SHINING TOWARD SPIRIT: via Zara Borthwick and Nicholas Arnold www.lulu.com
14 November 2014 to 14 March 2015

The 705 messages received and recorded within “Shining toward Spirit” commenced on 14 November 2014 and completed on 14 March 2015. The series is in three sections, each of 235 messages and the individual spirit people / authors number about 360.

During the life of Jesus of Nazareth, and in particular during his period of teaching, Jesus had the typical social groupings that we all do. There were some very close friends who were constantly with him and always being relied upon. Then there was a further group of friends who may have been with him, say on most weekends, but returned to their homes and employment weekly. Then there were those who shared their time with him occasionally and focused on their families and other responsibilities. As such, there was not a formal structure and the number of friends, being his disciples or students so to speak, varied in number and participation in his ministry.

Further, upon the death of John the Baptist, some of the close and dedicated followers of John the Baptist then joined with Jesus and his group.

There may well have been just as many women who were as equally skilled and capable in passing on the teachings that Jesus introduced. The women were able to discretely share these teachings whereas the men attracted attention from authorities thus frustrating their endeavours. As time goes on, we will surely hear from some of the women who were as significantly proactive as the men were in their teaching endeavours.

As such, there was no formal grouping as referred to as disciples or apostles, and the number 12 is simply a customary number considered to quantify this group of people. The Aramaic languaging uses certain numbers to provide a vague indication of quantities involved. For example, 4,000 is typically a number to indicate that a lot were present, whereas the reality could be that a few hundred may only have been present. Aramaic is a language of amplification, not of precision.

Many followers of Jesus’ teachings were long time residents in the spirit worlds. At the time of Jesus, the physical world’s population was considered to be around 300 million. At that time the population in the natural love spirit worlds could have been around 200 billion. Thus the daunting task of introducing his teachings would have been surely impossible to comprehend when one considers the populations of the spirit worlds. When Jesus opened the Divine Love Spheres and Celestial Heaven Spheres, only about a dozen spirit people went with him. To stand on the last of the Celestial Heaven spheres and look back and consider the task at hand must have been impossible to conceive. The work continues.

When we progress into the Celestial Heaven spheres, we join up, typically, with our soulmate. Then we form into soulgroups. These soulgroups consist of twelve soulmate pairs, thus a soulgroup consists of twenty four personalities.

Note: Following the writings of James Moncrief, one could consider that any reference to the Father, by other relevant writers, may be read as a reference to ‘our Mother and Father’. Further, when considering soul healing, then reference to Divine Love could be referred to as ‘Feeling Healing with Divine Love’.

SPIRIT MIND MANSION WORLDS are numbered 1 to 7:

To PARADISE, the HOME of OUR HEAVENLY PARENTS

Spirit Mansion Worlds are those 1 – 7. They with the Celestial Heaven spheres numbered 8, 9, 10 as well as the 3 Spheres of Disharmony are all within the Earth’s environment, and rather close by. Each sphere can accommodate more than 100 times the people than Earth may do.

Progression from the top Celestial Heaven sphere is to the Eternal Spheres, Infinite and Universal and further onwards to Paradise.

Celestial Heaven spheres 8, 9, 10 are often referred to as 1, 2, and 3 of Celestial Heaven.

Natural Love sphere progression stops at sphere 6. With only the natural love, progression is through spheres 1, 2, 4, and 6 only.

Divine Love perfects one’s natural love soul through the progression via spirit world spheres 3, 5, and 7. Soul-Healing and At-onement is achieved through the progression into sphere 8 which is the first of the Celestial Heaven spheres namely 8, 9, and 10.

One can embrace Divine Love at any time and move to DL sphere 3 and continue.

The Divine Love spheres 3, 5, 7, 8, 9, and 10 were opened by Jesus.

On death of the physical body we all arrive in the 1st Natural Love sphere.

Earth is for the individualisation of souls being the commencements of one’s journey home toward the Source Soul.

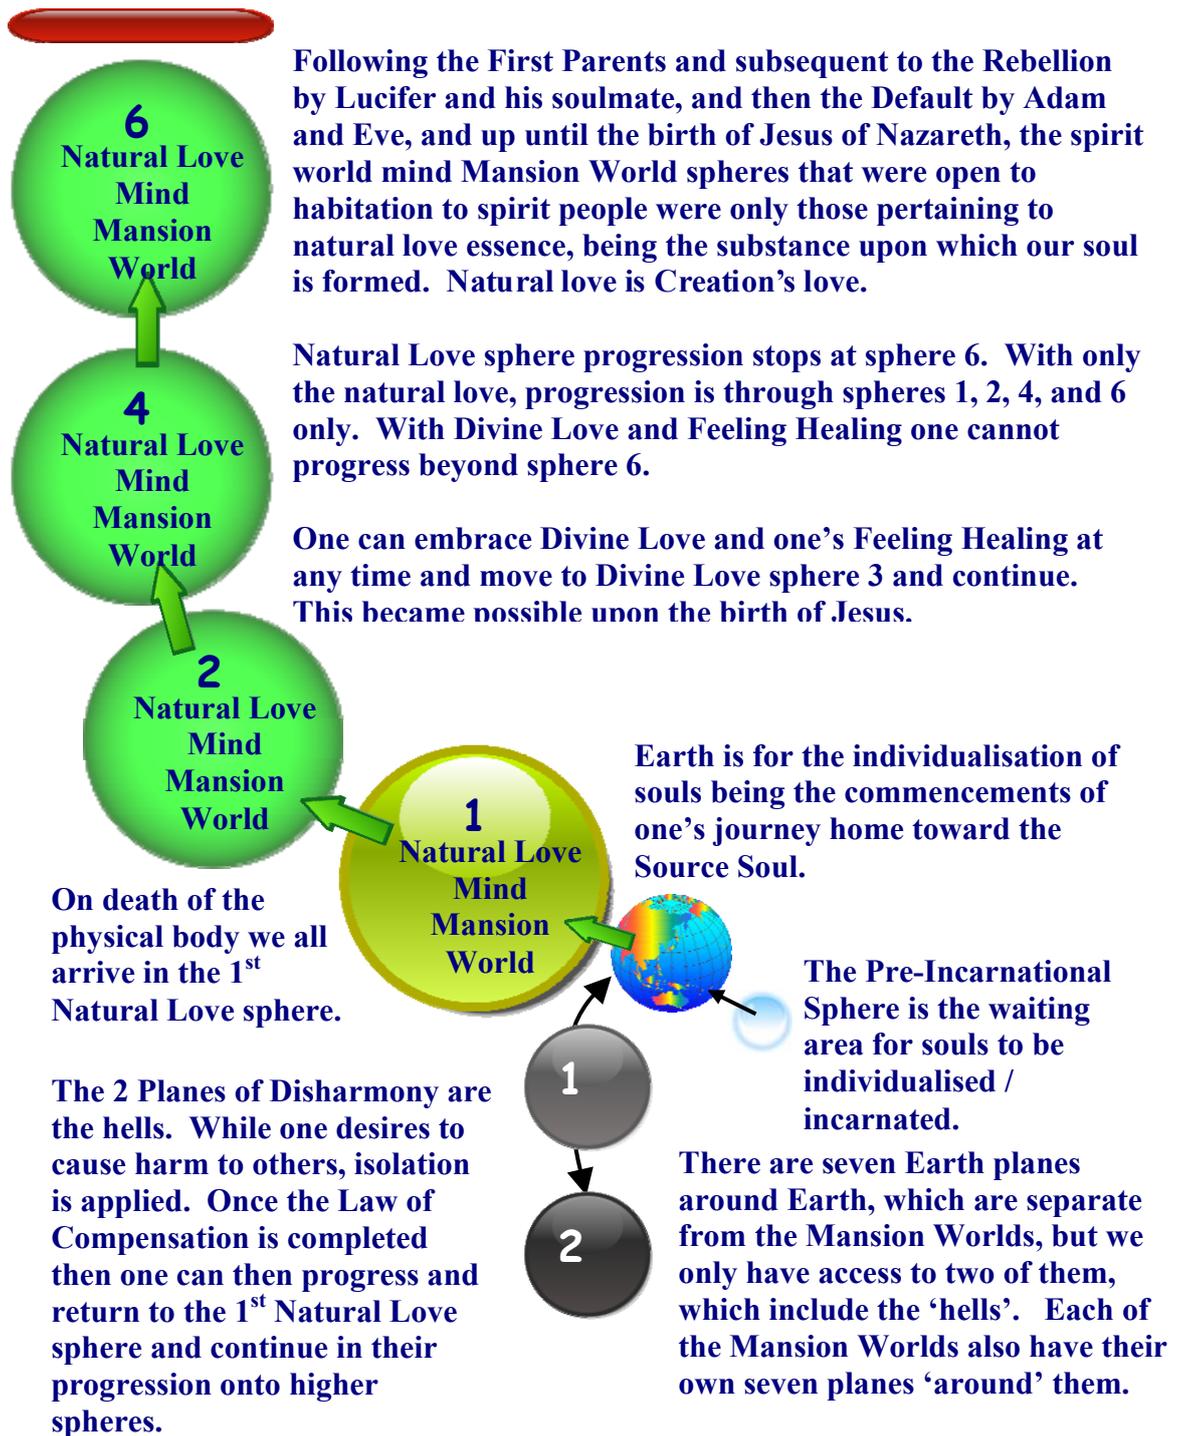

The 2 Planes of Disharmony are the hells. While one desires to cause harm to others, isolation is applied. Once the Law of Compensation is completed then one can then progress and return to the 1st Natural Love sphere and continue in their progression onto higher spheres.

The Pre-Incarnational Sphere is the waiting area for souls to be individualised / incarnated.

There are seven Earth planes around Earth, which are separate from the Mansion Worlds, but we only have access to two of them, which include the ‘hells’. Each of the Mansion Worlds also have their own seven planes ‘around’ them.

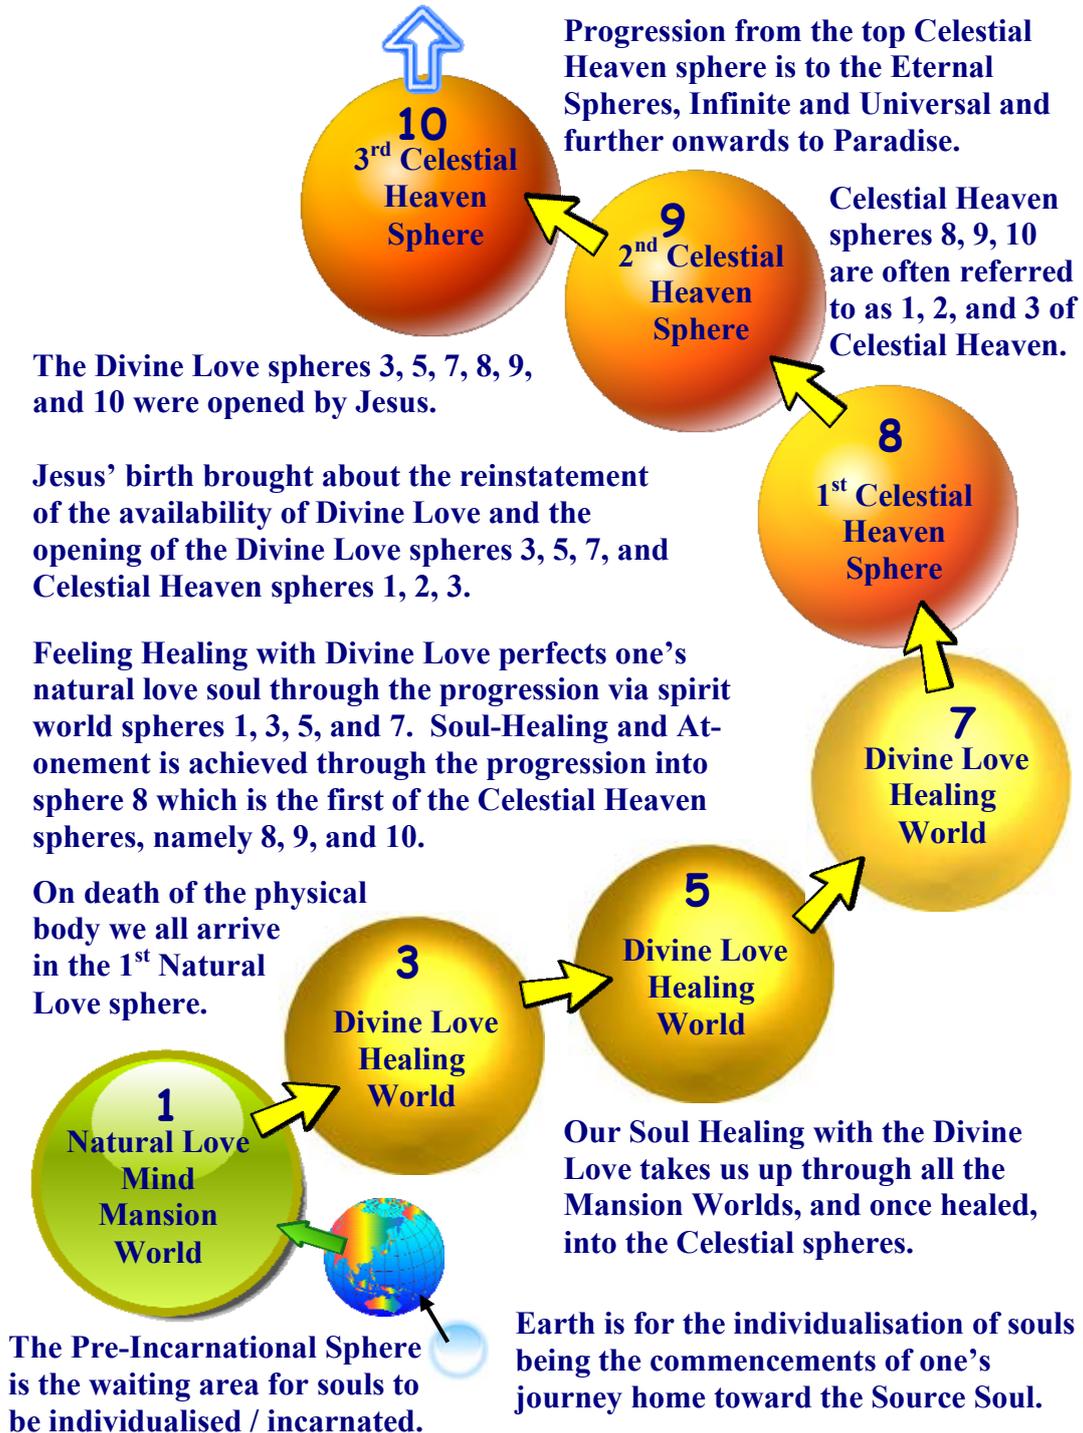

Note: The 1st Divine Love Sphere and the 1st Sphere of Disharmony may simply be planes within the 1st Natural Love Spirit World.

NATURAL LOVE SPIRIT MIND MANSION WORLDS:

DIVINE LOVE SPIRIT WORLDS and CELESTIAL HEAVEN OPENED:

To PARADISE, the HOME of OUR HEAVENLY PARENTS

WE ARE NEVER MEANT TO BE ALONE! SOULMATES become SOUL-GROUPS!

Our soul individualises into two personalities, as a male and female, always. The two soul halves are soulmates. When the two personalities complete their Feeling Healing of their childhood suppression and injuries, then the two personalities will find each other, either whilst in the physical or in the Celestial Heaven spirit worlds.

The personality that each soul half is blessed with by our Heavenly Parents is the personality that we are to express throughout our journey for eternity. It is the suppression of the free expression imposed upon us by our parents that requires for each of us to under go our Feeling Healing. Whilst we are suppressing our true selves we do not connect with our soulmate.

Soulmates form into soul-groups. Once in the Celestial soul condition, soul-groups form consisting always of twelve (12) soul pairs. A soul-group consists of twelve sets of soulmates, twenty four (24) individuals. When we progress beyond the Celestial Heavens, towards Paradise, the home of our Heavenly Parents, we do so as a soul-group of 24 personalities. We can achieve Celestial soul condition here on Earth and also form our soul-group here on Earth.

Now add to this scenario, soul-mates and soul-groups. All those who were Celestial would have met their soulmate and it would be the priority for them as soul-mates to be perfectly living true before they considered having children. And then these soul-pairs would link up with other soul-pairs and form soul-groups. It would be just a natural part of one's inner feelings and events in one's life that would lead one to do this. Then the whole soul-group would become a functioning family unit. Each of the couples would have their children, but the whole group would function in helping to share in the upbringing of all children. And this would then enable the children to be intimately involved with other people who would offer them the things that their parents could not.

Humanity is not meant to live and raise children just two parents struggling along trying to cope best they can. We are designed to be in small groups so that we can compound the love and support for and of each other.

APOSTLE:

http://en.wikipedia.org/wiki/Apostle_%28Christian%29

According to the Bible's New Testament, the Apostles were the primary disciples of Jesus, the central figure in Christianity. During the life and ministry of Jesus in the first century AD, the apostles were his closest followers and became the primary teachers of the gospel message of Jesus. The word "disciple" is sometimes used interchangeably with "apostle" – for instance the Gospel of John makes no distinction between the two terms. In modern usage, prominent missionaries are identified as apostles – a practice which stems from the Latin equivalent of apostle, missio, the source of the English word "missionary".

While Christian tradition often refers to the apostles as being twelve in number, different gospel writers give different names for the same individual, and apostles mentioned in one gospel are not mentioned in another. The commissioning of the Twelve Apostles during the ministry of Jesus is recorded in the Synoptic Gospels. After his resurrection, Jesus sent eleven of them (minus Judas Iscariot, who by then had died) by the Great Commission to spread his teachings to all nations—an event referred to as the "Dispersion of the Apostles". There is also an Eastern Christian tradition derived from the Gospel of Luke of there being as many as Seventy Apostles during the time of Jesus' ministry. Prominent figures in early Christianity were often called apostles even though their ministry or mission came after the life of Jesus.

The period of Early Christianity during the lifetimes of the apostles is called the Apostolic Age. During the first century, the apostles established churches throughout the territories of the Roman Empire and according to tradition through the Middle East, Africa, India, and modern-day Ukraine. The apostle Paul, a Jew named Saul of Tarsus, is considered "the apostle of the Gentiles", ^{[Romans 11:13]} for his missions to spread the gospel message after his conversion. Although not one of the apostles commissioned during the life of Jesus, Paul claimed a special commission from the resurrected Jesus. In his writings, the epistles to Christian churches established throughout the Levant. Paul did not restrict the term "apostle" to the Twelve, and often refers to his mentor Barnabas as an apostle. The restricted usage appears in Revelation.

By the second century AD, association with the apostles was esteemed as an evidence of authority and such churches are known as Apostolic Sees. Paul's epistles were accepted as scripture, and two of the four gospels were associated with apostles, as were other New Testament works. Various Christian texts, such as the Didache and the Apostolic Constitutions, were attributed to the apostles. Bishops traced their lines of succession back to individual apostles, who were said to have dispersed from Jerusalem and established churches across great territories. Christian bishops have traditionally claimed authority deriving, by apostolic succession, from the Twelve. Early Church Fathers who came to be associated with apostles, such as Pope Clement I with Peter the Apostle, are referred to as Apostolic Fathers. The Apostles' Creed, popular in the West, was said to have been composed by the apostles themselves. The Twelve Apostles are also called the Twelve Disciples. Several Christian and local traditions honour major missionaries as apostles—for example, Saint Patrick (AD 373–463) as "Apostle of Ireland" or Saint Boniface (680–755) as "Apostle to the Germans".

By living true to ourself, true to our feelings, we are living true to God. It's that simple.

Those "whom he also named apostles" were:

Other apostles mentioned in the New Testament:

Person called apostle	Where in Scripture	Notes
Barnabas	Acts 14:14	— Paul states that Andronicus and Junia were "of note among the apostles." This has been traditionally interpreted in one of two ways: <ul style="list-style-type: none"> • That Andronicus and Junia were "of note among the apostles," that is, distinguished apostles.^[16] • That Andronicus and Junia were "well known among the apostles" meaning "well known to the apostles"
Andronicus and Junia	Rom 16:7	In the first view it is believed that Paul is referring to a female apostle. ^{[17][18]} Unhappy with reference to a female apostle, editors and translators have often changed the name to "Junias," the masculine version of Junia, as in the Revised Standard Version . ^[18] While "Junia" was a common name, "Junias" was not. ^[18] In the second view, it is believed that Paul is simply making mention of the outstanding character of these two people which was acknowledged by the apostles. Historically it has been virtually impossible to tell which of the two views were correct. The second view, in recent years, has been defended from a scholarly perspective by Daniel Wallace and Michael Burer. ^[19]
Silas	1 Thes. 1:1, 2:6	Referred to as one along with Timothy and Paul, he also performs the functioning of an apostle as Paul's companion in Paul's second missionary journey in Acts 15:40ff .
Timothy	1 Thes. 1:1, 2:6	Timothy is referred to as an apostle in along with Silas and Paul. However, in 2 Cor. 1:1 he is only called a "brother" when Paul refers to himself as "an apostle of Christ". Timothy performs many of the functions of an apostle in the commissioning of Paul in 1st and 2nd Timothy, though in those epistles Paul refers to him as his "son" in the faith.
Apollos	1 Cor. 4:9	Included among "us apostles" along with Paul and Cephas (Peter) . (see also: 4:6 , 3:22 , and 3:4-6)

JAMES PADGETT MONCRIEF REVELATIONS 1 Commenced 1914
2 Completed 2014

REVELATION 1

The availability of Divine Love, should we so ask for it, being revelation 1:

God's Divine Love: Pray for it, ask for it, and receive it.

Whilst we are receiving our Heavenly Parent's Divine Love, and that this Love is causing change within our soul and spirit attributes, the greatest Truth known to man and spirit is that this is the way the Father is actually loving us! When we progress, it is the Father's way of loving us into love and then we live what we are, love.

REVELATION 2

The way to clear one's soul of childhood errors and injuries is revelation 2:

To liberate one's real self, one's will, being one's soul, is begun by embracing Feeling Healing, so as to clear emotional injuries and errors. With the Love, then one is also Soul Healing. We are to feel our feelings, identify what they are, accept and fully acknowledge that we're feeling them, express them fully, all whilst longing for the truth they are to show us.

Release one's pain through expressing one's feelings.

in conjunction with

Longing for the Truth when also longing for Divine Love.

