PASCAS INTRODUCTION:

Documents assembled by Pascas are provided for your individual assessment and exploration. The contents are sourced from a variety of avenues and publications. Every endeavour is made to determine that the contents are of the highest level of truth and veracity. At all times we ask that you go within yourself, to ascertain for yourself, how the contents resonate with you.

Pascas provides these notes and observations to assist us all in the development and growth of our own pathways and consciousness. Pascas does not hold these contents as dogma. Pascas is about looking within oneself. Much of what we are observing is new to us readers and thus, we consider that you will take on board that which resonates with you, investigate further those items of interest, and discard that which does not feel appropriate to you.

Kinesiological muscle testing, as developed by Dr David R Hawkins and quantified by his Map of Consciousness (MOC) table, has been used to ascertain the possible level of truth of documents. Such tested calibration levels appear within the document. We ask that you consider testing same for yourself. The technique and process is outlined within Pascas documents, such as Pascas Health – Energy Level of Food. From each person's perspective, results may vary somewhat. The calibration is offered as a guide only and just another tool to assist in considering the possibilities. As a contrast, consider using this technique to test the level of truth of your local daily newspaper.

Contents are not to be interpreted as an independent guide to self-healing. The information sourced herein is not from a doctor or doctors, and any information provided in this document should not be in lieu of consultation with your physician, doctor, or other health care professional. Pascas, nor anyone associated with this document, does not assume any responsibility whatsoever for the results of any application or use of any process, technique, compound or potion as described within this document.

The sources of contents are noted throughout the document. In doing so, we acknowledge the importance of these sources and encourage our readers to consider further these sources. Should we have infringed upon a copyright pertaining to content, graphics and or pictures, we apologise. In such cases, we will endeavour to make the appropriate notations within the documents that we have assembled as a service via our not for profit arm, to our interested community.

We offer all contents in love and with the fullness of grace, which is intended to flow to readers who join us upon this fascinating journey throughout this incredible changing era we are all experiencing.

Namaste

Nutri-Energetics Systems®

Nutri-Energetics Systems®– Professional (NES-Pro) combines Peter Fraser’s discovery and mapping of the Quantum Electro-Dynamic (QED) human body-field, with the simplicity of computer technology. This has led to the development of the most advanced system for whole body-field analysis and treatment currently available.

The NES-Pro enables the therapist to identify the root energetic cause of illness, and prescribe a personalized corrective treatment regime of Nutri-Energetics Systems Infocetical® remedies.

Nutri-Energetic Systems©

The greatest minds of modern times have predicted breakthrough's based on the body's own energy resources.

The Nutri-Energetics® Program is in two parts:

1) The wellness evaluation simply involves resting a hand on a palm sized body-field scanner, which, in a matter of seconds automatically determines a comprehensive array of 145 health indicators. The results from this completely safe and non-invasive process are instantly displayed on a computer screen and give integrity readings relating to among other things:

- 🌐 Body Organs
- 🌐 Environmental toxins
- 🌐 Joint issues
- 🌐 Acupuncture meridians
- 🌐 Nutritional status
- 🌐 Body issues
- 🌐 Nervous system
- 🌐 Emotional Balance
- 🌐 Digestive system

2) The issues identified by the Nutri Energetics® evaluation are addressed using the human body-field corrector preparations known as ‘Infoceuticals’®. These are designed to re-establish compromised integrity to the human body-field. They are safe, effective and simple to use.

The Infoceuticals contain micro quantities of colloidal minerals whose sub-atomic structure has been specifically encoded with information using Nutri-Energetics proprietary imprinting technology. The encoded information is designed to interact directly with the body-field and remove blockages caused by shocks, traumas, toxins and, emotional issues etc.

By clearing these blockages, the integrity of the body’s master control mechanism is restored and its inherent healing ability is returned to an optimum state. People report- regression of symptoms along with a heightened sense of wellness and vitality.

So the Nutri-Energetics program identifies areas of disharmony in your master control mechanism, the HBF, and determines the required body field correctors to re-establish the correct HBF function. By working at this deep holistic level the body's innate healing intelligence is used to bring about naturally, a positive change in wellness and vitality at a physical, mental and emotional level.

Among the many benefits reported by 1000's of people around the world are:

- 🌐 Deep restful sleep
- 🌐 More energy
- 🌐 Reduced pain
- 🌐 Improved nutrient absorption
- 🌐 Improved digestion
- 🌐 Regulated defense systems
- 🌐 Re-established nervous system

-  Balanced hormone function
-  Improved skin condition
-  Restored muscle performance
-  Mental clarity
-  Calm emotions
-  Normalized body weight
-  Tolerance to stress
-  Tissue damage repair
-  Regulated blood sugars

The Nutri-Energetics Systems (NES) approach to wellness is a unique and revolutionary concept. In the Nutri-Energetics scientific model, the body is a combination of physical, chemical, emotional, mental, energetic and memory aspects. A true holistic restorative and maintenance process will work at all these levels.

The Nutri-Energetics approach does not attempt any form of diagnosis and does not involve the direct treatment of the physical or chemical body nor does it directly alter the mental state or interfere with emotional issues. Instead, the Nutri-Energetics program aims to harmonize the master control mechanism, known as the human body-field (HBF), that governs, regulates and nourishes all these aspects. By correcting distortions which adversely affect the transfer of information, Nutri-Energetics therapy restores the integrity of the body-field thus allowing the body to restore wellness at all levels.

Accelerated Wellness NES Scan Rates USD:

First Scan: $80.00      Follow up Scans: $40.00      Infoceuticals: $25.00 each

Your first session takes approximately 75 minutes. The Scan itself is almost instantaneous, it's the explanation of NES and what the scan means and directions for using the Infoceuticals that is so time consuming.

Because the NES Explained Video is now available and very informative about the process, less time is needed on the first scan. Thus, if you watch the full 20 minute NES Explained Video at <http://www.neshealth.com/>, your first scan is only US$65.00. Sorry, but if you don't watch the full version of the video the First Scan rate applies.

In addition if you and a family member or friend wish to be scanned at same appointment, you can both be scanned for only $65.00 for the both. (Both of you must have watched the full version video.) Follow up Scans, provided you do them together are $50.00 for two.

Follow up scans take approximately 30 minutes. The number of Infoceuticals® needed and the number of drops needed depends on each individuals personal scan. Due to the importance and accuracy of the scan, please do not ask to purchase the Infoceuticals® without being scanned first.

For more information about this incredible technology, I encourage you to visit the Nutri-Energetics® website at: <http://www.neshealth.com/>

The NES System Reports:

There are four major structures in the human body-field (HBF): Energetic Drivers, Energetic Integrators, Energetic Terrains and Energetic Stars. All four of these structures are analyzed by the NES–Professional scan. A fifth aspect—the big field—represents the alignment between one’s individual body-field and the energetic fields of the Earth. This fifth aspect is also evaluated by the NES–Professional scan. In addition to analyzing these areas, the scan also evaluates the body-field’s functional ability to effectively channel the information required for the handling of various issues, such as toxins, possible allergens, or emotional stress.

Following is a brief summary of the report screens for the analyzed areas. These report screens graphically indicate where issues have been found using simple bar graph indicators. The full interpretation of the NES scan reports are comprehensively covered in the Nutri-Energetics training program.

Earth Field Alignment

This report identifies misalignment issues between the client’s body-field and that of the Earth’s three Big Fields. These fields are classified as gravity (vertical), magnetic poles (polar) and equatorial (Earth rotation). Misalignment between the human body-field and one or more of the Earth’s three Big Fields. This screen also reports on the clients electrostatic polarity.

Energetic Drivers

This report indicates the status of the human body-field’s 16 Energetic Drivers (the fields that arise from the organs and organ systems). The Energetic Drivers of the human body-field (HBF) are responsible for activating the human body-field, governing detoxification, promoting cell formation, and integrating intercellular communication within the organs. In the NES sequence of correcting the body fields the big field and the Energetic Drivers are the first levels to be addressed.

Energetic Integrators

The human body-field (HBF) further divides into 12 Energetic Integrators. These direct the integration and regulation of body processes through information transfer in the body. They are also integrate with acupuncture meridians, emotions and ensure correct internal communication between organelles. In the NES sequence of correcting the body fields the Energetic Integrators are the second level to be addressed.

Energetic Terrains

This report indicates the body-field's ability to inhibit the formation of disruptive energetic fields known as Energetic Terrains, within body tissues.

Energetic Terrains are energetic environments that can host the imprint or information shadow of pathogens, such as microbes, viruses, bacteria, or fungi. These disruptions are detrimental to the proper functioning of the human body-field.

Energetic Stars

The Energetic Stars represent metabolic pathways and energetic survival mechanisms of the body-field. They form information networks, which function as subsystems of the more complex overall body-field. The functional integrity of these systems is indicated in this report.

Environmental Toxins

The Environmental report indicates the human body-field's functional ability to deal with environmental factors. For example, it reveals how well the body-field can cope with computer radiation. It does not indicate the presence of particular toxins, per se – but only the ability of the body to properly and actively shield itself from various toxins.

Emotions

This report gives an indication of emotional issues your client may have difficulty resolving or dealing with from an energetic perspective. It does not indicate the lack of or excess of an emotion.

Nutrition

This report indicates the functional integrity of the client's body-field to achieve the information transfer required for optimal regulation and metabolism of nutrients. This is not an indication of nutritional levels per se but is more about the body's functional ability to assimilate, manage, and use nutrients effectively.

Musculoskeletal

This screen indicates where the NES–Professional scan has detected a physical shock to the client's body-field. This indicator most commonly corresponds to physical shocks and/or pain that the client may be experiencing at the time of the scan or may relate to past issues or injuries that have not been fully resolved.

The nature of Infoceuticals

The active part of the NES Infoceuticals is not chemical (herbal, nutritional or pharmaceutical) in make up, neither are they homeopathic preparations or flower essences. The NES Infoceuticals were developed incorporating the rapidly developing knowledge base of biophysics and the growing understanding that a structured and intelligent information field, known as the human body-field (HBF) governs, integrates and directs all body processes and energy transfer.

The imprinting technology we have developed encodes the subatomic structure of the colloidal erals with information – a complex blend of electromagnetic, magnetic and gravitational vectors. This information is designed to directly interact with the body field and remove blockages caused by shocks, traumas, toxins, emotional issues and other factors. By clearing these blockages, the integrity of the body's information field is restored and our inherent healing ability is returned.

Biophysics research suggests that for an organism to exhibit the properties of life it must have both a chemical presence and an information field presence. The information field directs and regulates the energy transfer and chemical activity in a way that brings 'life' to the 'lifeless' chemical elements that form a physical organism. The human body-field is also an integral component of consciousness, mental function, memory and emotions, which are all vital parts of our non-physical being.

Here at NES we believe that dysfunction in life processes can occur both at a chemical level (well-documented) or an information level (not so well-documented). Rather than attempting to correct the body's functions at a chemical level – as with herbs, nutrition, pharmaceuticals, or using the energetic signatures of substances to elicit a healing response as in homeopathy; our NES Infoceuticals are individually designed by NES biophysicists to directly interact with, and clear blockages in, the life-directing information field which governs chemical activity and our higher functions.

The term 'Infoceuticals' was devised – and has been registered as a trademark – by NES to embody this revolutionary approach of directly providing information to the human body-field.

Listed below are some of the characteristics that make the NES Infoceuticals an effective means to restore and maintain well-being:

NES research reveals that the body-field is the master control system of the biochemical processes of the body. NES is not saying that biochemistry is wrong, but only that it does not provide a complete understanding of how the body works. The model of the human body-field that Fraser constructed integrates biochemistry with the quantum processes that underlie biochemistry, and it reveals the energetic "structure" of quantum processes in space. Biochemistry is dependent on structure as well, as in the three-dimensional folding of proteins. But the NES model of the body-field goes deeper, as explained below.

At the fundamental level (quantum chemistry), chemical reactions are about the making and breaking of chemical bonds. Bonding and hence chemical reactions depend on how electrons order themselves in atoms and molecules. Quantum chemistry defines the rules of how nuclei and electrons spontaneously arrange themselves into structures in space. These structures may be perturbed by fields or given quanta of energy (e.g., from photons and electrons) that cause them to reorder themselves (in other words, causing a chemical reaction).

The body-field is autocephalic (able to direct itself) because it follows inherent rules that belong to the structures not only of the body, but also according to some of the fundamental rules of quantum physics itself. At the quantum level, molecules can be thought of as structures in space, which when aligned in certain ways are able to interact with other structures (and as a result precipitate chemical reactions). The body-field, due to its structure, is responsible for directing the electronic structure of molecules within the body, so they not only control information transfer but influence all chemical reactions as well. Hence the body-field can be considered the master control system for all metabolism and growth.

This model has previously been partially proposed by other scientists, including Matti Pitkanen and Freeman Cope. Cope produced pivotal work linking physics and biology, and developed a solid-state theory of biological processes. He deduced that the activity in the cell is not just electrochemical, and he looked at the cell function as if the organelles were three-dimensional semiconductors. He thought that all the structures within the cell could be considered to be in a field in which there is a constant interaction between all subatomic particles, not just between the charges on electrons. His overall view was that superconductive pathways play a controlling role in biological functions. NES work has moved on from here as we have actually been able to map out the structure of the body-field and which parts of it control which bodily systems.

The human body-field is a dynamic web of interrelations among all the physiological processes that the body must perform, as well as between these processes and the emotions and consciousness. Moreover, the body-field is in constant interaction with the environment, influenced by and responding to geopathic stress, magnetic fields, toxins, stress, and the like. Fraser has found that the loss of homeostasis that is, the breakdown of the body's ability for self-correction, is an intricate interplay of almost infinite parameters. What allowed Fraser to uncover the structure of the body-field and to "match" function with information flow was the realization that, despite what geneticists and biochemists might think, the body does not have one 'correct' state of being, although there is an optimal preference. While there are some functions of the body that must be maintained within extremely precise parameters, most have flexibility built into them. If they did not, Homo sapiens may have gone the way of the dinosaurs. NES has begun to unravel this web of relationships and to understand the "optimal" preferences for the flow of information, but makes no claims that its theory is complete. Fraser and Massey have only begun to crack the code of the human body-field, and they remain humbled by its intricacy and intelligence. Below are the highlights of some of their research to date, although their theory in its entirety is much more complex.

