or more groups of unique beings existing on a life-functioning level about midway between those of the mortals of the realms and of the angelic orders; hence are they called midway creatures. They appear to be an accident of time, but they occur so widespreadly and are so valuable as helpers that we have all long since accepted them as one of the essential orders of our combined planetary ministry.

(855.2) 77:0.2 On Urantia there function two distinct orders of midwayers: the primary or senior corps, who came into being back in the days of Dalamatia, and the secondary or younger group, whose origin dates from the times of Adam.

1. The Primary Midwayers

(855.3) 77:1.1 The primary midwayers have their genesis in a unique interassociation of the material and the spiritual on Urantia. We know of the existence of similar creatures on other worlds and in other systems, but they originated by dissimilar techniques.

(855.4) 77:1.2 It is well always to bear in mind that the successive bestowals of the Sons of God on an evolving planet produce marked changes in the spiritual economy of the realm and sometimes so modify the workings of the interassociation of spiritual and material agencies on a planet as to create situations indeed difficult of understanding. The status of the one hundred corporeal members of Prince Caligastia’s staff illustrates just such a unique interassociation: As ascendant morontia citizens of Jerusalem they were supermaterial creatures without reproductive prerogatives. As descendant planetary ministers on Urantia they were material sex creatures capable of procreating material offspring (as some of them later did). What we cannot satisfactorily explain is how these one hundred could function in the parental role on a supermaterial level, but that is exactly what happened. A supermaterial (nonsexual) liaison of a male and a female member of the corporeal staff resulted in the appearance of the first-born of the primary midwayers.

(855.5) 77:1.3 It was immediately discovered that a creature of this order, midway between the mortal and angelic levels, would be of great service in carrying on the affairs of the Prince’s headquarters, and each couple of the corporeal staff was accordingly granted permission to produce a similar being. This effort resulted in the first group of fifty midway creatures.

(855.6) 77:1.4 After a year of observing the work of this unique group, the Planetary Prince authorized the reproduction of midwayers without restriction. This plan was carried out as long as the power to create continued, and the original corps of 50,000 was accordingly brought into being.

(856.1) 77:1.5 A period of one-half year intervened between the production of each midwayer, and when one thousand such beings had been born to each couple, no more were ever forthcoming. And there is no explanation available as to why this power was exhausted upon the appearance of the one thousandth offspring. No amount of further experimentation ever resulted in anything but failure.

(856.2) 77:1.6 These creatures constituted the intelligence corps of the Prince’s administration. They ranged far and wide, studying and observing the world races and rendering other invaluable services to the Prince and his staff in the work of influencing human society remote from the planetary headquarters.

(856.3) 77:1.7 This regime continued until the tragic days of the planetary rebellion, which ensnared a little over four fifths of the primary midwayers. The loyal corps entered the service of the Melchizedek receivers, functioning under the titular leadership of Van until the days of Adam.

Marjorie moving into the seventh Mansion World

Wednesday, 12 April 2023

James: Hello Nanna Beth, are you there, can you talk with me please?

Nanna Beth: I've been awaiting your call, John wanting to speak to me, Marie and Marge.

James: How are you, and how are things going for you 'up' there?

Nanna Beth, 3rd Celestial Heaven, John's grandmother: I am exceptionally well, and things are going exceptionally well, we're all working very hard dealing with all the changes that are taking place here in the first three Celestials and in all our Celestial lives. And we're all enjoying keeping up with all you are doing, sitting on your couch physically doing very little, however your soul activating a lot for the rest of us to do.

James: Well, I'll take your word for it. I would like to see some of that positive change in my own life-

Nanna Beth: It won't be long James.

James: Fingers crossed. So what about Marge (John's sister), how is she, and has she completed her Healing as John was hopeful about?

Nanna Beth: No, he took the feelings of his mother (Marie) and sister being with him a little further than they were conveying to him, Marge moving into the seventh Mansion World, she wanting to tell John that things are progressing very well, Marie coming with her, because she is always giving John a lot of unseen support. They are not at liberty to speak with you, because you stopped that, you only wanting to speak with myself and Isabella, I could override what you have asked, however you'd have to ask me to.

James: No, thank you for honouring what I asked of you so much.