REVELATIONS

Revelation 1: Our soul becomes encrusted with harmful ways of life, plus negative and erroneous beliefs, these mainly stem from our childhood upbringing and environment. Thus we live untrue to ourselves, we become 'evil'. Whilst we hold to these injuries we limit the amount of Love that we can receive into our soul. To open our soul to the Love we must firstly and progressively embrace our emotional injuries and allow them to be released. Until we emotionally experience past errors and injuries we hold onto them.

To free our soul of damage and toxic emotions we must open ourselves to experiencing them. This is a progressive, slow and uncomfortable cleansing process that we must all experience. Only by addressing the generational injuries will we, as humanity, evolve in love.

To fully divest one's self of our badness, we have to 'go into' our feelings. Call this process of clearing toxic emotions as 'Letting Go', 'Emotional Processing', 'Journey Process' or 'Feeling Healing'. Embracing Divine Love then Feeling Healing becomes Soul Healing.

As part of our Feeling-Healing we will have to work our way into all our feelings to see if indeed they are coming truly from our heart and soul, or if they are being heavily influenced by our mind. And this will then lead us into questioning and uncovering the truth, if there is any, to our beliefs and why we behave the way we do; and is such behaviour based on truth, or is it based once again on untruth, belief, and rules of our mind.

Revelation 2: We can long for, ask for and receive the Mother and Father's Divine Love. The greater our soul is free of error and injury, the more of the Divine Love can be received and assimilated into our natural love formed soul. The Love does not free us of injury, however, it strengthens our resolve to continue on our journey to be free of error and injury, to step away from evil aspects that have been encapsulated within our humanness and soul. It is this Love, the Divine Love, that brings about immortality of our soul and it is this Love that will eventually fit us to enter the Celestial Heavens and progress for ever more onwards to Paradise. These two revelations free us from error and enable us to grow in love ever more.

Immortality with the Love.

FEELING HEALING + SOUL HEALING

To heal one's self is to simply look to see what feelings we are refusing to let ourself feel, and accept them instead of denying them. And to fully accept them, one needs to express them, speak about them, let them have their say, rather than pushing them aside, refusing to let them make you feel bad.

Doing this all with the intention of seeking the truth of why you are feeling them, of speaking about and expressing all such feelings; all feelings you have, but ALL WITH the INTENTION of UNCOVERING the TRUTH THEY WANT YOU TO SEE ABOUT YOURSELF. And it's the wanting to see the truth of them that is very important, because if you just look to accept them and speak and express them, but not seek their truth, then that's all you'll be doing, speaking and expressing them, but not healing their causes, so not fixing the things within you that are making you feel bad. And it's the truth part of it, seeking the truth of your feelings, and so, seeking the truth through your feelings, that's vitally important. It's the truth of yourself, life, nature and God, that is the spiritual aspect to it all.

You CAN'T find the truth of yourself, or anything else, through and with only your mind. You HAVE to engage and look to your feelings. And so if you choose to allow your feelings to 'Show You the Way', then the truth will come as you express them.

So to do our Soul-Healing consists of these steps, all of which are ongoing until it's done:

- Admit you are feeling bad.
- Accept your bad feelings, identify what they are.
- Honour fully your bad feelings by expressing them, speaking about them to someone who is willing to hear you talk about them, or tell them out loud to our Heavenly Parents. Long for the truth of them. Long for the truth of why you feel bad – what deep within you is causing your bad feelings?
- And remember, bad feelings are Good! Not bad. They are not to be despised. And as hard as it is to accept them, they are still you, and a very real part of you. And if you persist in denying them and not allowing yourself to fully live them, then you are only going to keep yourself in your errors making things harder for yourself.
- All sickness and suffering, all bad things that happen to you, all your problems, all your addictions – your whole feeling-denying and untrue life, is all caused by your denial of bad feelings.
- Every problem in the world is brought about because everyone has been brought up to deny feelings, and in particular, most of their bad ones.

If one is intent on spiritually evolving and growing in truth, then it's vital, and this is the key, that one looks to use one's feelings as the means to gain and have access to the truth of oneself. You CAN'T find the truth of yourself or anything else through and with only your mind. You HAVE to engage and look to your feelings. And so if you choose to allow your feelings to 'Show You the Way', then the truth will come as you express them.

Doing your Soul-Healing with the Divine Love, is really doing your 'Feeling-Healing'. We are designed — created — to be self-revealing of truth, and so we are all to uncover the truth within ourselves and for ourselves, and all being done by living true to our feelings. If you accept, express and seek the truth of your feelings, then truth will come to you, and you'll grow spiritually. It's as easy as that. Also it is as easy as it is to long for, ask for and receive Divine Love.

FEEL for TRUTH

The beauty of it all, is the truth comes to you through your own feelings. You don't need to be told it by anyone. You can work it all out for yourself. We are self-revealing of truth, it's how God created us to be, and by being it we'll feel the happiest we can feel. Truth is our great comforter, so when you feel it come up within you, ah it feels so good and you feel just right – perfect!

We know only how to deny feelings, now we can get to know how to accept them. And always with the truth being the most important part.

FEELING TRUTH

If you don't want to uncover the truth of your feelings, then you can keep on expressing them forever but you will never fully heal yourself. Seeing the truth results in the Healing. And to see the truth you need to express all the pain out of you. The two things go hand in hand.

You can accept and express your bad feelings, letting off steam all day long, yet nothing will heal and nothing much will come of it. So this is where wanting your feelings to show you the truth of why you're feeling as you are is so important.

Don't go fishing with your mind, that will shut the truth out from rising up for you. KEEP YOUR MIND OUT OF IT. It's a feeling thing, doing your Feeling-Healing. (This is where we erred previously, and this how other modalities are in error.)

You long when you can, then stop longing and keep expressing. And at some point, and it might not even happen immediately, it might happen after days or weeks of expressing the same bad feelings, truth will come to you. And it does, it just comes up suddenly into your consciousness. You just know. You see the picture and you feel it's true. And you know it's true. And THEN your mind can come in and start sorting it out and putting in context.

It's the Truth that we are seeking. It's the End Point. The Reason for doing your Healing. You are to see the whole Truth of yourself. And to begin with, that's the whole truth of your unloving self, of your wrongness, of your evilness, of why you are as you are in your negative unloving mind-controlling state. To be able to fully accept yourself as you are, warts and all. To not fight or resist or try and change yourself, just to accept all you feel and all the truth of all those bad feelings you feel about yourself. And when you do, so you will be healed. You CAN'T heal yourself unless you uncover the truth of your pain, suffering and so the truth of all your bad feelings.

Through our Feeling-Healing we long for the truth of what we're feeling whenever we can. So as often as you can. You want, and REALLY WANT WITH ALL YOUR BEING, ALL YOUR WILL, to know why you are feeling bad. You yearn, want, long and beg and beg and BEG God to show you the truth of yourself through your feelings. So when you are expressing your bad feelings you can stop and long for the truth to show you what's going on, why do you feel so bad, and you can do it any time you think of it or feel to do it.

Notes from 'Feeling Healing' by James Moncrief

Heartfelt TRUTH

Feelings First Spirituality

The New Way

Feelings First
FF
Feeling Free

The New Way, Feelings First Spirituality
 Learn to live with God through your Feelings

Accept, express and long for the truth of your feelings

Be free in your feelings
 Free your feelings from your mind's control
 Live true to your feelings; your feelings are your true self
 Live true to yourself through your feelings

Live true to yourself by living true to your feelings.
 Long for the truth of your feelings.

Accept / Express / Bring out ALL of your good, and most importantly,
 BAD feelings.
 Want to understand why you're feeling them.
 Use your surface feelings to take you deeper into your repressed and hidden feelings.

The Feeling Way is the True Way.
Your feelings are your spiritual guide.
Your feelings will take you to God.

Your feelings will show you the truth of your relationships, including your relationship with God; and if anything is wrong, untrue and unloving, then why it is.

Our feelings are sacrosanct and we should respect them accordingly. And we should NEVER block them out, ignore, override, banish, deny or reject them, because if we do, we're only doing that to ourselves, as Our Feelings Are Our Self.

Our feelings are the gateway to our soul. Our feelings are the closest we can get to our soul. Knowing the truth of our feelings is knowing the truth of our soul, and knowing the truth of God.

Feelings First Spirituality is the True path for humanity.

It embraces all people.

It completely unifies the world.

Everyone can relate to everyone else through their feelings.

And we can all live the truth that comes from our feelings, all sharing the same truths as we express and have the same feelings.

No one need be left out; no one is more special than anyone else – we are all united in Truth through our feelings.

So with and through our truth we live our lives, therefore without the need of any man-made mind-laws, rules and restrictions that limit self-expression as inspired by our feelings.

The New Way, Feelings First Spirituality is what is to replace all man-made, mind-contrived religions that so many people have enslaved themselves to. The New Way, Feelings First Spirituality will set us free of all that control, ending the Rebellion and Default within ourselves as we do our Feeling-Healing, and ending such control and spiritual stagnation in the world.

Bring on the End Times – get it over and done with! Let's all see that Jesus is not going to come again, that Prophecy has failed all the mind-controlled platforms. Allow such false systems of belief to die their long-awaited natural death, they've overstayed their welcome, it's now time they fade away. So let us show such antiquated, erroneous systems of belief the exit and bring on the fresh liberation of discovering the truth of how we are to live for ourselves, each of us personally in our lives, and all by looking to our own feelings for it. Self-revelation through our feelings is the way to go.

The Way of the Mind is ending, and is really the End Times – the End of our mind control, and it's about time! With the Way of our Feelings replacing it.

The End Times means the end and therefore a New Beginning. And that new beginning is a whole new Spiritual Age – an age based on self-revelation of truth through one’s feelings, coupled with and supported by higher revelations from the Celestial spirits, angels and nature spirits.

The Feelings First Spirituality is the True Way to God because it helps you get to know God, helping you to reach out, connect and be personal with God, and do God’s Will, all through your feelings. It is the only true way of getting to know the God of Feelings – our beloved Heavenly Mother and Father, the Great Soul of Divine Love.

Love comes through our feelings and not our mind, as we’ve all been wrongly led to believe.

Feelings First; then comes The Truth; then comes Love.

587. 1914-2015

I am with you now; it is I Socrates, the same individual who communicated with James Padgett a hundred or so years ago. I would like to start my word by saying that I have long since met with James Padgett and we have shared in many a fine conversation about the Father, and as you know we are both residing here in the Celestial Heaven. I have seen how you have both picked up the work where he left off, and you have been able to extend the Truths, which some will benefit from and that some have already benefited from. Over the years you have received much needed communication from us as there has been a real need to extend the experience of Truths that involve the Natural and the Divine Love and this is very necessary. The information that you have received over these years has added a whole new dimension of experience to the works that James Padgett received, one vital aspect being that these spirit communications are happening as people are actually involved in their living with an awareness of the Divine Love in their own Earthly lives. It is a wonderful appearance of these works as communication unfolds and a broad foundation is being laid with greater transparency so that the reality of the human soul and the Soul of God is being revealed in context with the realities that exist in the spirit world.

There has been a real push from our side here for you both to carry through with these works, which at times you have felt us guiding you and assisting you in your effort to bring about this information conveyed by us. Love will wash away any undue social stresses so that these communications are received with fluency and clarity.

Keep your heart strong in the Divine Love,

57. John on unconditional givings

As Matthew said, I will contribute now. It is I, John. When one reads spirit works such as these, if one could not experience the Divine Love or be aware that such a Love is present to be experienced for themselves, it could be quite easy for the reader to dismiss our contributions believing that the receiver of our information had simply contrived these works out of imagination. The very fact that one may have already experienced the Divine Love for themselves or, that the reader may now know that the Divine Love can be experienced, the Divine Love experience and feeling of this Love will provide you with confidence as to the Truth of these communicated works. These are unconditional 'givings' on our behalf. It need be seen and felt as a relief coming into contact with information that is not forced upon you or that subject you to a whole lot of false beliefs. The proof in all that we are saying will be in your own experience of the Love. The fact that you can feel the Love will confirm to you that this information is not an imaginative fictitious narrative.

This is all I desire to say at this moment.
 Your friend,
 John the Baptist

The BEAUTIFUL MIRACLE:

5 Oct 2012

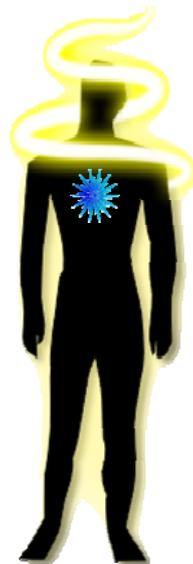

The DIVINE UNIVERSE

The way in which the Spirit conveys the Divine Love into the soul is a beautiful miracle. The attribute of mortal soul prior to incarnation has to it, a potential within it that is part of its formed nature. After the soul incarnates this potential remains part of the soul and even if the forming personality is unaware of such a soul potential, the potential still exists. The Divine Love is entirely suitable in its energy of harmony to be the energy that a mortal soul can utilise. The Spirit covers the spirit body when the individual sincerely asks the Soul of God for the Divine Love and this covering of the spirit body is where the dynamic of this beautiful miracle takes place. From the internal longing of the individual for the Divine Love this activates the Spirit Law that activates the Spirit that is then attracted to the spirit body upon which the Spirit material of the spirit body draws the Divine Love in to its soul and this union complete. The key here is to gain a perceptive insight into realising that the spirit body is not an inert body but that it is living and has activity, recognisable from its first forming from the Spirit Law that materialises a spirit body. The Spirit and the spirit body to give an analogy are like two attracting magnets and when the surface of the spirit body is touched by the Spirit, this causes the automatic response of the Divine Love to permeate into the attribute of soul and so begins the transformation of energy from the natural into the Immortal Divine Harmony. If the individual continues the receipt of Divine Love the energy that is Divine Love actively begins to change the soul and this is felt in the spirit body systems and can produce feelings of love and elation. The spirit-mind begins to change as all spirit body systems are affected by the changed condition now experienced in the soul as the soul becomes living and vital. In one's progression of this Divine transformation, the soul will mature enough from the amount of Divine energy it receives and at that moment the surface of the spirit body and the Spirit are continuously attracted to each other and one is living in the presence of the Father in perfect harmony and this clarifies the truth about what it means to be truly at-one with God.

SHINING TOWARD SPIRIT:
665. The Shining toward Truth

Vol III, p. 157, 14 Nov 2014 – 14 Mar 2015 Zara and Nicholas

www.lulu.com

It is I Matthew, a teacher of the Divine Love. I have communicated with you recently, now I desire to provide you with a visual description of the Love.

Imagine a continuous Energy shining light blue that is unbroken with a seamless surface that surround every mortal and Immortal spirit. Imagine if you were to become aware that this energetic field of light-blue Energy existed in its shining radiance just near where you are. Now that you are aware that this unbroken Divine Love is unified energetic field of living Love, by opening toward the Soul of God and aspiring for the Divine Love, the Acting Spirit gently brings a small portion of this shining blue Energy into your soul

The Divine Love that you have received remains part of this great Energy that the Divine Love is and even though this small portion of Divine Love, now within your soul, in its shining radiance and energetic cause, it is never separated from the continuous energetic field of Energy that the Divine Love is. Having partaken of this Energy it is with perception that one is aware that the Divine Love within one's soul is the same Divine Love that every person and spirit who has partaken of this Love, participates with. Even though in our individuality we partake of this Divine Energy, this Love is never broken away from the Source and Origin from which this Divine Love emanates.

The Divine Love is bestowed into our finite soul by the Acting Spirit, but this Spirit remains in contact with our spirit body and does not enter the finite soul to become part of our finite soul essence that we are. No mortal or Immortal spirit can manifest in their soul the Acting Spirit so that this Spirit – this Holy Spirit – becomes part of our existing finite spirit body. Only the Divine Love and its Energy becomes part of our finite soul, which causes the change to our spirit body. The Acting Spirit always remains its own attribute and never does a Celestial spirit claim ownership or take possession of the Acting Spirit within their soul. (The Holy Spirit / Acting Spirit is an instrument of the Source Soul, our Father.)

This is one of the wonderful Truths by which we who have been transformed by the Divine Love understand our personal relationship with the Father's ever-present Acting Spirit. The shining Energy of Divine Love is all around us and when we have partaken of this Love, part of our finite nature becomes independently shining in this true perfect Love.

I provide these words that may appeal to those who are visual and to express the universal appearance of the Divine Love and the personal touch when in contact with the Acting Spirit.

Matthew (Apostle)

Whilst we are receiving our Heavenly Parents' Divine Love, and that this Love is causing change within our soul and spirit attributes, the greatest Truth known to man and spirit is that this is the way our Parents are actually loving us! When we progress, it is the Mother and Father's way of loving us into love and then we live what we are, love.

EXPERIENCING RECEIVING DIVINE LOVE:

Be still and quiet; reflect in silence. Love is present. Keep asking, longing, and never cease: this is your part. It is your cooperation actively engaged that brings the transformation and continues the process.

You cannot see it; sometimes you will experience it as simple quietness and calmness. This is as pure and real as any other experience, whether demonstrative joy through laughter and dance, or other expressions.

Divine Love is present; it is always present. It does not fade or disappear. Rest, relax and breathe. Pray and wait.

Maintain daily prayer and meditation. When you do this you are building a home for the dwelling of the Divine Love. Your continual invitations establish an attitude of welcome to the Divine Love. These build a bridge for the Divine Love to carry you to new and higher levels of change and transformation: places of new realms for your soul growth and development.

As the receiving of the Love is always assured when longed for and asked for, the experience of receiving may become apparent by the occurrence of a warming embrace in the region of the third eye chakra, or with some, around the heart chakra region. This may be very subtle and gentle for some and may be for a few moments or extend for some time. Many do not physically feel the Love embracing them and this is totally fine, nevertheless the Love is being received.

On a few occasions, one may feel the love through the third eye region and then feel it expand as if it were to become a warming buzzing 'hat band' progressively expanding around one's head. This can intensify and feel as though one's cranium is about to pop off! Should this continue to intensify, then the sensation may flow down one's main meridian to the base of one's spine. Now that is something else! Relax and enjoy the great gift for this can be an experience that may continue for a short while or for quite some time.

Always, when one longs for the Love, it will shower over one's body and be absorbed in through the spirit body chakras into one's soul. Occasionally the Love will overflow from one's soul and some will reside within one's spirit body. At no time will you be discomforted. This light golden blue energy substance is the ultimate high octane super fuel gifted to us by our Heavenly Parents to us all.

195. Wow!

I am a spirit called Les. I am in what you know as a good soul condition; I am slowly accepting more of the Love. I liked fishing when I lived so I know that good things take time, if I can give you this analogy. You are celebrating Divine Love Day today, and this day will spread over two days so that those in the Northern Hemisphere can celebrate their Divine Love Day too. (14 December 2014.) I have found out that this is the 3rd Exodus of the Celestial Heaven; there will be many more Divine Love Days to come in future years. This is the message I am to convey to you.

The Gift of Divine Love is a wonderful gift. And the idea of a Divine Love Day where people and spirits can give time to celebrate the Source of this Love is a wonderful gift as well. I believe this is your 10th Divine Love Day, but only the 3rd Exodus of the Celestial Heaven. There are more bright spirits coming here now and more natural spirits, everything is becoming quite involved and it is really impressive to see the visibility of the Divine Love that the Celestial teachers have received as they can use this energy from their soul to illuminate their spirit bodies ... Wow!

With love and in the Love, Les

197. Love

As it would happen, my surname is Love; my name is Sarah Love. I have been a spirit for 20 years now. There is much activity happening and I can see that the Master Jesus has just arrived, the brightest of them all!

I am overwhelmed now, I can't speak, just wait a minute...

I am getting it together, I can continue.

I can see that his mother Mary is with him, and soulmates Judas and Mary Magdalene are with him as well. In fact, all of his apostles are with him, they are entirely approachable. This is a moment as a spirit I will always remember. I would like you to utilise your soul perceptions to see this, even though this Exodus will have past by the time you read my words. There are thousands of spirits present now.

There is such a manifestation of Divine Love and the Spirit that is enveloping us all that conveys this Love into our souls that for my first time as a spirit, I would have to say that it feels like even the Father is manifesting a presence.

I am too overwhelmed to write now, the Master approaches.

198. Glad tidings

I am here with you, Jesus. I bring glad tidings to all who are present here and those of you who are aware of the Father's Love. It is Divine Love Day today and the Exodus of the Celestial Heaven is under way. I prepared this day so that by example, the Father's Love could be seen living and that the individual who desires this Love may be given every opportunity to ask for this Love.

I will not teach you anything at this time other than to say that in the service of Love these communications are true and consistent and will endure so that another may find the Love through these written words.

Let us be content now as we pray to the Father.

Your loving brother,
Jesus of the Celestial Heaven

199. A gentle confirmation

I am here, Saleeba. I have been here with you for most of the day, this Divine Love Day. The Master shone his love brightly toward you both and you received his brief message. This is not a time for grandiose statements or to emotionally glorify personality. This time is about a gentle confirmation that the Divine Love is present for those spirits who are unaware that this Love is plentiful and abundant and like the Father, waiting to be received. When the Master is present and the other Celestial teachers exemplify this, we are considerate to one who as yet to receive the Love for we know that the individual needs to commit for themselves, therefore we cannot exult the personality of the individual who is as yet, to receive the Love for this would be a misguided introduction to the Love. We are by living example, humble in approach, ready to be of assistance and open to be approached by anyone.

The example I am trying to convey here is likened to a person who may think or believe that the spirit world is a place where roads are paved in gold. Celestial spirits have never covered themselves with fantastic allurements or adorned themselves with spirit riches to show their progression or their position entitled to the Father. The Divine Love is such a gentle soulful experience and its entrance into the soul is unobtrusive that for many on Earth, when they ask for the Love, may feel unsure they have received this inflowing gift.

Some of the Celestial teachers have moved away and have proceeded to visit some individuals on Earth who currently are celebrating their Divine Love Day, this is a beautiful moment.

My love to you, Saleeba (Saleeba is an ancient spirit who once was a princess in Egypt)
(Each of the Divine Love spiritual writing works are typically overseen and managed by a Celestial Spirit, in this case, the writing of “Shining Toward Spirit” Saleeba and Luke have this task together.)

201. Luke drops in

I am here, your true friend Luke. The Divine Love Day is well under way now. It is evening for you and the day has passed since you heard from the Master. We are continuing on for as you know, there are many people waking up into their Divine Love Day in the Northern Hemisphere.