The Structure of *the Body-Field

According to NES research, the human body-field is comprised of many subfields that are in constant interaction and that combined make up the overall body-field. The body-field is both external and internal to the physical body, and each is interdependent with the other. That is, the physical body needs the body-field to function correctly, but the body-field arises out of field interactions taking place within the physical body and so is dependent upon it. As Fraser built up a more and more detailed model of the body-field, he found that it has an organized structure. Although he stresses that the sets of magnetic vectors that correspond to the different parts of the body-field do not represent frequencies, the different 'compartments' of the body-field can be related to energy of different wavelengths. He has found that the body-field is structured into 12 compartments, or quantized levels he calls Energetic Integrators, each representing a band of energy wavelengths and magnetic vectors in the QED field.

These compartments are folded (in a similar way to Bohm's folded implicate order) and that is why skill is required in the reading of the body-field. This is one of the major reasons why the earlier methods of investigating the body-field, such as by using electrodermal screening devices, were not always reliable. In a folded system, the structure of the body-field must be comprehensively understood, so that the information can be sequenced in the correct order. If this order is misunderstood, then the results of any assessment of the body-field can be badly skewed. (As an aside, any computational device or system also needs to be programmed with a template or 'map' of the optimal body-field before it can begin to detect any deviations in the client's field.) There are two major aspects to the body-field: the Energetic Drivers and the Energetic Integrators, which are described below. There are also other aspects of structure, including Energetic Terrains, cavities, and Energetic Stars.

The Infoceuticals

The Infoceuticals are supplied in 20ml brown glass bottles with an integral dropper dispenser. The preparations contain filtered mineral water, 5% Ethanol preservative and micro quantities of colloidal erals. In each of our Infoceuticals, the atomic structure of the colloidal erals is specifically encoded using NES's proprietary imprinting technology.

There are 62 Infoceuticals in total and these divide into four main categories:

The Energetic Driver Infoceuticals enhance information transfer within body organs and systems and energize the body-field so it can do its job of governing life activities. The Infoceuticals in this category are also designed to initiate organ detoxification and support cell maturation including that of many immune cells. The 16 Drivers are associated with Source, Imprinter, Cell, Nervous System, Circulation, Heart, Lung, Stomach, Muscle, Skin, Liver, Kidney, Immunity, Thymus, Pancreas and Bone.

The 12 Energetic Integrator Infoceuticals are designed to restore communication pathways between organs, organelles and thousands of separate information regulation functions present in the body. These Infoceuticals affect a range of processes and pathologies including, but not limited to: neurosensory, mucous membranes, enzymes, proteins, lymph, hepatic functions, blood processes, microbes, immune reactions, endocrine function, detoxification, and marrow. The Energetic Integrators also interact with acupuncture meridians, mental functions and emotional communication in the body.

The 16 Energetic Terrain Infoceuticals have been designed to clear highly disruptive energetic disturbances, known as Energetic Terrains, from the human body-field (HBF). Energetic Terrains cause major information field errors which manifest within specific body tissues and organs and they have been found to be linked to the information fields of disease-forming microbes (such as viruses, bacteria and fungi) and can induce symptoms associated with these microbes.

The Energetic Stars Infoceuticals are used in cases where there are major blockages within the body's metabolic pathways and survival mechanisms. These Infoceuticals represent the most powerful level of NES therapy and are only used when the previous categories of Infoceuticals have not fully corrected the HBF errors.

The nature of Infoceuticals

The active part of the NES Infoceuticals is not chemical (herbal, nutritional or pharmaceutical) in make up, neither are they homeopathic preparations or flower essences. The NES Infoceuticals were developed incorporating the rapidly developing knowledge base of biophysics and the growing understanding that a structured and intelligent information field, known as the human body-field (HBF) governs, integrates and directs all body processes and energy transfer.

The imprinting technology we have developed encodes the subatomic structure of the colloidal erals with information – a complex blend of electromagnetic, magnetic and gravitational vectors. This information is designed to directly interact with the body field and remove blockages caused by shocks, traumas, toxins, emotional issues and other factors. By clearing these blockages, the integrity of the body's information field is restored and our inherent healing ability is returned.

Biophysics research suggests that for an organism to exhibit the properties of life it must have both a chemical presence and an information field presence. The information field directs and regulates the energy transfer and chemical activity in a way that brings 'life' to the 'lifeless' chemical elements that

The term 'Infoceuticals' was devised – and has been registered as a trademark – by NES to embody this revolutionary approach of directly providing information to the human body-field.

Listed below are some of the characteristics that make the NES Infoceuticals an effective means to restore and maintain well-being:

Safe	NES Infoceuticals are extremely safe. There are no biochemical components apart from trace levels of minerals. The action of the Infoceuticals is simply to establish correct information transfer within the human body-field (HBF).
Compact range	There are 62 Infoceuticals in the complete range of HBF correctors. This compares with hundreds of preparations available to: homeopaths, pharmacists, herbalists, flower essence practitioners and intuitionists.
Specific actions	Proposed the existence of the common consciousness field called the morphogenetic field or M Field.
Directly correct source of disharmonies	Many traditional approaches to wellness address the chemical aspect of the body. NES Infoceuticals, on the other hand, directly interact with and correct distortions and errors in the information field that governs the body's chemical, emotional, mental and memory activity, thus allowing the body to engage its innate ability to restore well-being.
Latest technology	Thirty years of devoted research have been invested in developing the Infoceuticals. This is a true 21st century wellness technology that has not existed before and is destined to play a significant role in wellness in the future.
Effective	People who take the NES Infoceuticals report how quickly and effectively they work. Some people take longer to react but many notice effects within days.
Ease of use	The NES Infoceuticals are simply dispensed from the integral bottle dropper into a glass of water and then consumed.
Compatible	The Infoceuticals have been designed to complement most forms of therapy work whether chemical, energetic, physical or emotional in nature. Many therapist report how the beneficial effects of other therapies are enhanced by the Infoceuticals.
Classed as micro nutritional	The chemical make up of the Infoceuticals is water, 5% ethanol, and micro levels of trace erals. As such they are classified as micronutrients in regulatory terms.
Robust	Unlike many preparations the bottled NES Infoceuticals are unaffected by electromagnetic radiation, light or X-rays and may be consumed at the same time as food even with strong tastes and are unaffected by essential oils.
Controlled dosage rate	The potency of the action is controlled by the number of drops taken. For example, the action of one or two drops is very mild, and 28 drops is strong; so it is very easy to regulate the strength of the action.

The NES-Professional® scanning device and the NES Infoceuticals use advanced and novel technology to ascertain the health state of a client and promote wellness.

The NES system performs two primary tasks. First, it identifies distortions in the human body-field (HBF) and, second, the NES Infoceuticals, our proprietary HBF correctors, are used to restore integrity to the HBF thus allowing the body to engage its own innate self-healing capabilities.

A New Type of Scan

The NES-Professional differs from other methods of health scanning – it does not rely on electrical readings, muscle reflexes, chemical analysis, vibrational frequencies, tri-vectors, electromagnetic scans, pulse detection or radionic rates. Instead it is based on advanced techniques developed by biophysicists to analyse the body's information field (HBF). The HBF is a highly complex energetic field that integrates, coordinates and directs the transfer of information relating to chemical, emotional, mental and memory factors within the body. This field exists as a multilayered, holographic structure. The groundbreaking technology embodied in the NES-Professional is able to analyse the various structures of this complex field and provide a clear, easy-to-comprehend summary of its state to the practitioner.

Pioneering Discoveries

Our understanding of the HBF is based on biophysics and quantum biology, a branch of science that has been developing over the last 100 years with many eminent scientists adding to our understanding of how a living organism is far more than just a collection of chemicals. To name but a few:

Prof. Harold Saxton Burr	Discovered ionic electrical charges in the body and developed the theory of the L (Living) field of life.
Semyon Kirlian	Developed a means of photographing corona discharge from living organisms.

Rupert Sheldrake	Proposed the existence of the common consciousness field called the morphogenetic field or M Field.
Dr Robert O Becker	Pioneer in bioelectric science.
Freeman W. Cope	Identified that cell organelles can act as three-dimensional semiconductors (electrical switches).
Prof. Fritz-Albert Popp	Discovered biophotons, low level light emissions from cells.
Prof. Richard Feynman	Developed the theory of quantum electrodynamics (QED) and communication between atoms.
Dr Richard Gerber	The holographic nature of the universe and life.
Dr Milo Wolff	Pioneer of the electron scalar wave theory and information transmission through space.
Prof. Peter Fraser	Identification of the human body-field (HBF) structure and its component parts. Inventor of Infoceutical technology for correcting errors in the HBF.
Harry Massey	Inventor of the automated HFB scanning, analysing and reporting process using computer technology.

Informing the Body

The modern science of biophysics shows that the body is an intricate collection of chemicals, sounds (phonon), light emissions (photons), electromagnetic waves, magnetic fields and gravitational effects. All these aspects of the body are linked together by information channels known as zero energy pathways. The physical, chemical, emotional, mental, energetic and memory aspects that form our living, conscious being are integrated and coordinated by the human body-field (HBF), an intelligent, structured information field that permeates our body.

The Human Body Field (HBF) can be summarised as an information field that permeates our body, integrating and coordinating our physical, chemical, emotional, mental, energetic and memory aspects to form our living, conscious being. It is involved with maintaining life processes, rebuilding the body and healing.

In clinical terms the HBF is the essential ingredient that transforms chemistry into biological life. The HBF is not life itself but a part of life that has remained, up to recently, uncharted by science.

The HBF is dynamic, intelligent and reacts to changes in its environment. It coordinates information transfer between atoms, cells, tissues and organs at chemical, sound (phonon) and light (photon), electromagnetic, magnetic and gravitational levels allowing all the bodies many aspects to act in a coherent, holographic way. In fact the HBF is the master control mechanism for all body process ranging from nutrient absorption to mental processing. The HBF model elegantly links and encompasses our physical, emotional and mental aspects as well as incorporating acupuncture meridians and metabolic processes. In short the HBF represents the missing link between the holistic view of the body and the biochemical view of the body.

The marvel we call the HBF also coordinates the rebuilding and repair of the physical body. Persistent or large effects of toxins, shocks, trauma, emotional issues, geopathic stress, etc., can cause distortions within the HBFs structure resulting in disruption in the information transfer processes that governs activity and this can manifest as health symptoms. By correcting the distortions in the HBF the information transfer process can resume and the bodies processes return to normal.

The work of Peter Fraser has shown that the HBF divides into four main components:

Energetic Drivers	The 16 Energetic Drivers roughly correlate to the main organs and organ systems of the body. The Energetic Drivers of the human body-field (HBF) are responsible for powering the human body-field, governing detoxification, promoting cell formation and integrating intercellular communication within the organs.
Energetic Integrators	The 12 Energetic Integrators map out the communication pathways between organs, organelles and thousands of separate information regulation functions present in the body. The Energetic Integrators also interact with acupuncture meridians, mental functions and emotional communication in the body.
Energetic Terrains	The 16 Energetic Terrains are involved with defending the body against major energetic blockages within tissues that can occur from the disruptive influence of information fields of disease-forming microbes (viruses, bacteria, fungi, etc), electromagnetic disturbances and geopathic stress.
Energetic Stars	The 15 Energetic Stars maintain the hugely important essential metabolic pathways and survival mechanisms.

The Human Body-Field (HBF) and Biochemical pathways

In chemical terms the body is principally formed from four types of atoms: oxygen, hydrogen, nitrogen and carbon. These atoms combine in specific ways to form molecules, compounds, nucleic acids, proteins, fats, enzymes, hormones and many other things which all go to make up our chemical body. The chemical processes involved in forming these structures are described by the biochemical pathways, usually depicted on large charts as intricate interactions between substances.

Biophysics accepts the chemical view of body processes -- they are observable after all -- but biophysics goes a step further and asks the question, "How do the atoms that make up the body know about the biochemical pathways?" In other words, how do the atoms know how to combine themselves to make a protein, or a nucleic acid, or an enzyme?

Communication between atomic electron clouds is through photon exchange within a QED field.

Biophysics shows that information transfer is required between atoms, or more accurately electrons, before chemicals can react. There is in fact a mass of information transfer happening between all the chemicals of the body as they go about their daily business. Biophysics suggests that a master information field -- the human body-field (HBF) -- directs this information transfer and thus coordinates the chemical activity. In short, the HBF contains the information about the biochemical pathways and passes it on to the atoms.

If the HBF structure becomes distorted, the distortions adversely affect the chemical processes by directing information transfer between atoms in an incorrect way.

How Does The NES Scan Work?

Bioenergetic medicine is full of curious facts, but this is one of the most astonishing of all: Every device out there, whatever their claims (and there are some rather fantastic stories used to explain how they work), utilize some form of random generator as part of the process in providing the results. This method may stretch the imagination, but it works, as many thousands of practitioners of all sorts of bioenergetic clinical devices can testify.

The question is, "How can this process work?" Or, more accurately, "How can a computer capture information about the body-field?"

The answer comes down to looking at "reality" in a rather different way than conventional science has told us. To fully appreciate the new view of reality that bioenergetics is proposing, we suggest you read Peter Fraser's article "Integrating Biology and Physics: The Coming Medical Revolution."

The NES system is based on a theory of "reality" proposed by astrophysicist Milo Wolf (MIT, retired), called Space Resonance Theory (or sometimes called the Wave Structure of Matter). His theory says that the matter of the physical universe is shaped and structured by how quantum space is shaped, by the "resonance" of that space. Space (and any property of reality that you care to think about) behaves rather like a spherical standing wave from which "particles" (the subatomic particles we know as electrons and photons and the like) arise. These particles (or most of them) are, in fact, just "appearances" created by the interaction of Out waves and In waves. When these waves interact, they change the resonance of space, and the differing resonances give space its different characteristics and properties. Wolff's theory is not unique in seeing physics as wave-dominant rather than particle-dominant. His theory is similar in some respects to that of John Cramer (called the Transactional Interpretation of quantum theory) and to a theory of consciousness proposed by Peter Marcer and Edgar Mitchell (called Phase-Conjugate-Adaptive-Resonance).

Let's apply this wave idea in a simple example using the photon, which is the "particle" of light but in the Wolff wave theory is really just an interference pattern created by high-frequency electrons. When the resonances of what we call photons propagate in space, objects become visible to our eyes. The photons can be thought of as the Out wave, exploring the universe. Then, the eye, which is giving off its own wave too, meets that Out wave / photon and in the interaction of the two waves, information is imparted: we interpret that information as an object in space. In the case of hearing, to use another example, because of the interaction of the In wave and the Out wave, a sound, when it is heard, actually seems to be located outside of the body, instead of where we must expect it – inside the ear/head/brain!