Nanna Beth: It's what we are to do for you, and want we to do for you, and no hard feelings, as we understand your intentions of it, and we support you in them. So I'm sorry John, however that's the way of it. So all I can say is for you John to enjoy the good feelings from Marge and Marie, just on the feelings level, that they are conveying their love to you, and all the rest will take care of itself.

There is nothing else I am to tell you James, you know where you're at, and there's nothing I can add for you. It's important that you do it alone, as you understand. And that includes no longer speaking with other spirits, so John's request will have to be declined. You are to only continue being with Isabella, and that's more than enough for the time being, she helping you focus more on, yourself, on all you're doing with her, and all involved in her life.

So I will go, we will have more to do with each other in time, on the 'other side of your Healing', as there will be more I will need to ask you about as to how you want things. However, until that time, I'm still here if you desperately need to ask me something, however that will be determined by your feelings.

James: Alright, thank you for what you said. I'll pass it on to John.

Nanna Beth: You can trust your feelings James, we're able to support them more for you, the more truth you are growing in all the time. I will go now; I give my love to you John, and from Marie and Marge. Most of what I have said to you John over the years still holds, some things have changed, as there are now so many changes taking place, many of which are taking us by surprise as things get closer to The End. However the essence remains the true.

Bye James, love Beth.

James: Thanks Nanna Beth.

How and why has humanity been misled about life after death.

James Moncrief

Monday, 15 May 2023

The Evil Ones, the Evil Spirits that started and controlled the Rebellion and Default, needed humanity to remain ignorant of life after death so the connection between the Earth and the Mansion Worlds is broken, so little information is passed between them. So from the Mansion Worlds, the Evil Controllers can work with the spirits of the mind Mansion Worlds to control humanity on Earth, with humanity being none the wiser. So it's all for control that we're kept basically ignorant of life after death.

So, humanity being made to believe there is no life after death, means we can't reach out and connect with any of the spirits: the mind spirits and the spirits doing their Healing, let alone the higher healed Celestial spirits; to find out about the overarching control that's continually imposed on people on Earth without the majority of people's say so.

To keep humanity on Earth in the dark about life after death also means the Controllers prevent humanity from spiritually advancing. Forevermore, we on Earth remain ignorant of anything more, so we're kept spiritually in a state similar to that of a young child. We have to cling onto our religions that don't help at all, they instead doing what they can to keep their followers in the dark. All because the Rebellion is anti-Truth. So stopping people openly believing there is life after death, keeps us devoid of truth and in the clutches of the Controllers on Earth, we remaining devoid of the good help we could get from spirits and Angels. If we got that help, it would then threaten the control of the Controllers. We would see we don't need to look to them on Earth, because there are higher and wiser spirits we can ask for help.

Ideally we should all know that there is life after death, and compared to how badly we live on Earth in our denial of truth and love, a much better life awaits us. We should all live knowing our short physical lives are only the beginning of our wonderful adventure to attain Paradise. That, when we die it's not the end, yet a whole new beginning. That, should they wish, people can continue their loving relationships in the spirit worlds, and that many other opportunities exist that one might not have been able to enjoy on Earth, and that to live without the need for money and with no competitiveness and a desire to contribute willingly to the good of all, is something to look forward to. We are not meant to fear the end of our Earth life, we are to embrace it as a wonderful continuation or new beginning.

Sam's Out of body experience

Tuesday, 16 May 2023

I don't know how to put this but I will just say it, last night I died in my sleep!

I found myself met by a woman and two men who collected me from a state of utter confusion in the spirit world. They were in a kind of vehicle but not with wheels, it was all light and it had seats in it and moved energetically, like it was floating. I was in the vehicle but in a dazed state and slowly coming round when the woman turned round and looked at me making sure I was ok. She said; Hi Samia, we have come to collect you and smiled at me with such a beautiful smile. I was drowsy and sleepy for a while but suddenly I found myself very alert but confused as to what was happening to me.

We were moving and passing through fields and trees and flowers and when I say passing through we were literally passing through them, through my body, and it scared me at first, I could feel them pass through my body. All of nature just passing through me and it felt so incredible, like the most beautiful tingles as I became one with nature. There was a brick wall and I shut my eyes and put my hands up to my face to cover my eyes as we went through this wall and I could feel it go through me and it felt so amazing, this is so hard to describe because it was all a feeling but it felt like sparkles inside me, so incredible.