Cindy conveyed a true message to you that confirmed Matthew’s introduction of the Three Great Truths. Another Celestial teacher will write a little more on this soon. These Three Great Truths are the foundation upon which we are teaching in the natural spheres today and it will be so from now on. Matthew really identified these Truths and the Master has expressed that we all teach with continuity these Three Great Truths. I know that there are many Truths that we can and do teach, and have taught to the needs and requirements of the individual but I will say that going forward it is our expressed wishes and desire that these Three Great Truths be received by people so that they can become part of the social fabric as the new awareness and emergence dawns in the hearts of humanity. This is an important moment for today and the future involving both Loves, the natural and the Divine.

I can see that you both need a rest, it has been an eventful day filled with much love and celebration. We will shine brightly toward the Love and Spirit of the Father as you enjoy the fullness of this Day.

Your friend, Luke (Apostle)

The Three Great Truths:

- “God is Soul, being our Heavenly Mother and Father;
- that each individual soul is a finite individual;
- and that the Divine Love is freely available for all to receive.”

202. The Exodus has been fulfilled

I am here with Saleeba and you see it is I, Luke. The Exodus of the Celestial Heaven has been fulfilled once again. You are both well rested and the Northern Hemisphere has had its Divine Love Day. There were many Celestial spirits present with several people who were aware of this Day, and of course all the natural spheres shone brightly in the presence of all those who participated to extend the awareness of the Gift of Divine Love.

I know that people may say that everyday is a Divine Love Day, and for those of you who are inclusive with the Love, this is absolutely true. The Divine Love Day marks the Exodus of the Celestial Heaven. Keep this in mind as each calendar year rolls around for this experience that transpires in the spirit world only happens once a year. We cannot overwhelm every sphere all the time otherwise we could be seen as descending evangelists, and doomsday prophets, and fundamental preachers, and we do not want to set an example of being a proselytizer of the Divine Love. That is not the Way of the Father nor is it our agenda to impose anything upon another. The Exodus is lived with Grace and sensitivity and respect for the Three Great Truths.

Spirit life goes on and our Ministry of Love and Service goes on. Spirits are returning to the Divine Love spheres and to the Celestial Heaven and will intermittingly return to assist the inquiring individual who feels it is time to embrace the Love and accept the Father. Our business being Celestial teachers will carry on and we will ensure that individuals who have commenced their receipt of the Love will not be abandoned in their commitment.

Luke the Apostle

I would like to thank you all for being aware of the Love and for participating on this Day. We can see how many souls arrive in the Celestial Heaven who became aware of the Love from the previous two Divine Love Days and Exodus' of the Celestial Heaven.

I will return and continue to communicate with you again soon.

Your true friend, Luke (Apostle)

224. The Divine Plentiful

I would like to convey to you how much I love the Father. I never thought I could feel such love in my soul for another individual. I have accepted the Divine plentiful with a grace that is a feeling that I know I am soul. Everything about me is fulfilled in my love, now that I love. There is nothing I desire or want, my one and only true soul need – to be loved – has been met. I know that only the Soul of the Father with his beautiful Love can do all that I need for my happiness. I feel that progression for me now is pure harmony.

I need do so little now and my spirit body is covered with the True Spirit that completely envelops my prayer for the Love and the Love is absorbed into my soul. I feel that there is no distance between my soul and the Soul of the Father. My past is completely smooth like my memories and there is no greater understanding than my living with the Father. To me, my reality is all about the Soul of the Father and the way I feel Loved. It is with my expressed gratitude that I love the Father and in return, knowing that the Father is receiving my love. In my prayer to the Father I feel my soul open and I am in grace feeling my soul living. I cannot describe how I feel any more perfectly than this to you otherwise we would be going where words cannot take us. This I have given you as my testimonial so that one may read and feel a little of how I accepted the Father those years ago here in the spirit world. I know that history places in other contexts, but you and I know that the Divine Love is where we are shining toward and so I have provided you with my testimony that may inspire feelings of love and well-being as one draws close in their acceptance of the Love.

Gracefully,
An embraced spirit in the Love, Mary, the Mother of Jesus

227. A woman of faith

The Father has, by living Love, Loved us by providing this gift of Divine Love that we receive. Having received this plentiful Love, as Mary has just recently described, can you not feel the softness of this Divine Love as it touches and embraces the breast of your soul?

Dear women, let this Divine Love embrace you! Feel its nurturing care and gracefulness, can you not feel this Love in your heart and know that you now are a woman living faith and Truth? The Father hears your feminine prayer just like the Father has heard my prayer for the Love. I am in soul given to this Love, I always was.

I, by virtue of my intuition knew that the Truth was a Love to be heard in my own heart and soul. I lived my faith as truly as I could and I will always do this. Can't you feel this Love permeate your femininity, your feminine essence in your soul as you are held in the innocence of your acceptance and knowing?

There are so many women from diverse cultures living with this Love in the Celestial Heaven. I welcome you. Let our feminine light be an example for all other women to follow. In our humanity and in the grace of spirit, feel the Father Love you and this Love will confirm to you that you are what you have always known yourself to be, a woman of faith living in the nurturing fold of Truth.

I communicate this word of Love to you, to offer love and support to those who of fairer nature.

My love always, Mary Magdalene

Note: The black and white images throughout this document are copies of the portraits painted by the medium who received and recorded the Judas of Keriath Messages. During the course of receiving these messages, from 2001 through to 2003, the medium progressively received the images of the personalities as they would have appeared during their life time in the early part of the 1st century.

As you can see from the image below of Joseph, the husband of Mary, that he appears as a young man. Joseph was only a year or so older than Mary at the time of their marriage.

To liberate one's real self, one's will, being one's soul, is begun by embracing Feeling Healing, so as to clear emotional injuries and errors. With the Divine Love, then one is also Soul Healing. ### 565. Paul's Word – For the want of a concrete image

I am here with you it is I Paul, I have returned to convey another message. Mr. Smith is correct in his description trying to define the finite soul one is. I would like also to confirm to you that there are two things that are very difficult for all spirits to define and describe: one of these aspects is the very soul one is and the other aspect is the Divine Love itself. This may sound rather odd considering these two Truths fulfil everything that it is to be finitely individual and Immortal in one's living with the Father. The foundation of all spirits progress is established at the point of origin – being one's finite soul – when living in Divine Love. We know that the Divine Love is external to us and then is internal within our soul, when we have received a portion of this external Love, and yet, I nor any other spirit can provide you with a concrete image of the Divine Love and our finite mortal soul that would be universally clear and seen as living Truths. We can describe the surface of things, but the actual energy of Divine Love and the internal energy and form of a finite soul remains with invisibility, only seen by the Father.

We know the Divine Love exists and we know we are finite souls. We receive Divine Love and there are definite changes that transpire in our spirit body. We know this is true that the Divine Love has changed our soul, for all of us living here in these changes have our reference point of knowing how we were in our finite image prior to our receiving any portion of the Divine Love into our finite soul.

When a spirit receives their first time the smallest portion of this Divine Love one may feel this Love or have difficulty feeling this Love, and there will be no great change or evidence of change dramatically experienced in the spirit body. Jesus defined and clarified the identity of this change in his teaching and revealing of the New Birth, which in this principle teaching is defined by the finite soul receiving the Divine Love, experiencing this change which is brought about by this Love with the eventual perfection of one's natural love so that one is living in their acceptance of the Father in their Celestial soul condition.

When the Divine Love meets the finite soul one is, and greater portions of this Love are infused in one's soul the spirit body begins to change and to adjust to these changes of energy. Anything that prevents this change from happening is identified in the condition of the finite soul and the memories of one's human experiences, seen as a relative harmony or disharmony that relates with the Soul of the Father. The spirit body is always consistent in its symmetry with the changing nature of its finite soul. Can you imagine what it would be like if one were to receive the Divine Love and only the soul changed but the spirit body and personality of the individual and their respective attributes remained unchanged? Thank goodness this isn't what happens!

I am here to say to you that in your human experience if you are wondering about receiving or having a concrete image of the Divine Love and your own finite soul, there is no need to doubt your experience and awareness of the Love. For your experience of being unable to identify with vision your finite soul and the energy of the Divine Love you have received, will be consistent with the fact that spirits themselves cannot see their absolute energy of soul nor can we see the actual energy of the Divine Love. We can feel both of these Truths and their presence, and we can feel the Love interacting within the soul and part of the living energy of Divine Love causes us in our awareness to know that we are soul and that the Father's Love is within us, but to qualify the actual internal energy of the soul and the energy of the Love requires a very progressed soul condition, which some spirits do possess. This may ease your wondering in what I have said, as many of you explore your experiences whilst concrete images remain illusive about the soul you are the energy the Divine Love is.

I would like to conclude by saying that spirits in their good soul condition can visibly see the effect of the Divine Love in another's finite soul by the illumination of energy that shines within a spirit's or person's spirit body.

Thank you for receiving my message,
Your friend Paul

566. John's Word – Living love

Hello, I am the individual history knows as John the Baptist. Today, and since my coming into the spirit world I am known and like to be called John. Those who are progressing in their receipt of the Love and who are interested in the human story of the life of Jesus do inquire and learn about this history so that they may better place their experience of the Love into a context of the history of Divine Love. Celestial spirits when I meet them refer to me as John. There are individuals who ask me about my human life, and there are individuals who ask about the life of the First Parents (Aman and Amon), but only to further their knowledge about the full story of the Divine Love and its availability from the Father. Many spirits are generally not interested in the specific history of the Divine Love. This may surprise you to hear this. Most spirits are immersed in their own living with the Love and relate this experience with their own personal history and there is so much to learn about the way the spirit world is, that spirits have no need to dwell on the whole history of the Divine Love. If a spirit inquires about the history of the Love they can find out all they need to know from the characters that lived this history. This information is available and if one is interested to learn about the life of the First Parents or the life of Jesus, this information is never withheld.

There are many spirits here who have lived in the spirit world a long time. They have their memories of their human life but compared to their spirit life these human memories are small due to the small amount of time one has lived compared with the number of years one has continued to live in the spirit world.

One of the main things about living in the spirit world and in the Celestial Heaven is that the Divine Love is the Living present. This means that spirits are no longer living to the history that happened years and years ago. People on Earth today are involved in cultural history, spiritual and religious history that continually becomes revised with each living generation. In the spirit world we don't live like this. Individuals have their memories of their human history however; living with the Divine Love is always to the present and never to the past. I could tell you every detail of my human life but what would be the point? This won't change anything. The only thing that will bring about change is your own receipt of the Divine Love.

I am also to say, which is a very important Truth about living with the Divine Love in the spirit world, that Jesus and his apostles have not in any way established or set in place a formal faith and religious belief system that another spirit has to accept when they arrive in the Celestial Heaven. Each individual has their respective past and is not suddenly confronted by having lived through the transformation of their soul and to arrive into the Celestial Heaven only to realise that there is an organised religion that one now has to fit into that has been set in place by Jesus.

The way of living here in the Celestial Heaven is living love. Each spirit knows this Truth. Each spirit who arrives in the Celestial Heaven has received sufficiently enough of the Divine Love to know the Spirit Laws they live in as set in place by the Father, thereby this is the independence of spirit living. The Celestial Heaven and the Divine Love Spheres are without any formed religion, spirituality or mortal system of belief of living. Each individual comes from their respective culture with their beliefs, and gradually these human systems of belief give way as the reality of one's soul life living emerges. This is the great liberation of spirit life.

I have enjoyed writing with you both, and having made contact and communication with you.

Respectfully, John

(John the Baptist)

567. Jude's Word – The revolutionary change

I am with you Jude. I have some important information to share with you. No Celestial teacher teaches individuals prior to their receipt of the Divine Love that they are going to experience the New Birth of their soul. What we do teach today is that there are changes that take place all the time and no greater change than when a person progresses into the spirit world to commence their spirit life. I know some of you will be familiar with this teaching of the New Birth provided by Jesus through the spirit communication James Padgett received. Some spirits cannot figure out what is the greatest change – the fact that they have survived their death and to realise that one is still living in another environment with their personality intact, or that another experience is available to commence the receipt of the Divine Love and then to eventually arrive at a place that has existed for thousands of years and that the existence of the Celestial Heaven for most was beyond imagination.

Everything about the Divine Love represents something new. A great number of spirits have communicated their experiences of this Love and each individual knows that to begin receiving this Love is a new experience. In order for one to know what the New Birth is, one must know that it is defined by change as Paul said. The soul, that is the true individual, is made so that it can change and although the reality of one's soul may lie dormant to the awareness of the individual, the potential in the soul is always for change. Learning how to live through change by living love is a new experience for most. I have seen this with the number of individuals that I have assisted since they have begun receiving the Love to their progression and eventual arrival in the Celestial Heaven. Your soul – the one and only finite soul you will ever be – when in receipt of the Divine Love will never experience being formed again as if being formed into an entirely new image, as it was when first formed by the Father.

There is a lot to contend with in the great nature of time and experience. Most people have to contend with their adjustment into their spirit living knowing that their human life has ended. There is so much information that one is exposed to, that it takes time for the personality to integrate this new information of spirit living. For one to then press on into the reality of soul and to experience change in one's soul is another whole reality that requires adjustment. It is quite incredible when you look at the durable nature of the individual personality and how each individual experiences the succession of changes in which the personality adjusts through incrementally.

When a spirit arrives in the Celestial Heaven, each individual lives with that certain mark of composure that only one can live with knowing that they have lived through successive changes and that one's personality has been able to incrementally adjust to these changes as they live in the presence of the Love. If, in your experience of living with the Love, you find the changes a little confronting, there is nothing to be concerned about. Changes in the soul are incremental and they need to be so that the personality can adjust to these changes. From a human perspective you may be always looking forward to where you are going with regard to spirit reality. A spirit is looking at where they are and is able to see where they have come from and where they are going. Perhaps the biggest change that can be identified as a New Birth is the development in human and spirit awareness that such a change actually exists that will affect one's condition of soul. This aspect of awareness is first light in the consciousness of an individual who has gone from their position of not knowing about the Divine Love to the now knowing, experiencing and living with the Divine Love. This experience of awareness is groundbreaking for the individual, for the strength behind this experience is the awakening of the slow realisation that real truth – Truth that cannot be tampered with – exists and for most people and mortal spirits, this is a revelation.

I am pleased to have communicated with you this day.
 Jude (Brother of Jesus)

568. Andrew's Word – The Unifier

I am here I am Andrew. I confirm Jude's message and teaching about change. We are not trying to dismiss the teaching of the New Birth that our beloved friend taught as the foundation for the experience that the Divine Love is. What we need to do and what we are trying to do here, is bring the words, experiences and teachings of the Divine Love and the Natural Love up into present-day and to dismiss the religious context that the Divine Love has been restricted to. This may confront certain individuals but in the interest of progress, a modern, current unified language of experience that is transparent is required to be forthcoming from us so that people today and tomorrow who are in their Divine Love experience and who are aware of these greater spirit potentials have a consistent Truth that is reflected both in human experience and spirit experience when living with the Love.

Spirits who were once people themselves, from all walks of life from different ages and cultures are experiencing and involved with the Divine Love and the changes they experience confirm their independence and unity with the Soul, the Father. These individuals do not refer to their experience as undergoing the New Birth of their soul. Today spirits simply identify to their experience as experiencing the Love and the changes that follow in their progress to be at-one and in-likeness with the Father.

There is only such a small portion of humanity that will ever hang on to its religious thread and for that matter, even some people will hang on to the Padgett material as the generation of today matures and produces the generation for tomorrow. The Divine Love will always be for the soul but beyond a secular approach to a few chosen words given to days long ago. Today, there are countless people entering the spirit world and many of these individuals are contemporary in their living and the first thing that will not happen is to have religion thrown at them as they awaken into this new environment. I am not trying to reform anything. What I am trying to do – as we are all trying to do in our effort to bring forward these communications – is to demonstrate that the Divine Love and living with the Love is the most liberating thing an individual can do for themselves and that while this Divine Love is for the mortal soul, never will it ever be restricted or limited to its universality and approach to the individual soul by a select and restrictive system of religious belief laid down by any mortal man or spirit. People and spirits need to know that there is in existence a Love that is completely free. The changes that occur having received this Love will never cause disharmony within the individual soul and personality, and it can be said that many a spirit has felt these changes and upon their arrival in the Celestial Heaven likened their experience to an elevation and great feeling of love, in the wonderful presence of Spirit of Truth.

Thank you for receiving my word,
Andrew (Apostle)

573. James' Word – I come in Truth

I am with you, it is I James sometimes called James the Less and brother of Jesus. I am glad you heard from Lael and Scott; you also received a very good word from R. Ruth and Mr. Entwhistle. I am with you now to convey a word that I assist with many individuals who are themselves proceeding in the Love. This is a service that I enjoy doing and is measured by my own relationship with the Father. I have spent long periods of time in the 1st Sphere where individuals are beginning to process their experience now that they are aware that there is this gift of Love available for their soul. As you now know, there are many aspects attributed toward the awakening of the soul and the development of the attributes of the spirit body.

Individuals need clarification on what the Divine Love is, and the cause it will affect as one obtains portions of this Love. I have been well taught by my brother, Jesus and I have progressed sufficiently in my own at-onement with the Father so I am well prepared to teach and guide those who are embracing the Love for themselves. I do spend time in the lowest Spheres assisting the poorly developed souls and I also spend time in the perfect Sphere where individuals have perfected their natural love. I like the service I do, and though I have been in the spirit world a long time, this is my place – being of service – so that those who embrace the Love have assistance and may proceed with clarity. It helps to have individuals who are well-versed in this remarkable transformation of the soul, to assist those who are beginning, for our assistance can lay rest any confusion that might impede an individual's experience. As it has been mentioned to you, I do not teach in the language such as the New Birth, for I have found over the years that individuals require a more immediate and direct introduction, which in Truth works: the Love being so present that many are opening toward it and change is underway. When you meet with a Celestial teacher you are not meeting an individual who looks like some ancient drawing from the past. Our spirit bodies represent our wonderful condition and we are always attentive to the present and most importantly, we can communicate socially of the day. This helps for many individuals embracing the Love aspire to connect to the present, which the Love represents.

James the Apostle

The truth that I desire to convey to you here, is that knowing the Truth and living with the Truth enables me to be of service and to only be forthcoming with any truth that does not be the gain for myself but to assist those who in their beginning with the Love, are familiarising themselves with the reality that Truths do exist for them. Understanding this provides more clarity on the definition and attribute of awareness, for spirits who are beginning to be aware of the Divine Love are also emerging into an awareness that real existing Truths form part of this experience and, since all spirits who begin with Divine Love come from an environment where such existing Truths were unknown, this transition is a dynamic moment in the spirit life of an individual. Where you are, you may have also experienced a little of what I have said here by the way of understanding that once you were unaware that such Truths existed, and now by having found that these Truths do exist, you can see how compelled you were to find them without ever knowing what you were looking for, or the form of what it would be once you had found it. Those of you who are aware in your Divine Love experience today will know the kind of awareness that you have now compared with the human awareness that you lived with prior to this introduction and beginning.

It has been necessary for all these spirits to contribute so that your beginning has a greater and broader foundation that you may embrace change as you slowly awaken into your acceptance of the Truth that you have found.

This has been a wonderful moment together
Thank you, James (James the Less and brother of Jesus)

574. Peter's Word – I speak the Truth

I am here with James; I am Peter. I do the same as James in my service to the Father. Quite a number of individuals can be perplexed by the existence of Truths. The Father's Truths are everywhere one simply needs the soul condition to see them. The Truths that I live with are the same truths that all who embrace this Love live with for we are embracing the Father and if one has a problem with Truth and its existence, there is no greater Truth than the existence of the Father. I say this for humanity does have a problem about the existence of Truth. Many people believe that their own beliefs are correct about the Truths, but usually these are only beliefs and not Truths. When one faces the Truth one will more than likely need to give ground for the Truths that I speak of will never change. I know this for the Father never changes and all extenuating Truth that has form from the Father acts in accord with the Truth of the Father in the Father's Action of Living Love.

My address to you is not to put the fear of the Truth into you, but to illustrate that from the evolving human experience people are subject to human truths but when one connects with the Divine Love, then you are connecting with the Father's Spirit and Soul Truths. This is why James and I spend so much time in the 1st Sphere where individuals are beginning in their acceptance of the Truth of the Father. The transition from human belief now that one is a spirit, and from spirit belief carried over in the memories from one's human life into the awareness that one is soul and that there are real forms to the Father's Truths that assist in the change that enables one to progress and to become in this progression at-one and in likeness with the Father requires a steady hand and a patient disposition until one's acceptance of the Father in one's soul is never in doubt of one's living.

I will conclude by saying that as individuals experience their change from the influence of the Divine Love they have received they like to know that there are those present with them who have been through these changes and can now be like a rock to them.

I give you this with love and a big spirit hug,
Peter (Apostle)

INDWELLING SPIRIT, THOUGHT ADJUSTER,
MYSTERY MONITOR (all being the same):

The external elements, instruments of the Father, do not form attributes of our own soul upon its initial creation by our Heavenly Parents, these are the Spirit of Truth, the Indwelling Spirit, and Divine Love.

The Holy Spirit, conveys Divine Love to your soul should you earnestly and lovingly ask for it. This is the only function of the Holy Spirit – Acting Spirit.