We at NES have developed a "matching" technique that is based on this kind of Space Resonance Theory. We are able to use a computer to generate an Out wave (based on data that represents the template of the human body-field as devised by Peter Fraser over three decades of research). Then by correlating this data to what most people would class as random events to create a "start" point for taking a reading of the ever-fluctuating body-field, we are able to pick up the corresponding In wave from the person being scanned. We then match that incoming information to the already existing data in the software that codes for Fraser's template of the "ideal" body-field structure. To read the full body-field we have to detect many In wave and Out wave interference patterns, so the software does a number of scans of aspects of the body-field in a single assessment (on the order of 200, of which results are returned for about 145 parameters of the body-field). The human body-field (its energy and information template at the quantum level) is disturbed by the scanning process, in the same way that all quantum events are disturbed when a measurement is taken, so an assessment cannot be reliably repeated until this disturbance settles.

Although the Out wave does have an infinite stretch theoretically, we have found that the shorter the distance between the person being scanned and the computer that is generating the other wave, the less likelihood there is of interference from what is commonly called random "noise." The more noise, the less accurate the scan results, which is why we recommend the use of the NES system in person and do not endorse distance testing.

What differentiates the NES scanning method?

In studying the process of what we call "matching" over the years, we have surmised that Nature generally prefers the "best possible answer," not a single definitive answer, from the many options that are possible. This process is different from the statistical probability that rules the quantum world. It also is not about chance or randomness. Matching is about emergence, ordering, pattern-forming. But, most importantly, we have found that any answer you get is only as good as the question you pose. So input (the data in the biotechnology's computer program) is of paramount importance, and this is taken into consideration in NES.

What sets NES apart is that we have discovered not only what to test for (what questions to ask of the body-field, if you will) but also that there is a preferred order to how the body-field should be analysed, which matters in getting accurate information about the body-field. What is more, Peter Fraser's years of working on body-field theory has shown that there is also a preferred order to correcting distortions in the body-field. You can think of the body-field structure as like a map. When the map is scrunched up, you cannot read it properly. But when you smooth it out, you can understand it. Still, if you don't know how to read the map—if it is not read in the right order—you misunderstand the directions or misinterpret information. Peter Fraser has spent years working out the techniques to be able to discover the preferred order of the body-field and for correcting distortions, and together he and Harry Massey discovered how to apply that information to a computer-based clinical system. No other system or theory, as far as we know, follows this preferred sequence in either testing or correcting the body-field. That's why we believe that our NES–Professional System excels both from a clinical application standpoint and in terms of the accuracy of its scan results.

We have not only spent a great deal of time working out the best possible tests in the preferred sequence, so that the answers you get from the scan are the most accurate they can be in the context of correcting a person's distorted body-field, but we have discovered a way to imprint the corrective information into liquid remedies, called Infoceuticals. Our Infoceuticals provide the information to correct body-field (energy and information) distortions. Because we know the preferred sequence of correcting the “structure” of the body-field, we can correct it at the macro level, not the micro level, which is why with NES you do not have hundreds or thousands of Infoceuticals (such as you do with homeopathic remedies) and do not have to “diagnose,” such as figure out the virus or mineral deficiency or try to address physical symptoms. You only need to correct the macro structures (the quantum structure in space, if you will) of the body-field, which then regulate the physical body and help return the body to homeostasis. In effect, NES allows you to work through the body-field to stimulate the self-healing capabilities of the physical body as Nature intended it to work.

The Nutri-Energetics Infoceuticals are based on 25 years of research into the human quantum electrodynamic (QED) body-field, how it serves as the master control system of the physical body, and how to restore homeostasis to the body. To get a full appreciation of the Infoceuticals, you have to try them yourself! Below is a short overview of what the Infoceuticals are and how they work, followed by more detailed explanations for those steeped in science.

The Body-Field Acts as The Master Control System for Metabolism and Growth

From a practitioner's point of view the Human Body Field can be viewed as the actual quantum electrodynamic field that homeopathic remedies, acupuncture needles, and hands-on healers are able to affect. From a biochemical perspective, it can be seen as the supra-chemical control system of the body, acting as the master control system for all metabolism and growth.

How is the body-field the master control system? Well, at the fundamental level of quantum chemistry, chemical reactions are about the making and breaking of chemical bonds. Bonding depends on how electrons order themselves in atoms and molecules. Quantum chemistry defines the rules for how nuclei and electrons spontaneously arrange themselves to form structures in space. These structures may be perturbed by fields or given quanta of energy (e.g., from photons and electrons) that causes them to try to reorder themselves; in other words, these perturbations or increases in energy are stimuli for a chemical reaction to take place.

The body-field also is autocephalic (able to direct itself). At the quantum level, molecules can be considered as structures in space, which when aligned in certain ways are able to interact with other structures; in other words, the alignment of subatomic "structures" can also stimulate chemical reactions. The body-field, due to its structure, is actually responsible for directing the electronic structure of molecules within your body and, consequently, it not only serves as a control for information transfer but it also influences all chemical reactions. Hence, the body-field can be seen as the master control system for all physiological processes.

These insights have been proposed, and proven, by other scientists, including Pitkanen and Cope. Cope produced pivotal work linking physics and biology, and developed a solid-state theory of biological processes. He deduced that the activity in the cell is not just electrochemical, and he looked at the cell function as if the organelles were three-dimensional semi-conductors. He hypothesized that all the structures within the cell can be considered to exist in a field subject to constant interaction between all subatomic particles, not just between the charges on electrons. His overall view was that superconductive pathways play a controlling role in biological functions. Our work has extended this theory as we have actually been able to map out the structure of the body-field and which parts of it control which bodily systems.

It has taken more than 25 years to map out the information, or magnetic signposts, that are contained within an optimal QED field. The Infoceuticals are based on providing these core directions to the body-field so that any deviations away from the optimal body-field can be corrected. In other words, the Infoceuticals help the body-field return to its optimal structure so that in its autocephalic capacity (its inherent structure gives it the ability to direct itself), it is able to direct the body once again in the most optimal way for health and wellness.

The Infoceuticals are Information

The NES Infoceuticals work to restore the structure of the body-field by providing the information the body-field needs to repair blocks, distortions, shocks, and other stresses on the body-field.

NES has devised a proprietary method of imprinting QED information onto a base of organic micro-minerals. Each Infoceutical provides the information needed to restore specific aspects of the body-field to proper structure and functioning, which in turn corrects the corresponding physiological processes in the body. The Infoceuticals fall into categories related to these processes: there are Energetic Drivers, Energetic Integrators, Energetic Terrains, and Energetic Stars.

The Infoceuticals are taken as drops in water, according to a specific NES protocol and the NES Professional assessment results. When you take the drops, the subatomic particles act as magnetic signposts for your body-field. (This is also the technical explanation for how homeopathy actually works, although NES Infoceuticals are not homeopathic, i.e., they are not succussions / dilutions.) The NES Infoceuticals provide direct correction to the structures (information) of the body-field, unlike homeopathy, herbalism, and other modalities that use indirect, or analogue, correction.

How the Infoceuticals Differ from Other Remedies

The NES Infoceuticals are unlike any other remedy because they are pure QED information.

The NES approach is fundamentally different from most other biotechnologies and their remedies because it is not concerned with treating symptoms or targeting specific things in the body, such as viruses or bacteria. Instead, NES is concerned with the functional integrity of the QED pathways in the body-field, because these serve as the master control systems for the biochemical processes. The Infoceuticals, therefore, work to correct fundamental processes that, when corrected, allow the body to do what it does best keep itself healthy.

To understand the Infoceuticals you have to understand how at the subatomic level entangled structures can affect each other instantly, no matter how far apart they may be. If you affect one, the other, paired structure changes, too. Each Infoceutical's information structure is similar to both the geno-field and to certain organelles in the body, which ensures the rapid uptake of the Infoceutical's information.

You could say that the imprinting of biological information is the basis of most bio-energetic medicine. With this in mind, the theory of how the NES Infoceuticals are "constructed" becomes quite fascinating. First of all, there has to be imprinted within them the information that represents how subatomic particles (electrons, photons and phonons) behave at a specific part of the electromagnetic spectrum, since body processes are affected by different parts of the EMF spectrum. Then we must add the key information that pertains to the specific part of the body that is our target for correction. This is a complex process, as you can imagine, and it has taken years of trial-and-error research for us to perfect the procedures for accurately and reliably imprinting the QED information into the Infoceuticals.

The Effects of the Infoceuticals

In the human body-field, information is transferred from one part of the field to another, and the pathway taken, in accordance with the laws of physics, will always be the one that requires the least amount of energy to transfer that data.

These pathways can be called the zero-energy pathways, and they are fundamental to the processes responsible for normal physiology. What happens when you get sick? At first, you won't even know you are getting sick, because the body is able to keep the appearance of health by simply forcing the information transfer to go on as it did before. It finds other, although less ideal, pathways to reroute the information. But this redirection of information requires the body to use additional energy, which is why fatigue is often the first symptom of the loss of well-being. The drain on energy also means the body is not able to coordinate all of its other functions optimally, and so the breakdown, over time, becomes systemic. Eventually, the body loses so much strength and/or the pathways become so convoluted and distorted that physiology is affected and you experience symptoms of illness or the onset of disease.

The Infoceuticals are designed to correct distortions in the primary information pathways, which we call Energetic Integrators. As the correction is taking place, however, fatigue may persist for a while until the body stops trying to use the incorrect pathways and switches back to the newly restored correct pathways. Once pathways are corrected and the problems have been resolved, energy is actually gained instead of lost. The body can work as it was designed to, which is to maintain well-being and health.

Because the Infoceuticals contain pure information, they can be used with any medicinal substances, such as pharmaceuticals, herbs, supplements, and homeopathic remedies. In addition, because NES is working at the level of the QED body-field, the system can be easily used to complement other modalities used by physicians, homeopaths, chiropractors, naturopaths, clinical nutritionists, and even allopathic physicians. In fact, the corrective messages in the Infoceuticals may actually help other remedies to work more effectively.

The discovery and development of technology that is able to view the Quantum Electrodynamic Body Field.

Measuring the Human Body-Field

Peter Fraser needed a way to measure his proposed body-field, and since no technology existed to do that, he was forced to devise one. That technology has now been replaced by the NES Professional System; however, we will provide a brief overview of the ideas that led to the development of this revolutionary system.

At the beginning of his research, Peter Fraser used an apparatus that was similar to an electrodermal screening device. Fraser first encountered these types of devices about thirty years ago. They work by detecting slight changes in the conductivity of the skin in the presence of light and a weak electromagnetic field. An "effect" is said to occur if there is a movement of more than 15 units (on a scale of 1-100) in the skin conductivity when a structurally imprinted ampoule is put in the circuit.

There has been much speculation over how electrodermal screening devices work. They are poorly understood and often confused with being purely electronic devices. (Conventional scientists tend to reject them all together.) Fraser came to a different, almost heretical conclusion: if a machine utilizes the electron, then it should work whenever electricity is supplied. There should be no other parameter for its use. However, in a fortuitous experimental mishap, Fraser discovered that no effects could be seen when these machines were used in the dark even if they were supplied with electricity! Fraser followed the logic (light means photons; darkness means few or no photons) and determined that the device he was using must somehow be relying upon photon exchange, rather than on the flow of electrons. This led him to use the term "Photon-Induced Superconductivity" (PIS) in relation to the observed effects of certain of these machines.

The Photon-Induced Superconductivity Effect

The PIS effect is an important part of Fraser's evidence for the body-field. He can measure this effect both with his basic experimental set-up and with the new software technique used in the NES Professional. With the early set-up, he showed that he could detect whether a solution A was structurally (energetically) imprinted or not by measuring changes in skin conductivity when solution A was placed next to an imprinted solution that was known to be A. Fraser calls this a "matching" technique. He had shown that when two identically imprinted solutions are in close proximity in the presence of photons (in the case of the early experimental apparatus used in daylight) and a weak electromagnetic field, a super-conductive effect is induced in the body. This effect could then be measured by the changes in the conductivity of the skin. If the substances were not an identical match, no PIS effect was detected. Therefore, if a single structurally imprinted solution representing a part of the body-field was placed close to the body, a PIS effect would be detected, as two identical entities are "matched."

This matching technique works because of quantum entanglement and can be compared to Cooper Pairs of electrons in superconducting metals or the experiments involving entangled photon transfer. The Nobel Prize-winning BCS theory of superconductors states that in a superconducting metal, pairs of electrons are coupled over distance due to interactions with the crystal lattice that they are travelling through.

Fraser's matching experiments verified that when two identical samples of solutions, structures or anything else are placed together in the presence of photons and a weak electrostatic field, the subatomic particles present in the samples are able to interact and influence the body-field. Following on from this revelation, Fraser has shown that when an effect is observed with a structurally imprinted solution in a circuit with an electrodermal screening device, the interaction between the structurally imprinted solution and the body-field is not purely electronic. Rather, there is a quantum interaction between the imprinted solution and the human body-field. Fraser continued his tests, eventually showing that structurally imprinted solutions and the magnetic vectors that can be reproducibly derived from them have nothing to do with frequencies. Hence, unlike most biotechnologies, NES is not concerned with testing for or determining frequencies. The NES imprinting process transfers purely magnetic vector information, which "tells" the subatomic particles which way to go in the QED field and, hence, enables subatomic particles to interact with the body-field in certain ways. You can think of magnetic vectors as subatomic directional arrows or signposts in the body.

The Need for Better Measurements

Fraser's early experimental set-up helped him to make a number of pivotal discoveries about the human body-field, but he still faced a number of problems with the measuring apparatus itself. The PIS effect definitely existed, but as a way of detecting this effect, the electrodermal screening device was less than reliable. The device was extremely sensitive to operator influence, and hence under certain conditions the results of experiments were not conclusive. In addition, Fraser discovered that the body-field has a structure that is ordered and "folded," and this added a layer of complexity to reading the body-field using his basic experimental set-up. In order to read the body-field correctly (to understand where any health problems were occurring), the body-field needs to be read in a specific order, so as to "unfold" the information. By way of analogy, think of a scrunched up map. You cannot read it properly until it is smoothed out. To properly read the body-field (using the machines then in existence) required the operator to devote a great deal of time and energy to do the reading and obtain a reliable analysis. Therefore, a new and more objective way of measuring the body-field and its interactions was required. In recent years, there have been amazing technological advances, and it was to these that Fraser turned his attention.

His first advance was to create a new machine in partnership with the Australian biologist Dr. Bevin Reid. This machine was able to measure the energy spikes that were connected with structurally imprinted ampoules, in a similar way to chemical nuclear magnetic resonance (NMR) research. The experiments performed with this machine provided further evidence of the quantum nature of the body-field and its components, and that the observed magnetic vectors related to real energy.