I got to a beautiful temple looking building which was shimmering and the vehicle we were in just passed through it and found myself on the inside and getting off of this vehicle. The woman, who I think said her name is Santa, led me through the inside of the temple and spirits were moving about all over the place, it was so busy, I couldn't take my eyes off them, all so beautiful. Santa told me that all would become clear in a moment. She took me into this room in the temple and we sat down and she began to explain what had happened to me. She told me that I had died and I remember saying to her "No, what!! I died, what was it cancer, a heart attack, no way! No! I couldn't have died", I was in shock and a bit panicky, Santa said "You have died in your sleep, you just stopped breathing for a moment and now you are here with us and you are very safe. I was sent to collect you".

I can still feel the amazement and weirdness of it all, I literally died in my sleep or stopped breathing for a second and went straight to spirit world. I can remember feeling so light, so excited and yet a bit scared and shocked and my energy was so complete, I felt so healthy like I have never felt before, so good inside and so real. I was in so much disbelief that this is happening to me, so shocked to find myself in spirit world and at what I think is the receiving hall but I didn't ask so I am just guessing at that. I couldn't keep my mind on what she was saying to me, I kept looking around me in disbelief.

Suddenly I became filled with such an awful dread, I was separated from my children, I went into panic at the thought of them being without me. I said to Santa, "No, this can't be happening, where is Faye and Alex, my children will be alone", and I began crying uncontrollably wanting to go back and be with them again.

Santa said, "Samia, for you, this has just happened but for your children it has been many years and they are now ok, let me show you how ok they are". Santa pointed to a huge screen and showed me a film of Faye, she was in a speed boat on the sea of a beautiful tropical island and she told me to look at how happy Faye is. Faye is looking older, about 35 and sitting in the back of the speed boat with her hair blowing and her arms out stretched touching the warm air and she was so happy. There was a beautiful looking man driving the boat, he was handsome and Santa said he was her husband, he had wavy blond hair and a stubbly beard and he turned round to look at Faye, the look was so filled with love for her. I began to cry that I had left her alone in her grief, that I had put her through so much pain then all of a sudden I felt two hands on my shoulders. Santa told me to turn round and see who has come to visit me, and it was Faye. We turned to each other and embraced and kissed each other and I was sobbing, I told Faye that I am so sorry for leaving her, Faye said that it took some time to get over it, but now she and Alex are fine. We held each other and I didn't want to let her go but she began to fade away and to disappear. Santa said she had arranged for Faye to visit me briefly because she knew how distraught I would be at leaving her. Santa showed me Faye asleep in her bed, yet she had also been here with me in her spirit body just to visit, how amazing is that!!

Santa showed me around the place a bit more but not for long. We walked passed beautiful looking spirits and some of the women were pregnant which confused me so I asked Santa how that could be and all of a sudden her stomach grew like she was pregnant. She told me anything is possible over here as she pointed to her pregnant stomach and we both looked at it and laughed, and as she laughed, her stomach went down and became flat again, saying that she had no intention of wanting that and that women on Earth can also do it too but they call it a phantom pregnancy when they want it so much they will it on themselves. It doesn't happen to many women but it can happen on Earth.

The whole place was amazing, the feeling in me was amazing too. I felt so light and vibrant. Santa told me that it was enough for one day and that I had to now rest but there is so much more to show me. With that I came back to my physical body and woke up in my bed at 6am and could hardly move with the weight and heaviness of my body. I was back in my body and in my room, and in that instant of waking I burst into tears and have hardly stopped crying since. I feel so incredible and I have no fear of dying because I have been there, well the arrivals village at least. It is real, all so real, much more real than here. I know the difference in how the two worlds feel and the vibrancy of colour is beyond compare. To feel the solid matter of Earth, something you can only touch compared to the spirit energy of actually feeling how nature feels as it passes through you, not to just touch it but to FEEL it and then the ecstasy that follows within your spirit body, it is almost indescribable and has to be felt.