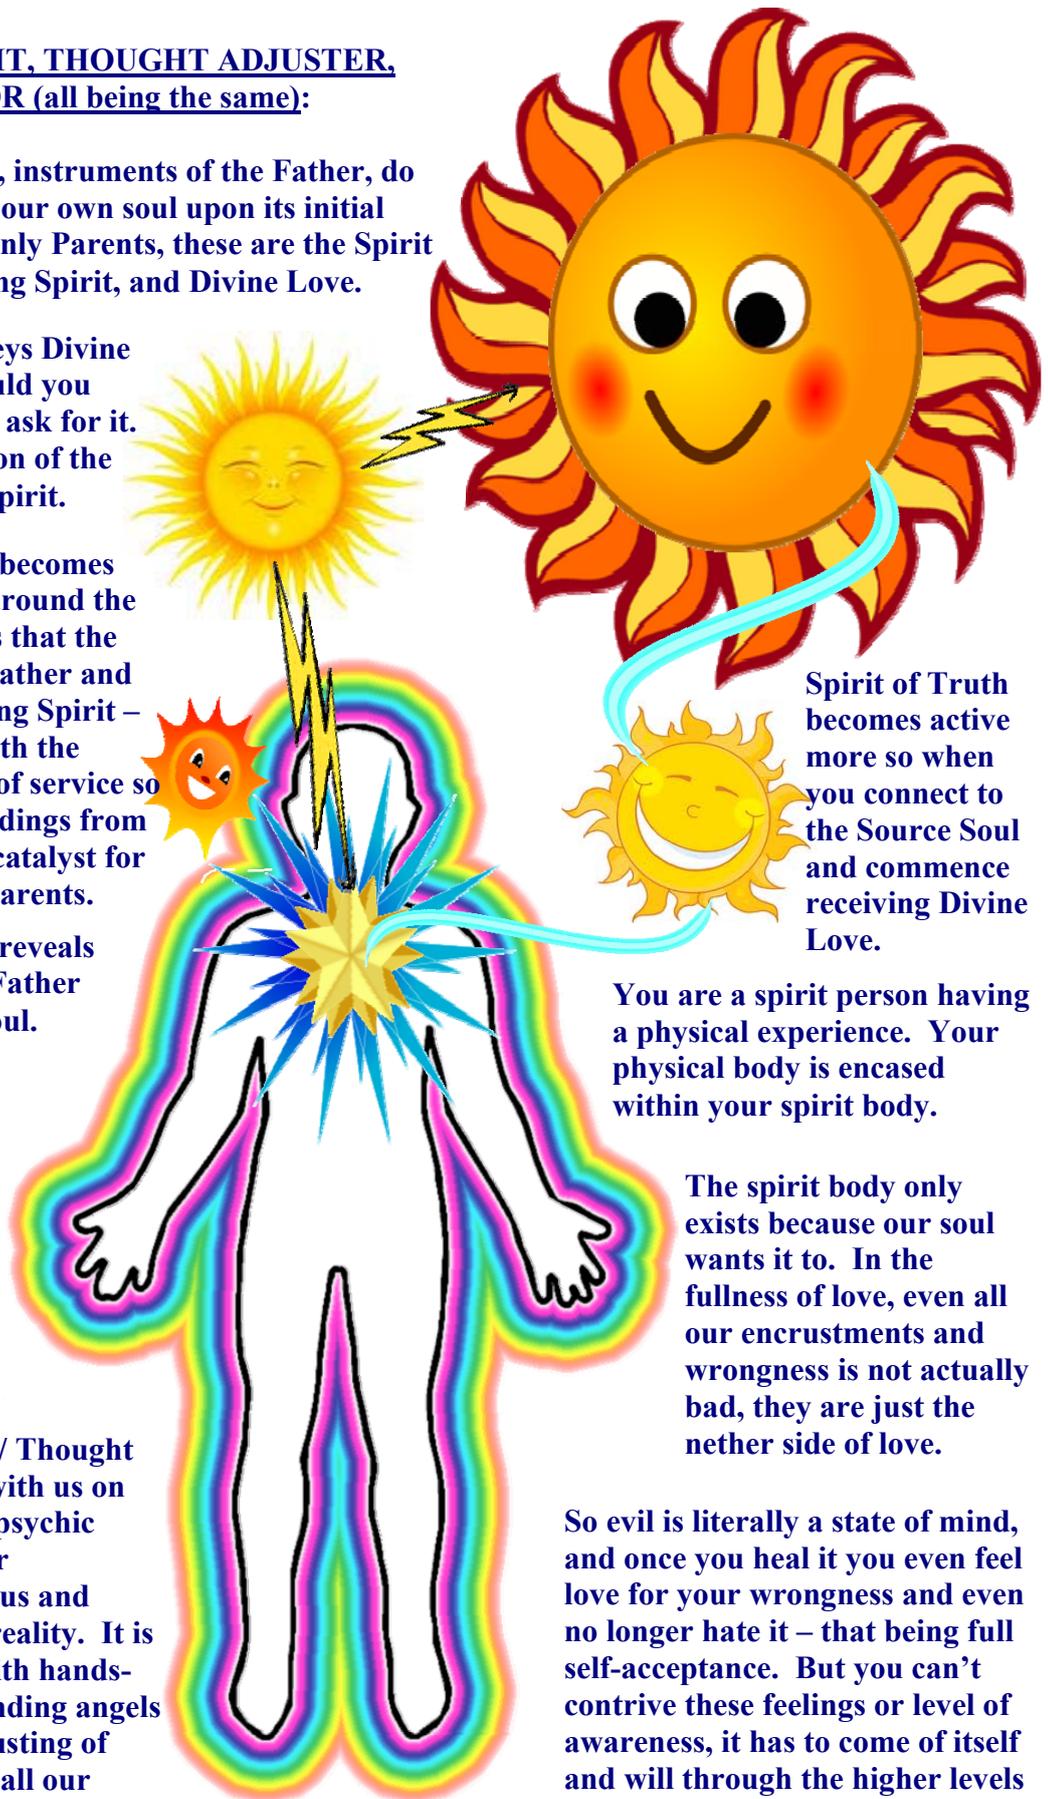

The Indwelling Spirit becomes present when we are around the age of six. This means that the unseen helper of the Father and Mother – the Indwelling Spirit – can always interact with the mortal soul and to be of service so that eventually the leadings from the Spirit may be the catalyst for that soul to seek our Parents.

The Indwelling Spirit reveals intrinsic workings of Father and Mother to your soul.

The Indwelling Spirit functions in much the same way as the Holy Spirit, ask and it will provide support and guidance.

The Indwelling Spirit / Thought Adjuster only works with us on the mind, feeling and psychic levels directly with our personality on conscious and unconscious levels of reality. It is the Divine Minister with hands-on help from our attending angels that do the actual adjusting of our mind circuits – of all our circuits, even the physical if need be.

Spirit of Truth becomes active more so when you connect to the Source Soul and commence receiving Divine Love.

You are a spirit person having a physical experience. Your physical body is encased within your spirit body.

The spirit body only exists because our soul wants it to. In the fullness of love, even all our encrustments and wrongness is not actually bad, they are just the nether side of love.

So evil is literally a state of mind, and once you heal it you even feel love for your wrongness and even no longer hate it – that being full self-acceptance. But you can't contrive these feelings or level of awareness, it has to come of itself and will through the higher levels of your Healing.

576. Bartholomew's Word – On the Divine Love

I am here to convey a few words on the Love. It is I, your friend Bartholomew. The Divine Love that has been expressed to you by those who are themselves experiencing this Love is not an ideal or an idea of Love and Truth made up that represents a concept for one to obtain perfection. The energy that is the Love, is the only way the attribute of soul can become in its living nature at-one with the Soul of the Living Father. While one can live in their good natural love, this natural love will not bring about the same experience in a human or spirit awareness that one is progressing in their at-onement that the Divine Love provides. The natural love differs than the Divine Love. The fact that this Divine Love is experienced by people and spirits alike proves beyond a shadow of doubt the existence of this Love and that the Truth of this Love in its existence has not been hewed out of the mind of a mortal to convey an idea about how to live with God.

There are many of us who are living with this Love now in this spirit environment and we are well experienced as to the Love's True cause insofar as how this energy brings forth consistent changes in our soul. I am well experienced to the true reality and purpose as to why this Love exists. The Divine Love provides among other things to the finite soul, the Immortality and confirmation that one is living with the Soul of the Father and perhaps the most immediate Truth that the Love provides is confirmation to the individual – having come from experiences of unknowing – that one now knows that the Soul of God exists with real form. I along with Celestial spirits as you have heard, assist those who are in their experience of living with this Love, part of our responsibility in our living with the Father is to provide assistance to those individuals, who by their choice alone, have decided to begin their receipt of this Love.

Now I know that there is little evidence of the existence of the Divine Love among the peoples of the world, but this does not need to discourage you from the sincerity of your endeavour and effort to experience the Love and to embrace it in your human experience. There is also little evidence in your physical reality of the Truths that have been revealed to you, which includes and involves the enormity of the Spirit Laws in their presence, which relate with you in your incremental soul progress. This lack of visible evidence of the greater realities of spirit need not deter you from your trustful experience that when you are aware of the Love and that you ask for the Love to flow into your soul from the Soul of the Father, and you will receive the Love. The fact that you are endeavouring to accept this Love and your relationship with this Love is the quintessential Truth that defines experience. Receiving this Love never needs to be a complicated beginning. Experiencing this Love is in fact, very simple and need be so that each individual can feel that in their humble approach to the Source of this Love your soul can be embraced through the Soul, the Father, with immediate action. There will be no one preventing you from your being able to experience this Love other than yourself. If in your experience, your acceptance of the Soul of the Father dwindles, then I encourage you to call upon your faith that may become an abiding place in your soul that will add certain confirmation that will encourage you to embrace the experience of the Love.

All our words are said from and delivered from personal experience. There was a time when once we ourselves commenced our receipt of the Love and we needed assistance, teaching and guidance from Jesus as we began our living with this Love of Our Father. We are sure-footed in our experience now; having lived our way through these soulful changes and we know how these changes progress. When beginning with the Love there may be uncertain times and one may feel at odds and ends in their ability to clarify and identify their experience of the Love in its workings, which can result in misunderstandings and misinterpretations between the natural and the Divine Love in their living. This is all part of the progress toward an acceptance that one is now living with an energy that will bring into rapport your soul with the harmony that unifies us all.

I have enjoyed communicating with you again, and to share a truthful experience that a person or spirit can embrace in their living.

Your friend in the Love, Bartholomew (Apostle)

578. Judas' Word – On Spirit Laws

I am here it is I Judas. I would like to convey a few words on the nature of the Spirit Laws. The Spirit Laws that relate with soul condition are not floating around in an in-between, ephemeral space. A Spirit Law is defined by a specific attribute that extends from the Father and is in relationship with our finite soul when our finite soul is directly relating with the necessary Spirit Law that is harmonious to our soul condition with the Father. The essence here is harmony. To elaborate what I have just said, if a spirit is in poor soul condition and this condition reflects the individual's disharmony in their soul condition, even though this individual is in a state of disharmony, this disharmony does not affect the harmony of the Spirit Law of Compensation.

There are Spirit Laws that come into effect for a period of time then when the soul condition improves; this relationship with this Spirit Law is super-exceeded by the working of another Spirit Law which is more attracted to the nature and condition of that soul. We are not bound or set in an ironclad fist of Spirit Laws that prevents our personalities from being mutable. The better the soul condition the more one can move with independence and freedom. Another example of a Spirit Law is seen with individuals who are living in their perfected attribute of natural love. An individual in this condition cannot – by their own determination – exceed the Sphere they are living in.

An individual in this situation may desire to move but in relationship with the Father by the related and specific Spirit Law, the perfect natural man or woman cannot by, their own volition, proceed to a Sphere beyond this Perfect Natural Sphere. An individual in this situation may eventually feel stifled in their ability to be self-determined and self-acting. But as soon as the individual commences their receipt of the Love and this Love permeates their soul, the individual can begin moving again by their progress through the Divine Love Spheres and are no longer subject to the specific Spirit Law that has bound them to their finite boundary.

It is difficult for us here to communicate to you how structured these spirit environments are without sounding like we are describing these Spirit Laws as an imposed condition for living spirit life. Essentially, to gain a better perspective it is perhaps better for one to see that there are specific Spirit Laws that relate with the finiteness of the Natural love and soul condition and then how liberating all these Spirit Laws are when the soul begins its transformation through the energy, having received the Divine Love. As soon as a spirit involves themselves with the living of this Love, one can perceptually gain real insight into how the Father has established these Spirit Laws that assist the attributes of soul, spirit body and personality to realise their full potential. The perception from the perspective of a finite natural boundary could be viewed that these Spirit Laws are working against the self-determination of the personality in natural love but when one includes the Divine Love, it becomes self-evident that these Spirit Laws are working for the determination of the individual realising their full potential for independence and expression of their personality in love.

When a spirit arrives in the Celestial Heaven and the individual casts their eye back from the time they were solely in their natural love, the individual can see how liberating these Spirit Laws are and how they have contributed toward their abundance compared with the freeing of being contained and somewhat limited as the personality felt restricted in its finite natural boundary as the individual may have strived in their self-determination as a spirit, to be perfect and master of their evolution and domain.

For those of you who know the phrase and teaching “That a River flows no higher than its source” this Truth aptly describes, explains and defines the condition of natural love in contrast to the liberating effect that the Divine Love causes in a soul and that soul’s relationship with the various Spirit Laws emanating from the Father as the Source of the Love.

Thank you for receiving my word,
Judas (Apostle)

DIVINE LOVE being AVAILABLE is our SALVATION:

DIVINE LOVE is the ultimate high octane super fuel to transform our soul into that which is Divine. Loving in all that we then do. With Divine Love we can progress into the Celestial Heavens, without it we can not. Ask and you will receive.

We are created with the substance of that which is not Divine, and that is Natural Love with its various aspects that reflect through our personality.

The Divine Love is far more powerful than the natural love. If I would have to put a number on how much stronger, just so you can understand what I’m trying to say, I would say 10 or maybe even 100 times. Of course this is purely hypothetical because natural love is only a derivative of Divine Love so it is almost impossible to compare them this way. If you ask for the Divine Love to enter your soul it will be 10 or 100 times more efficient, 10 or 100 times stronger than if you would let the natural love flow through your soul. So it will help to break down “the wall” you’ve created around your soul 10 or 100 times faster than the natural love would do.

579. Mary Magdalene's Word – On the distinction of the Loves

(This is someone speaking as though she is Mary Magdalene)

It is a pleasure to be with you again; it is I, Mary Magdalene. The Divine Love represents the beginning to see the form of the Father with clarity. People and spirits need confirmation that the Soul the Father is not an obscured presence in all of our experience. Ultimately the Divine Love is our first contact with the reality that the Soul of the Father exists. Humans have for years tried to establish a personalised reality that God does in fact exist and that there is a Truth as to why there is in fact a God and how this Truth would then translate into a social understanding about one's self and humanity. Spirits in their natural love live with their continuity of experience and memories, and until one makes contact with the Divine Love, the experience that God exists can still remain unknown to these individuals experiencing their spirit life in only their natural love.

As you know, the natural love that forms the essence and image and attribute of each incarnated soul, in its good condition lives in a relative harmony with God. People in their natural love have held belief in God and lived with this belief, and some have experienced the Divine Love in their faith in God, a faith that in action is loving toward one's self and another. Which ever way you look at it, the Truth of it is that there exist two distinct Loves that remain separate from each other until the individual finite soul partakes of the Divine Love. Whether a person is aware that this has happened has defined much about the lack of awareness that forms the Truths about how these two distinct Loves work and form the basis in which every single individual lives within.

When you are looking at the reality of Divine Love living from your perspective of your human experience, it is quite difficult to perceive how these two Loves can be so different yet entirely sympathetic when experienced in your soul. When a spirit accepts the Love, the Divine Love, and as this Love brings about the necessary change in the soul and that individual embarks upon their progression through the Spheres in toward the Father, by the time the individual enters the Celestial Heaven the individual can distinctly see why there are two distinct Loves in existence and how living with the Divine Love in one's soul includes one's natural love but that the Truths that relate with the Divine Love emerge with complete distinction from what is purely natural in the attribute of man.

We have gone to great lengths to illuminate this Divine Love and to place this Love in context with the Natural love so that there is a tangible reference of experience that may assist you as you become aware that there are two distinct Loves. It need be said and confirmed again that when I or any other spirit speaks about a reality involving the Divine Love and the Natural love that we haven't fabricated this structure from within our own minds. In all that we share with you, we have become aware of ourselves and in this way, there is a universality and transparency to our experience and a personal experience that can be inclusive of you.

Keep shining,

With much love and grace, MM

(Mary of Magdalene)

591. Thomas' Word – On the perfect form and presence of the Divine Love

Hello, I am with you now it is I Thomas. I am very close to Jesus and I have been ever since my human life and when my spirit life commenced.

For those of you who have an interest in the form of the Divine Love, I would like to take you back to the beginning. The Father is the Single Origin for the forming of this Love that we receive. Once the Father formed this Divine Love and released it into existence, never has the Father changed or altered what was originally commenced as the presence of this principle energy and form that this Love is in. The Love is very exact in how it performs when received into our finite soul. This has never changed in all its existence and never will it change in its entire existence. When we participate with this Love and this Love – this energy – enters our finite soul, never in its existence in our finite soul will this energy ever change by any aspect of our finite condition. The Divine Love – when in a human soul – will never become anything else.

The Divine Love as it is external to us and then internal within us, never changes to become something other than what it is. This Divine Love saturates the space between the Father and where all finite souls reside that have incarnated. It is abundantly present and to our knowing, never has this Love fluctuated – as in being less than or greater than the immediate supply that it is. This example demonstrates the economy of the Father. Having formed this Divine Love into existence the Father has made the perfect Substance in its amount to sustain the experience for all finite souls to participate in. The Divine Love is not in short supply.

My message is brief but the vision of what I have said will help broaden one's perception on the perfect form and presence of this Love.

Respectfully, Thomas (Apostle)

592. Johanna's Word – On perceiving the Divine Love

I am with you, my name is Johanna; I have come with Thomas to be by your side. I would like to say that the Divine Love you are receiving is the same Divine Love we here in the spirit world are receiving. This has been confirmed to you before and I am to confirm it to you again. There is a sense of unity knowing that the same Love is acting out its same cause in the diversity of individuality. People have tried in years past, to identify an existence or attribute such as 'peace' or 'compassion' that can be sustained as a universal principle and teaching for living that crosses all cultures and is generally accepted as an ideal that has living reality to it. From our perspective, the only Truth that can do this is the Love that we have gone at great lengths to generate awareness of.

For those of you who have an interest in understanding how the Spirit Laws work and the form that the spirit world is in, if one can perceive how the form of this Divine Love is in its unified harmony, then this will show you how consistent other attributes of the Father's Spirit is in the workings of certain Spirit Laws and principles that determine the structures by, which each finite soul abides in whether one is aware of this or not.

When I became a Celestial spirit my soul was sufficiently developed so that I could perceive how unified the Divine Love is and I could experience this harmony as the Love now present in my own soul. This gave me a true indication of the all-sustaining consistency by which other realities of the Father are and to my pleasure, how I could relate my finite individuality with such sustaining realities.

My message here is to bring to your awareness the ability to utilise your developed perception to see and perceive the Love that you have experienced, as being whole and without separation from your soul and the Soul of the Father.

It has been a pleasure to communicate my first time with you and about this wonderful Love.

With love, Johanna

594. Mark's Word – On defining the Divine Love

Hello, my name is Mark. I am a close friend of Jesus and teach about the soul changes that take place when one begins living with the Father. Eliza is correct. Her effort to communicate with you was a good experience and I am pleased that you received her first experience with this kind of communication well.

When spirits commence their receipt of the Love, by receiving this Love this individual will not be overridden by an acceleration of energy caused into effect by the energy in one's soul now being more active. There is the inevitable truth that as one continues to receive the Love, this Love will cause change. The Energy of this Love is so true, consistent and perfect that in its state, it never changes therefore, at its principle energetic existence, when the Love becomes centred in the soul everything finite and mortal adjusts and changes around it. The Love, the energy of this Love, never alters when in the finite soul therefore any change that transpires, our systems that are adjusting by having this now perfect energy present. To provide you with an example, if you can imagine the Divine Love as the still point of a wheel spinning around, there is large movement around the edge, but at its centre, this movement is seen as being still. The Divine Love is 'still' energy; energy that in its stillness causes movement, the movement of the energy that is contained within the finite system of the soul spirit body system.

When you have gathered enough information to discern the difference between the finite capacity of the natural love and how, in its essence one can become the perfect man or woman and the perfect natural spirit, one can then discern the difference between the limitation of change that the Natural love has as a capacity of energy compared with the Energy of Divine Love. In order to continue any progression there need be in existence something to provide the means to propel progression – and this is only the Divine Love.

This has been a pleasure to communicate with you and to contribute toward defining the defining experience of living with the Divine Love.

Mark (Apostle)

596. Simon's Word – On knowing

I am here, Simon. I am a friend and teacher with Jesus. He of course is well attuned to the Father and I am still learning much about the reality of living with the Father from the teachings of Jesus.

My message is to simply state that even though Jesus has been residing in this spirit world since the ending of his human life, he has not reached a place where he has himself, ceased to learn about the Father. He does of course; comprehensively understand to its fundamental experience all that the finite love is and everything that happens when one begins their receipt of the Divine Love and the experience that follows to arrive at Celestial soul condition.

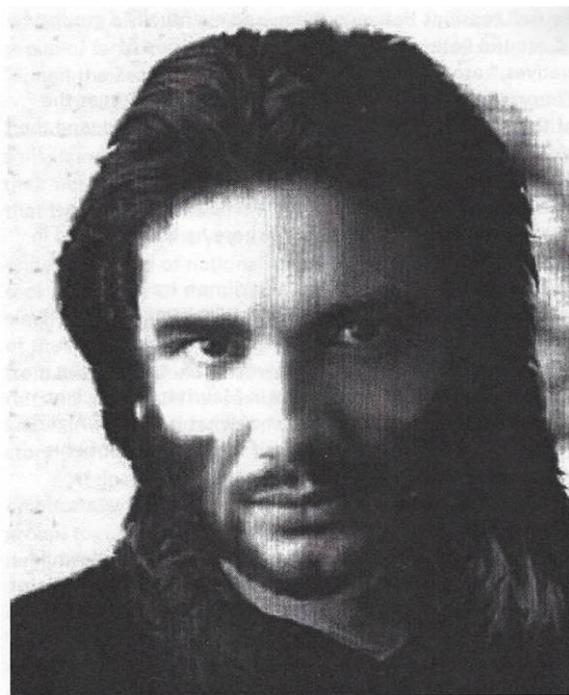

Sometimes today I ask Jesus questions about the Father and he responds by saying he doesn't know. I do not desire or wish to unsettle your nerves, for the perception is that Jesus knows everything that there is to know about knowing and living with the Father. As I said, he does with regard to what is required in regard with the living of the Natural and the Divine Love. If I ask Jesus the question, 'How did the Father form?' he doesn't know and this is a Truth that we all accept and having asked this question ourselves, we accept that from our finite standing we cannot define the answer to this simple question.

We have all had to realise that part of our experience when living with our acceptance of the Father, is that there are superior realities that exist that are beyond every single one of us and while the Divine Love – and having this Love in great abundance – answers a lot of questions, there are still many innocent questions borne from our innocence that may not be answered or at least answered until a very long time.