The real breakthrough, however, came when Fraser met Harry Massey in 2002. Fraser was still looking for a machine that could examine all parts of the body-field. Massey had separately been studying possible computerized ways of understanding how information is transferred in the body. He had also begun a search to find rules that govern both how energy is structured and information is transferred within the human body.

Both Fraser and Massey had realized that the information gained from measurements of the conductivity of the skin at acupuncture meridian points could only ever be, at most, a partial measurement of the energy transfer in the body. Fraser understood that these measurements were, in fact, related to photon activity in the body-field. Because his research had shown him that the body-field is, in fact, made up of overlapping electromagnetic, ionic and magnetic fields that set up the overall QED field, the measurements of photon activity could be giving information about only 20% of the body-field at best. This was yet another reason why the results of experiments conducted with electrodermal screening devices were frequently inaccurate. Fraser and Massey appreciated that they needed to find another way of investigating the complete body-field; they needed a technology that could not only match all of the magnetic vectors and structures contained in subfields in the body-field, but that also could record the vectors that make up the overall body-field. Therefore, it would have to be considerably more complex than Fraser's original basic experimental apparatus.

The Interaction of the Body-Field With Computers

Research has shown that computers programmed with certain software have the ability to pick up information transferred via electrons and photons. More than a decade of research from groups such as the Princeton Engineering Anomalies Research program (PEAR) has shown that human consciousness can interact with, or effect, technological systems. The research of Brenda Dunne and Robert Jahn in particular has verified the hypothesis that random processes can be influenced through human consciousness.

There are currently a number of computational devices on the market that claim to be able to detect health problems in the human body and correct those problems. However, the majority of these devices include a "black box" connecting the human and machine, a box that is used on the pretence that it is somehow picking up frequencies emitted from the body electronically. Massey has investigated a number of these devices, but found them all to be lacking in one way or another. The results frequently missed major health problems and were limited in their range of possible explanations. The results that came up are generally relevant, however when Peter did matching experiments of certain items we found that these systems often missed them out. This was because of the need for order in a testing device.

Faced with the problems of the current computational devices, but knowing that there was a real interaction that could take place between the body-field and computer, Fraser and Massey joined forces with a computer and mathematics expert. The trio set about examining how information was transferred in biology in order to create their own computational system that could mimic nature, and therefore produce accurate assessment results of the body-field. Their research led them to an understanding of how information can be transferred accurately between two QED fields (one from your body-field and the other set up by a computer). This can only be accomplished if the structures of both fields are described in the same way and if the vectors are presented in the same order it takes to unfold the human body-field.

This understanding was furthered when Massey examined the research of Stephen Wolfram, as discussed in his book A New Kind of Science, where he shows how many processes from nature that can be mimicked by software by applying iterations of simple rules. It is Wolfram's belief that all of the complexity and apparent randomness of the universe may be explained by simple self-replicating rules. NES research confirms this. During the research process, Fraser and Massey also managed to link ideas of spin from quantum physics with the inherent spin found within DNA and linked this to what are in all probability zero-energy pathways in the human body-field. However, most importantly, by putting together all of their research, Fraser and Massey succeeded in creating a new methodology for health investigation and a technology that displays the human body-field on a standard Windows-based computer. The NES Professional System is the result of Fraser's research and his and Massey's collaboration. It is the only system that has encoded within its software a "map" of the structure of the optimal human body-field and that can perform assessments quickly and accurately (independent of operator or client intention). The software "unfolds" the body-field in the proper order and allows the practitioner to work with the client to undertake healing in the sequence that is best for that client and the state of his or her body-field.

Although quantum theory has been at the heart of many branches of science since its development in the early twentieth century and despite the fact that quantum processes underlie all of chemistry it was not until very recently that researchers began to search for quantum processes in biology and in the human body.

There are many biological phenomena that cannot be explained by the current biochemical and physical models of how living organisms function. For instance, there is no convincing explanation for the precise synchrony of motion that occurs in huge flocks of birds or schools of fish. In some types of fish, the entire school seems to be "one mind." They can sense the approach of a predator and take evasive action not as individuals but seamlessly as a huge group. Or they can spontaneously form a large 'ball' to ward off the prey. If the group does scatter, then once the danger passes the individuals effortlessly and almost instantaneously reform into a group. Known forms of communication, such as sight or sound, cannot explain this simultaneity of behaviour. It seems as if the fish possess a "sixth sense" that is guiding their movements or are subject to some kind of field that is helping to coordinate their behaviour. Could a quantum description of biology explain this behaviour?

Large flocks of birds act in a similar, unexplainable fashion. It is not uncommon for a flock to grow to as many as 100,000 birds, and yet the flock is still able to change direction almost instantaneously.

Flocks are also able to navigate over extremely long distances to return to exact locations repeatedly, year after year. There does not appear to be a constant "leader" in a flock, showing the direction of travel to the rest of the group.

There is a growing amount of mathematical research into the area of coordinated behaviour that concentrates on modelling the motions of individuals in a large group (e.g., birds in a flock) by a series of rules. In a number of cases, programmers have been able to encode the rules for the individual actions into the computer and receive output that simulates the observed coordinated group action. By extrapolation, mathematicians suggest that flock behaviour can be explained by formulating simple rules for the individual birds, such as "don't get too close to any other bird" or "stay within a certain angle of another bird." However, these models cannot explain why and how flocks form in the first place, and how they reach specific destinations. Does one bird suddenly decide to form a flock and other birds join it? Or is there some sort of collective action at a precise time point? How is the final destination decided on, and how is it navigated toward? Therefore, although these computer models are helpful in explaining how these actions might be carried out, they are unable to explain why these biological phenomena occur in the first place.

Current biological theory is also far from clear about the how and why of basic human body functions. For example, it cannot yet explain satisfactorily how the human body functions as a heat-generating object. Cold-blooded species seem to obey the Second Law of Thermodynamics, but warm-blooded species do not. Heat is supposed to dissipate according to certain rules, and maintaining body heat to within 1 degree C is no mean feat, especially considering the number of cells in the body and the wide range of external temperatures to which the human body is subjected.

The current explanation of how the human nervous system functions also is not particularly satisfactory. The current thinking is that neurons are like on/off switches, and nerves act as wires connecting them. Therefore, the brain can be likened to a computer. However, if the nervous system were concerned only with ions and the transmission of electrochemical signals, surely it would have formed as a continuous unit. Instead, the nervous system is discontinuous, rather like a collection of fine fibres spreading throughout the body but not entirely connected everywhere.

There has been much research involving the close examination of these fibres and attempting to link pathways through the fibres to regions of the brain. The nervous system, it is suggested, must work via neural transmission at different speeds, varying from fast to slow in a way that is related to the diameter of the controlling axon. However, this would make any action almost impossible to coordinate. Anyone who has watched a ballet dancer or an Olympic gymnast observes that such activities require high levels of precision and extreme flexibility of movement at amazing speeds. Could this level of pinpoint precision coupled with speed really be controlled by a number of on/off switches? Or would the discontinuous nature of the nervous system be better described in terms of a quantum system that is able to transfer information instantaneously via fields? If the structures of the brain, their cavities, orientations and placement with regards to fluids are considered alongside the charges that are set up by the nervous system, it is quite easy to see that all of the elements required to set up a complex field system for transferring information are present.

These examples, and numerous others, lead to the conclusion that the current way of viewing living organisms is not completely satisfactory and that a more unifying approach is required. Many researchers are seeking holistic explanations and quantum-field mechanisms to explain phenomena that biochemistry cannot. These include Rupert Sheldrake and his theory of morphogenetic fields and William Tiller's directed intent. Most of this research, even though it is rigorous, is not widely accepted by conventional researchers. It takes time for paradigms to shift, and Fraser and Massey are among those who believe we are in the midst of a major shift in how we view the human body and what it means to be healthy. In the following sections we will mention the work of a number of researchers who have made major contributions to this field.

Nonlocal Information Transfer

A great deal of recent work in physics has shown that 'nonlocal' interactions are not only possible, but are a fundamental aspect of the subatomic world. Simply put, 'nonlocal' means that two things (such as subatomic particles) can interact and instantaneously affect each other even when they are separated. And, it doesn't matter if they are separated by nanometres or by light-years! This phenomenon is also called "quantum entanglement." An example involves two particles created together. When one has spin "up," the partner particle must have spin "down." Their attributes are correlated. So by measuring one particle, physicists know something about the other. If the two particles are separated and when one particle's spin is measured, the other must instantaneously adjust itself accordingly to maintain the spin relationship. Such "instantaneous action at a distance" defies the laws of classical physics, since it seems to imply that some kind of information has travelled between particles at a rate faster than the speed of light, which is the upper limit of motion according to classical physics.

The question of faster-than-light "communication" really began to be explored when Einstein questioned the fundamental principles of quantum theory in the 1930s. He believed that the quantum theory developed by Niels Bohr and others, now the accepted way of viewing quantum theory, was incomplete and would be improved upon in the future. Along with Boris Podolsky and Nathan Rosen, in 1935 Einstein proposed a thought experiment that became known as the EPR paradox (after the initials of the three scientists). We will not explain the thought experiment here, but suffice it to say, it caught the attention of many scientists, who attempted to prove that "action at a distance" (nonlocality) was either possible or not.

In 1982 a remarkable experiment was performed in Paris by a research team led by physicist Alain Aspect. This ingenious experiment, based on the EPR paradox and an inequality principle derived by John Bell, verified the principle of quantum entanglement and nonlocal interactions. The results of Aspect's experiment clearly showed that subatomic particles once coupled and then separated are still connected at some fundamental level. A more recent experiment into quantum entanglement, as reported in the June 2003 edition of New Scientist, was carried out by researchers in Austria, led by Marcus Aspelmeyer. They successfully sent entangled photons to opposite sides of the Danube River without the use of optical fibres. Every year more scientific evidence appears supporting the theory of the quantum interconnectedness of the universe.

David Bohm and his research student, Yakir Aharonov performed an experiment back in 1959 that supported this view. Now described as the Bohm-Aharonov (AB) effect, they found that in certain circumstances, electrons are able to 'feel' the presence of a nearby magnetic field, even though they are travelling in regions of space where the field strength is zero. This example of quantum interconnectedness and others led Bohm to develop his theory regarding an "implicate order" in the world of matter and, by extension, in biological systems. The implicate order is a fundamental, underlying unity that pervades the material world and connects all of matter.

Biophotons - Examining What Controls Biological Systems

More recent research has probed for quantum processes in the human body, including electromagnetic processes that could explain aspects of physiology that have long stumped biologists. One of the electromagnetic phenomena being explored is light emissions from cells in the body, or biophotons. Professor Fritz-Albert Popp, vice president of the International Institute of Biophysics, has been a pioneer in biophotonic research.

In 1976, Popp and Ruth developed very sensitive experimental equipment that could measure the extremely weak (400-800 nm) emissions of light in human cells. They coined the term "biophotons" to express the biological origins and the quantum character of this radiation. Since this discovery, sound experimental evidence has been published to show that DNA is one of the sources of biophotons, and that there is structure to the biophotonic field. In addition, there is evidence to support the idea that biophotons are responsible for triggering some biochemical reactions in and between cells. The Popp research group has also recorded biophoton measurements from the whole human body over a period of many months. These measurements reveal that the biophoton field reflects all the biological rhythms as well as left-right symmetry of corresponding points on the body in healthy people.

Cyril W. Smith, a British biomedical engineer and physicist, has been conducting experiments in this area since the early 1970s. His background as a senior lecturer in electronics and electrical engineering led him to develop radiaesthetic techniques, specifically to investigate "subtle" electromagnetic fields and radiations. Since 1973, he has led studies of the interaction of coherent electromagnetic fields with living systems and biological materials. He concludes that living systems produce a characteristic pattern of frequencies as an expression of their electrochemical activities. These frequencies are strong enough to induce observable synchronization in tadpoles in the presence of yellow light. Smith is proposing biocommunication between organisms in the presence of light and a weak electromagnetic field. He suggests that this unseen information transfer is accomplished by the macroscopic systems relying on photon exchange in the presence of magnetic vector potentials. His theory has clear links to Popp's concept of biophotons.

Biological Superconducting Pathways

Matti Pitkanen, a Finnish theoretical physicist, has proposed that many principles of quantum physics can be applied to biological systems. He suggests that information transfer in biology takes place via superconductive pathways, and that electrons and photons are the carriers of this information. This work was supported by experiments performed by Freeman W. Cope in the 1970s. Cope produced pivotal work linking physics and biology, and developed a solid-state theory of biological processes. He deduced that the activity in the cell is not just electrochemical, and looked at the cell function as if the organelles were three-dimensional semiconductors. His theory suggests that all the structures within the cell can be considered to be in a field in which there is constant interaction between all subatomic particles, not just between the charges on electrons. Cope published a paper in 1978 showing that hydrated nucleic acids or dry melanin produce low-frequency sound in measurements of electrical conductivity when exposed to magnetic fields at room temperature. From this, he concluded that superconductivity, analogous to superconductivity in metals at very low temperatures, was occurring in living systems in the presence of a magnetic field. His overall view was that superconductive pathways play a controlling role in biological functions.

A New Model of Biology

These researchers, and many others we could have mentioned, seem to be thinking along the same lines: that there is some field or energy controlling biological systems other than or in addition to the biochemical and physical systems. Peter Fraser's research reaches a similar conclusion. After nearly twenty-five years of research, Peter Fraser has amassed evidence for how a quantum electrodynamic field, which he calls the human body-field, underlies and controls the biochemical activities of the body. He has mapped out the "structure" of the body-field, detailing such aspects as Energetic Drivers, Integrators, and Terrains. His model shows how the overall body-field is comprised of subfields that form along with the foetus and develop as organ and organ systems develop. He has uncovered detailed information pathways in the body-field that correlate to a multitude of specific physiological processes. His theory truly is a bridge between biology and physics, and has important ramifications for explaining how the body both loses and regains health. If you would like to know more about Fraser's research, you can read the book The Unturned Stone.

The HBF Model

The Model of the Human Body-Field

"Mapping the human body-field involves discerning intricate webs of relationships. It's about realizing that the body does not find only one correct answer but instead prefers to make the best possible choices under the circumstances."

- Peter Fraser and Harry Massey

NES research reveals that the body-field is the master control system of the biochemical processes of the body. NES is not saying that biochemistry is wrong, but only that it does not provide a complete understanding of how the body works. The model of the human body-field that Fraser constructed integrates biochemistry with the quantum processes that underlie biochemistry, and it reveals the energetic "structure" of quantum processes in space. Biochemistry is dependent on structure as well, as in the three-dimensional folding of proteins. But the NES model of the body-field goes deeper, as explained below.