Spirit world exists, I have been there and I want to go back, it is beautiful, it feels beautiful, I can actually experience how things in the spirit world feel because I can be at one with them, unlike here in this dense material world where I can only touch.

The crying has been non stop for 3 hours. Samantha

James response:

Wow, what an experience! A simulation of you dying, a real out of body experience. Gosh, and I wonder if the future will unfold for Faye that you saw for her happy in the boat with the man. You give such a good feeling of the vibrancy of spirit, how different it is than here, so much more 'alive', the spirit light. Yeah that was really good, now you knowing there is life after death through the feelings of that experience. I wish I could have such a good real spirit experience, just to cement it all into me as it has for you. Still, I can get a taste of it from you. Would you mind sending that experience to John, if you've not done so, as he's working on there being life after death at the moment.

My reading of it is that it seems like you starting in the Earth plane flying through Nature and the brick wall, then when you went into the temple you jumped ahead in your life to when you die, so looking at Faye older and happy; and then you visited her in her sleep, and then you came back. Did Faye have a nice dream meeting you over there?

We are more alive than ever - when we die!

John, if you're okay with this, can you please send it on to the others who Lachlan was talking to. I wanted you to read it first in case you disagreed with anything too much. Or send on any parts you're okay with. Thank you.

Hi Lachlan,

I loved all you wrote, you summed up so well all the parts I hate so much. For someone who is more in the 'bush' you are certainly well informed on all the bullshit that's foisted on us by the controllers.

I empathise with your anger at reading what John sent, I felt it too, and couldn't read it. It sounds like too much of the same old crap. However, I think that's to be expected, for how can it not be when the Funding is tied up in the hands of such horrors. If any of the funding actually ends up helping the people who need it the most, I'll be amazed.

I've been struggling with what you intimated in your writing, and I've come to settle on the idea that for me personally to be involved with John and the Funding, means, as John has said all the way along, if any comes his way, and then through to my way, it will be used for two purposes: to publish my spiritual work so people can learn about and possibly set out doing their Spiritual Healing within Divine Love Spirituality; and to help people who are the most in need. That's all I'm interested in. Using the funding to create new massive infrastructure projects or whatever it might be used in, which to my mind might benefit some people yet is really more of the same of what causes all our problems, is not my concern, and I don't wish to be involved with it.

I've been watching videos of late of people who have disabled children from all the terrible things that are inflicted on them, most of which I think now comes from the vaccines and overmedication being passed through generationally, and how so many of the parents and the children themselves need a lot of extra help which the governments are reluctant to supply, and so I think that is where the Funding through Pascas should apply the most, to such people the most in need of help in whatever ways it can be given.

So again, I look at it that if we can 'take' our little bit of money, and Jeffery and Peter are happy with what it's used for, which will be the bottom line in helping people through the spiritual side coupled with hands on practical helping people side, then that is what Pascas should mostly be concerned about.

I replying to Lachlan, I've decided to put down my other thoughts of late concerning Pascas.

My 'vision' for Pascas is:

1. To set up the Spiritual side:

- a Spiritual Centre, Paradise House, for Divine Love Spirituality and the Religion of Feelings. A place to educate people about the technical side of the Rebellion and it's Healing, together with providing support for people who want to do their Spiritual Healing. A place for group prayer for the Divine Love, and group Healing sessions, and to hold educational talks about it all.

- A Sanctuary or Sanctuaries in which people can live off grid possibly (preferably in the country near forests and lakes), completely sustainably, doing their Spiritual Healing, and preparing themselves for life after the Pole Reversal, should that happen in the next 24 years as Doug Vogt of the Diehold foundation purports. And if The Change doesn't come then, and things keep going as they are, then the Sanctuaries would be villages in which people can live Divine Love Spirituality, do their Healing, have children who are brought up in line with their parents increasing Truth, and ultimately for fully Healed people of a Celestial truth to have children, all living in their own independent community living The New Way, a Way of Truth, as opposed to how we all live, The Old Way, a Way of Mind.

- A place from where to promote Divine Love Spirituality and the 'Religion of Feelings' through the Internet, movies, documentaries, interviews, written material - publishing. So websites, podcasts, social media, influencers, all to help get the Revelation out to the world. This place could also be a part of Paradise House.