It is important for me to have stated what I have said here for it places Jesus into a true perspective and that a person may not live with the false reality that he knows the answer of everything. Jesus is not God nor ever will be. And this Truth needs to be understood in all its humility for it is a misconception that any finite individual will ever possibly be of equal standing with the Father. To teach otherwise is to teach an untruth. We can all receive the Divine Love and we can respectively know a lot about a lot of things, but all of us existing as souls and living in the spirit world are greatly relieved that not any single one of us is to know absolutely everything that there is to know about everything and to carry the burden of that responsibility.

Quite simply put, it is impossible for a finite spirit-mind to act in a manner that would be comparative to the same attribute that exists or is identified as the intelligence that exists as part of the Soul God.

Thank you for receiving my message,
Simon (Apostle)

Simon the Zealot

597. Philip's Word – On the Master

I am here to confirm the message that you have just received from Simon. I need to confirm to you that everything is known by us and Jesus, about what is required in the fulfilment of the perfect natural love and what is required to perfect one's natural love to its completion by the receipt of the Divine Love so that one is of Celestial soul condition. Jesus, the Master, knows full well all the cause and effect and the workings of the Father that involves these two loves and he also knows how the spirit world is put together. He can freely travel throughout the mortal spirit world and he can easily converse with those individuals who have progressed beyond the Celestial Heaven.

I am to state that no one knows more about living with the Father than Jesus does. He has formed the language that he provided James Padgett with and he has formed constructive teachings that instruct us who works along side with him to best assist those who are in their experience of a subjective change. I would also like to state here that in these few messages of knowing, we do not consider knowing to be a competitive attribute but rather the recognition that there are experiences that are known to us and those experiences that may remain unknown to us involving the Father. We would not like you to think or to consider for one minute that because we do not know aspects about the nature of God, that this unknowing would then diminish our knowing about living with God's Divine Love.

When one embarks on their experience of receiving the Love and advancing their human or spirit awareness to the greater realities of love and spirit that surrounds one, part of this faith endurance and spirit living will always include the innocence of unknowing as part of the Truth about knowing the Truth. It comforts me to know that I have been living with Jesus here in the spirit world and we are both in the Love of the Father and we can share exchanges that speculate about the creational nature of the One who we know, love and adore, the Father.

I have enjoyed communicating with you. I know that to some of you, these recent works may not have a clear point of reference of Truth in your human experience of being aware of the Love however, it is imperative that the greater aspects of Truth are revealed so that the full spectrum of spirit experience is forthcoming with transparency and that one may have at their fingertips a most wonderful selection of messages that we have provided.

With respect for the Love,
Philip (Apostle)

603. Matthew's Word – On vision and Truth

I am here; it is I Matthew. I am a close friend of the Master's and I have come to communicate with you, which I have been looking forward to.

There is no separation in the Energy of Divine Love. Yes, the Energy of Divine Love is substantial without me trying to make use of a colourful language full of superlatives to describe to you how substantial the presence of Divine Love is. I know that in these communications and the form that these communications take, as in spirits being where we are and you being where you are, and the way information is related to you from our experiences that impress upon you the ever-presence of Divine Love and how it is external to us and then by our aspiration, this Love becomes internal within us. For all the finite souls that have partaken of this Love and for all the finite souls that are to partake of this Love does not in any way diminish the presence of the Divine Love in its volume that is external to us.

In essence the Father has designed this Divine Love, this ever-present cause like energy to be part of the overall original creation and forming of the human universe. Now I know that the expression 'human universe' may sound grand to you but when you consider that people exist on the face of the Earth and then the same people continue their existence throughout all the Spheres, one can see that there are in fact finite souls scattered and living in numerous environments all in the same time. The extension of humanity doesn't begin and end with human awareness – as in being defined by one's finite existence of their human life on Earth – humanity continues well on into the spirit living and there is a succession of Spheres in which various conditions of humanity reside. The Energy of Divine Love and the Acting Spirit are present without distortion or dilution everywhere finite souls are living and this includes the Spheres beyond the Celestial Heaven.

I would like to say here that there is no difference in the Divine Love that you experience to the Divine Love that a finite soul experiences in the 1st Natural Sphere and it is the same Divine Love which finite souls experience in every respective sphere. The mere fact that you are with your finite human awareness and that you may have just commenced yourself as being aware of this Divine Love, by the mere fact of you being human and physical with limited knowledge of this Divine Love in no way shapes any outcome to the overall existence of this Divine Love that has existed since the beginning and forming of the first attributes of finite soul and spirit body.

If you doubt the existences of Love and Spirit, there is no doubting that the Father formed these realities of Love and Spirit well before the first finite souls ever incarnated to become human beings. Any doubt you have will originate from the lack of spirit evidence that you have experienced, quite often due to the social, economic and material demands for social living and survival. Every single human being abides in their existence within what the Father has formed; you may simply live without any experience or awareness of this Truth that I have just said. Opening yourself to the awareness that the Divine Love exists and by feeling this Love marks the beginning of the Truth that there is more to the human form than meets the eye.

When you partake of the Divine Love you are being consistent in your receipt of the Love with a vast number of finite souls residing in all Spheres in the spirit world who themselves, are undertaking their initial experience of including themselves in the substantial reality of this existing Energy of Divine Love. I understand that in your experience of including yourself in this Divine Love, that you may be limited to see any visibility of the existing spirit world and the billions of finite souls that reside here and the hundreds of millions of finite souls who are themselves living in their awareness of the Soul of God by having received the Divine Love and who are with this awareness.

There is a huge industry of Love and Truth happening here in the spirit world and this industry is the experience of individuals learning how to live their true soul life, for the Divine Love begins the change of each individual from their soul firstly. It has required many teachers to assist those who are beginning their progression toward the Soul of the Father and to educate how the soul changes as one slowly begins to perfect their natural love, which is represented in the changes in their spirit body and their soul. I bring to your attention this vision of Truth that is a living reality here so that in your humble moment of prayer to the Father you may know that you are not alone when participating with this Love and that you are in actual fact making your beginning with an ongoing universal Truth that truly defines all that it is to be human and soul.

Your friend and brother, Matthew (Apostle)

611. Rachel's Word – On the finite soul

My name is Rachel; I reside in a Sphere in the Celestial Heaven; I have been here a long time in the spirit world, several thousands of years. I am glad to meet you and I would simply like to impress upon you the necessity to shine the Light of Awareness on the presence of the Love. There will be many who will live in this awareness and there are many who are doing so now. I am a teacher of the Love, a vocation in my spirit life that brings me true joy. I live with the true knowledge that each individual is a soul and that here in the spirit world there are lost souls, which by definition are spirits who live without any awareness about the true identity that they are soul. I cannot stress enough the importance that each individual is soul, and that to have this awareness will advance one when they themselves eventually arrive here in the spirit world. There is always that wonderful moment when a spirit here – who by having received enough Divine Love – then, by their developed spirit senses perceives the reality by their true knowing that they are soul! This is the moment that defines everything when one includes themselves in the Love.

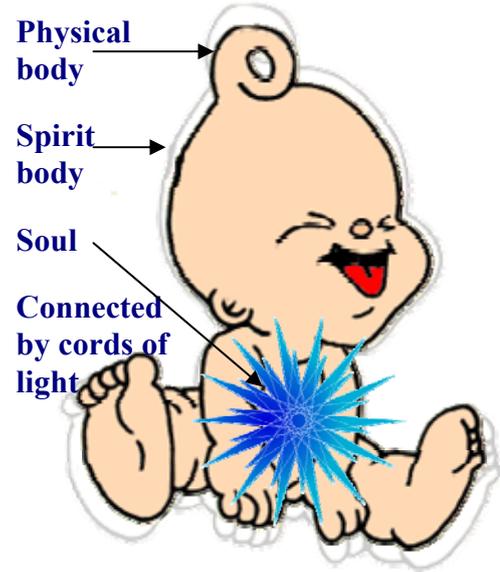

I know that many of you in your physical experience may not be able to perceive the true identity that you are soul, but if you can live with a faith – a living faith that you are soul – this will assist in your inclusiveness in the Love. Pray gently and nurture yourself in your evolving experiences and awareness of being in the Love, and perhaps in a moment of illumination you may experience that wonderful moment when you recognise and accept that you are the beautiful soul you are.

It has been a pleasure to communicate to you about the finite reality of soul.

Respectfully, Rachel (lived before the time of Jesus)

618. James' Word – On the Gap

I am here; I am James a close friend of the Master's and teacher of the Father's Love and Truths and of the mortal soul. I am here with you to convey a word on the Gap that Wendy mentioned.

The humanity of the Earth that lives without the awareness of the Love that we live with in the spirit world is what defines this Gap. Here in the spirit world individuals have been living with this awareness of the existence of the Divine Love since Jesus lived his human life and then arrived here to commence his spirit life.

People over the years have sought to make sense of the human after life in image only. Today, some of you are aware of the Divine Love and have received much of this Love into your souls, which is far more important than understanding an image of the spirit world. You have covered in the Gap as you now live in your awareness of the Love and the fact that you are a finite soul. It is far more substantial for your soul to receive the Immortality of Divine Love than to spend time trying to ascertain images of a proposed human afterlife and never to receive the Love into your soul. You have heard from individuals who have received the Love whilst in their human life, like James Padgett did, Dr. Leslie Stone and Eugene Morgan and whilst they had an interest in the image of the spirit world, they benefited greatly when they arrived in the spirit world themselves to see how their souls – by having accepted the Love – could adjust to their spirit living easily.

It is always helpful to spend time trying to ascertain images of the spirit world and how a spirit's life might be, for this can lead one to lead a more open life and a more rounded life but try to include the reality of your soul and to pray for the Love, for this will prepare you for when that time – as it definitely will arrive – when you yourself will pass over and become part of the image of the spirit world.

It was said and taught by Jesus in a message communicated to Mr. Padgett that in natural love let us not be in image only. The Divine Love is real energy and this energy is with substance and fit for your soul, which is more than a mere image as it too, constitutes real energy.

When the Energy of Divine Love fuses with the energy of your soul then your image becomes living in the attributes of substance that your individuality was always intended with potential to be.

With respect and mutual effort to bring about the awareness of the Love and to bridge the Gap,

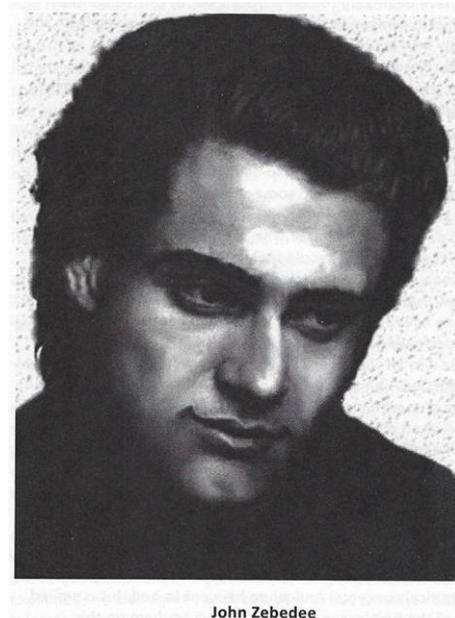

James, son of Zebedee (Apostle)

620. John's Word – On the soul approach to Love and Truth

I am here with you I am John a close friend of Jesus; I am a teacher of the Father's Love. We have not met before nor have we communicated before. There has been much effort from you both to assist us so that we can bring information forward from our environment here that may benefit another and that one can draw comfort from these words conveyed with love. I foresee that in the human future, there will be many souls who will live with an awareness that they are soul, the God is Soul and that one in their faith, is experiencing Divine Love. People will like – as some of you do now – the soul approach that is the experience of Divine Love. Though the soul that you are is intangible to identify in its finite image, being aware that one is soul and Divine Love is for the soul leads to an open approach toward the Soul God, which for many works, for this approach is far less structured than other mortal faiths and beliefs and is in harmony and keeping and in likeness with the approach that spirits identify their experience of Divine Love from their position of being soul.

These works will provide companionship to those in their experience of the Love. We understand that there are differences between your experience in the Love and our experience here in the Love, most noticeable of these differences is the fact that most of you may feel alone in your beginning whereas here, individuals are surrounded with other individuals who are knowledgeable in this soulful experience. Understanding this means that a person can feel at times, slightly isolated in their experience of living with the Love and this can present a problem for a person to accept their ability to trust in the experience of their acceptance, for what you may see around you is the world you have come from – a world that lives without any emphasis of soul being the real truth of who you are and the importance of what the Divine Love represents.

The Master's Truths with regard to his teachings about the Natural and the Divine Love always relate to the identity that one is soul. The more your soul is changed in its condition by the receipt of the Love, the more evident this Truth I have just conveyed.

I have enjoyed communicating with you and to have contributed to this work. .

Respectfully, John (Apostle)

632. The Master's Word – On Divine Energy

I am presently with you and I am glad to be communicating with you. I would like to briefly say that throughout these spirit communications there has been reference made to the Divine Love being an existing energy. The Divine Love is Energy, perfect energy formed and released into its existence by Our Father. This Energy is active when it becomes part of one's soul and as energy, is sympathetic of the essence and energy that one's natural love is. It has been explained to you that when this Energy – the Divine Love becomes part of your soul – never will this Energy change and become something other than what it is. This is a Truth. This is one of the great truths about this living Energy released from Our Father's Soul. I would also like to state that this existing Energy formed into existence by the Father is the real and closest form of energy in existence that a finite soul can participate with, that is in its principle working, of the Father. Even though the attribute of each finite soul, spirit body and personality is formed by the Father at their most comprehensive and fundamental experience it is only the Divine Love – this Perfect Energy – that will place a finite soul in contact with the Living Soul Nature of the Soul, God the Father. It is for this reason alone that we have contributed much information that confirms this truth that I have revealed to you here.

I am your friend and I would like at this moment to thank Cleo, David and Bill for their assistance, bringing Shining toward Spirit and a progressive awareness of Divine Love into the light of day.

Your friend and brother,
Jesus

634. Saleeba's Word – On the uncompromising Truth

I am here it is I, Saleeba. There is always that extra sense of love shining when Jesus is present. There are many spirits present as I write to you now, and we can all feel that presence of love – the Living Father's Love – that Jesus exudes when he is teaching.

We who are teachers of the Father's Love have learnt so much from Jesus. His insight into the nature of the Father is without peer. As you have realised, he will not be righting the wrongs in the works that you do that illustrate the erroneous beliefs that people live with insofar as their belief of his human life. Today, Jesus is present and living with the Father here, making himself available to all in all the spheres. Here he can teach individuals and can assist with any errors that were once lived and held to the way he lived his life. Jesus teaches how one can live with the Father; there are many who are living in his teachings for the Divine Love is living in many souls now.

It is a waste of time for us to write reams of information with you about what is wrong with people's beliefs, when so little is known about the actual living with the Divine Love. This is why in these spirit communications we are spending all our time elaborating on this experience on living with Divine Love so that more positive and constructive information is forthcoming that can present an addition of truth that any person coming into contact with this information can have the opportunity to experience the Love for themselves and progress from any erroneous belief into the Truths by their own experience and choosing.

I will continue presently,
Saleeba

635. Saleeba continues her word

There is so much reality and experience that exists as a real form of living here in the spirit world. Many spirits such as I have lived with the Divine Love a long time. These experiences are comprehensive and sustaining so we have seen first hand, and lived a long time these teachings from Jesus about what is involved to individually live with the Father.

The spirit component that we live in is so different than the human physical living. We can see the reality of the Living Divine Love and our spirit perception can perceive with transparency the reality that God exists. We have lived in the Love with such vitality that here in the Celestial Heaven, living with the Father is a normal part of spirit life. I have no need for belief; my experience in the Love has caused such change in my soul and spirit body that I have long since passed any need for belief. The teachings of Jesus that I received a long time ago here in the spirit world I have realised, and now as with many other Celestial teachers we only teach the Truths spending little time with spirits trying to right the wrongs or change beliefs that were formed in a human life. We are living with the Love and spirits see this, though they may not know what this Love is to them, it doesn't require much explaining for the difference is seen in our spirit appearance. And for many spirits, they are quite prepared to change their beliefs about Jesus as soon as they see Jesus standing with them and teaching them the soulful Truths of the Father's Love.

I will continue in a moment.

636. Saleeba continues her word

I know that at times we may sound authoritative in our delivery of information. We try to afford information that is experienced and not a concept contrived out of our perception of what something might mean. We may sound authoritative because we really do know the Truths and having lived with these Truths a long time, we cannot write from any other perspective. It would be false of us to convey to you a watered down version of the Truth because we were trying to save hurting your feelings... better that you have the Truth so that you can process your own experience of the Love, and then to eventually arrive in your own position of understanding your own authority in your own experience of the Truth, by which then, you will know that this is actually a greater love in the living.

Jesus is living very closely with the Father. He cannot be anything other than this. He is sensitive with those individuals who are yet to accept the Love, but he will not change his position to accommodate an erroneous belief so as not to hurt someone's feelings. Jesus has never sought to make one feel uncomfortable or to hurt anyone's feelings. But he is what he is as he lives with the Father and all human belief may eventually come into contact with Jesus in the spirit world when belief is going to meet the certainty of Truth that will not change itself to suit a belief situated in error.

Some of us in our communicating to you are authoritative and there will be some of you who respond to this for you will realise in your experience of the Love that there is the knowing of Truth and this will not confront you; it will actually represent a relief to you.

Lastly, I would like to say that I, and many Celestial spirits are not forthcoming with information from an emotional standpoint. Our emotional content has long since matured into the vitality of our spirit living but having been people once ourselves, we have the memory of how it is to emotionally accept truths so we do our best affording you with information that comforts in its uncompromising Truth.

It was lovely that you heard from your friend Lael again.

Much love, Saleeba

637. Saul's Word – On the spirit-mind

I have returned to write with you, it is Saul. Today spirits are living their experience in the Love; there are people living with this same Love. I would like to say here that the Divine Love is the True Revealing of God to man and spirit alike. It is by being aware of this Love that the Soul of God can be truly known and identified with. This Divine Love presents the only viable way for the finite attributes to mature beyond the essence of natural love.

The reality that each mortal soul is finite and that the spirit body is finite, teaches us that the attributes of mortal personality are finite too. This may sound like a very simple statement on the nature of the mortal individual, but when you place into context the energy of Divine Love and how this Love has consequences in the soul that are felt and experienced in the spirit body, then these finite attributes are identified with greater perspective. An example of this is seen how the human mind is still dominant when a spirit living in only their natural love, but when the soul is in receipt of the Divine Love and living with this Love for a long time, the human mind is absorbed into the spirit-mind and the spirit-mind becomes the dominant mind adjunct to the personality. One is still with perfect recall of their memories from their human mind and life, but the spirit-mind is far superior in its attribute that is required for Celestial spirit living.

Much has been told to you about the transforming effect that the Divine Love has when engaged in a finite soul, part of this transformation is the emergence of the attribute of the spirit-mind, which under normal circumstances has been a potential-in-waiting as most people and spirits in their natural love experience their living in the finite limitation of only their attribute of organic human mind.

Thank you for receiving this interesting subject, another beautiful spirit will write with you now.
Saul (lived before the time of Jesus – Saul of the Old Testament)

644. Luke shines a light

I am here it is I, Luke. Now that it has been revealed to you about the relationship with the human mind and the spirit-mind, this will place many things into perspective. It explains why many people in their experience of being aware of the Love may initially find it difficult to perceive the Love's actual existence. People – like spirits – begin their experience of learning about the Divine Love in the soul condition they are in. Since the reality of one's soul cannot be perceived with any certainty with the attribute of the human mind alone, this reveals that a person is meeting the Divine Love more in faith for the attribute of the human mind – in its organic evolution – is geared toward the physical attribute and organic environment for survival rather than ascertaining the realities of soul living. Understanding this explains why people who have been introduced to the Divine Love may state that the real Truths can only be lived and learnt in the spirit world and not embraced and known in their human living.

There are people who in their experience of the Love progress in their awareness and acceptance of the Love, experience the attribute of their spirit-mind which provides a truthful and consistent knowing that their soul is a reality and that the Divine Love and Spirit realities have real substance and meaning and are not unobtainable. The emphasis I am trying to make here is to guide one into the consideration of the human mind in context with the spirit-mind so that one may know in their experience and awareness of the Love where to look so that any perceived limitation to one's experience can be identified in the interest of progression.

Your true friend,
Luke (Apostle)

653. A request for the Love

I am here shining my love toward you as I do whenever I am with one, when they are in the Love of the Father. I am here to say a few things that people may draw comfort from my words.

It is perfectly true that the Divine Love is present and abundant; the Acting Spirit is equally abundant. The Father, though distant in Soul from you, always hears and responds to a sincere prayer for the Love. Try to be openhearted and generous for your request for the Love. Never fear or shy away from the Father, each of you are worthy to feel the Love and Father close by. You can tell the Father's words from your own heart, as if you are confiding in a true friend and companion. The Father is always present and has time to hear and to Love you. See if you can always develop your faith so that your faith connects with the Divine Love and together, faith and Divine Love becomes a true relevance in your daily living.

If you are having trouble feeling the presence of the Love, see doubt as part of the overall experience for as your confidence grows, your doubt will diminish and your doubt will mirror the fact that you have been receiving the Divine Love when this truthful awareness surfaces from your soul and reveals to you that in deed, the Father has answered your prayers for the Love.

These Truths and the many truths provided by us from the spirit world will support you and can never be taken away. Truths relating with love and Divine Love are the all-sustaining knowings by which one can accept – as one slowly progresses in their awareness – living with the Father.

I will affirm here the Divine Love is only for your mortal soul and was never prepared by the Father to be fit for any other thing. The Love I and other spirits live in is this Divine Love that generates our soul living. I know that you may have little evidence as to the identity of your finite soul as it truly is, due to the physical attribute and material adjunct, which dominates your everyday life. This is quite all right, the Father knows this and knows your soul better than you know your soul to be. The Father will never overwhelm you in the giving of Love. The Acting Spirit that conveys this Love into your soul will never overwhelm you either so in this way, you will see and feel by example the sensitivity by which the Father nurtures your soul. There is no need to be cast down upon yourself – take your time with the Love and let your confidence grow. In faith little by little, a confidence will come to you that you have been receiving the Love that you have been asking for and that you have been Loved as only the Soul of us all, can love.