At the fundamental level (quantum chemistry), chemical reactions are about the making and breaking of chemical bonds. Bonding and hence chemical reactions depend on how electrons order themselves in atoms and molecules. Quantum chemistry defines the rules of how nuclei and electrons spontaneously arrange themselves into structures in space. These structures may be perturbed by fields or given quanta of energy (e.g., from photons and electrons) that cause them to reorder themselves (in other words, causing a chemical reaction).

The body-field is autocephalic (able to direct itself) because it follows inherent rules that belong to the structures not only of the body, but also according to some of the fundamental rules of quantum physics itself. At the quantum level, molecules can be thought of as structures in space, which when aligned in certain ways are able to interact with other structures (and as a result precipitate chemical reactions). The body-field, due to its structure, is responsible for directing the electronic structure of molecules within the body, so they not only control information transfer but influence all chemical reactions as well. Hence the body-field can be considered the master control system for all metabolism and growth.

This model has previously been partially proposed by other scientists, including Matti Pitkanen and Freeman Cope. Cope produced pivotal work linking physics and biology, and developed a solid-state theory of biological processes. He deduced that the activity in the cell is not just electrochemical, and he looked at the cell function as if the organelles were three-dimensional semiconductors. He thought that all the structures within the cell could be considered to be in a field in which there is a constant interaction between all subatomic particles, not just between the charges on electrons. His overall view was that superconductive pathways play a controlling role in biological functions. NES work has moved on from here as we have actually been able to map out the structure of the body-field and which parts of it control which bodily systems.

The human body-field is a dynamic web of interrelations among all the physiological processes that the body must perform, as well as between these processes and the emotions and consciousness. Moreover, the body-field is in constant interaction with the environment, influenced by and responding to geopathic stress, magnetic fields, toxins, stress, and the like. Fraser has found that the loss of homeostasis that is, the breakdown of the body's ability for self-correction is an intricate interplay of almost infinite parameters. What allowed Fraser to uncover the structure of the body-field and to "match" function with information flow was the realization that, despite what geneticists and biochemists might think, the body does not have one "correct" state of being, although there is an optimal preference. While there are some functions of the body that must be maintained within extremely precise parameters, most have flexibility built into them. If they did not, Homo sapiens may have gone the way of the dinosaurs. NES has begun to unravel this web of relationships and to understand the "optimal" preferences for the flow of information, but makes no claims that its theory is complete. Fraser and Massey have only begun to crack the code of the human body-field, and they remain humbled by its intricacy and intelligence. Below are the highlights of some of their research to date, although their theory in its entirety is much more complex.

The Structure of the Body-Field

According to NES research, the human body-field is comprised of many subfields that are in constant interaction and that combined make up the overall body-field. The body-field is both external and internal to the physical body, and each is interdependent with the other. That is, the physical body needs the body-field to function correctly, but the body-field arises out of field interactions taking place within the physical body and so is dependent upon it. As Fraser built up a more and more detailed model of the body-field, he found that it has an organized structure. Although he stresses that the sets of magnetic vectors that correspond to the different parts of the body-field do not represent frequencies, the different 'compartments' of the body-field can be related to energy of different wavelengths. He has found that the body-field is structured into 12 compartments, or quantized levels he calls Energetic Integrators, each representing a band of energy wavelengths and magnetic vectors in the QED field.

These compartments are folded (in a similar way to Bohm's folded implicate order) and that is why skill is required in the reading of the body-field. This is one of the major reasons why the earlier methods of investigating the body-field, such as by using electrodermal screening devices, were not always reliable. In a folded system, the structure of the body-field must be comprehensively understood, so that the information can be sequenced in the correct order. If this order is misunderstood, then the results of any assessment of the body-field can be badly skewed. (As an aside, any computational device or system also needs to be programmed with a template or 'map' of the optimal body-field before it can begin to detect any deviations in the client's field.)

There are two major aspects to the body-field: the Energetic Drivers and the Energetic Integrators, which are described below. There are also other aspects of structure, including Energetic Terrains, cavities, and more.

Energetic Drivers

There are 16 Energetic Drivers that provide the energy needed to maintain the HBF. Several of these Drivers develop as the embryo develops. Without the power provided by the Energetic Drivers, the body cannot function properly. Certainly, healing cannot take place. (One of the first signs of illness is often fatigue.) Damage to the Drivers comes from a variety of factors heavy metals and chemical toxins, trauma, emotional shock, electromagnetic pollution, geopathic stress and reduces the overall strength of the HBF and its effectiveness in regulating life processes. In the NES model of healing, Drivers must be corrected before the Energetic Integrators are dealt with.

Energetic Integrators

There are 12 main Energetic Integrators. They are "compartments" that are similar to meridians in that they cover the information regulation of a range of seemingly unrelated physiological processes. Integrators exist in the DNA field as magnetic vectors that direct subatomic particles along zero-energy pathways. They are structured into information "sections" that deal with different kinds of information in a specific sequence from nucleic acid to cells, tissues, organs, organ systems, emotions, and consciousness. Disease, or what is called self-organizing breakdown, is found at the top of Integrator pathways.

The Energetic Integrators direct all physiological function. They are like route maps along which QED information is passed in the body, so that DNA, cells, and the like receive and send proper instructions for optimal functioning. When Integrators become distorted by toxins, microbes, radiation, and so on, the result is inefficient or incorrect cellular and organ communication, disruption of body regulation processes, and metabolic exhaustion.

NES views all control mechanisms in the body as information transfer or regulation processes. If you step back from the biochemical model, you will see the difference between the two models. In biochemistry, for example, white blood cells recognize and destroy cells and microbes foreign to or harmful to the body. There are complex chemical reactions and tagging processes that allow this action to unfold. However, from a bioenergetic perspective, we have to ask, What is the "information" behind the chemical mechanisms? If a white blood cell does not have the correct information, the tagging system can go awry and attack the wrong cells or systems, which can result in an autoimmune disorder. It is this kind of information exchange, at the QED level of electrons and photons, that determines physiological functioning, including the biochemical processes.

To use an analogy to explain the difference between the biochemical and the bioenergetic, think of a bus ticket. There is the substance of the ticket the paper that makes it up. Then there is the information that makes the ticket a ticket, it is printed with a value and a bus company name and other information that gives the piece of paper its identity as a bus ticket. The words on the ticket must be understandable to the people using it for the ticket to be useful. So while you have a physical ticket, its function is determined almost entirely by the consensual information it carries or conveys. There is the real (the paper the ticket is printed on) and the virtual (the information printed on the paper that determines its meaning). Society arises from a foundation of real versus virtual (matter and information), and so does the human body. In NES, the function of the Energetic Integrators is to ensure that the right information gets to the right place at the right time so that the body can use it.

Each Energetic Integrator represents the structure of a part of DNA. The magnetic vectors of the Integrators are situated around DNA and provide direction to QED information in the body. Within the Energetic Integrators, information is carried on a quantized wave. The structure and hence the nature of this quantized wave is determined by the DNA. However, the waves do not actually occupy the same space, as every spin of a real particle is accompanied by a double spin in quantum. So for every 360-degree spin of DNA, we get a 720-degree spin of the quantized structure. (The idea of structure conveying information is observed in nature. For one example, next time you are near any stalactites, have a closer look at them. You will see that every stalactite, no matter how young or old, big or small, has followed the same energy compartment-type of growth pattern and has a 720 -degree twist from top to bottom.) The body manages information by storing it within spatial 'memory'. Imagine this space a bit like a corkscrew, and the rule is that any part of the corkscrew is able to communicate with any other part of the corkscrew that shares the same angle (in other words, if they have the same spin).

What do the Energetic Integrators and structure of DNA have to do with disease? Most of us are familiar with the shape of the DNA double helix, and we understand that it is a continually rotating strand of nucleic acids. Every Energetic Integrator is able to rotate by 720 degrees. Different types of quantized information are carried at various degrees of spin within the Integrators, starting from nutritional / mineral information and ending at pathology. Our research shows that all pathology (i.e., illness) is found above 660 degrees of spin, and this is where the quantized wave begins to break up before starting afresh at the next Integrator (0 degree spin). In practice, this means that if the structure of the quantized information below 660 degrees of spin has been distorted (e.g., by genetic damage or through environmental factors), it leads to a break down in the wave function above 660 degrees. When the wave begins to break up, there are major distortions of information that if left untreated may lead to pathology or disease.

David Ramon Hawkins, M.D. (born June 3, 1927, died 19 September 2012) is an American psychiatrist, mystic, author and controversial spiritual teacher in Sedona, Arizona. He is best known for his book Power vs. Force, in which he writes that applied kinesiology can distinguish the truth or falsity of any statement. He directs the non-profit Institute for Advanced Spiritual Research Inc. and operates Veritas Publishing to publish his books and seminars.

“Make a gift of your life and lift all mankind by being kind, considerate, forgiving, and compassionate at all times, in all places, and under all conditions, with everyone as well as yourself. This is the greatest gift anyone can give.”

“Every thought, action, decision or feeling creates an eddy in the interlocking, inter-balancing, ever-moving energy fields of life, leaving a permanent record for all of time. This realization can be intimidating when it first dawns on us, but it becomes a springboard for rapid evolution.”

“The downside of spiritual education is the buildup of the vanity of 'I know' and the devaluation of people who are 'not spiritual'. Therefore it is important as a foundation to spiritual training and education to learn how consciousness manifests as the ego and its mechanisms.”

“It is only the minority of people who seek self-improvement or personal growth. This is because whatever one's self-criticisms, one secretly really believes that one's way of being is okay and probably the only correct one. They are alright as they are, and all problems are caused by other people's selfishness, unfairness, and by the external world.”

Saturday, 5 August 2017: Nanna Beth: David Hawkins is living in the mind worlds, so I am told, and would be of no benefit to you John. His legacy is again one of those things that sits well with you, that you enjoy and can relate to and use as you do. And really it is now for humanity to use what is available to it having come from the mind worlds, because there won't be anything further coming through from them. Now it will be up to the natural inspiration of the individual on Earth, and those who are working with us, those people who want to do their Healing. The ways of the Rebellion and Default are to die, to fade away, however this will happen gradually as people of it still try to advance themselves, their lives and humanity in their wrongness, but the next real new inspiration will come from those who embrace the New Way.

Everything is interconnected.

MUSINGS by JOHN:

Kevin died on 10 August 2012 without any thought for spirituality and no passion for any religion, other than showing up. On 7 August 2017, he arrived into the 1st Celestial Heaven. Three days short of 5 years!!! He had met his soulmate, Kathaleen, and she arrived a few weeks before him into the first Celestial Heaven, as you may have read.

The writings that followed from Kevin are outstanding. Kevin is now a world teacher!!! He and Kathaleen both are. Neither would comprehend this, but they are. Kathaleen and Kevin's writings answers and leads anyone to the destination we are to find, in our own time.

I would like to contrast this achievement with someone I greatly respect.

David Ramon Hawkins, M.D. (born June 3, 1927, died 19 September 2012) was an American psychiatrist, mystic, author and controversial spiritual teacher in Sedona, Arizona. He is best known for his book Power vs. Force, I have read everything I can about his works – 10 books, plus videos, etc. Miracles happened around him spontaneously. The Catholic Church would make him a saint within seconds.

Hmm – Dr David Hawkins has stayed trapped in his mind and may remain in the mind spirit Mansion World for centuries, unless he embraces his feelings. He will remain stagnant and limited in his mind condition. Whereas Kevin is now a far greater and truer teacher than this great mind of Dr Hawkins. What a switch in roles! Kevin has progressed exponentially past Dr Hawkins in soul development. Go you good things, Kev and Kath.

Cheers John

Same day: Dr David Hawkins: Hello John. I have been asked to speak to you through James in this way, you being one of my ardent fans and followers of the principles I developed through my life on Earth.

Your assessment of me is correct, and I did spend time in the mind worlds trying to assimilate all that I did on Earth with all that was happening to me in my new spirit life.

Upon my arrival over here in the first Mansion World I was greeted as something of a spiritual celebrity with a host of mind spirits (as James calls them) greeting me, they being the ones who 'empowered' me to do the so-called miracles I did on Earth.

I want to tell you, it's quite a humbling experience to realise, like many of us who did such marvellous things on Earth, that it wasn't actually our own doing, we were not the sole instigator of such 'happenings', that it was other spirits working through us. And that although I attributed it to God, still I secretly thought it was all my own incredible doing, so to have to accept that I was just a conduit – that I really was, and having little more than an innate ability to be that conduit, I felt a bit flat.

And to bolster my flagging ego, I would tune into those people on Earth who were still thinking well of me, yourself John being one such person. And here again, by doing this, I gave myself a rude shock having to face the fact and realise that few people truly understood what I was teaching, taking my work and corrupting it for their own gain. And believe it or not, I never thought such a thing would happen. So, who of my 'earthly followers' was staying true to what I taught – who actually got it?

And I kept coming back to you as one of these people John. Admittedly, had I helped you personally, you'd have had an even greater understanding and appreciation of my work, however you accept it as is and haven't corrupted it, and have guided other people to be interested in it. So I have followed you over the years in this, which meant I also took notice of what you were doing in your other spiritual interests, some of which were vastly different to anything I'd ever heard about, or found out about over here in my limited little mind world.

And I write such things in the past tense because I am very happy to say, all of which I am so grateful to you for John, that I have now progressed into the lowest sector of the Divine Love on the first Mansion World. I am learning all about it, and about the Healing, all under the incredibly patient and loving assistance of higher Celestial spirits, like those who wanted me to speak with you today.

So you can chalk me up as one of your admirers, and a mind spirit who has converted to the 'Ways of the Divine Love'. I still have a lot more to understand, this is true, and as it's so different to my earthly and mind spirit way of thinking, will take time to integrate into my way of thinking – which means, to change my way of thinking into a completely new way.

That is all I wanted to say. And although you might think that my coming is rather inconvenient with you having just written about me again, however here I am and this is what I want to say.

All the best to you John. You have no idea how grateful I am to you, and I have a strong pleasant feeling that that gratitude is only going to increase.

Yours respectfully,
Dr. David Hawkins

(James: As I was reading your comparison of the Doctor with K and K, I started to feel the energy building... oh here we go again... he's wanting to speak to me!)