- A place where all the alternative things on offer on the Internet can be looked at in relation to living off grid and in a Sanctuary type situation. A place to look through, collate and collect anything relevant to living in a Sanctuary. So for example, how to tan skins of animals, how to work with leather such as to make saddles for horses, or how to ride bear-back, how to make clothes, the better ways to grow food in a Sanctuary small community way, alternative electricity making devices, how to make pots, pans and other basic metal work, all getting back to basic stuff in case the Pole Reversal does come and life as we know it ends, and all who survive are plunged back to basic subsistence living. So for people to be paid to comb the Internet looking for any beneficial things that might be of use to such a future Sanctuary, with such information to be stored like a directory on a computer assuming there will be some electricity to drive it in the Aftertimes, or for us to boil the information down for hard copies to be made. This place could also be within Paradise House. (And as a side note: any inventions found on the Internet that hold good potential to help people now or in the Aftertimes, could be considered for funding.)

2. For Pascas to establish itself as an Over Funder, meaning, it has access to all the individuals, charities, organisations that are already providing help for bottom line survival, and to provide additional or 'topping up' funding for those entities. So Pascas can be like the grandfather to such people and organisations, with the people and organisations petitioning Pascas for funds and support for ongoing and new projects. And for Pascas to be open minded enough to consider all such requests from all walks of life, from wherever anyone is wanting to help another in need, starting with the most severe and working up from there, so with Pascas working to help organise systems and funding flow schedules.

And for Pascas to set up and provide help on line, so for example, to provide the funding and establishment if necessary of social media groups for the various disabilities and special needs, so people can easy meet each other and provide some comfort, sharing their problems, experience and difficulties, and providing information where they can get added help.

Then through Pascas' outreach we can send some of the spiritual material that might be relevant for such people who are receiving funding, newsletters and links to Divine Love Spirituality. For example, being included each month in a Pascas newsletter, a message from spirit concerning the life of a disabled person on Earth, what happened to him or her upon death and reawakening in spirit, and what they thought and felt about their life on Earth; being with their parents, their parents love and care, if it actually helped them or made things more difficult.

The sad fact is increasingly more children are being born with special needs, so more strain is being put on governments and society as a whole. And having had the whole world virtually injected with another round of Covid-19 poison, possibly yet more disabled and severely handicapped children are going to be born.

And that is only dealing with those with special needs, then there is all the regular child and spouse abuse, all the elderly with their growing problems and difficulties, people who want to look after unwanted and abused animals. And not just in Australia, but all over the world, you only having to look on Youtube for a host of problems people are suffering which Pascas can work with to help alleviate, working in conjunction with existing organisations.

Personally I don't see the need or point of Pascas setting up its own charities and moving into countries, I think it should work to support what are existing genuine charities and organisations wanting to help. And preferably, not just supporting the already existing big charities like the Salvation Army and Vinnies, etc, but the lesser ones, the ones more 'under the radar' who would greatly benefit from increased funding.

So Pascas' role would be to specialise in, having been introduced to an individual, charity or organisation in need of funding, determining if the individual, charity or organisation is serious and above board and not just wanting to use all the money for the material gain of those involved. Then to establish what sort of project is happening and to happen, to help in the planning and implementation, and the drawing up of budgetary programs.

And to possibly have another part of Pascas that specialises in donating money to GoFundMe projects, scanning such websites and determining legitimacy, and if within the scope of help Pascas might want to offer, donate to such causes.

And then another part of Pascas, as mentioned above, wanting to support beneficial inventions.

So in conclusion, I am sorry John, however I don't see the purpose of a University, for me that's simply more of the same. I think to introduce the tenets of Divine Love Spirituality, if that's what is to be a main goal of Pascas, would be better done through the hands on direct helping of people in need right now. It's the people who feel they and their lives are fucked and difficult, who aren't coping, the failures, who might be more open to looking at a New Way, compared to people happy and successful in their mind lives who will be more reluctant.

I can see, if anything, a Pascas 'University' would be really a training centre for nurses and midwives (as they will be needed in the Aftertimes), and particularly ones who might want to go out into the third world countries, however that's about all. I think the best way to 'spread the word' is through the Internet and social media. More people are listening to the podcasts on Youtube and Rumble, and now with Elon wanting to set up a similar system on Twitter, rather than trying to somehow include Divine Love Spirituality into the curriculums of regular University subjects.