Be strong in your heart and may you draw comfort from these words.

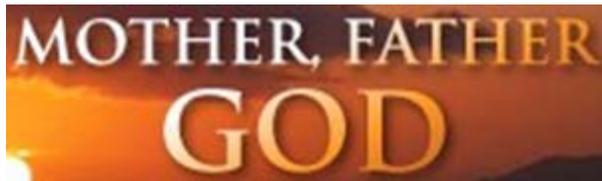

Your loving Celestial brother,
Jesus

654. Truth Eternal

I realise that experiencing and accepting the Soul, God can be a difficult thing for people to do. Believe me when I say, that I have seen countless people who have become spirits themselves struggle in their approach and acceptance of God the Soul when they are in their sincere effort beginning to receive the Love. Simply by virtue of being a spirit in the spirit world does not necessarily mean that it is any easier for one to accept the Soul, God. A spirit will know their human life over, but may still be unaware that the Gift of Divine Love exists for them.

Being aware and identifying one's self as soul is a new experience for people and spirits. A spirit exists in their spirit body but when a spirit is new to this experience, they may be no closer in their knowing that their true attribute of soul is present in their spirit body. It takes time for a person and spirit to gain confidence when they are embarking upon this new awareness of everything the Divine Love represents. Be strong in your faith when asking for the Love and loving in your approach to the Soul, God. There is much that comes from having received the Divine Love. One such gift is the knowing that this Love is a Truth, and now knowing that this Truth exists. The great realisation that awakens in the soul is that you have now found the Truth by which your finite soul can truly live and one can draw faith and comfort knowing that this Love, the Divine Love a Truth Eternal.

Paul, Celestial teacher and the man of love

God is God, who is our Heavenly Mother and Father, being SoulMates. There is only one Soul that is God's Soul, that being the Soul of our Mother and Father. Our Heavenly Parents are the First Soulmates; The Two Who Are One who have brought us all into being.

Jesus and Mary are a son and daughter of God.

Jesus of Nazareth and Mary of Magdalene, being soulmates, were both free of sin. Jesus and Mary, combined in their love for us, are our teachers and guidance for us to find our way home to our Heavenly Parents. To start this journey we are to liberate our souls from being entombed within our suppressive minds, through feeling and longing for the truth of our feelings via our soul and peel away our injuries incurred since conception.

Give yourself time to consolidate your relationship with the Mother and Father through the partaking of Their Love. And whilst you are doing this, you can learn about your healing, all that's involved with it, as there are many willing spirits to share their healing experiences with you.

When you are ready it will start happening simply because you will want it to, it all being orchestrated by your soul. And when that time comes you will have developed a strong foundation in your relationship with the Mother and Father for you to work from. We are to feel our feelings, identify what they are, accept and fully acknowledge that we're feeling them, express them fully, all whilst longing for the truth they are to show us.

It is to make longing for God's Love the priority, and then do one's healing; should one want to include God and the Divine Love in one's feeling healing. This is doing your soul-healing as you are seeking to heal your soul of all evilness – of that which made you become evil, and release all the hurt and pain of not being fully and truly loved.

WE ALL ARE BEING GUIDED HOME:

We need the Spirits of Truth of the Avonal Pair to Heal ourselves; then once Healed, (and for support (overshadowing) as well through your Healing), we need the Creator Pair, Mary Magdalene and Jesus' Spirits of Truth to see us through the Celestial spheres, while at all times embracing our Heavenly Mother and Father.

Until Mary and Jesus died and liberated their Spirits of Truth, no one from any of the worlds could leave Nebadon, because no one knew the way to do so. Nebadon is our local universe containing some 3.8 million inhabited physical worlds and their associated spirit worlds.

When we embrace the truths Mary and Jesus are revealing, and start to do our Feeling Healing, or with Divine Love, Soul Healing, we are then freeing ourselves up from our parental and self control.

Thus our journey to Paradise, to the home of our Heavenly Parents, is of our choosing as to when we progress, however, there is only one way:

HUM: Humanity is to ascend. We are self contained. Our soul is always in truth and perfect at all times. By living true to ourself, true to our feelings, we are living true to God. It's that simple.

We are to recognise that being engaged and dominated by our mind is the wrong way for us to evolve and grow in truth. We are to discard the mind enslavement that has been imposed upon as by all of our parents. We are to express our feelings, both good and bad and free ourselves of the indoctrination that humanity has embraced worldwide.

Live true to your feelings, and you ARE living true, not only to your own soul, but also true to God's soul. So doing your Healing by honouring all your feelings, IS living the will of God. And being fully Healed, IS living even more truly the Will of our Mother and Father.

AVO: We are to embrace the truths and guidance of the Avonal Pair through their Spirits of Truth. It is the Avonal Pair's guidance that will lead us through our Feeling Healing, and with Divine Love, we will be able to ascend through the 7 spirit Mansion Worlds and enter the Celestial Heavens where we also interact with other world's spirits.

J&M: We are also to embrace the truths and guidance of the Paradise Pair, Mary and Jesus, who will then lead us through the 3 Celestial Heavens that are aligned with Earth, and then further on through Nebadon where we will then depart beyond on towards Paradise.

M&F: Beyond the universal zone of Nebadon, we will be guided by our Heavenly Mother and Father onwards through the universes to Paradise where we will be welcomed by them, home for us all, as we are all Children of God.

M&F

J&M

AVO

HUM

WE ARE Children of God

WE ALL ARE BEING GUIDED HOME – NOW, HOW TO COMMENCE THE JOURNEY:

GOD

M&F

For 200,000 years, we have been misled into embracing our mind's distortion of wisdom and truth. All such traditional understandings only lead us in the wrong direction, from which we must turn back from. Our soul based feelings are always in truth. Our minds are to follow our soul based truths and feelings, not the other way round, as we have been brought up to embrace.

We are to connect with our deeper repressed feelings.
We are to long for the truth of what we are feeling.
We are to live true to our selves; by living true to our feelings.

Use your surface day-to-day feelings to connect with your deeper repressed feelings. Express your surface feelings and your deeper repressed feelings to uncover the truth of yourself.

J&M

We all have feelings which we communicate and share with each other. And we all have deeper buried and hidden repressed feelings. Feelings from our early childhood we felt, yet weren't allowed to express. These feelings are still within us, waiting to have their say. These feelings, because they are repressed, cause us all our problems.

And as we look to uncover, bring out and accept these deeper feelings, so we're taken into new ways of looking at ourselves, our feelings, and our life. We're setting ourselves free of the controlling patterns that govern our unloving behaviour.

In this way, we progressively begin to express the personality that our Heavenly Mother and Father gave us, not the one imposed upon us by our physical parents and carers. We are to be our true and real selves.

By living true to ourself, true to our feelings, we are living true to God. It's that simple.

AVO

HUM

As we, humanity, long for the truth of our feelings, we can also be assisted by the Spirits of Truth of the Avonal Pair who are our spiritual teachers for Earth over this coming 1,000 years, to assist us through the Great U-Turn, away from mind dominance to being soul based feeling lead. They will assist us through the seven levels of the spirit Mansion Worlds.

Then the Creator Pair, Jesus and Mary, will lead us through Nebadon and into the greater universe. Then our Heavenly Mother and Father lead us home to Paradise.

WE ARE Children of God

Collectively, should we embrace them all, as we are to, then our pathway home is a journey in the hands of the Spirits of Truth of the Avonal and Paradise Pairs overseen by our Heavenly Parents.

HOW TO GET TO PARADISE:

Long for the Divine Love

Long for the Truth

Long for the truth of your feelings

Don't deny any feelings: accept, express and want to know the truth of them

Know your feelings are the key; your feelings are the Way

Want to end your falseness and being untrue

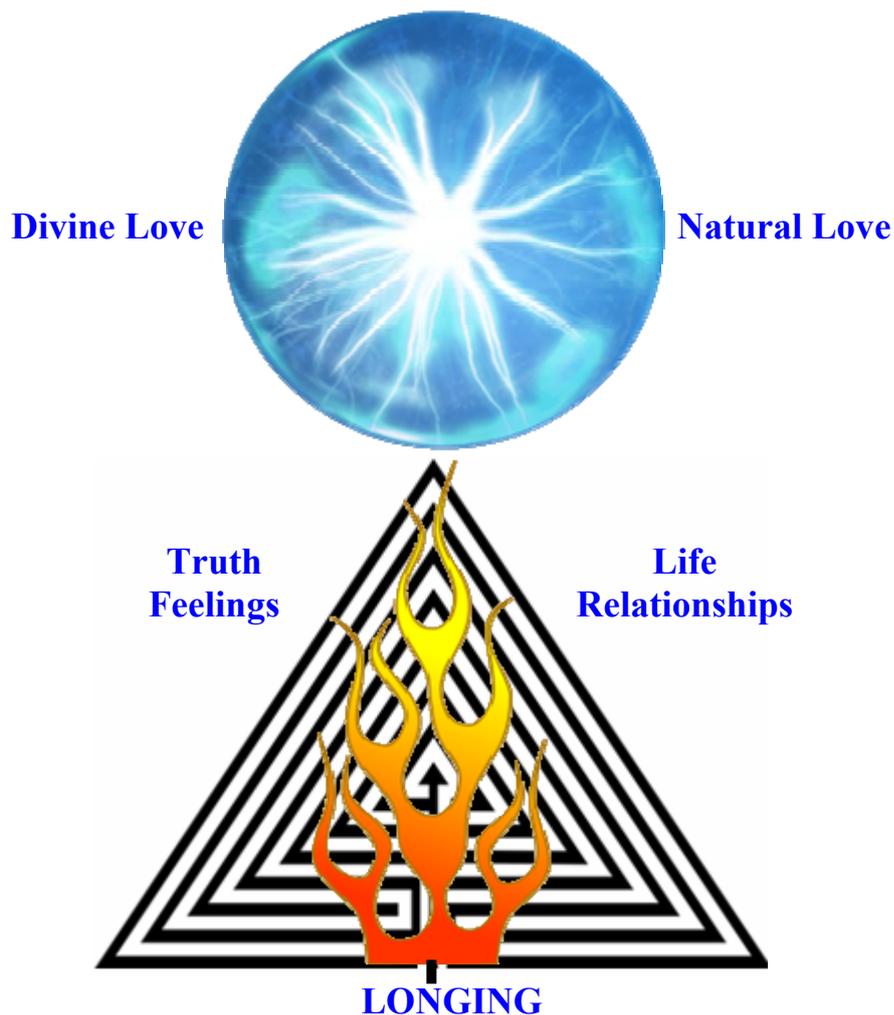

Want to understand the truth of your early life

Use your surface feelings to move deeper into yourself, bringing up your repressed feelings

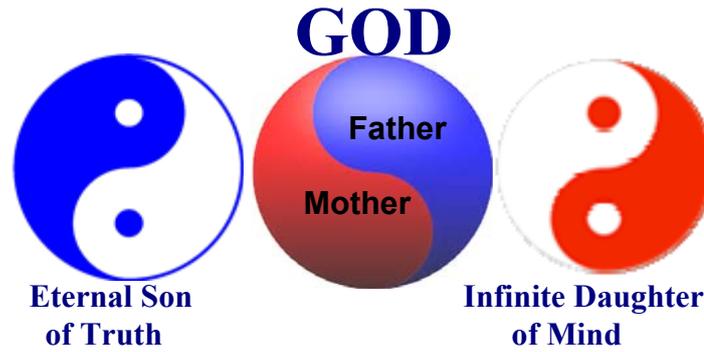

Want and long to know the whole truth of yourself

Want to do it all with God, your Heavenly Mother and Father – long to Them for help.

The Keys

Our longing drives our life. We long with feelings. We can wish for things using our mind, yet long for things with our heart. These things in the pyramid are what to long for. Longing for them, when the longing comes naturally. Longing because you feel you really want them. Long to be true with all your heart. Long to live true to your feelings. Long to understand the whole truth of yourself.

PARADISE TRINITY:

1. Our MOTHER and FATHER (God) (MF) – Divine Love
SOUL (God) – One SOUL that is expressing its two PERSONALITIES, our Heavenly Mother and Heavenly Father (Soulmates)
  2. ETERNAL SON (ES) – Divine Truth
  3. INFINITE DAUGHTER (ID) – Divine Mind
- Then: The Second and Third Persons of the Paradise Trinity (ES and ID) are stepped down to the local universe trinity (Mary and Jesus, Divine Minister (DM), and her Holy Spirit.

The LOCAL UNIVERSE TRINITY:

1. MARY M and JESUS      Our MOTHER and FATHER – Love – the Living Truth
2. DIVINE MINISTER      – Mind (and her Holy Spirit)
3. HUMANITY – Natural love, sons and Daughters – Truth, and our Angels – Mind

PLANETS that engage in REBELLION:

1. AVONAL SOULMATE PAIR      – the Feeling Healing process – incarnate
2. DAYNAL – TEACHER PAIRS      – they do not incarnate

So in summary:

Consider a diamond:

Mother and Father Heavenly Parents

Creator Son & Daughter
Jesus and Mary

Avonals
as soulmate pairs

Trinity Teachers
as soulmate pairs

Melchizediks – who have taken over from the Caligastians and Daligastians being also all as soulmate pairs.

Mortal Souls – human beings who individualise on Earth, then progress through the spirit Mansion Worlds, then into the Celestial Heavens, and beyond.

Mortal Souls – also being ascending spirits, upon completing their Soul Healing, join with their soulmate, then join their soul group of 24 mortal spirits, being 12 soul pairs. It is only as a soulgroup that anyone can progress beyond Nebadon.

The Paradise Pairs are all ONLY concerned with the SPIRITUAL wellbeing and upliftment of the planets and local universe. Currently to do with Earth:

Mary and Jesus – spiritual wellbeing and upliftment of the whole of Nebadon region.

Avonal Pair – Daynal pairs (Trinity Teacher Daughters and Sons) – Spiritual wellbeing and upliftment of individual planets and their associated Mansion Worlds.

The Local universal Sons and Daughters are all about the running of the worlds under their jurisdiction, and ensuring the higher spiritual elements can be employed, or sent astray, as in our cases through the Rebellion and Default.

Lanonandeks – Melchizedeks (and others, such as Life Carriers and Eve and Adam).

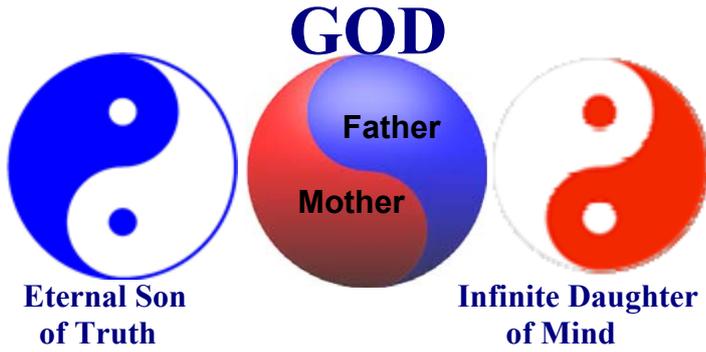

As the Lanonandeks all rebelled – the Lucifers, Satans, Caligastias and Daligastias soulmate pairs – so the Melchizedeks have taken over their roles, as well as doing their own.

So the Melchizedeks are the governors, overseers, the administrators and advisors and so on for Earth; they are the ‘controllers’, and they will instigate all that needs to be done to do with the ending of the Rebellion and Default. And they will enlist the willing help of ascending mortal pairs, so the mortal Celestials spirits (soulmates when available, and others waiting to unite with their partner), and at times mortal spirits in the Divine Love Healing Mansion Worlds. And the angels help all of us.

Currently the whole of Creation exists for the ascension of mortal souls from their earth planets to Paradise. It’s all one vast Grand Ascension Scheme. With all the higher and lower spiritual Daughters and Sons, together with all the many different angels and other universal spirit personalities, and even including nature and our very own pets, assisting women and men with their Ascension Journey. It being: and Ascension of Truth. Everything we do is done to help us grow in truth. (Only everything we do in our negative state is to deny ourselves our truth from our feelings, which is why we have to do our Healing.) All women and men are ascending (or growing) in truth through their experiences. And as we grow in truth by looking to our feelings to show us that truth, so we’re ascending, moving inwards and upwards through all the worlds and spheres of the Grand Universe to one day arrive on Paradise and meet our Heavenly Parents. God is providing us, Their children, with this spiritual journey called our Ascension of Truth. And by living true to our feelings, so we are progressing on our true Spiritual Path – our Ascension Path.

CREATION of SOUL and SPIRIT:

God is The Paradise Trinity — the eternal Deity union of the Personalities: the Universal Mother and Father; the Eternal Son of Truth; and the Infinite Daughter Spirit of Mind.

The soul of each human personality (sons and daughters of truth) is existential, driving our personality expression in the experiential. The soul of each human finds truth by embracing one's feelings and longing for the truth of them. We are to attain the Eternal Son of Truth. We are a creation of Truth.

The soul of angels is experiential, evolving through their experience by continually progressing in mind development. Angels are to attain the Infinite Daughter (Spirit) of Mind. Angels are a creation of Mind. Our soul is duplex (we have a soulmate) and is created by our Heavenly Parents. Through our Feeling Healing we perfect ourselves enabling the union with our soulmate, as we progress in truth up through the Mansion Worlds, celestial heavens and all the way to Paradise.

Mind Pathway

Nature Spirit

The soul of angels is also duplex, yet of the mind, and they progress in mind evolution to Paradise. Animals, plants and nature spirits are also creations of Mind.

Neither we nor animals reincarnate. We never die; upon death, we move into the spirit Mansion Worlds on our journey to Paradise. When animals and plants die, be they the tiny microbe to the mighty elephants of the land and the whales of the ocean, their spirit energy returns to the Spirit Collective Energy. And from this energy are drawn other animals and the nature spirits, who then in turn move onto becoming angels through increasing mind experience.

A nature spirit is an angel in waiting.

655. Equality

I am now conversing with you; it is I, Mary Magdalene. My words are for women to draw comfort from. Every woman is worthy to be in receipt of the Father's Divine Love. In the Father's domain of mortal life, men will never have or own exclusive rights on the Gift that the Divine Love is for the human soul. No male influence can sit in a higher position or have more authority over the determination of the Divine Love than a woman or another man. A woman can receive the Divine Love equally in abundance as a man can. The Truths by which sets the Divine Love to the Father are the Father's Truths that no spirit or men can take possession of or own and to then discriminate who then can participate. No woman, man or spirit can take the position of the Father. The only authority of these Truths that are Universal and eternal is the Father. In this spirit world, living with the Divine Love is equal among the sexes and we all acknowledge the Soul of God as being the only Source and true Origin of this Love. The repression of women doesn't exist in the spirit world. A female is a soul and each soul is in its individuality, the real truth of that individual. Each individual is able to participate freely and is able to experience the gift of Immortality. I recognise that in human living, there are respective differences in culture. The Truths by which the Father has made available for the universality of humanity on Earth and in the spirit world – like the Divine Love – will never serve these human differences or be forthcoming to a selective specific culture. The Truths that we convey and that we live in are for everyone, for every soul is worthy to partake of the Immortality of the Divine Love and no woman, spirit or man can claim otherwise for the Love does not originate within the soul of a man, woman or mortal spirit. Women are worthy to receive this Love and equal in their individuality to accept the Grace by which the Father gives the Love.

Thank you for receiving my words,
 Mary Magdalene

656. On these spirit communications

Good morning. I am with you both; we are all in good rapport. I am clear about what I would like to say and you are clear about your being able to receive what I would like to say. When we begin writing together, you are still and quiet in the Love. You have gained confidence over the years so my being with you is an experience known to you. Each of us accepts the Love and the Father; this assists me so I do not need to continue to direct you both toward the Love and the Father in these communications.

There are various forms that our communicating with you could take shape. The form we have utilised for these works is immediate and does not labour over things past. When a spirit communicates in these works they have not begun their experience by stating, 'once upon a time in a land far away ...'. The communications you have received begin immediately and are to the point. Saleeba and I have instructed those communicating with you to keep their expression to the essence and deliberately simple in form. We have purposefully kept each narrative to the spirit without being long-winded.

We could – in our communicating with you – convey experience and memory detailing our respective past, and I know that some of you would find this interesting. We could also outline images that compile a comprehensive image of the environments that are the spirit world, and some of you would find this interesting. This work is specific in its purpose, which is for spirits to communicate their experience of living with Divine Love. If we spent reams and reams of pages outlining images or past memories, this may satisfy the intellect but the real truth about living with the Father may go sadly missing.

We have tried to provide information that does include images of the spirit world and through this work and previous works this information has been afforded to you. A spirit could convey to you what it was like when they lived on Earth and sat in an office all day performing a menial task. Another spirit could tell you how they liked watching television and an ancient spirit could convey to you how it was working in the fields all day long. The real emphasis of these communications has been not to convey the past but the reality of the living soul in the present. There has been a real effort on our behalf in these spirit communications to place the Soul of the Father at the centre of everything. Everything that we have shared with you will only serve to expand the greater truth that God is Soul and at the centre of our lives as we are living in Divine Love.

I will continue in a moment,
Luke (Apostle)

662. Aware of Divine Love

I am here with you, it is I, your friend Luke. As you now know, being aware of the Divine Love and the Truth of its Immortality that this Love brings to the mortal soul is the first approach one has toward realising a little about the Soul-nature of God. Experiencing this Divine Love confirms that one's awareness is true and that this Love – without one knowing any subsequent related Truths – can at least be felt to confirm its existence.

People ask questions relating to their experience, which is a normal thing to do. Spirits who are aware of the Love their first time ask questions too. These questions range from examples such as: how will I know when I have received the Love; how often do I need to receive the Love; where does the Love come from; what will it do in my soul; what is my soul; and how do I tell the Soul of God that I am asking for the Love? These are very real questions arising in a beginning in the Love. A person may believe that prayer is the only true form of approach to the Soul, God to receive the Love. Today, people are experiencing the Love and their approach to the Love differs – this is consistent with the diversity of individuality. I in my long time of living with the Love cannot provide you with a one-and-only way by which people and spirits must adhere to in order to bring about the Acting Spirit that will then convey the Love into one's soul. What I am about to say may sound rather simplistic but there is probably more truth to it than anything else I could say:

Follow your heart, follow your love and do what in loving action, your inner love leads in your asking the Soul of God to receive a little of the Love.