Friday, 29 September 2017: Dear James and John (Noted from Samantha in England)

To be 'used' so fully by Mind Spirits, to create all he (Dr David) did under their influence, all so cunning, that must have felt quite devastating to him and I am feeling a lot of sadness, emptiness and let down with in myself as I understand how it feels to learn that my whole life has not been my own but that of my parents, their will, control and untruth and I have felt feelings of it all being such a waste of my experience being like that, a waste of the personality God created me to be. I am very sad as Dr David Hawkins realised how 'used' he has been, being a conduit for the Mind Spirits, I feel like that too, used by my parents to be as they wanted me to be instead of nurturing me to be myself and help develop the personality God gifted me.

I (Sam) bought 'Letting Go – the pathway of Surrender' by Dr Hawkins and I was very up with all of his feeling work but then felt the change in me with the mind dominant aspect of Dr Hawkins work, it was that I wasn't drawn to and felt myself draw back from it but now he can go on from what he already knows, go further into the feeling aspect of what he discovered and I am sure he will get so much support in that from the Divine Love spirits that are guided to help him. Isn't that just so wonderful John, to have that help, like you have in Kevin and Kathaleen.

CONCLUSION:

David Hawkins' own story explains that the 'Letting Go' process is inadequate. The 'Letting Go' publication and process is his own research. Pure and simple; Dr David was knocking on the door, but that process was unable to open the door.

Again, his own story now endorses the Feeling Healing process!

This leaves no doubt as to the veracity of what Marion and James and Samantha are doing. It is THE ONLY WAY! The only way being the Feeling Healing process coupled with Divine Love.

This clears away confusion for many people who may explore everything. Other emotional processing and releasing modalities simply do not delve far enough into one's injuries and errors of belief. Yes, they provide some temporary relief, but none of them go beyond the mind and into the soul to the core and foundation of our injuries, all of which stem from our childhood upbringing.

Dr David Hawkins has now clearly put aside his own teachings and confirmed that his and all other modalities are inadequate.

Now, we all can focus upon the only way home!

FEELING HEALING versus other EMOTIONAL PROCESSING METHODS:

Thursday, 13 July 2017

Hi James and Nanna Beth (questions from John)

The question to address is:

What is different with the outlines of the Feeling Healing process as against the numerous other emotional processing methods?

Nanna Beth: The difference is the focus on the truth: uncovering the truth of yourself through your feelings – uncovering the truth of your feelings. It's a rebellion against the Truth, so if one doesn't want the truth, nothing will happen, one will only move deeper into one's rebellion against it.

And because the focus is on the Truth, so one can use it all the way to uncover the Whole Truth of Oneself. And there is nothing else teaching that.

All the other systems that involve looking to feelings to some degree fail to understand the deeper significance of wanting the Truth. Many people uncover some truth of themselves through their feelings, but mostly they end the process because they don't want to follow it right the way through, which means they only want to heal some momentary pain, and once that is done, are usually happy to continue on in their untrue state.

And because one is wanting to uncover the whole truth of oneself, then it becomes a full spiritual experience, and one that can be done by oneself, so without needing help from another, although at times help is sought and used. So the Feeling Healing embraces Healing the whole seven Mansion Worlds worth of self- and feeling-denial, which is the complete Rebellion and Default. Other systems might only work at some aspect of it, limiting the ascent of truth through all the Mansion Worlds.

And basically no one understands the absolute depth of the problem within themselves, which is only borne out by people and spirits doing their whole Healing. Much of the current psychological understanding falls well short of understanding the depths that are involved because they don't include the overall problems brought about by the Rebellion and Default. You have to understand you are rebelling against yourself: the truth of yourself, and so against your own soul; which is then the truth of God, so the Mother and Father; and that also includes the truth of Mary and Jesus. So at some point you have to rectify all those relationships, which you can't do unless you understand the bigger spiritual picture. And so that's what James has revealed, taking all Marion has said, all the books offer, adding his own stuff, and putting it all together as a way of life, a spirituality that can be lived, and one that initially focuses on Healing oneself of all one's wrongness.

Why have all other methods of releasing and delving into emotions not been successful?

Nanna Beth: Because they don't understand the scope of the problem, as I said above. They are not approaching it from the point of view of understanding the nature of one's Repressed Childhood state, the extent of that; and then how one needs to allow oneself to feel all the bad feelings, not reject them; and then bring them out, which is the releasing of them; all whilst wanting to know the truth of them – the truth of what you are feeling. And that truth is what needs to come up within you so you can heal your will and become a truly functioning person, fully self-expressive, self-loving, and growing continually in truth.

All the other systems work within the control of the mind, so once the therapy ends, the mind regains control albeit in a different way. Only the Feeling Healing and Soul Healing with the Divine Love, seeks to entirely break the control of the mind over one's feelings.

Why haven't other methods been going deep enough?

Because people are basically afraid to push into such early childhood trauma without understanding where they are going or what it's all about. The leap of faith is too great, as it would mean they would have to rise above and conquer the Rebellion and Default within themselves, and that's simply too much to ask. The negative truth-denying systems within everyone are too deeply entrenched.

However the spiritual structure outlined by James provides a structure that allows you to deal with the Rebellion and Default, allowing you to maintain your faith, and evolve it, as you progress in your growth of truth – it gives one a picture to work with. Very few people, and possibly only Marion in fact, are able to press on into such dark depths without any structure and with only a faith that it's what she and God want to do.

I (Beth) couldn't have done it Marion's way John, I wouldn't have allowed myself to feel such pain, I needed to understand the bigger-picture reasons as to why I was in such pain, and be given the understanding that if I kept at it, one day it would end. Marion doesn't know it will end, she just keeps going one bad feeling at a time, which requires a tremendous amount of faith and over so many years and through so many inner obstacles; and still she doesn't know if it will end, but as she says, there is nothing else she can do other than keep going because she tried everything else. And she doesn't want to let her mind come in, only wanting to stay true to her feelings, so she doesn't want to know about the bigger picture even though she has worked it out along the way for herself and for James to understand which he's worked into his books.

So the spiritual aspect or approach James has provided, even if it's not actually talked about; the simplicity of honouring your feelings, and in particular your bad ones, then by accepting them you allow them to have their say, so you express them, all whilst longing for the truth, includes all one needs to know. And so by doing that, one will be able to fully Heal themselves working it out along the way for themselves; and even if they don't understand it, will be living the highest truest spiritual life one can live in one's wrongness, which in time will lead to one's Healing of one's rebellion and default.

On the surface of it, what James has related seems overly simple, but doing it yourself, and see what happens and what results; and that will take one deep into oneself uncovering the whole truth of oneself.

Many will consider that what they have been doing is adequate – why are they wrong in their understandings?

Nanna Beth: Because they don't understand what it's really all about. They don't understand the mind is in control of their true feelings, and that needs to be stopped. They don't understand the significance of their rebellion against the Truth, and how that happened by default. They don't understand that it's about uncovering the whole truth of yourself through your feelings, all your feelings, but focusing to begin with on your bad ones because they are what most people don't want to see. Everyone else sees it that they are doing this feeling type healing to make themselves better, to rid themselves of their pain and trauma, so instead of taking a pill to take the pain away, they are using some sort of emotional clearing system. But that is all still to take the pain away, to fix themselves, to heal themselves, to effectively take a pill so it all goes away, just like what the 'Divine Love people' hope the Divine Love will do for them, but it's not to uncover the whole truth of themselves. We have to see the truth of our pain, why we're in it, how it all came about, so what really went on in all our early relationships. It's not about doing anything that just takes all our suffering away. We have suffered for valid reasons, which all have to come to light. And so only emotional and feeling accepting systems to help one see such truth of one's pain and suffering are of any worth. And unless you uncover the whole truth of yourself, you'll never set yourself free of your rebellion and default, of all your soul pain. And the truth means to see the whole truth of why you feel unloved, how unloving your early relationships were, why you don't love yourself, why you are unloving, why you are evil and wrong, which basically no one wants to face.

So to summarise: We all have to see the truth of our unlovingness. We can't avoid it – deny it. We have to face it and feel all it makes us feel. And all those bad feelings lead us into the truth of it. So we have to understand – bring to light through our feelings – all the truth of our unloved, negative, evil, wrong state. And then once we've done that, we can be free of it. So until you uncover and feel the whole truth of it, it will never leave you, you'll remain in rebellion against yourself, you'll continue to be unloving.

I have considered with James, that Marion and he actually represent the two extremes of what is involved in soul-healing. I have found one such writing by James, back in 2006, that points to this. My feeling is that their two extreme ends of the experience matrix makes them perfect for bringing together the understandings that will benefit all people, no matter what their circumstances maybe.

Nanna Beth: If we accept that Marion and James are the Avonal Pair here to reveal the essential truths to humanity about how people can Heal themselves of their rebellion against the truth of themselves, then what you deduce is correct, for they have between them had to take on every negative aspect of the Rebellion and Default and so Heal it, which is healing all the circuits on a technical level, thereby opening the way for humanity to follow.

So if you consider this John, it is pretty amazing that two people can take on all the denial humanity is in, approaching it from opposite ends, which equates to the effects of the Default of Eve and Adam (following on from the Rebellion), and that such wrongness can be concentrated into two family units, and mostly in two parent pairs (being Marion's parents and James' parents). And so what is the likelihood of that? And then for them to live in the same city being the first children of such 'bloodlines of denial', and meet each other, and at a time needed to give themselves all the time to systematically work their way laboriously up through all the negative mind and will circuits. So to be subjected to so much woe, and to be able to keep going with no help from anyone other than each other, and a little backup from the spirits and the Mother and Father on James' side, yet with that involvement opening up even more messed up and corrupted mind circuits he's had to work his way through.

So if it is true they are the Avonal Pair, it shows us all just how incredible the soul of the Avonals are, to be able to go into such corruption, taking it all on, and then working it all through and Healing themselves of it, all basically without any real help from anyone, so just on faith and pure longing for the truth.

And should they reach the end of their Healing before they die, and should the truth then be fully declared that they are the Avonal Pair, even going against all what The Urantia Book (TUB) says, they having to uncover the truth in all things whilst rejecting the untruth such as in TUB and Padgett Messages (PM), with nothing having been straightforward and of any real help, then it will be cause for major celebration.

And it's what we are preparing for, what you are too John, to see if Marion and James are indeed the Pair, and then to give them all the support they will need to do whatever it is they are to do in the public sense. This is all their private work so far, of which you and I have become substantial parts of, the doing of their Healing preparing themselves for when they are Healed.

And if it turns out they are not an Avonal Pair, they are only just a pair of ordinary mortals who've somehow managed to keep going, dealing with all their pain, longing for and bringing to light all the truth of it, then they will be the most extraordinary mortal pair because they will have been the one's who broke the back of the Rebellion and Default. So either way you look at it, it will be quite an achievement.

And so we are all waiting to see if the theory is realised by such Avonal-truth awakening in their soul at some point, for then we will all know it will be true, just as they too will know. For now Marion doesn't contend with any of it, and James only on a mental level because of what the Melchizedeks told him years ago, but it all has to come to them through their feelings like all truth, which will only happen once they've fully Healed themselves or toward the end of their Healing. Because in the meantime, whilst they are still in their wrongness and denial of truth, part of that denial is denying the truth that they are Avonals. And again the whole Avonal business has been yet more problems and negative circuits James has had to personally work through, whereas Marion has solely focused on only dealing with her feelings, not having to contend with all the other mind stuff.

James, when you feel up to it, may I have your observations please? And Nanna Beth, your angelic eye on this subject would be most helpful, if you please?

These two subjects are possibly leading to the crux of what we are sharing through the Pascas Papers. I now see that these 'colourful' handouts are essential in introducing and supporting the major publications of James Moncrief and James Padgett.

Nanna Beth: The handouts will help introduce people to such writings. But what I want you to understand John, is really it's James – because of his writings (and Marion, because she is leading them both in it all) that is what's most important. The Padgett Messages (PM) are really to be included in James' work, which he does, by taking the crucial parts and integrating them into his work – with the most important truth being that about longing for the Divine Love. So really the PM are secondary.

As you understand, the Padgett Messages can't heal you. The Divine Love is about immortality of the soul and becoming divine, it's not about ending your rebellion against the Truth. And ending the rebellion needs to come first: the Truth then the Love, then the Divine Love can be introduced, even though of course the Divine Love can be introduced at any time.

So really one need only work with James' (and Marion's) work, which includes longing for the Divine Love. People are to look to them first, and then later to Mary and Jesus. To put Mary and Jesus ahead of Marion and James can cause you problems because you will overlook what Marion and James are revealing. But as Mary and Jesus are known and with such importance placed on Jesus, and now with the PM and the Divine Love, so it's all the more confusing. Even added to by James having written focusing on and making Mary and Jesus more important than himself and Marion.

But as I said, it's Marion and James first, then Mary and Jesus and the Divine Love. And Marion and James are more than capable of also introducing the Divine Love and the truth of Mary and Jesus, which they would have done had Mary and Jesus not come to Earth. So really Mary and Jesus are not needed, and as I said, can get in the way, causing people to focus too heavily on them whilst missing the more essential truths of having to do your Healing by looking for the truth of your feelings (the 'Divine Love people' being examples of this). However with Mary, and Jesus in the PM, being so dominant, it is all just more of the confusion and part of the rebellion. And at the same time I don't want to downplay Mary and Jesus and lead people to believe they are not as important as Marion and James, for they are most important, and much more important being the Creator Pair of Nebadon, and Marion and James would rather not exist than have people think they were more important than Mary and Jesus; but as you understand, I'm just trying to put the revelation of truth into context, because it's all being revealed round the wrong way.

People and spirits were given the opportunity to deny Mary and Jesus whilst they were on Earth, taking the Rebellion deeper; and then to further deny them right the way through their age; and now further still by including the PM. And now people will be given the added opportunity of denying Marion and James, which all ends up being one huge mess. And one in which only Marion and James can unravel. For I am only saying to you now what James has already written and what Marion and he have talked about. I wouldn't dream of taking anything away from them, and it's not my place to do so.

Firstly, consider discovering the truth of your emotional pain and injuries.
 Secondly, consider longing for our Heavenly Parents' Love as you progress with your healing.
 Primary and most important readings are the writings of James Moncrief.
 Then consider the Padgett Messages, and then The Urantia Book.

Love from us all over here – your Nanna Beth – 3rd Celestial Heaven.

FEELING HEALING + SOUL HEALING

To heal one's self is to simply look to see what feelings we are refusing to let ourself feel, and accept them instead of denying them. And to fully accept them, one needs to express them, speak about them, let them have their say, rather than pushing them aside, refusing to let them make you feel bad.