And as far as schools go, trying to include DLS in their studies, I have no idea. I don't like, as I've talked with John, the idea of possibly introducing children to ideas and notions about what's wrong with humanity being in rebellion, wrong with themselves and their parents, against their parents consent. I could agree to teaching children about the value of striving to express all their feelings, to express all of themselves, how not to suppress and repress bad feelings, and how to listen to another expressing their feelings, and they longing for the truth of those feelings, however that's about it.

A 'school' within the Sanctuary or Paradise House in which parents know what their children are going to be educated about, I can agree with, if indeed there must be a school. Some level of schooling in a Sanctuary, sure, but really Sanctuary life is to include children in every part of the Sanctuary, all the time, their whole life being schooling.

Aalam Bibi Trust meeting with Pascas Foundation (Aust) Ltd

Sharks League Club, Southport, being the venue.

Tuesday, 8 August 2023

Kamran Saleem (Aalam Bibi T), Peter Wildin (Pascas), Dr Farah Deeba Akram (founder Aalam Bibi T), Ghazal Basit (ABT – Brisbane), Jim Baker (Pascas), John Doel (Pascas), Faizel Hassan (Pascas), Asad Basit (ABT).

Interesting observations of the six hour meeting:

There was an ease, it was beautiful, being gracefully carried out. The presentation was succinct. There was no cultural divide – NONE! There was no resistance and no push back. It was in the company of truth.

Being in a club setting, there was background music, televisions, and during the progression of discussions, the club filled up – however there were no distractions. The discussion unfolded as though it was in a bubble.

The four from Pakistan when asked, confirmed that they saw nothing that Pascas conveyed was in conflict with Islam. Pascas is conveying a way of living - not a religion. Its principles are compatible with Islam. In fact the synergies are amazing. Nothing was held back and it was nearly a six hour meeting as Farah and Kamran commence their journey home to Pakistan that evening.

Or as Brian Iverach puts it: John,

“Likewise, the elemental truths of Biblical Christianity, Judaism, Buddhism, Hinduism and the teachings of Jesus conveyed to all humanity through his Spirit of Truth. The Avonal Age, in process, linking with the Spirit of Truth of Jesus in the bestowal of the true religion of the Brotherhood of Man. Pascas embraces the new way of life.” B1

Brian Iverach, Faizel Hassan, Jim Baker, Asad Basit and John Doel intend to travel to Lucknow, in the state of Uttar Pradesh, India, and then to Lahore in Pakistan and reconnect with Farah and Kamran in a handful of weeks’ time. Brian intends to meet up with Samantha McCabe in London and bring her along.

AN UPDATE on JOHN'S FAMILY MEMBERS who are from WEST WYALONG, NSW!

30 September 2023

James: As I was reading through the list of your (John's) family, an 'update' came into my mind...
(clarifying comments added by John)

Nanna Beth, John's grandmother, her soul-mate (soul partner) and soul-group have chosen to remain in their current important third Celestial Heaven sphere positions for the next Age. (That is, the coming Avonal Age of the next 1,000 years.)

All the Celestials (1st, 2nd and 3rd Celestial Heavens sphere) are currently in the process of being asked what they want to do: some suggesting what they'd like to do, others choosing their assignment from what exists, some appointed to specific positions by higher authorities.

All of your family (John's family) accept your son will remain and work in time from the third Celestial sphere throughout the next Age. (Our son, Benjamin John, miscarried at 12 weeks of gestation and was subsequently spirit born in the 1st spirit Mansion World. His soul partner was also spirit born.)

Your son has moved on with his soul-group and soul-mate higher into Nebadon (our local universe containing 3,840,101 inhabited worlds), so beyond the third Celestial Heaven sphere. They 'felt the call' to move on toward Paradise rather than remain in the lower Celestials for the next Age. (When we level the 3rd Celestial Heaven and progress higher into Nebadon, we cease to connect with Earth.)

Your mum (Marie Mum) is now in the third Celestial Heaven sphere, and remaining specifically aligned with you, that's you personally, and not so much to do with greater Pascas, so helping you in your relationship with it and with all the people you come across, and with me (James).