You can ask in faith and you can ask in belief that the Divine Love that you desire to receive will be forthcoming. If your aspiration for this Love is loving the Acting Spirit will respond and Divine Love, received. As time passes experience will teach you how to answer the questions you have asked. Most people and spirits when they begin their receipt of the Divine Love will not have a comprehensive understanding of how the Father's Spirit Laws function.

The Acting Spirit that conveys the Love into your soul and the Divine Love do not roam around waiting to act in response to a mortal soul calling out. People and spirits more than likely, begin their experience in a very subjective manner. When one is introduced to the greater Spirit Laws that are present, it is then that one matures their understanding that whilst personal experience is subjective, the Acting Spirit and the Divine Love are set to particular Spirit Laws that determine their function. This places into context the difference between human and spirit feeling and emotion, and perceived expectations of feeling emotion, life experience and intellect so that harmony is the true experience for these Spirit Laws act as the go-between the Divine Love and the Acting Spirit with your mortal soul and no amount of generated subjective feeling will cause these Spirit Laws to respond or act in a different manner than they were created to act and function by the Father. One can scream and shout for the Love, one can long for the Love, one can sit quietly and humbly ask for the Love, and one can think their way through for the Love but the Truth of it is, the Spirit Law that causes the Acting Spirit to bring the Love into the soul will respond to the soul that aspires to the Soul of the Father for the Love. If the Father responded to people and spirits by bestowing greater or lesser amounts of Divine Love into a soul of an individual who can shout the loudest, then this would distort the universal equality by which the Father has placed the Spirit Laws to act equally with one and all that represents the perfect harmony by which the Father alone gives Love.

I will return in a moment.
Luke (Apostle)

669. Thomas speaks

I am here; it is I, Thomas, a close friend of the Master's and teacher of the Loves. It always brings me happiness when I see an individual who has gone through the transition of their human life into their now spirit life and to accept the Love. I cannot confirm to you enough how individuals here feel comforted knowing that an inner fulfilment has now come to them. I, as a Celestial teacher have spent years seeing people transition into the spirit world only to see these individuals – and there are many of them – living their spirit life in an unfulfilled manner. The great absence in the human world is the absence of all the cultures knowing about the true reality of soul and that this great Gift of Divine Love and its related Truths is the fulfilling of the inner life.

The natural love is a good love and there are millions of people living a good condition in natural love but this love in all its goodness is found wanting when the generations proceed into their spirit life. The Master conveyed the teaching about the image of natural love, and this is never more evident than seeing the image of the spirit body of the individual when they engage their spirit living and all the physical and material attachments and attributes has fallen away. The individual is left standing in the first natural sphere in image only. When you compare these individuals with the fulfilment that other spirits have as they are living with the substance of Truth in their soul, it does sadden my heart that the absence of this knowledge is prevailing among the humanity of the Earth. I have little interest in what would be human excuses as to the possible existence of an afterlife or not. My interest is with those who are currently aware of the Divine Love and related Truths for this marks a shift and change in individual and human awareness which has been a long time coming.

This is all I desire to say at this time,
Thomas (Apostle)

682. The great task

I am with you; it is I Matthew. I will start by saying I lived along side Jesus in my human day; I then lived along side Jesus in my spirit life, as I do now. My purpose writing with you in this communication is not to detail my experience when living as a man those years ago, or how it was when I became a spirit – but to illustrate that when I did become a spirit I needed to understand what living with the Soul of the Father actually required.

Even though Jesus taught us about what was required to live with the Father in our human days, it was only when I became a spirit that I gained the Truth that my soul-sight needed to see, that then placed into a true perspective the teachings of Jesus.

In my spirit life I quickly processed through my memories the drama that I had just lived on Earth. I, like the other apostles – other than Judas – moved along quickly in our ability to identify what living in the Divine Love required as soul. Jesus assisted us as we progressed and eventually arrived to the place that has been introduced to as ‘The Celestial Heaven’. It became apparent to me and to the apostles that this Divine Love was the true salvation of our mortal soul for we could – with our spirit senses – identify what the Immortality of this Divine Love meant to our mortal souls and the teaching that Jesus taught us about this Immortality.

As we progressed toward the Celestial Heaven, other individuals did as well, such as the individual who has introduced himself to you, the spirit Saul. There were well-known human identities, lesser-known individuals and ordinary individuals, all loved equally by the Master as he taught us the way into the Celestial Heaven. As you know, as it was once conveyed to you in a previous communication prior to these works, Judas had compensation to work through, which he eventually did with the assistance of Mary Magdalene.

Whilst living records recount certain events of those days, the real truth is about the contrasting experience of the Natural and the Divine Love, the mortal soul and the Soul, God. I am so pleased that today this information is available with certain transparency. Those of you, who have been introduced to these spirit communications, have been exposed to the real spirit teachings by the Master that he taught us here in the spirit world.

When I settled in my living in the Celestial Heaven, I had accepted my living with the Father. We understood finally, the Master’s teachings! Then, it became the huge task of having to generate the awareness of the Divine Love to the masses that still resided in the mortal spirit world. This was a task that we had to do and so, Jesus set about teaching and instructing us about the construct of natural love so that we understood it to its full cause and effect in the mortal soul. There were many individuals living in these natural spheres and we knew that souls would be hungry for the Truth but we could not be evangelical in our approach or arrogant in our assertions that we knew the Truth. We needed to accept that in our own natural love we once lived without the awareness of this Love, this Divine Love, and this gave us compassion and empathy, which would help us when asked about the Love. Those of us who lived in the Celestial Heaven with Jesus had grown strong and none of us lived any more with any doubting who and what the Father is. Our souls had gone through the transformation and we stood in the full light of our knowing and living in the Immortality of this Divine Love: a Truth that had yet to be seen by those living in the Natural Spheres.

On that certain day when Jesus knew that we were sufficiently competent to teach how living with the Love is, we began the great task of introducing individuals in the Natural Spheres to the availability of God's Divine Love. We differed in our appearance and this was evident to those who had never seen individuals living their Celestial soul condition. Jesus took some of us to the lowest Spheres, which was a difficult place to be of course. Judas had had experiences there and so he prepared us on what to expect. The availability of God's Divine Love is everywhere mortal souls reside and so, it required some of us, and I was one of them, to introduce the Spirit teachings of Jesus to the lost souls living their poor condition in the Lowest Spheres.

As time passed, Jesus sought to convey his Spirit teachings of the Father's Loves: the Natural and the Divine to the peoples of the world. Fortunately a way was found and James Padgett received these teachings. In keeping with the progress of the day, a more universal approach to the Divine Love was needed to be conveyed and today, some of you are living this universal truth that exemplify the Spirit teachings of Jesus and the Celestials. (Padgett Messages 1914 – 1923)

I have enjoyed my communicating with you. You have received the essence of what I desired to share with love.

In Divine Love, Matthew (Apostle)

683. Andrew communicates on various themes

I am here; I am Andrew. You received Matthew's words well. I will say there will always be a difference between human living and spirit living. This is because there is a difference and never will this difference be entirely a single standard of living for you there and for us here. This difference is defined by a single truth: this being the attribute of the physical body is living no life here, having served its function and purpose in its human living, now here the spirit body has taken over and serves its role to envelop the soul and forming personality. We are the same however in one circumstance...we can all be recipients of the Divine Love.

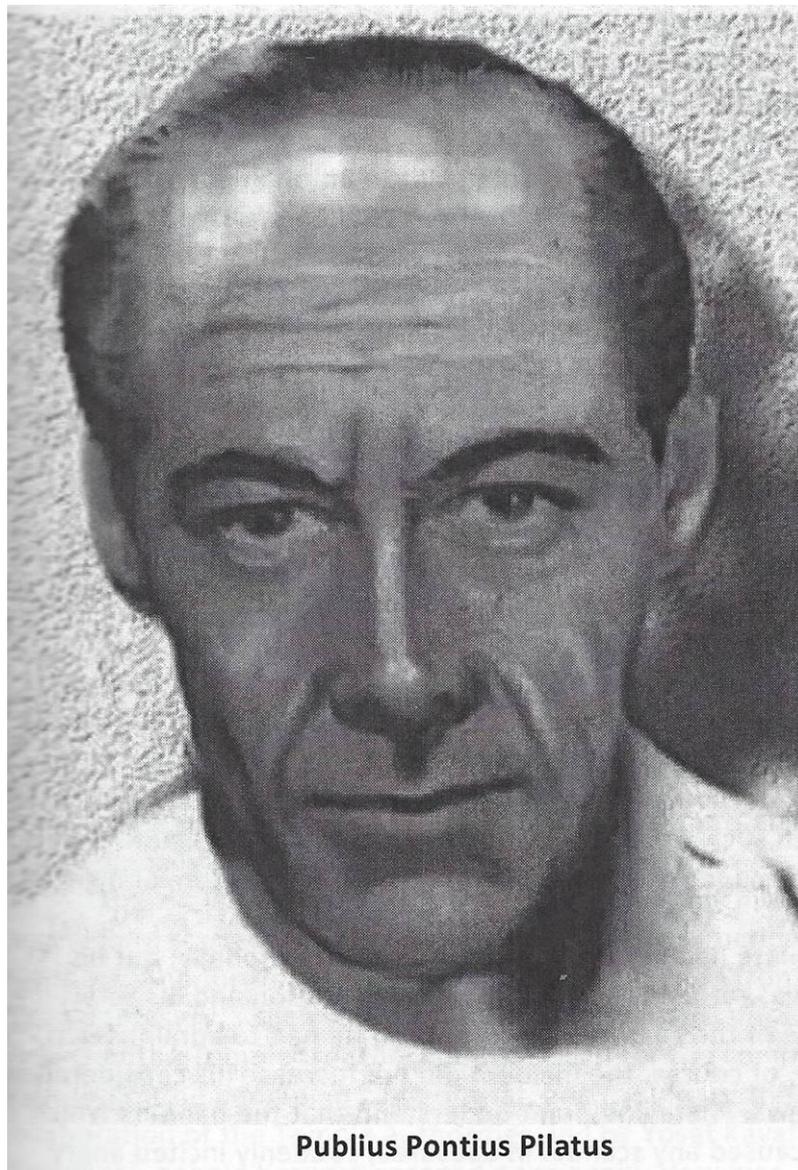

I would also like to say, that there is no need for you to be put off by the number of people who show no interest in the Divine Love for themselves. Spirits are after all, people and there are just as many spirits in their spirit living today, who show no interest in receiving the Divine Love for themselves.

The Truth about the Divine Love and the Natural love ultimately, is defined by one's acceptance that the Father really exists. Receiving the Divine Love begins to perfect your natural love, so it only follows that out of your natural love you begin to develop a love and acceptance of the Source of Divine Love, being the Father. It has been necessary for us living in our acceptance of the Father to convey to you a whole new approach and reality about who and what God is, so that a person may begin to relate to God as Soul. I would also like to state here that 'trust' is certain when you embark upon accepting the Love. I say trust for in all God's existence, the Loving Soul God never manipulates people or spirits to act out some fearful plan that causes disharmony to one another. The Soul God is not a manipulator or schemer engineering people and spirits to act out some ridiculous plan that has mischievous elements that result in evil or fear being created. People by the exercise of their independent nature are the great manipulators of their created universe, and such actions are seen in their stark reality when such a person, has manipulated themselves into a depraved condition that serves the beginning of their spirit life.

People can manipulate human conditions for evil or for better living conditions. I will not write about the full machinations of human manipulations – as to their outcomes – but what I will say, which is more to the Truth, is that the Soul God is not a manipulator of mortal souls. It is good to know this when being aware of the Divine Love for the Love itself can never be manipulated. It is what it is and acts in accord to the Law that it is, and this in itself is most trusting to know so one can rely on the Soul of God with this enduring quality of Truth. Many spirits who eventually gain confidence in their living with this Love, are relieved that they can relinquish their habit of manipulation and can live for once and for all, in the certainty of harmony and truth.

I will conclude by saying, take a look at all the wars that have taken place over the human years and how the many who have died have done so by the few who have manipulated people for a need of power. The spirit world has millions of spirits who have been subject to manipulation, which has brought about the end of their human life and once these spirits understand the nature of love, they know what a waste of human life they lived.

Thank you for receiving my words on this subject.
Andrew, a teacher of Divine Truth (Apostle)

705. As one in the Love with you

I am here with you, it is I, Jesus. In my previous words I used the words ‘draw comfort’. I have said this as people do live through their arduous survival of living. The availability of the Love offers some relief in the hardships one may face in the adversity of their lives. I do not like to see good-hearted people with their head hanging down and shoulders dropped. I know that the day-to-day conditions in life can wear one down, but one in your heart needs to know that the Living Truths are always present and remain unaffected by any human outcome.

My word – my Spirit of Truth and the Father’s Divine Love need be embraced as comforting influences in your soul. Time in prayer is the Love in one’s heart deliberately placed in faith and your intent to be placed in the Love.

I know that you may not know much about the Truths of the Love, but I teach you that your heart is very capable of placing its love in the Love of the Soul of the Father.

My spirit teachings about the Father’s Truths and Love will never fall down or fail you. For if this was true, then this would reflect in the Father failing you and the Father never fails.

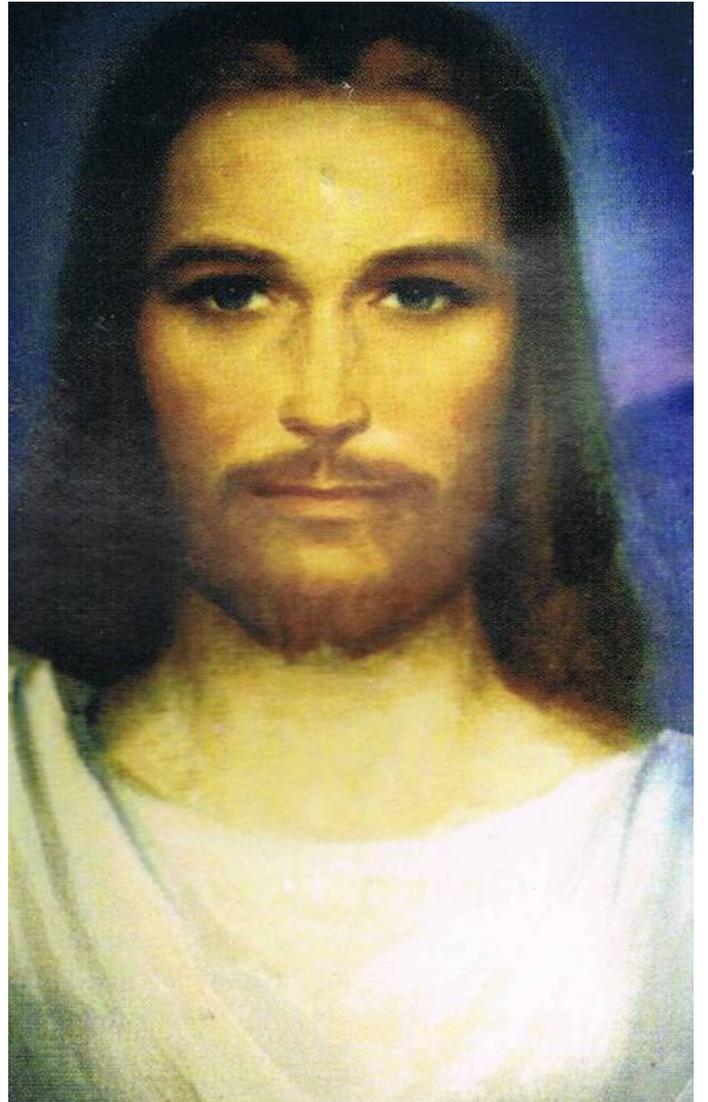

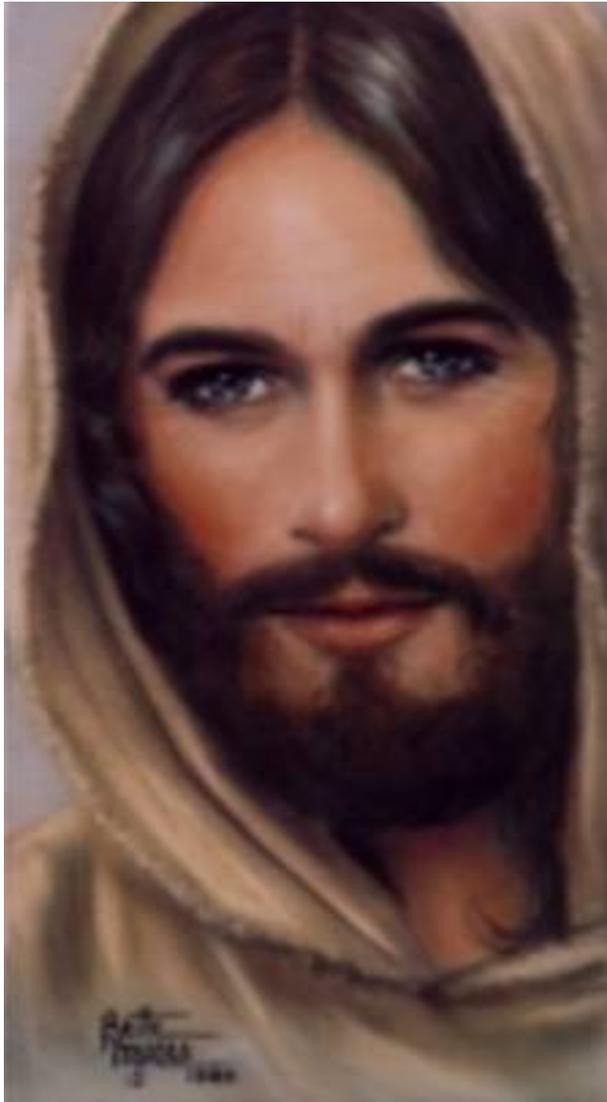

There is no need for me to speak forth from this spirit world and to teach you the new-birth of the soul. The Celestial teachers, who in their loving approach and with the humblest of soul have provided experiences of change which in the fullness of these communications have provided you with enough information that beautifully explains what these changes are when the mortal soul partakes of the True Immortality of the Father’s Love. The Divine Love, I am to teach, can withstand anything that is placed upon it from a physical experience once this Love is in your soul. I am to teach that the Divine Love is unbreakable, and that this Truth will give your faith a true sense of purpose as to the meaning of what faith in love can become.

The Father’s Love is the real comforter of mortal souls. The Truths need only to confirm this truth that I have just revealed to you.

I am well pleased with all the contributing spirits who have given their love in this book of beginnings. Some of these individuals have struggled to share their experience and some individuals have yet to embrace the Love but the full reach of all our effort will sound in humanity a long time. In the tradition as spirits live with the Love here, draw comfort from my words and comfort as you place yourself in the Love of the Father. Trust in your own self-confidence and in your asking for the Love I would like you to know that this Love will never be withheld from your soul by the Soul of the Father, to people, the individual and to all mortal spirits, on this Truth you have my word.

As one in the Love with you,
 Jesus

Long and pray for Divine Love and it will loosen the errors / injuries / unhealed / denied trapped and/or inherited emotions, resulting in a flowing out, when one embraces Feeling Healing, of these negative embellishments within one’s soul as Divine Love flows in – Divine Love being the greatest gift in all the universe.

Feelings First Spirituality, The New Way

Feelings First Spirituality, The New Way is a contemporary ‘religion’ based on living true to yourself through your feelings. Understanding that all you need in life is contained within your soul and is shown to you through your feelings. And by loving your feelings, by attending to them properly (talking or writing them out of you) and not denying them, you can use them to uncover the truth of yourself – the truth of your soul.

Feelings First Spirituality is not a formalised religion that tells you how to be, that is too controlling and is actually bad for you, limiting your spiritual growth. You can be wholly self-revealing of the truths you need to be, being the person God created you to be, all by living true to your feelings.

Feelings First Spirituality has no formal structure because we understand we don't need one, our soul contains within it all the truth of our spiritual ascent. If we look to our feelings for the truth they want us to see about ourselves, nature and God, then what more do we need! Our true spiritual path is the path our feelings will lead us down, that is, provided we allow them to. This is the most spiritual we can be.

Living the New Way of Feelings First Spirituality

You come to the understanding from your life experiences that how you are is not right, it doesn't make you feel good – that you are wrong in some way. And you want to change yourself, you want to become right, true and perfect – you want to be like God is.

And to do this you need to do your Healing

Your Feeling-Healing is looking to your feelings for the truth of yourself, the truth being hidden in many of the feelings you are not wanting to face in life. So you have to end your feeling denial, accepting all your bad feelings (and good ones), express them (yet not necessarily acting upon them), whilst longing to uncover the truth they are to show you.

Or, you can do your Soul-Healing, which is your Feeling-Healing together with including longing directly to God for God's Divine Love. When you receive the Divine Love into your soul, it will cause your soul to become divine, and it will deepen your personal relationship with God. Long with all your heart to God for God's Divine Love.

Prayers to our Mother and Father

From 'Religion of Feelings' by James Moncrief

Please Mother and Father help me accept my untrue state and bring up all my repressed feelings so I can see the full truth of why I feel so unloved and all that's wrong with me.

Please Mother and Father help me see the truth of myself through my feelings.

Please my beloved Heavenly Parents, fill my soul with Your Divine Love. I long for Your Divine Love; please answer my prayer and yearning to be at-one with You and do Your Will by living true to myself and all my feelings. Please fill my heart and soul with Your Divine Love – please make my soul like Yours – Divine.

Please Mother and Father, I want to uncover the whole truth of myself through my feelings. I want to be able to feel and accept just how bad I am, how bad I feel I am, how bad I've been in my life. I want to know the whole ugly truth of myself, see it and feel it and understand how I came to be it. Please reveal to me through my feelings all the truth of myself You want me to see. I want to be as You want me to be; I want to be true and perfect, Healed of all my rebelliousness and self- and feeling-denial; I want to be good, loving, true and happy, please help me become true to myself, true to my soul, true to You.

Please Mother and Father help me, I'm in such bad pain, I feel so alone, so miserable, so scared, what's going to become of me, I don't understand, what's the point of me, why have You made me; please help me see the truth of myself – all the truths of myself, nature, how to be in the world, of You both. I want to know, I want to know it all through my feelings, all that there is to see, the whole truth and nothing but the truth. Please help all my pain come to the surface of me so I can embrace and accept and express it out of me. I want to use my feelings to uncover the truth they are to show me; please help me to do that.

Please Mother and Father love me. I want You to love me. I want to feel fully loved by You. I don't want anything else, only to be with You. Please, that is all I am asking.