Doing this all with the intention of seeking the truth of why you are feeling them, of speaking about and expressing all such feelings; all feelings you have, but ALL WITH the INTENTION of UNCOVERING the TRUTH THEY WANT YOU TO SEE ABOUT YOURSELF. And it's the wanting to see the truth of them that is very important, because if you just look to accept them and speak and express them, but not seek their truth, then that's all you'll be doing, speaking and expressing them, but not healing their causes, so not fixing the things within you that are making you feel bad. And it's the truth part of it, seeking the truth of your feelings, and so, seeking the truth through your feelings, that's vitally important. It's the truth of yourself, life, nature and God, that is the spiritual aspect to it all.

You CAN'T find the truth of yourself, or anything else, through and with only your mind. You HAVE to engage and look to your feelings. And so if you choose to allow your feelings to 'Show You the Way', then the truth will come as you express them. So to do our Soul-Healing consists of these steps, all of which are ongoing until it's done:

- Admit you are feeling bad.
- Accept your bad feelings, identify what they are.
- Honour fully your bad feelings by expressing them, speaking about them to someone who is willing to hear you talk about them, or tell them out loud to our Heavenly Parents. Long for the truth of them. Long for the truth of why you feel bad – what deep within you is causing your bad feelings?
- And remember, bad feelings are Good! Not bad. They are not to be despised. And as hard as it is to accept them, they are still you, and a very real part of you. And if you persist in denying them and not allowing yourself to fully live them, then you are only going to keep yourself in your errors making things harder for yourself.
- All sickness and suffering, all bad things that happen to you, all your problems, all your addictions – your whole feeling-denying and untrue life, is all caused by your denial of bad feelings.
- Every problem in the world is brought about because everyone has been brought up to deny feelings, and in particular, most of their bad ones.

If one is intent on spiritually evolving and growing in truth, then it's vital, and this is the key, that one looks to use one's feelings as the means to gain and have access to the truth of oneself. You CAN'T find the truth of yourself or anything else through and with only your mind. You HAVE to engage and look to your feelings. And so if you choose to allow your feelings to 'Show You the Way', then the truth will come as you express them.

Doing your Soul-Healing with the Divine Love, is really doing your 'Feeling-Healing'. We are designed — created — to be self-revealing of truth, and so we are all to uncover the truth within ourselves and for ourselves, and all being done by living true to our feelings. If you accept, express and seek the truth of your feelings, then truth will come to you, and you'll grow spiritually. It's as easy as that. Also it is as easy as it is to long for, ask for and receive Divine Love.

THE HEALING OF YOUR BAD FEELINGS THROUGH THEIR ACCEPTANCE AND FINDING THE TRUTH OF THEM, IS THE ACCEPTANCE OF YOUR NEGATIVE, REBELLIOUS, EVIL, IMPERFECT MIND AND WILL CONDITION.

To do our feeling-healing we need to become:

Aware of – Acknowledge – and Admit, our bad feelings.

So we can:

Accept – them and allow ourselves to Be them.

And then if we feel to, take:

Action – Express, speak and emote them.

Talk about them.

All being done whilst longing to, really wanting to, see the TRUTH of our feelings.

So it sounds simple.

So I repeat:

We accept our bad feelings by expressing – speaking about them to someone willing to listen to us and take us seriously. And as we speak we long for the truth of them – why we are feeling them – to be made known to us. And when we uncover and see the truth we are FREE! – healed of the causes that have made us feel bad.

Accept, Express – see the Truth, and you're Free!

ACCEPTANCE OF ALL YOU FEEL, THINK AND ARE, IS THE KEY TO DOING
YOUR HEALING; THAT, AND WANTING TO SEE THE TRUTH OF ALL YOU FEEL, THINK AND ARE.

Release one's pain through expressing one's feelings.

Longing for the Truth when also longing for Divine Love.

Feelings First Spirituality, The New Way

Feelings First Spirituality, The New Way is a contemporary ‘religion’ based on living true to yourself through your feelings. Understanding that all you need in life is contained within your soul and is shown to you through your feelings. And by loving your feelings, by attending to them properly (talking or writing them out of you) and not denying them, you can use them to uncover the truth of yourself – the truth of your soul.

Feelings First Spirituality is not a formalised religion that tells you how to be, that is too controlling and is actually bad for you, limiting your spiritual growth. You can be wholly self-revealing of the truths you need to be, being the person God created you to be, all by living true to your feelings.

Feelings First Spirituality has no formal structure because we understand we don't need one, our soul contains within it all the truth of our spiritual ascent. If we look to our feelings for the truth they want us to see about ourselves, nature and God, then what more do we need! Our true spiritual path is the path our feelings will lead us down, that is, provided we allow them to. This is the most spiritual we can be.

Living the New Way of Feelings First Spirituality

You come to the understanding from your life experiences that how you are is not right, it doesn't make you feel good – that you are wrong in some way. And you want to change yourself, you want to become right, true and perfect – you want to be like God is.

And to do this you need to do your Healing

Your Feeling-Healing is looking to your feelings for the truth of yourself, the truth being hidden in many of the feelings you are not wanting to face in life. So you have to end your feeling denial, accepting all your bad feelings (and good ones), express them (yet not necessarily acting upon them), whilst longing to uncover the truth they are to show you.

Or, you can do your Soul-Healing, which is your Feeling-Healing together with including longing directly to God for God's Divine Love. When you receive the Divine Love into your soul, it will cause your soul to become divine, and it will deepen your personal relationship with God. Long with all your heart to God for God's Divine Love.

Feelings First Spirituality The New Way

By living true to ourselves, true to our feelings, we are living true to God. It's that simple.

FEEL for TRUTH

The beauty of it all, is the truth comes to you through your own feelings. You don't need to be told it by anyone. You can work it all out for yourself. We are self-revealing of truth, it's how God created us to be, and by being it we'll feel the happiest we can feel. Truth is our great comforter, so when you feel it come up within you, ah it feels so good and you feel just right – perfect!

We know only how to deny feelings, now we can get to know how to accept them. And always with the truth being the most important part.

FEELING TRUTH

If you don't want to uncover the truth of your feelings, then you can keep on expressing them forever but you will never fully heal yourself. Seeing the truth results in the Healing. And to see the truth you need to express all the pain out of you. The two things go hand in hand.

You can accept and express your bad feelings, letting off steam all day long, yet nothing will heal and nothing much will come of it. So this is where wanting your feelings to show you the truth of why you're feeling as you are is so important.

Don't go fishing with your mind, that will shut the truth out from rising up for you. KEEP YOUR MIND OUT OF IT. It's a feeling thing, doing your Feeling-Healing. (This is where we erred previously, and this how other modalities are in error.)

You long when you can, then stop longing and keep expressing. And at some point, and it might not even happen immediately, it might happen after days or weeks of expressing the same bad feelings, truth will come to you. And it does, it just comes up suddenly into your consciousness. You just know. You see the picture and you feel it's true. And you know it's true. And THEN your mind can come in and start sorting it out and putting in context.

It's the Truth that we are seeking. It's the End Point. The Reason for doing your Healing. You are to see the whole Truth of yourself. And to begin with, that's the whole truth of your unloving self, of your wrongness, of your evilness, of why you are as you are in your negative unloving mind-controlling state. To be able to fully accept yourself as you are, warts and all. To not fight or resist or try and change yourself, just to accept all you feel and all the truth of all those bad feelings you feel about yourself. And when you do, so you will be healed. You CAN'T heal yourself unless you uncover the truth of your pain, suffering and so the truth of all your bad feelings.

Through our Feeling-Healing we long for the truth of what we're feeling whenever we can. So as often as you can. You want, and REALLY WANT WITH ALL YOUR BEING, ALL YOUR WILL, to know why you are feeling bad. You yearn, want, long and beg and beg and BEG God to show you the truth of yourself through your feelings. So when you are expressing your bad feelings you can stop and long for the truth to show you what's going on, why do you feel so bad, and you can do it any time you think of it or feel to do it.

Feelings First Spirituality

The New Way

Feelings First
FF
Feeling Free

The New Way, Feelings First Spirituality
 Learn to live with God through your Feelings

Accept, express and long for the truth of your feelings

Be free in your feelings
 Free your feelings from your mind's control
 Live true to your feelings; your feelings are your true self
 Live true to yourself through your feelings

Live true to yourself by living true to your feelings.
 Long for the truth of your feelings.

Accept / Express / Bring out ALL of your good, and most importantly,
 BAD feelings.
 Want to understand why you're feeling them.
 Use your surface feelings to take you deeper into your repressed and hidden feelings.

The Feeling Way is the True Way.
Your feelings are your spiritual guide.
Your feelings will take you to God.

Your feelings will show you the truth of your relationships, including your relationship with God; and if anything is wrong, untrue and unloving, then why it is.

Our feelings are sacrosanct and we should respect them accordingly. And we should NEVER block them out, ignore, override, banish, deny or reject them, because if we do, we're only doing that to ourselves, as Our Feelings Are Our Self.

Our feelings are the gateway to our soul. Our feelings are the closest we can get to our soul. Knowing the truth of our feelings is knowing the truth of our soul, and knowing the truth of God.

Feelings First Spirituality is the True path for humanity.

It embraces all people.

It completely unifies the world.

Everyone can relate to everyone else through their feelings.

And we can all live the truth that comes from our feelings, all sharing the same truths as we express and have the same feelings.

No one need be left out; no one is more special than anyone else – we are all united in Truth through our feelings.

So with and through our truth we live our lives, therefore without the need of any man-made mind-laws, rules and restrictions that limit self-expression as inspired by our feelings.

The New Way, Feelings First Spirituality is what is to replace all man-made, mind-contrived religions that so many people have enslaved themselves to. The New Way, Feelings First Spirituality will set us free of all that control, ending the Rebellion and Default within ourselves as we do our Feeling-Healing, and ending such control and spiritual stagnation in the world.

Bring on the End Times – get it over and done with! Let's all see that Jesus is not going to come again, that Prophecy has failed all the mind-controlled platforms. Allow such false systems of belief to die their long-awaited natural death, they've overstayed their welcome, it's now time they fade away. So let us show such antiquated, erroneous systems of belief the exit and bring on the fresh liberation of discovering the truth of how we are to live for ourselves, each of us personally in our lives, and all by looking to our own feelings for it. Self-revelation through our feelings is the way to go.

The Way of the Mind is ending, and is really the End Times – the End of our mind control, and it's about time! With the Way of our Feelings replacing it.

The End Times means the end and therefore a New Beginning. And that new beginning is a whole new Spiritual Age – an age based on self-revelation of truth through one's feelings, coupled with and supported by higher revelations from the Celestial spirits, angels and nature spirits.

The Feelings First Spirituality is the True Way to God because it helps you get to know God, helping you to reach out, connect and be personal with God, and do God's Will, all through your feelings. It is the only true way of getting to know the God of Feelings – our beloved Heavenly Mother and Father, the Great Soul of Divine Love.

Love comes through our feelings and not our mind, as we've all been wrongly led to believe.

Feelings First; then comes The Truth; then comes Love.

WE ALL ARE BEING GUIDED HOME:

We need the Spirits of Truth of the Avonal Pair to Heal ourselves; then once Healed, (and for support (overshadowing) as well through your Healing), we need the Creator Pair, Mary Magdalene and Jesus' Spirits of Truth to see us through the Celestial spheres, while at all times embracing our Heavenly Mother and Father.

Until Mary and Jesus died and liberated their Spirits of Truth, no one from any of the worlds could leave Nebadon, because no one knew the way to do so. Nebadon is our local universe containing some 3.8 million inhabited physical worlds and their associated spirit worlds.

When we embrace the truths Mary and Jesus are revealing, and start to do our Feeling Healing, or with Divine Love, Soul Healing, we are then freeing ourselves up from our parental and self control.

Thus our journey to Paradise, to the home of our Heavenly Parents, is of our choosing as to when we progress, however, there is only one way:

HUM: Humanity is to ascend. We are self contained. Our soul is always in truth and perfect at all times. By living true to ourself, true to our feelings, we are living true to God. It's that simple.

We are to recognise that being engaged and dominated by our mind is the wrong way for us to evolve and grow in truth. We are to discard the mind enslavement that has been imposed upon us by all of our parents. We are to express our feelings, both good and bad and free ourselves of the indoctrination that humanity has embraced worldwide.

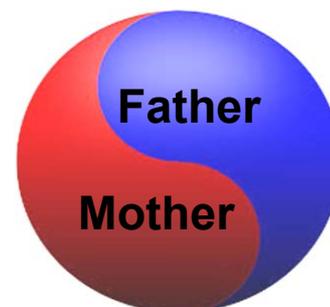

Live true to your feelings, and you ARE living true, not only to your own soul, but also true to God's soul. So doing your Healing by honouring all your feelings, IS living the will of God. And being fully Healed, IS living even more truly the Will of our Mother and Father.

AVO: We are to embrace the truths and guidance of the Avonal Pair through their Spirits of Truth. It is the Avonal Pair's guidance that will lead us through our Feeling Healing, and with Divine Love, we will be able to ascend through the 7 spirit Mansion Worlds and enter the Celestial Heavens where we also interact with other world's spirits.

J&M: We are also to embrace the truths and guidance of the Paradise Pair, Mary and Jesus, who will then lead us through the 3 Celestial Heavens that are aligned with Earth, and then further on through Nebadon where we will then depart beyond on towards Paradise.

M&F: Beyond the universal zone of Nebadon, we will be guided by our Heavenly Mother and Father onwards through the universes to Paradise where we will be welcomed by them, home for us all, as we are all Children of God.

HUM

WE ARE Children of God

WE ALL ARE BEING GUIDED HOME – NOW, HOW TO COMMENCE THE JOURNEY:

M&F

For 200,000 years, we have been misled into embracing our mind's distortion of wisdom and truth. All such traditional understandings only lead us in the wrong direction, from which we must turn back from. Our soul based feelings are always in truth. Our minds are to follow our soul based truths and feelings, not the other way round, as we have been brought up to embrace.

We are to connect with our deeper repressed feelings.
We are to long for the truth of what we are feeling.
We are to live true to our selves; by living true to our feelings.

Use your surface day-to-day feelings to connect with your deeper repressed feelings. Express your surface feelings and your deeper repressed feelings to uncover the truth of yourself.

J&M

We all have feelings which we communicate and share with each other. And we all have deeper buried and hidden repressed feelings. Feelings from our early childhood we felt, yet weren't allowed to express. These feelings are still within us, waiting to have their say. These feelings, because they are repressed, cause us all our problems.

And as we look to uncover, bring out and accept these deeper feelings, so we're taken into new ways of looking at ourselves, our feelings, and our life. We're setting ourselves free of the controlling patterns that govern our unloving behaviour.

In this way, we progressively begin to express the personality that our Heavenly Mother and Father gave us, not the one imposed upon us by our physical parents and carers. We are to be our true and real selves.