Marjorie has crossed over into the first Celestial Heaven sphere, settling in with her forming soul-group and having met her soul-mate who just arrived a short time after she did. It is thought her soul-group will move in time to work under your mum (John's mother, Marie Mum).

Kevin (John's brother-in-law), Raymond (John's 1st cousin) and Bradley (John's nephew and son to Kevin) are all now in the second Celestial Heaven sphere, they are all aligned under your mum (Marie Mum), so working associated with you and each other, and all Pascas wants to achieve.

Kevin died 10 August 2012, through his Feeling Healing or similar process became Celestial by completing his healing and entered the 1st Celestial Heaven sphere on 7 August 2017, he is now in the 2nd Celestial Heaven sphere – September 2023.

Bradley, Kevin's son, suicided in 1999, and early April 2018 became Celestial by entering the 1st Celestial Heaven sphere, now in the 2nd Celestial Heaven sphere – September 2023.

Raymond, Nanna Beth's grandson, died aged 23. Raymond entered the 1st Celestial Heaven in May 2018, now in the 2nd Celestial Heaven sphere – September 2023.

Marjorie, John's sister, died 26 November 2020, entered the 3rd spirit Mansion World by 23 January 2021 being the first of the three spirit healing worlds (3, 5, 7). Marge had moved into the seventh spirit Mansion World around 12 April 2023. Marjorie has now crossed over into the first Celestial Heaven sphere – September 2023. Thus within 2 years and 10 months she has achieved Celestial Heaven status.

Hi John

2 October 2023

I don't feel good in supporting anyone else work John, i have to say it! Brandon Bays healing is a mindfulness based journeying intervention, drawing on guided imagery, meditation techniques, using music and candles to still the mind. I don't feel the need for any of that to access my feelings, just to feel them as they arise and that takes me down to the next feeling and into the grief. The only tool I need is to call upon is Mother and Father's help to bring up the feelings within me, when I long to them, the help is there.

Sitting in stillness and allowing the emotions to pass through the body, rather than allowing their expression in that moment is still denying the feeling within that moment, it is quietening them down as they arise, when what needs to happen is to give them a voice, and at times it is a very loud voice, and can be very alarming to anyone else around, but we have to get used to being in this state of overwhelm with our feeling expression. I feel that Brandon Bays journeying is still steeped in mindfulness and not in Soulfulness as feeling healing is with God's divine love. I feel that my healing can only be done with God's intervention, that is all the help I need to become aware of my denied and suppressed childhood's feelings, anything else is still in rebellion to God as it is not using them to reveal to me my own personal rebellion towards them. I feel that if we are not using them to help us heal, then it is still all within the rebellion.

God is who we are coming home to after so many thousands of years of being away, of being in rebellion to them, and that rebellion has caused endless pain and destruction and illness. We are all living in the devastation caused by living a life without them, we are living in the ruins of rebellion and we see it as a natural and normal life, we see pain as being normal and what we have to go through in life, but all that we are living every day, is the devastation of living a life without and against God, love and anything good.

All that feels right to me is 'Feeling Healing with Gods Divine Love' I won't be supporting anything else. I could lose everything in my life but my feelings and God will always be all I need to heal.

Sam x

Only three people who have worked their way through Feeling Healing can guide us with our own Healing.

How to live The New Way – Divine Love Spirituality; and do your Spiritual Healing:

Want to live true to your feelings more than anything else.

Want to live true to yourself through your feelings.

Want to feel as powerless as you feel, and want to see how much of a controller you are.

Want to see how you're using your mind to block out, and so control, your feelings.

Honour and express all your feelings. Especially all the bad ones.

Don't do anything to deny them. Accept yourself being them.

Allow yourself to be them, so you can feel them fully.

Long with all your heart for the truth of all your feelings.

Ask God to help you uncover the truth of yourself through your feelings.

Want to see the truth of your childhood.

Want to give up being false, superficial and untrue. Want to stop being rebellious.

Want to stop being unloving. Want to see the truth of these things.

Long with all your heart for the Divine Love.

Long to your Heavenly Mother and Heavenly Father to love you;

And to fill your soul with Their Divine Love.