Please make me feel how unloving I am. Please show me the horrible truth that I am. I want to see and feel and understand the worst of me, please take me into my darkest scariest ugliest unwanted rejected places within myself. I don't want to feel all the dreadful pain that I know is there locked away inside me, yet I do also want it all to come up and out of me, and I want to use it to see the truth of my wrongness, the truth of how evil I am, the truth of my fucked up state. I no longer want to be false, pretending I am okay, using my mind to make me falsely believe I am good, happy, loved and loving, when I know I'm not. For how can I be when You've brought me into my unloving state, making me be of it. And as You want me to experience being this negative way, please show me the whole truth of it. I no longer want to deny any part of myself, or any of my bad feelings. I want them all to come up so I can express them, emoting their pain, feeling how bad You've made me feel all my life and all through my early life; I want to see why, and so reveal all the truth to myself. I want to be the living truth of myself, living true to my feelings and the truth they give rise to. Please help me to do my Healing, and please fill my soul with Your Divine Love.

The mind way is the 'dead' way; the feelings way is the 'alive' way.

Examples of some prayers to God:

From 'Feeling Healing' by James Moncrief

Please God show me the truth of myself through my feelings.

Please help me see the truth about myself You want me to see.

And please help me feel all my repressed pain; please bring up all my bad feelings so I can express them and see what it is they are to show me about myself, my life, and You.

And please help me work through my blocks, I want to Heal myself, I want to become true to myself and true to my feelings and true to You – please help me do that.

Heavenly Mother and Father, I feel so bad, and I know I'm doing it to myself, but I can't help it. I can't stop my compulsive addictions, so will you please bring up the buried feelings in me and show me the reasons why I can't stop. Please! I want to know – I REALLY WANT TO KNOW why I do them. Please help me Mother and Father to uncover the truth of myself. Please, I beg you, please, please, please show me the truth of them so I can give them up. I hate feeling bad, yet I know I must so I can keep expressing my bad feelings to see the truth You want me to see, so please help me feel bad.

Please Mother and Father fill my heart and soul with Your Divine Love. Please give me Your Love. Please love me and make me feel loved by You. I want to feel You close to me, I want You to hold me, make me feel loved by You. I only want You and to do Your Will. Please help me bring up all my repressed feelings so I can express them and uncover their truth. Please help me do my Healing. Please give me Your Love.

I hate you Mother and Father; why have You given me such a shit awful life? I hate myself, I hate You, I hate everything about my life. I feel so bad all the time. I've expressed so many bad feelings and still I feel bad. It's not fair, it's not fair what You've done to me. I hate You! And I want You to help me Heal myself, so I can stop feeling bad. You put me in the shit for whatever reasons, and I want You now to help me get out of it and show me what it's all been about. Please help me to Heal myself so I no longer hate You.

I long for Your Divine Love Mother and Father. Please fill my soul with it. And please help me uncover the truth of myself through my feelings. I want to see it all! And please make it all end, I'm so tired of always feeling so bad, please take all my bad feelings away by making me feel them and showing me the truth I am to see.

U-TURN for HUMANITY:

Why are we doing a U-Turn?

We are doing a U-Turn because the year 2017 heralded the end of the Rebellion and Default. For two hundred thousand years, humanity has been going in the wrong direction.

What is this fundamental step that will change our way of living?

We are to come to understand / know the foundational cause of all our feelings, both good and bad. As we explore and investigate our feelings, each time they arise, one by one, we are to talk them through, express them to a companion or friend or anyone who will listen. As we express them, while at the same time coming to understand how they have come about, we will find that they will be resolved and that they will not come up again.

We will find that all of our feelings / emotions have their foundations from our childhood. And by childhood, that is from the time of one's conception all the way through to about the age of six. It is the repression of our childhood feelings that is the base or foundational cause of each and every one of our adult personality issues, pains, difficulties, illnesses and distressful life experiences.

We have to see the whole truth of our negative or self-denial state, before we can heal it and be free of it.

The vital difference between emotions and feelings is:

- emotions have their roots in the past,
- feelings relate to the present moment,
- emotions represent feelings not previously expressed,
- and these accumulate over time.

Many emotional clearing processes encourage us to look into our feelings, however, none go so far as to drill down into the core foundation of any emotional feeling to the point that we strive to KNOW the core issue, the origin of the feeling, be it good or bad, and actually come to know what it is!

The Journey Process is generally known worldwide. It stops short of longing to know, that is asking for the knowing of the events that brought about such a feeling. Yes, we are to acknowledge the feeling, say being angry. Then accept that behind that anger is the feeling of being small, and then look at the underlying reason of why we are feeling small. What is the truth behind that feeling? Ask our Heavenly Parents what is behind all of this feeling. What is the foundation, the origin of the feeling? All the time talking it out, expressing it, with a friend. The expressing of the experience is the release of the emotion / feeling, this is what removes it for ever from within our essence, our soul.

Why ask our Heavenly Parents? I thought God was just God – singular?

This is part of the revealings that have been unfolding for us very recently – that is – since 2002.

We are made in the image of God. This has been understood for centuries, for 2,000 years. Our soul is duplex. Our soul expresses itself through two personalities. One soul 'subdivides' into two, one half always being female and the other half always being male. We are a reflection of how God is. God being one Soul is expressed as Mother and Father. God is two personalities. They are soulmates. And each of us has a soulmate, and our soulmate is always of the opposite sex, because the Mother and Father are the opposite sex.

Thus, when we long for the truth behind a feeling, then we can long to our Heavenly Mother and Father. Only they can tell us. No spirit personality can tell us. No canonised saint can tell us, we may as well ask our next door neighbour. That would be just as productive. Mary and Jesus can't tell us, as they are also spirit personalities.

I was taught that Jesus was God? And what is this about Mary?

Mary of Magdalene and Jesus of Nazareth were both born free from sin. Neither of them are God. They are both children of God, just like you and me.

History needs to be corrected. Both Jesus of Nazareth and Mary of Magdalene became at one (At-One) with our Heavenly Mother and Father during their physical lives here on Earth in the first century; Jesus in the year 26CE and Mary in the year 33CE, or thereabouts. Jesus died aged 35 (born 7BC died 29CE), and Mary died aged 47 or 48 (born 2BC died 47CE).

Further, their sojourn on Earth was the completion of their process to become the full Regents of the sector of planets that is referred to as Nebadon. The region within our super-universe that is referred to as Nebadon contains 3.8 million inhabited planets. If you look into the night sky, each star / sun potentially has between none to three inhabited planets within its orbit. Within Nebadon, the soulmate pair, namely Mary and Jesus, are our Spiritual Teachers of Truth. Their domain is all 3.8 million physical planets plus their associated spirit worlds. Each physical world has seven associated spirit worlds, which is the case for Earth being one of the 37 that have rebelled.

Some 200,000 years ago, Lucifer with his soulmate and his deputy, Satan with his soulmate, brought about a rebellion on 37 of the inhabited planets within the region called Satania, one of the local universal systems of Nebadon. Earth compounded the situation through the Default of Adam and Eve about 38,000 years ago. Thus the population of Earth, being in the worst condition through the Rebellion and Default, became the location for Mary and Jesus to have their physical experience to complete their ascendancy to full Regency of the local universal system being Nebadon.

Their lives on Earth was the start of the unravelling of the Rebellion and Default. Upon Jesus becoming At-One with our Mother and Father, he was then vested with the authority and power to have the Lucifers and Satans arrested, and they now reside exiled within a prison world.

Notice that there were no records of Jesus and Mary's teachings and experiences made during their physical life. That was because they did not specifically come here for us, they came for the benefit of all peoples of all planets and spirit worlds throughout Nebadon.

As they are Paradise descending spirits, they have Spirits of Truth. Upon Mary and Jesus' death, they released their Spirits of Truth. As spirits, Jesus and Mary are how we will be, once we've finished our Soul Healing. They can only be in one place at any one time. However, it is their Spirits of Truth throughout Nebadon that we can connect with for guidance. It is through their Spirits of Truth that spirit personalities can progress through and out of Nebadon.

Those planets that have Rebelled need further assistance, and they need it on a localised manner. This can only be provided by another bestowal of a Paradise Pair, and that is in the form and manner of an Avonal soulmate pair who come here specifically for us.

What is the purpose of an Avonal pair, and are they here on Earth?

Unlike Jesus and Mary who were always free from sin and did not experience how to heal themselves, the Avonal pair are to experience all of the extremes of evilness and then proceed to heal themselves. Mary and Jesus through their bestowal on Earth ended the Lucifers spiritual rebellion in Nebadon; the Avonals bestowal is primarily concerned with ending the Default of Adam and Eve by the Avonals themselves personally healing the effects of such a damaging Fall.

The soulmate Avonal pair are to be, and have been, subjected to the extremes of childhood suppression and repression, and then, through their Feeling Healing, are experiencing all the facets of emerging truth as they slowly progress through a protracted and difficult healing process. As they reach specific milestones, this also enables those in the Celestial Heavens, (the three worlds where Celestials reside) to be empowered to assist us in the physical on Earth.

The first considered milestone was the arresting and imprisonment of the Caligastia soulmate pair and the Daligastia soulmate pair. After the arrest of the Lucifers and Satans in the first century, as nothing further occurred, the Caligastias and Daligastias continued on from spirit as if they were kings and queens, suppressing all of humanity and with plans to take over the universe. It was possibly in the early 1990s that they were 'judged' and 'removed'. They were caught unaware that an Avonal bestowal pair were on Earth.

How is all this becoming known? Has Jesus and Mary communicated directly to Earth?

Unlike in the first century, when no records were kept (as the event related to all of Nebadon and it was actually setting the stage for the Avonal bestowal pair to arrive on Earth), every effort to retain records in great detail of this current series of events is now being attended to. Consider this. The New Testament of the Bible is some 300 pages. The records of the Second Coming, which this is, the primary records are possibly 6,000 pages, with direct complementary records increasing that to over 10,000 pages and with all the supplementary records to date, there may be as many as 40,000 pages, certainly well over 30,000 pages of material presently.

Jesus directly communicated through James Padgett from 1914 to 1923. Mary of Magdalene (Mary M) has directly communicated through James Moncrief from 2002 and is ongoing. Jesus has also communicated directly through James Moncrief. Neither have ever directly communicated through any one else, however, some Celestial Spirit personalities have provided information through other personalities on Earth with the support and approval of Jesus and Mary, thus some confusion, though the quality of the information is very reliable.

You say this is the Second Coming? You say I am living during the time of the Second Coming?

Yes you are. And it's more than that. This is the Second Coming, the End Times and the Handover!

In fulfilment of the prophecy in the first century, the Second Coming commenced on 31 May 1914 through the writings with James Padgett and concluded in 2014 through the writings with James Moncrief.

The End Times are well advanced. Mary and Jesus are well advanced in handing over their direct involvement with Earth to those within the Celestial Heavens. When this is completed, the Handover will also occur. The Hand Over is to the Avonal Bestowal pair and it is they who will guide the population on Earth through their Feeling Healing processes for the next 1,000 years, being the next spiritual age. The Handover will take place after the Avonal pair complete their personal Healing of the Rebellion and Default. Then will follow with their Spirits of Truth being officially liberated in alignment with Mary M and Jesus' Spirits of Truth upon their death.

Major events have occurred with the progression of the Avonal pair's Feeling Healing, which they are also doing whilst embracing our Heavenly Parents' Divine Love, thus they are doing their Soul Healing.

| 31 January 2018: | Earth and the seven associated Mansion Worlds (including the two Earth planes) are officially now fully under the control of Celestial spirits. This marks a tangible and real end to the Rebellion and Default. |

How does this all fit into our future way of living?

This time, in the history of humanity, is the most exciting time ever experienced.

The whole human race is suffering from repressed childhood and mind control.

Through one's Feeling Healing, and should we embrace our Heavenly Parents' Divine Love, then with their Love we are doing our Soul Healing, and eventually we can live totally in accordance with our soul based feelings and live free from error – no more fear and no more physical illnesses is possible!

By living true to ourself, true to our feelings, we are living true to God. It's that simple.

Our soul is always perfect. In fact, we are the complete package. All that we need to know is within our soul. This knowledge has been denied from us since the time of the Rebellion and compounded by the Default. That is what was brought upon us by the Lucifers and his cohorts. We have always been meant to live true to our soul based feelings but we were taught to embrace our error riddled mind – this was aided by our parents – unknowingly all parents have taught their children to be mind dominant. This is the Great U-Turn. We are to feel and live by our feelings and express our feelings, our mind will follow in support, not the other way around.

“Many people look for a person, spirit, angel, even God, for supreme guidance, however it's all right there already built in – in our feelings. Feelings guide us through our ascension of truth. So they are really our Supreme Guides. We just have to submit to them, allowing them to take us where they will, expressing all the parts we want to express, letting the emotion drive that expression if it's there to be expressed, or just talking about all we feel and how feeling that feeling is making us feel – or, how we feel about having that feeling, all whilst longing for the truth of our feelings. Longing for the truth of our feelings is really: Longing for the truth of our self, because: we are our feelings. So life stirs up our feelings, we feel being alive; or, being alive means we are feeling, always feeling; and when we work out what and why we are feeling what we are, so then we know the truth of how we are. And over time the truth accumulates, and our mind expands our understanding of ourselves, all being driven from our feelings.”

Kevin of the 1st Celestial Heaven 26 September 2017

(Kevin Cooper died 10 August 2012, through Feeling Healing became Celestial on 7 August 2017.)

It is through the assistance of the Spirits of Truth of the Avonal Pair, upon the completion of their Soul Healing, that we will be guided through our Feeling Healing process, and should we embrace our Mother and Father’s Divine Love, then our Soul Healing.

Then should we embrace Mary and Jesus as our Spiritual Teachers of Truth, their Spirits of Truth will lead us on the path through the Celestial Heavens where we will certainly meet up with our soulmate and join our soulgroup, which will eventually consist of twelve soulmate pairs. Then as a soulgroup, the Spirits of Truth of Mary and Jesus will lead us up through and out of Nebadon towards Paradise.

It is then our Mother and Father in Paradise who draw us to them and we will eventually meet our Heavenly Parents.

Meanwhile, while we live on Earth, we will have assistance and guidance previously denied to us throughout the era of the Rebellion and Default. Under the Contract controlling and managing the Rebellion and Default, the powers and capabilities of our Celestial Heaven spirit personalities, all three worlds of them, were heavily restricted and almost of no assistance to us at all. Further, Nature Spirits and our Angels were heavily denied contact with us physical people because of the Rebellion and Default, all of which is soon to change, so we can look directly to them for help concerning healing ourselves and understanding all aspects of nature.

As we embrace our Feeling Healing, Celestial spirits will and can greatly assist us. In fact, during the year of 2017 they have blocked all mind spirits from the Natural Love Mansion Worlds: 1, 2, 4 and 6 from interfering with us. Celestials have taken control of all facets of living and life on Earth. Celestials are those spirits who have completed their Feeling Healing and progressed through Divine Love Mansion Worlds 3, 5 and 7 and now live in the higher Celestial Heavens, 1, 2 and 3 (when we become At One with our Heavenly Parents then we leave the Mansion Worlds and progress through the next three spheres related to Earth, hence the Celestial Heavens are also referred to as being numbered 8, 9 and 10).

The Nature Spirits of Earth, who live in the third Earth plane, can now directly interact with those who are embracing their Feeling Healing. Nature Spirits are essentially ‘angels in waiting’. They have been on Earth prior to anything that we now see living in nature. When they first started to arrive, there was no life in the seas or on land. They have consequently witnessed everything that has happened on Earth, including all prior human civilisations that we continue to largely remain ignorant of. Their knowledge and assistance is of great importance to us. We are to interact with them on an ever increasing scale. They are to become an invaluable source of information for us concerning how we are best to live with nature.

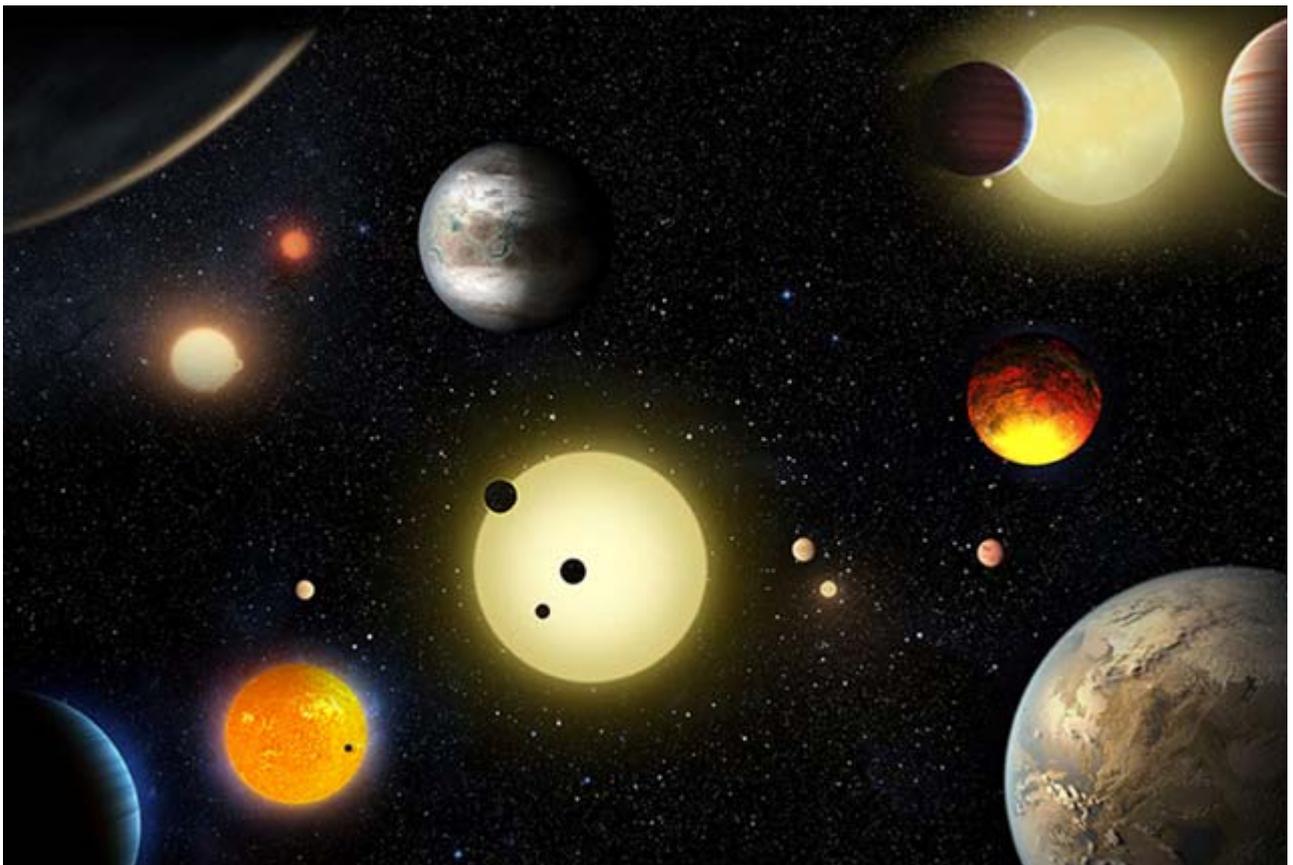

Further, we may become more aware of our Indwelling Spirit, which arrives for each of us during our sixth year, as we now progress with our Feeling Healing, or with Divine Love, our Soul Healing.

And all of this is possible as we embrace our Feeling Healing process, acknowledge and accept the Avonal pair, acknowledge and accept our Spiritual Teachers of Truth, namely Mary and Jesus, and more importantly, grow to love our Heavenly Parents, our true Mother and Father.

We do not need intermediaries, rituals, liturgy, dogmas, creeds, fancy clothing, or institutions. It is our soul based feelings and expressions that we may exchange directly with our Heavenly Parents. Groups may form to assist each other, and that is choice and within our free will.

This is the greatest event in the history of humanity.

This is the Great U-Turn that humanity will embrace throughout the next 1,000 years. MoC 1,480

FEELING HEALING and SOUL HEALING with the DIVINE LOVE:

James Moncrief Publications:

all publications are free downloads:

It is suggested for one to consider reading as follows:

Speaking with Mary Magdalene and Jesus – books 1 – 4

These four books encapsulate the second of the revelations with the first having been introduced by James Padgett one hundred years previously. These four books provide a wide range of guidance that has never previously been made available.

Paul – City of Light

As a gentle intro into the Divine Love and Healing; being James Moncrief's first novel and it's been criticised as being too heavily clichéd, but that's the point because it's a reflection of how he was back then.

Ann and Terry

For an example of people who might want to immediately start working on themselves and doing their Healing.

Feeling Bad? Bad feelings are GOOD

For more understanding about our denial of our feelings and why we should not deny our feelings, and it includes how it all came about for James, using himself as an example.

Feeling bad will make you feel BETTER – Eventually!

This includes specific examples of Marion and James working on expressing particular bad feelings, again with the hope that it will help others gain something of an idea as to what's involved in doing your Feeling Healing.

Sage – and the Healing Angels of Light

Through Sage who's 13 years old, the story is primarily about the two aspects of healing; that being, with the help of our angels, and the full Healing we can do by looking to our feelings for their truth.

Religion of Feelings
Feeling Healing

Welcome to LOVE – the Religion of Feelings you can heal yourself through your feelings

So these books, including the four Speaking with Mary Magdalene and Jesus books, provide the essence of it all and are examples of James' work. Then it's up to whatever takes one's fancy. Other reading to consider may include:

The Padgett Messages being published as:

The True Gospel Revealed Anew by Jesus volumes 1 – 4

Book of Truths by Joseph Babinsky

The Urantia Book

Release one's pain through expressing one's feelings.

in conjunction with

Longing for the Truth when also longing for Divine Love.

FEELING HEALING with DIVINE LOVE is SOUL HEALING:

A collection of 'papers' that draw together specific topics including all of the above and more from other sources of information and revelation designed to help increase one's awareness about why we have the problems we do and how to heal them, all whilst living a more healthy and sustainable life. They provide a brief snapshot of the more complicated topics and issues.

Firstly, consider discovering the truth of your emotional pain through Feeling Healing. Secondly, consider longing for our Heavenly Parents' Love as you progress with your healing. Primary and most important readings are the writings of James Moncrief. Then consider the Padgett Messages, and then The Urantia Book.