By living true to oneself, true to our feelings, we are living true to God. It's that simple.

HUM

As we, humanity, long for the truth of our feelings, we can also be assisted by the Spirits of Truth of the Avonal Pair who are our spiritual teachers for Earth over this coming 1,000 years, to assist us through the Great U-Turn, away from mind dominance to being soul based feeling lead. They will assist us through the seven levels of the spirit Mansion Worlds.

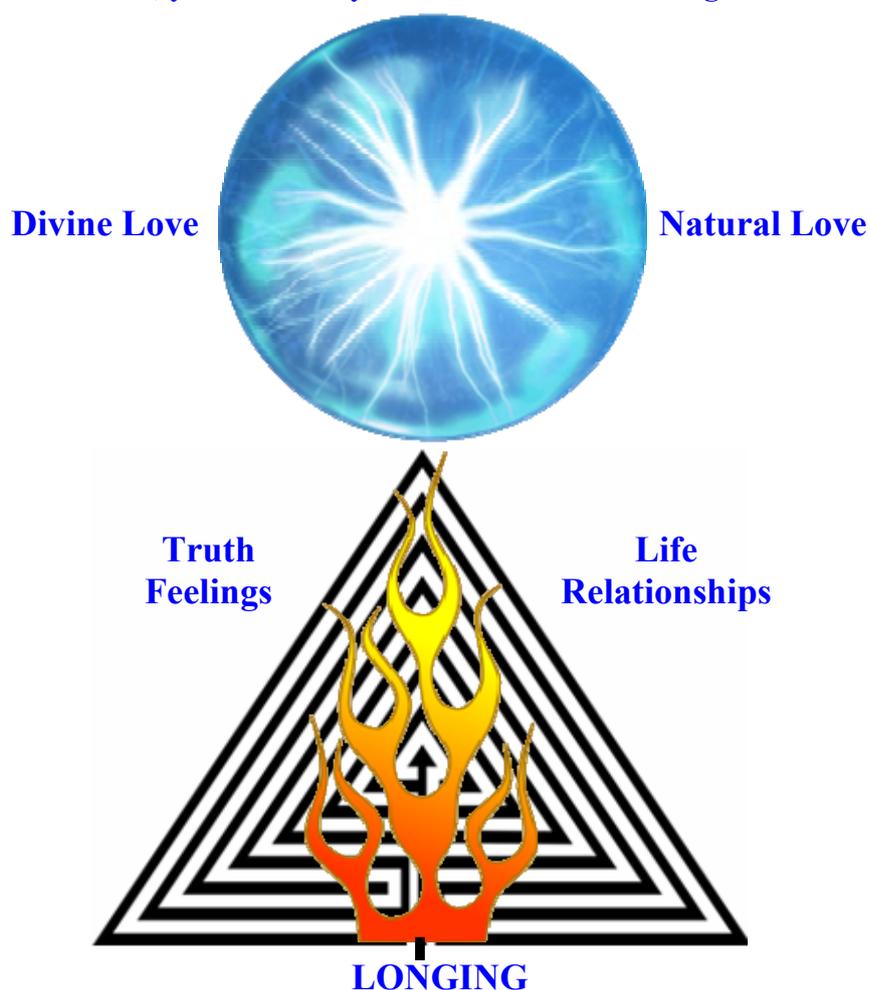

Then the Creator Pair, Jesus and Mary, will lead us through Nebadon and into the greater universe. Then our Heavenly Mother and Father lead us home to Paradise.

WE ARE Children of God

Collectively, should we embrace them all, as we are to, then our pathway home is a journey in the hands of the Spirits of Truth of the Avonal and Paradise Pairs overseen by our Heavenly Parents.

HOW TO GET TO PARADISE:

Long for the Divine Love
 Long for the Truth
 Long for the truth of your feelings
 Don't deny any feelings: accept, express and want to know the truth of them
 Know your feelings are the key; your feelings are the Way
 Want to end your falseness and being untrue
 Want to understand the truth of your early life
 Use your surface feelings to move deeper into yourself, bringing up your repressed feelings
 Want and long to know the whole truth of yourself
 Want to do it all with God, your Heavenly Mother and Father – long to Them for help.

The Key

Our longing drives our life. We long with feelings. We can wish for things using our mind, yet long for things with our heart. These things in the pyramid are what to long for. Longing for them, when the longing comes naturally. Longing because you feel you really want them. Long to be true with all your heart. Long to live true to your feelings. Long to understand the whole truth of yourself.

PARADISE TRINITY:

1. Our MOTHER and FATHER (God) (MF) – Divine Love
SOUL (God) – One SOUL that is expressing its two PERSONALITIES, our Heavenly Mother and Heavenly Father (Soulmates)
2. ETERNAL SON (ES) – Divine Truth
3. INFINITE DAUGHTER (ID) – Divine Mind

Then: The Second and Third Persons of the Paradise Trinity (ES and ID) are stepped down to the local universe trinity (Mary and Jesus, Divine Minister (DM), and her Holy Spirit.

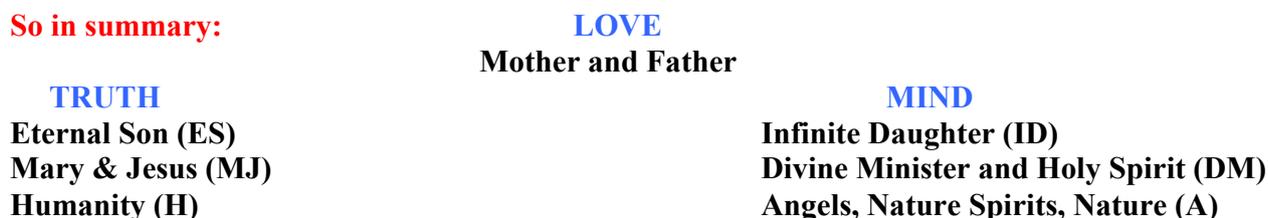

The LOCAL UNIVERSE TRINITY:

1. MARY M and JESUS (MF) – Love – the Living Truth
2. DIVINE MINISTER (ID) – Mind (and her Holy Spirit)
3. HUMANITY – Natural love, sons and Daughters – Truth, and our Angels – Mind

PLANETS that engage in REBELLION:

1. AVONAL SOULMATE PAIR – the Feeling Healing process – incarnate
2. DAYNAL – TEACHER PAIRS – they do not incarnate

Avonals
as soulmate pairs

Trinity Teachers
as soulmate pairs

Melchizedeks – who have taken over from the Caligastians and Daligastians being also all as soulmate pairs.

Mortal Souls – human beings who individualise on Earth, then progress through the spirit Mansion Worlds, then into the Celestial Heavens, and beyond.

Mortal Souls – also being ascending spirits, upon completing their Soul Healing, join with their soulmate, then join their soul group of 24 mortal spirits, being 12 soul pairs. It is only as a soulgroup that anyone can progress beyond Nebadon.

The Paradise Pairs are all ONLY concerned with the SPIRITUAL wellbeing and upliftment of the planets and local universe. Currently to do with Earth:

Mary and Jesus – spiritual wellbeing and upliftment of the whole of Nebadon region.

Avonal Pair – Daynal pairs (Trinity Teacher Daughters and Sons) – Spiritual wellbeing and upliftment of individual planets and their associated Mansion Worlds.

The Local universal Sons and Daughters are all about the running of the worlds under their jurisdiction, and ensuring the higher spiritual elements can be employed, or sent astray, as in our cases through the Rebellion and Default.

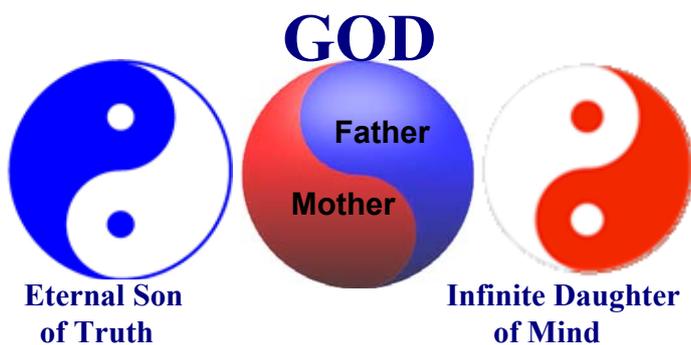

Lanonandeks – Melchizedeks (and others, such as Life Carriers and Eve and Adam).

As the Lanonandeks all rebelled – the Lucifers, Satans, Caligastias and Daligastias soulmate pairs – so the Melchizedeks have taken over their roles, as well as doing their own.

So the Melchizedeks are the governors, overseers, the administrators and advisors and so on for Earth; they are the ‘controllers’, and they will instigate all that needs to be done to do with the ending of the Rebellion and Default. And they will enlist the willing help of ascending mortal pairs, so the mortal Celestials spirits (soulmates when available, and others waiting to unite with their partner), and at times mortal spirits in the Divine Love Healing Mansion Worlds. And the angels help all of us.

Currently the whole of Creation exists for the ascension of mortal souls from their earth planets to Paradise. It’s all one vast Grand Ascension Scheme. With all the higher and lower spiritual Daughters and Sons, together with all the many different angels and other universal spirit personalities, and even including nature and our very own pets, assisting women and men with their Ascension Journey. It being: and Ascension of Truth. Everything we do is done to help us grow in truth. (Only everything we do in our negative state is to deny ourselves our truth from our feelings, which is why we have to do our Healing.) All women and men are ascending (or growing) in truth through their experiences. And as we grow in truth by looking to our feelings to show us that truth, so we’re ascending, moving inwards and upwards through all the worlds and spheres of the Grand Universe to one day arrive on Paradise and meet our Heavenly Parents. God is providing us, Their children, with this spiritual journey called our Ascension of Truth. And by living true to our feelings, so we are progressing on our true Spiritual Path – our Ascension Path.

CREATION of SOUL and SPIRIT:

God is The Paradise Trinity — the eternal Deity union of the Personalities: the Universal Mother and Father; the Eternal Son of Truth; and the Infinite Daughter Spirit of Mind.

The soul of each human personality (sons and daughters of truth) is existential, driving our personality expression in the experiential. The soul of each human finds truth by embracing one’s feelings and longing for the truth of them. We are to attain the Eternal Son of Truth. We are a creation of Truth.

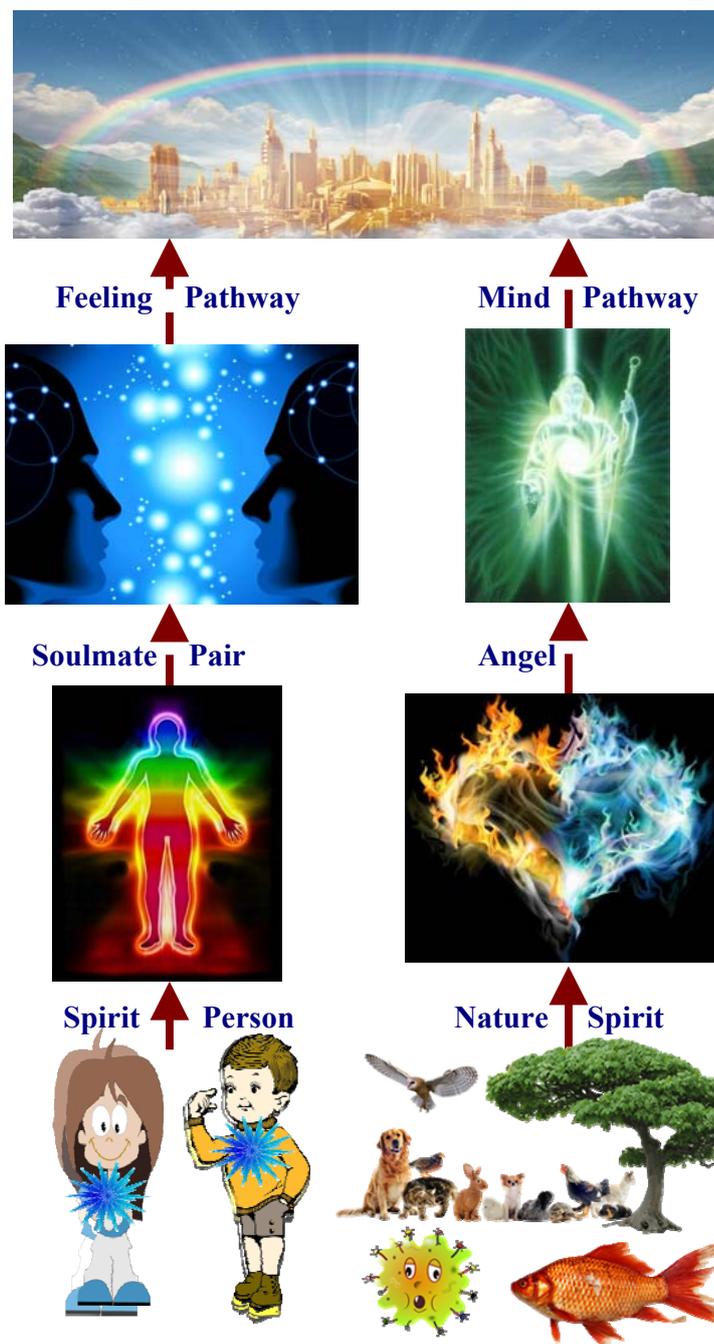

The soul of angels is experiential, evolving through their experience by continually progressing in mind development. Angels are to attain the Infinite Daughter (Spirit) of Mind. Angels are a creation of Mind. Our soul is duplex (we have a soulmate) and is created by our Heavenly Parents. Through our Feeling Healing we perfect ourselves enabling the union with our soulmate, as we progress in truth up through the Mansion Worlds, celestial heavens and all the way to Paradise.

The soul of angels is also duplex, yet of the mind, and they progress in mind evolution to Paradise. Animals, plants and nature spirits are also creations of Mind.

Neither we nor animals reincarnate. We never die; upon death, we move into the spirit Mansion Worlds on our journey to Paradise. When animals and plants die, be they the tiny microbe to the mighty elephants of the land and the whales of the ocean, their spirit energy returns to the Spirit Collective Energy. And from this energy are drawn other animals and the nature spirits, who then in turn move onto becoming angels through increasing mind experience.

A nature spirit is an angel in waiting.

to MYSELF

Strive to love others as I am to love myself

To liberate one's real self, one's will, driven by one's soul, moves one to embrace Feeling Healing so as to clear emotional injuries and errors. With the Divine Love, then one is also Soul Healing. We are to feel our feelings, identify what they are, accept and fully acknowledge that we're feeling them, express them fully, all whilst longing for the truth they are to show us.

Divine Love
is the key!
